Bellefonte, Pa., July 25, 1924.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Plenty of good things to eat at 29-1t Business Men's picnic. -The members of St. Mary's church at Snow Shoe are planning for a big reunion at Moravian park on August 15th and 16th.

Bellefonte, stenographer, and Andrew L. Runkle, Bellefonte, draftsman.

-The ladies bible class of the United Brethren church will hold a

-Quite a number of Lutherans from Bellefonte and Centre county attended the annual Lutheran day services at Lakemont park, Altoona, yesterday.

-The Venture Inn is the name of a new tea room which will be open on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evenings in the W. C. T. U. room in Petrikin hall.

-Thomas Fleming has been ill such as to compel him to abandon his work for the present, in his shoe shop on west High street.

22nd, inclusive.

-Hunters this year will be adorned with aluminum tags instead of cloth, a contract having been given to the Huntingdon reformatory for thousand tags.

-After a busy week in Bellefonte the World at Home carnival company pulled out of Bellefonte about six o'clock on Sunday evening for Shamokin, going over the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad.

-William Krape, who originally lived at Spring Mills, died at the soldiers home to which he went some years ago, on Wednesday. His body will be brought to Spring Mills today and buried from the train, in the Union cemetery. -The men of the Sycamore club, supper Tuesday evening, for which twenty covers were laid. The H. C.

a two weeks' stav. bers, Ralph Mallory.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Shattuck, of State College, were host and wedding anniversary.

-On Monday officer Robert Mingle, of State College, brought to the Centre county jail Raymond Rudy and Jesse Dearing, whom he had placed under arrest on the charge of manufacturing moonshine. As evidence against them he brought along one still and a quantity of mash.

----Dr. Frederick G. Clemson has opened an office in the Foster building on Allen street, at State College, where he will practice his profession as a chiropractor. Dr. Clemson returned in May, from Davenport, Iowa, where he had taken the regular course in the Palmer school of Chiropractry.

-A big Grange picnic will be members of the order in Bedford, Blair, Centre, Fulton, Huntingdon and Mifflin counties are invited. grounds.

year old son of Mr. and Mrs. James thirty feet to the ground landing on his head and shoulder on a stone pile. He was unconscious four hours but is now recovering from his injuries.

The Loysville orphans' home band gave another of their delightful concerts in Bellefonte on Monday night and received as a free will offering $157.00. The band played at Salona on Saturday night and during the concert one corner of the band stand collapsed but fortunately the fall was not great and none of the young musicians were injured. The stand was quickly raised and underpinned and the concert was finished without any further mishap.

MURDERED SATURDAY NIGHT.

His Nephew, Harry Musser, and Herbert Heaton Now in Jail Charged with the Crime.

On Saturday, July 12th, Judge Henry C. Quigley did what he considered a kindly and justifiable act when he paroled William Musser from the Centre county jail after he had served seven months of a one to Among recent State highway two years' sentence for bootlegging. appointments were Mary A. Kline, of The prematurely aged man could hardly realize his good fortune at being released from captivity, but far better would it have been for him had he been allowed to remain in jail, as festival in front of their church this today he is cold in death, the victim Peck's store then took the road across (Friday) evening. The public is in- of a most brutal murder which took place between the mountain ranges in Little Sugar valley, one of the wildest spots in Centre county, and his nephew, Harry Musser, and a young man by the name of Herbert Heaton jail charged with having committed the crime. The murder was first discovered by D. O. Dorman, of Nittany valley, who into Little Sugar valley and becoming thirsty left the main road to go to a for the past month, his condition being hunter's cabin some three hundred yard's distant, to a cool spring to get a drink. An old road leads from the main road to the cabin and about mid--Thirteen hundred dollars in way between the road and cabin Mr. prizes will be given at the annual Dorman suddenly came upon the body convention of the Central Pennsylva- of a man lying in the road, and parnia Volunteer Firemen's association tially covered with an overcoat. A to be held at Patton August 20th to pop bottle almost full of moonshine whiskey stood alongside of his head. A brief examination showed the man to be dead as the result of a bullet where he spent twenty-eight years. wound in the head. Leaving the body undisturbed Mr. Dorman made his the manufacture of five hundred way as quickly as possible to the nearest house, which was several miles distant, and told of his gruesome find, then continued to a place where he the farm of his nephew, Harry Muscould get in communication with him J. M. Keichline, as acting coroner, and motored to the scene of the murder as quickly as possible.

