

Bellefonte, Pa., June 27, 1924.

P GRAY MEEK. - - - Editor

To Correspondents .- No communications published unless accompanied by the real mame of the writer.

Terms of Subscription .- Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates:

Paid strictly in advance - $1.50
Paid before expiration of year - 1.75
Paid after expiration of year - 2.00 Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa., as second class matter.

In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. It all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation.

A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

IN THE FLOWERY KINGDOM. Mrs. North's Vivid Description of Overland Journey in China.

Chengtu, Sze., China. December 13th, 1923.

Dear Home Folks:

Here we are in Chengtu at last, and on a boat.

ber 4th, the day we left there. I am ten a letter off between then and now, sights or not, but just now they upset and club, white peonies predominatbut I just haven't been able to do it. me dreadfully. You can't imagine how different living in China is from living in the good old U. S. A. Some time I hope to get agine how good it was to get into a my patience. Now since we are try- ing in what is known as the Ostering to get settled and attend language | Eaton house, which is located near school, too, it is even worse. But I the Methodist hospital in the city. guess I am just about tired out from The Blanchards are living out on the have finally gotten to a place that is more desirable location in many regoing to be home for at least a year, spects. But we like it here and have won't think I am complaining and un- we did was to have lunch, and then as happy. I am really very happy and soon as we could we had a good hot well, but just dead tired and a little bath. My, how good that felt. It bit out of patience with the way you made me feel like a new woman. I ding of Philip Slaysman Barnhart, have to do things in China.

of what happened. It is not quite a is the Methodist doctor here in Cheng- parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mc- paired the same night.

flies in China. December 4th. It was quite a new ex- ter, eating with her and sharing the played by a trio of well known musi-After the first day, when I realized of the rules of the business. So I and managed to get ahead of most of them. Bill says he never saw me walk so fast and thinks it's about the biggest piece of work I ever did. We ally much better than riding. The men only made about 120 to 140 Chinese li a day, and that is just between thirty and forty of our miles; in fact, they seldom did that much in a day. Travel in China certainly is slow and tedious. I hope some day they will have a railroad through to Chengtu nese inns. I can't describe them to you so that you'll ever be able to picture them. It makes me sick to think of them now, but at the time it didn't say that the hardship of road travel is that you have to get up so early in the morning to start. Believe me, I was ready and willing to get up at any time. We spent three nights in Chinese inns and I didn't sleep one by her boys over in France. good night's sleep the whole three nights. I wasn't afraid of anything, and the fact that I was in such a filthy place didn't bother me so much at the time, but I just couldn't sleep. I've been making up for it since I've been here though. I sleep like a log. ally had the best rooms in the house. with ground floor, usually three Chiyou go to bed. No, that is slightly cisco at 9:48 p. m.

But I must tell you about the Chi-

from Chungking.

exaggerated, but there is always a so to speak. I suppose we were not softly. entirely bug-proof then, but we were as nearly so as possible. I couldn't her father and her attendants includfamily would think of me sleeping in honor; Mrs. W. Frederick Reynolds, a place like that. But that's life in China. We didn't begin to live in language study already. We reached if he could have medical attention. I her last Friday at about twelve suppose some day he will be a beggar. o'clock, noon, after three and a half Here in Chengtu we see some awful days of hard road travel. I was just sights. Of course, it is the winter seaabout all in. I much prefer to travel son and I suppose that is why we see when it comes to stopping at a Chi- ways traveled about two hours benese inn at night, I would rather be fore we stopped for breakfast) just as James Q. Horne, of Lock Haven. we entered the city gate I saw a man The last letter I wrote was from lying dead at the gate. I suppose he

But I'll try to talk about something pleasant for a while. You can't imtraveling so much, and now that I University campus, which is a much week since we reached Chengtu, and tu. That was the original plan, that Kernon, in that city, at eight o'clock yet it seems as though we had been we should live in one house and take last Saturday evening. The ceremony here for ages; that's the way time our meals at another house. But was performed by Rev. M. Stephen changes have come about, whereby we James, pastor of the Methodist We left Tzechow on the morning of will likely keep house with Miss Os- church, the wedding march being perience, I assure you, being carried whole house with her. The day that cians. by three men, not knowing where they we reached here, Miss Eaton was tak- The bride, who wore a gown of other members of the party. There matter with her, but it acted like men- ange blossoms, and carrying a bouwere seven in our party, and it took ingitis. She was unconscious from quet of roses, swainsona and lilies of about fifty men to carry us and our the time they took her to the hospital the valley, was attended by her sis and knew where they were taking us very much encouraged and thought Heath, of Pittsfield, officiated in the and that they had to get us there, I sure she would recover, but at about capacity of best man while the ushers felt much easier. But Bill thinks he three-thirty Monday afternoon, she were Frank Oswald, of Pittsfield; men were so slow that I was getting ing regained consciousness. They John W. Harper, of Scotia, N. Y. way behind the rest of the party, so had the funeral from this house yesstarted out and walked the fastest I She has had a severe strain, but is bridegroom's home in Bellefonte. ever walked in my life, I believe. But holding up under it just fine. She is I caught up to the rest of the crowd certainly a fine girl and we're glad ma Willard school at Troy and the we are going to live with her. I Russell Sage school, and during the never saw Miss Eaton at all. Bill past three years has been a teacher saw her and saw her again after they ing to us tonight from Miss Eaton's tric company, and it is in that city was done. diary, where she had written that she they will make their future home. would like nothing better than to be with such lovely surroundings. The nicer than the one we now have. We New York and various other places. seem so horribly bad. Most people all wish she could have lived. She must have been a lovely character. She was overseas during the war with the Y. M. C. A., and over her casket was draped a beautiful silk

Continent Crossed in One Day.

American flag which was given to her

Lieut. Russel L. Maughan, an army flier, made good his boast of a day- ed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Ambrose But to go back to the inns. We usu- dawn-to-dusk flight from New York M. Schmidt. The attendants were to San Francisco on Monday, cover- Charles and Miss Anna Wagner, By room, I mean a four-sided place ing the distance of 2670 miles in 21 brother and sister of the bride. The hours 482 minutes. Flying a twelve church was profusely decorated for nese beds and one table in it, no win- cylinder Curtis pursuit plane the dar- the occasion with June flowers. dows except a sort of lattice work in ing aviator left New York at three Immediately following the ceremofront, if you were fortunate enough o'clock on Monday morning and at ny the young couple were taken to to have an outside room, and we al- 4:30, just an hour and a half after Tyrone by automobile whence they ways saw to it that we had. There is taking off from Mitchell field, he flew went by train to eastern cities house lawn, on Saturday evening, Dorothy Odenkirk and Elizabeth no privacy in China. As soon as you over Bellefonte. The flier followed for a brief wedding trip. On their recome to a town and put up for the the coast to coast air mail route and turn to Bellefonte they will occupy

Quigley-Reynolds .- The wedding latter are at Kennebunk Port, Maine. good sized audience. But we carried of Hugh Merriman Quigley, only son matting along with us so that we of Judge and Mrs. Henry C. Quigley, could pretty well shut out the curious. of Bellefonte, and Miss Elinore Rev-But then there are always peep-holes nolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sambetween the rooms, and there is sure | uel H. Reynolds, of Lancaster, drew a to be an eye at the peep-hole. The large and fashionable audience to St. first morning when we were dressing James Episcopal church, in that city, we happened to discover such an eye. to witness the ceremony which took We didn't know how long it had been | place on Saturday evening. The Episthere before we discovered it. We copalian marriage service was read never slept on the beds in the inns. by the pastor, Rev. Clifford G. Towmb-We always spread an oiled sheet over ley, while George Rogers, church orthe bed, placed our folding cot on ganist, played the wedding marches that, and had our bed up in the air, and during the service the choir sang

The bride was given in marriage by help wondering what my fastidious ed Miss Henrietta Quigley, as maid of matron of honor; the Misses Charlotte Appel, Susan Appel, Nellie Ap-China till we took this road trip. It pel, Kitty Lutz, Jane and Margaret is quite an experience, but I am will- Hopkins, as bridesmaids. The bride's ing to live like a decent being for a gown was fashioned of white satin while now. And such sights as we brocaded in silver, with a chiffon oversaw on this trip. It just about did me dress in three tiers, each tier edged up, especially the last morning. All with pearls. It was enhanced with Plans Complete for Rural Leader along the big road we saw the worst trimmings of old lace and a lace collooking beggars, and I never saw so | lar, family heirlooms. Her capmany blind people in my life before. shaped veil was held in place with One of the men on my chair was just orange blossoms, and she carried a about blind. He had the sorest eyes bouquet of white roses and lilies of who will gather at the "rural leaderand must have suffered dreadfully, the valley. The maid and matron and yet he was pleasant and cheerful of honor wore gowns of tangerine and one of the best workers of the chiffon while the bridesmaids were whole crowd. I can't get him out of gowned in variegated shades of blue county Pomona Grange at Centre my mind, for I feel sure that he is with hats of the same hue. Their Hall. we have had almost a whole week of going blind, and it could be prevented bouquets were small orange colored roses and delphinium.