Sheriff Taylor promptly recognizser, who only a week previous had county jail. 'Squire Keichline selectnine in number, were hosts at a camp Dorman, Clem Rodgers, D. W. Diehl, before the opening session of Decem-Peck, as a coroner's jury to view the Yeager and G. Oscar Gray families body and to inquire as to the cause of are now occupying the club house, the man's death. They found that prisonment in the county jail for not having gone into camp yesterday for Mr. Musser had been brutally beaten less than one nor more than two over the back of the head and neck years. -In the list of names published and shot twice, one bullet entering of the committees named in the board the right side of the head above the frequently told members of the sherof the committees named in the board the right side of the head above the of trustees of the Bellefonte hospital, ear and coursing downward came iff's family that he was not guilty of fect, the warm vibrating colors. The last week, a clerical error placed the out the left cheek just above the bootlegging, declaring that he had work of Caroline Valentine merits the the aged man but the ground failed have been a motive for the murder, hostess for thirteen tables of bridge, to disclose any indications of a strug- and then again it may have been beat the Centre Hills Country club, Mon- gle. The jury returned a verdict of day evening. The party was arrang- murder at the hands of some party alleged, did not stop in that section ed by Mrs. Shattuck as a surprise to or parties at that time unknown. At when William Musser was arrested. her husband, in celebration of their the conclusion of the examination pare it for burial.

went to the home of his nephew, Har- his case. ry Musser, who occupies a farm along the Brush valley road a mile or so northeast of Penn's cave. There he beth W. Musser and was born in Censpent the week and assisted his neph- tre county on July 30th, 1861, hence ew in his hay making. The two men, was 62 years, 11 months and 19 days with Herbert Heaton, Harry Musser's old. He was a farmer by occupation. hired man, worked in the hay field He never married but is survived by most of Saturday, and late Saturday one brother and a sister, Jacob Musafternoon the three of them left the home in an automobile ostensibly on son Kline, of Howard. held on the Huntingdon fair grounds the hunt of a team of horses. It is on Thursday, July 31st, to which alleged that they were seen on the White Hall road above State College and some time Saturday night they came to Bellefonte. Shortly after Prominent speakers will be present twelve o'clock William Musser went and meals can be obtained on the into Blackford's restaurant and bought a paper bag of sandwiches ---While at Hecla park, on Sun- which he carried outside and got into day afternoon, James Caldwell, eight an automobile with two men, presum- into the house. The dead man's ably Harry Musser and Herbert Hea-Caldwell, of Bellefonte, climbed into ton. They left town between 12:20 a tree the better to see a ball game in and 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning, progress there. During an exciting going down the Nittany valley road, play he missed his footing and fell although a much nearer way to their home would have been over the Nittany mountain by way of Centre Hall. Along about four o'clock on Sunday morning two men in an automobile were seen coming down the mountain road which runs from Peck's store in Nittany valley across through Little Sugar valley and over the mountain to Madisonburg in Brush valley, and it was between four and five o'clock when Harry Musser and Herbert Heaton returned home without the former's uncle, William Musser.

ser home on Sunday night. The -"Abie's Irish Rose," the biggest house was in darkness but repeated o'clock last Saturday evening by money-making musical comedy ever rappings brought Mr. Musser to a climbing over the stockade. When produced, will be the attraction at the window clad only in his night clothes. their absence was discovered guards Moose Temple theatre, Bellefonte, He refused to open the door, claiming were sent scurrying in every direcnext Monday and Tuesday evenings. he was undressed and had gone to bed tion, especially along the road to Lock Two nights of the most delightful en- and didn't know anything about the Haven, but up to this writing (Tuestertainment ever offered the amuse- murder. When informed that if he day afternoon) not a trace of the ment loving public of Bellefonte and didn't open the door it would be brok- men has been secured. But it is prob-Centre county. The two nights stand en down he told the officers to wait ably only a question of time until all will afford many people throughout until he put on his trousers, but in- will be apprehended as the percentage the county an opportunity to get up stead of doing so sneaked to the rear of prisoners who have escaped in the motor theatre parties and come to door, opened it quietly and clad only past and not been recaptured is ex-Bellefonte for one of the performanc- in his night clothing dashed past one ceedingly small. es. See advertisement elsewhere in of the watching officers and escaped to the mountains. Heaton was found