The bridegroom was attended by W. Frederick Reynolds, as best man, while the ushers were Samuel Reynolds Jr., a brother of the bride; Philip by boat, but Bill, of course, prefers so much suffering. The last morning D. Reynolds, Charles M. Scott and and conducting community programs, the road travel. I like traveling by on the road, as we entered the town Ellis Keller, of Bellefonte; Stewart plays and other social activities. A road in the day time all right, but where we had our breakfast (we al- Coryell, of Williamsport; Jack W. printed program containing the list of Coddling, Jr., of Bethlehem, and

Following the ceremony three hundred guests attended the reception, Bellefonte, or to Miss Sara Neff, sec-Tzechow, which I mailed on Decem- had frozen to death, because he was which was held at the Iris club. Green retary of the committee at Centre almost naked. I don't know whether and white figured in the color scheme Hall. ashamed of myself that I haven't got- I will ever get hardened to these of the decorations at both the church

> The bride is a graduate of the Cathedral school, Washington, D. C.,

Stone company. Mrs. T. W. Young.

Following the ceremony a reception I told them "te dow" which means to terday morning. That was quite an was held at the Pittsfield Country club in the penitentiary cemetery. put down the chair, and I got out and ordeal for a newcomer, don't you where the decorations were southern started to walk. If you are walking, think? But I stood it very well, in- oak palms and peonies. Later the they must keep up to you, that's one deed, and Bill and I are so glad that young couple left on a brief wedding we were here to be with Miss Oster. trip which will include a visit to the

The bride is a graduate of the Em-

Included among the guests at the able to die right here in this house, wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James K. of the marriage of Mrs. Blanche Barnhart and daughters, Louise and grounds here are beautiful, and the Eleanor, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. which took place in Williamsport, porch off her bed-room looks right John W. Harper, of Scotia, N. Y.; out onto the prettiest part of the Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Loeb, of Punx- Mann returned to Bellefonte the same lawn. Bill and I are to have her room sutawney; Mrs. Anna Woodcock, of evening and went directly to the now, which in many ways is much Scranton, as well as friends from Shaughnessy home on Howard street, > Morris-Wagner. - Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends gathered at St. John's Reformed church, at eight o'clock on guson township, had a miraculous es- friends in this vicinity. Wednesday morning, to witness the marriage of Elliott Lyon Morris, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Mor- bus near her home when she was ris, and Miss S. Mildred Wagner, eld- struck by a passing car and thrown day, when her husband brought her er daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Wagner. The ceremony was simple though impressive, and was perform-company until the first of Sep-tember when her resignation will be-Blair county, suffered a stroke of a responsible position with the Amer- afternoon and passed away at 9:45 on which to build, but hoping for a ican Lime & Stone company and has o'clock in the evening.

night, the whole village is out to see made five stops, landing in San Fran- the Robert Morris home on E. Curtin street during the summer while the quire at this office.

thereon as a permanent home for him- of being seventy-six years old. When self and bride. bride's family there were none of the pation he followed until a year or so social functions that otherwise would ago. Surviving him are three daugh-

Thiele-Bobinger.-Garfield Thiele McKees Rocks, were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage on Howard street, on Monday, by the pastor, Rev. E. E. McKelvey.

set of the town.

School. Arrangements have been completed for taking care of 150 rural leaders ship school" which is scheduled for the week of August 21 to 27 at the encampment grounds of the Centre

Circulars have been sent out to the local Granges and other farm organizations to send their delegates to the later moved onto a small farm near school. The purpose of this week of Philipsburg where they lived until lectures and demonstrations is to train community leaders in formulating speakers and other details is being printed and can be obtained by writing to the Farm Bureau office at

Lock Haven Hotel Gutted by Fire.

The Columbus house, at Lock Haven, was badly damaged by fire, last and later studied painting in New Friday afternoon, as the result of a used to it, but just now, it seems as home again after three and a half York. The bridegroom is a graduate gasoline explosion in a small buildthough it takes about all my time and days on the road. Bill and I are liv- of Williams College and spent a year ing adjoining the hotel which was ocor longer in engineering work in cupied by a cleaning establishment. South America before locating in The loss to the hotel is estimated at Bellefonte, where he now holds a good twenty to thirty thousand dollars. Ap- 5 years, 4 months and 15 days old. position with the American Lime & peals for assistance were sent to the The funeral was held on Friday, burfire departments in Williamsport, Following a brief wedding trip Mr. Jersey Shore and Bellefonte. The and Mrs. Quigley will take up their Undines started for Lock Haven with I want to do everything at once and very comfortable quarters. When we residence in the house on east Linn their pumper and squad motor, but on it can't be done in China. I hope you reached here on Friday, the first thing street recently vacated by Rev. and the way broke a cylinder on the pumper and at Zion a tire blew out on the squad motor. The Jersey Shore com-Barnhart-McKernon. - The wed- pany also had a breakdown and the Williamsport company were stopped forgot to mention the fact that we son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Barn- at Avis because of the fire being un-But I ought to go back, now, and have a room in this house, and we hart, of Bellefonte, and Miss Alice der control when they reached that tell you a little about our road trip. take our meals at the Freeman house, Grace McKernon, of Pittsfield, Mass., place. The Undine pumper was I don't know whether I can tell much in the same compound. Dr. Freeman took place at the home of the bride's brought back to Bellefonte and re-

Two Men Electrocuted.

Matowiski, both of Carbon county, were electrocuted at the Rockview penitentiary on Monday morning for the murder of constable Elmer P. Anwere taking you, and often-times be- en to the hospital, a very sick girl. It white lace over georgette with a court thony, of Palmerton, while he was ating out of sight entirely of any of the was not known exactly what was the train, a veil of tulle caught with or- tempting their arrest after they held up and robbed James G. Heinzleman, a Palmerton butcher, of $200 in cash his gold watch and spectacles. The baggage. We always got together at and it was feared she could not get ter, Mrs. Walter C. Sutton, of Woro- men were brought to the death house noon for dinner and in the evening. well. But she lived through Sunday noco, who wore a gown of white bro- on Saturday morning by sheriff Fosnight, and it was then thought she caded crepe and carried a bouquet of ter and deputies, of Carbon county, that the men were responsible for us had a fighting chance. We all felt orange colored sweet peas. Selden making the journey from Mauch Chunk by automobile in about five hours. Nineteen minutes from the time the first man was taken to the has quite a joke on me. One day my quietly slept away without ever hav- Walter Sutton, of Woronoco, and chair the double electrocution was completed. The bodies of the two men were unclaimed and were buried

-The torrid wave was broken by a succession of high wind and rain storms on Wednesday, with the result that the weather yesterday was ideal in every way. Bellefonte got its full share of rain, the hardest shower being just at the noon hour. In Bald Eagle valley and through the footwas over to the hospital Saturday and in the Miss Mills school. The bride- hills of the Alleghenies less rain fell groom is a graduate of the Bellefonte but the wind was terrific, blowing walked much of the time. It was re- brought her back here in the casket. High school and The Pennsylvania down and uprooting trees more than She had been here in China only two State College, and at present holds a a foot in diameter. Bellefonte had a years, but just loved it here and loved responsible position as chemist at the wind storm about the middle of the her work. Miss Oster was just read- Pittsfield plant of the General Elec- afternoon but no particular damage

-Announcement has been made Shaughnessy Heinle and Harry Mann, Wednesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. later going to their own furnished apartment on the third floor of the Heverly building.

-Miss Ethel Shoemaaker, of Fercape from serious injury a few days ago. She had just gotten out of the beneath another bus, which fortunately was standing still. No bones were broken but she suffered from shock man, H. G. Strohmeier, of this place, and a number of bruises.

-G. Mac Fry, of Pennsylvania Furnace, suffered quite a severe sunstroke on Monday and has been housed up ever since.

The American Legion Auxilia-June 28th.

For Rent .- A private garage. In-23-tf | convention.

Mrs. Morris has planned to contin- years a prosperous farmer of Penn ue her work in the Bellefonte Trust township, Centre county, but who the come effective. The bridegroom holds paralysis at one o'clock on Monday

He was born at Shamokin on June purchased a lot in Bellefonte and will at once proceed to build a bungalow 26th, 1848, hence was within five days a young man he came to Centre coun-Because of a recent death in the ty and engaged in farming, an occuhave been part of the celebration of ters and one son, namely: Mrs. E. L. the nuptials of two such well known Davis, Mrs. Marion Berkey, Miss Aland popular members of the younger berta Huey and Merle A., all of Juniata. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. David Sholl, of Millheim, as well as nine grand-children and three great and Miss Mildred Bobinger, both of grand-children. He was a member of the Millheim Evangelical church.

Brief funeral services were held at his home in Juniata at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening and yesterday the the remains were taken to Millheim for burial. PRITCHARD.-Mrs. Emily Pritchthe home of her son, Josiah Pritchard, in Philipsburg, as the result of genborn in Herefordshire, England, on June 19th, 1845, hence was 79 years old to the day. She married William Pritchard in 1861 and five years later they came to the United States, locating at Osceola Mills, but a short time Mr. Pritchard's death over twenty made her home with her son. Her survivors include two sons, William Pritchard, of Chester Hill, and Josiah, of Philipsburg; also three sisters and one brother in England. She was a life-long member of the Episcopal church and Rev. F. T. Eastment had charge of the funeral services which were held at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, burial being made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

years ago, and since then she had

QUICK .- Gaynell Dorothy Quick, the little daughter of Rush and Ada E. Fleming Quick, died at the Bellefonte hospital on Wednesday of last week following a brief illness with peritonitis. She was born at Moshannon on February 3rd, 1919, hence was ial being made in the Askey cemetery.

Marriage Licenses.

E. Thomas Hastings, Jersey Shore, and Anne H. Murray, Lock Haven. David R. Rice and Caroline M Reese, Bellefonte.

Garfield Thiele and Mildred Babinger, McKees Rocks. Elliott Morris and S. Mildred Wagner, Bellefonte. G. Hoy Harter and Viola Hoffman,

-Five stock salesmen are now in Bellefonte for the purpose of float-Walter Grymkowski and Martin ing stock in a new organization to absorb the Blanchard Coal Mining company, which has operations out near Karthaus. The new company is to be capitalized at three million dollars and the promoters would like to place a large portion of the stock in Centre

> -The big Baileyville picnic will be held the third Saturday in August.

CENTRE HALL.

Campbell entertained his niece, Miss Coke, for several days last week. Shannon Boozer and Daniel Bloom made a business trip to Harrisburg last week.

Mrs. Spyker entertained her mother, and sister and children during the past week. Mrs. Reese, of Cresson, is visiting at the home of her son, William Reese, in this place. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Foss and Herbert Foss spent Sunday at the C. F

Emery home. The O. E. S. lodge held a service in memory of their dead sisters, on Monday evening. James Smith, of Williamsport, visited his mother, Mrs. Margaret Smith, over last Sunday. Miss McGonigal, a trained nurse, of Philadelphia, is spending several weeks in the home of W. W. Kerlin.

Mrs. Annie Allison, who is ill at the home of her father, James Runkle, seems to be losing rather than gain-

Mrs. May Walker Kramer and daughter spent the week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Walker. The Evangelicals are holding their services in the Methodist church while their church is undergoing extensive repairs. Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew and daughter spent the past week visiting her sister, Miss Mary Kennedy, and other Mrs. Nevin Hockman went to her father's home near Zion, on Friday evening, where she visited until Sunhome by auto.

Mrs. J. F. Lutz, Mrs. Robert Foreand Miss Annie Lohr, of Boalsburg, went to Philadelphia on Friday, by way of Lewistown.

Miss Mary Bingman, who has been elected as a teacher in the borough schools, has returned to her home, from Myerstown, where she has been a student in Albright College.

Miss Margaret Emery took the ry will hold a festival on the Brant Misses Algie Emery, Louise Smith, Bradford to Bellefonte from where

HUEY .- Augustus Huey, for many DEMOCRATS OF THE NATION PICKING A PRESIDENT IN NEW YORK.

(Continued from page 1, Col. 5.) but with no considerable foundation stampede.

The nominee may be one of these and be may be a person yet unnamed as a potential prospect.

Tribute to Wilson.

New York, June 24.-When today's session of the Democratic National convention adjourned it was with a resolution adopted in memory of Woodrow Wilson. Drawn by Senator Glass, of Virginia, one of the former President's friends, and introduced by Mrs. Frank Reeves, of Washington State, the resolution reads:

"Resolved, That the Democratic party of the Nation, in convention assembled, profoundly laments the death of that incomparable American, Woodrow Wilson, whose leader-ship and achievements constitute an epoch in the world's history. In deepest homage to his memory we reverently invoke his spirit to brood over PRITCHARD.—Mrs. Emily Pritch-ard died last Wednesday afternoon at inspire its activities by the fine sense of devotion and the clear conception of patriotism which signalized his eral debility. She was a daughter of William and Emily Clark and was born in Herefordshire, England, on complishments in the realm of real statesmanship, will forever remain a source of pride to future generations. American democracy is honored and American citizenship adorned by the character, faith and idealism of this great man. We are glad to exalt his record and to take inspiration from the things he said and did."

> -A good many business men are wondering where the Republican platform makers got the impression that the country is prosperous.

> —Dawes said he wouldn't accept the nomination but the convention suspected he was fibbing and the convention was right.

BIRTHS.

Dunklebarger-On June 4, to Mr. and Mrs. Curtin Dunklebarger, of Spring township, a daughter, Rhea

Miller-On June 3, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Miller, of Spring township, a son, George Thomas.

Bartley-On June 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Bartley, of Walker township, a son, Earl Charles. Halderman-On June 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Halderman, of Half-moon Hill, a son. Smith—On June 1, to Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis Smith, of Bellefonte, a

Gallagher-On June 10, to Mr. and Mrs. James D. Gallagher, of Bellefonte, a son, James D. Jr. Kerstetter-On June 7, to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kerstetter, of Hublersburg, a daughter. Zeigler-On June 6, to Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Zeigler, of Marion township, a daughter. Musser-On June 10, to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Musser, of Bellefont son, Lester Stanley. Poorman-On June 18, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Poorman, of Spring township, a daughter, Helen Lois. Spicer-On June 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Spicer, of Bellefonte, a son, Donald Egbert.

Locke—On June 7, to Dr. and Mrs. LeRoy Locke, of Bellefonte, a daugh-

Vonada—On June 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Vonada, of Bellefonte, a daughter, Elizabeth Minnie. Sowers-On June 19, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Sowers, of State College, a son, John Carl. Shultz-On June 8, to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shultz, of Spring township, a son, Earl Floyd. Grove-On June 9, to Mr. and Mrs. Franklin C. Grove, of Marion township, a daughter. Grove-On June 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Grove, of New Castle, Pa., a daughter, Anne Laurie.

Cite-On June 18, to Mr. and Mrs. Ameles Cite, of Spring township, a daughter, Elveda.

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

The "Watchman's always interesting Pine Grove Mills letter did not reach this office this week until we were almost ready to go to press, hence most of it had to be omitted. Paul Roop and wife, of Pittsburgh, are visiting frends in town. Charles H. Meyers has purchased a new Frick threshing outfit. Having finished her school term at Chester Miss Maude Miller has returned home. Miss Mary Burwell has enrolled as a summer pupil at the Lock Haven Normal school. Mrs. Maggie Meek, of Altoona, is spending the hot weather with friends in this section.

Prof. A. L. Bowersox went to Philadelphia last week to consult an oculist regarding his eyes. Children's day services in the Presbyterian church were largely attended and very interesting. Pennsvalley Lodge I. O. O. F. will put on the third degree to a large class tomommow evening. Mrs. Sadie Lemon, of State College, is at the J. R. Lemon home in Gatesburg, owing to Mr. Lemon's illness. The women of Spruce Creek valley held their annual picnic at the John Quinn home at Pennsylvania Furnace on Saturday. J. Harry McCracken is ill at his home in the Glades, while Cyrus B.

McWilliams is also ill at the W. G. Gardner home. As Mrs. Hannah Osman and granddaughter were returning from church at Pine Hall, on Sunday Will Neidigh, in his auto, collided with their buggy and smashed one of the rear wheels. they went by rail to Unionville, as delegates to the county Sunday school Both ladies were badly shaken up but fortunately not seriously hurt.