WILLIAM MUSSER BRUTALLY in the house and he was placed under arrest and brought to the Centre county jail. The officers then returned to the Musser home and watched until the break of day, but Mr. Mus-ser failed to return. On Monday afternoon Sheriff Taylor, accompanied by John Smith, went to the Musser home and found him in the house. After some parleying he came out and surrendered, stoutly maintaining, however, that he knew nothing at all about the murder of his uncle. He was brought to Bellefonte and locked up in jail. When arrested it was discovered that Musser had a black eye, a small cut on his lower lip and a small scratch on his nose. As figured out by local officers when the three men left Bellefonte grass. they drove down Nittany valley to to Brush valley. Reaching little Sugas valley the men evidently stopped the car at the intersection of an old road running west to the hunter's cabin. As no car tracks showed on the old road they must have walked along are now locked in the Centre county it to a point about midway between the main road and the cabin where the murder was committed, as no evidence was found to show that the body had been taken there after the murder. on Sunday afternoon took a walk over No money was found in the murdered man's pockets but his gold watch was undisturbed and ticking the time away as usual. The placing of the bottle of moonshine along side the dead man's head may have been done with a thought of giving the impression of suicide, but the absence of a gun precludes such a theory. Now as to the motive: William Musser was close to sixty years old and was born and raised in Brush valley. When not quite thirty years old he went west and located in Iowa About three years ago he returned to Centre county and took up his abode on a small property he owned in Brush valley, a fairly good house and a few acres of ground, which adjoins ser. There he lived until arrested for Bellefonte and telephoned sheriff E. bootlegging last October by a squad R. Taylor. That official took with of State police. At the time of his arrest five barrels of wine were found on his premises and confiscated. Mr. Musser gave bail for his appearance at the December term of court and ed the body as that of William Mus- later, fearing that his property might be confiscated he made a deed transbeen discharged from the Centre ferring his home to his nephew. He then sold all his personal belongings ed from among the crowd of men who and went to Canada. He was induced had gathered there at that time D. O. to return, however, just a few days H. A. Long, W. R. Dunkle and E H. ber court, and that week entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and undergo im-

During his incarceration in jail he stout club lying nearby was mute ev- of transfer of his property and the idence of the weapon used in beating latter declined to do so. This may cause of bootlegging, which it is also

Harry Musser is a son of Mr. and Sheriff Taylor got into communica- Mrs. Jacob Musser, of Madisonburg, tion with the undertaker at Howard, is thirty-two years old and has a wife and had him remove the body and pre- and two children. Heaton is a young man who has been living at the Mus-He then returned to Bellefonte and ser home the past year or so, although instituted a line of inquiry which dis- he at one time lived at Gilltown, near closed the fact that when William Pleasant Gap. Musser has consulted Musser was discharged from jail he S. D. Gettig in regard to defending

William E. Musser, the murdered man, was a son of Elias and Elizaser, of Madisonburg, and Mrs. Jack-

Undertaker L. H. Neff, of Howard ing, intending to take the body to the services. But when he arrived there on Tuesday morning Mrs. Musser would not allow the body to be taken brother also refused to receive it and inquiry developed the fact that no arfuneral and no grave dug in Heckman's cemetery for burial. Consequently the undertaker was compelled to take the body back to his establishment in Howard and later made arrangements for burial in the Schenck cemetery at Howard, where the remains were laid to rest on Wednesday morning.

Three Prisoners Escape.

Edward Goss, of Venango county, serving a term of from 4 to 8 years; James Edward Bowser, of Lawrence Acting upon this information Sher- county, under sentence of 2½ to 5 camp. The Scouts expect to return iff Taylor, accompanied by chief of years, and Frank Hale, of Clinton police Harry Dukeman and Col. H. S. county, also serving from 21 to 5 Taylor, motored to the Harry Mus- years, escaped from the western penitentiary at Rockview about seven

-Get your job wark done here.

Bellefonte Wins Two More.

The Bellefonte ball team's steam roller is still working and two more games have been tallied up to their credit. Last Thursday they defeated Millheim by the score of 6 to 0 and on Saturday downed the same team 9 to Win Gramley, however, stopped the slugging match after the Bellefonte boys had pounded out nine safe Miller, of McKeesport, who came to Belleblows off of Ray Miller in two in- fonte Saturday. nings. The old fellow does twothirds of his pitching with his head. Smith, Fisher and Deitrick provided day from a week's visit with Mrs. L. L. the heavy artillery in Saturday's contest, with three hits each. Fisher's home run was a sizzling liner to left

Weber gave a fine pitching exhibition for six innings. In the seventh has arm suddenly went dead and he gave way to Harshberger, who fanned six Millheim batters in two and two-thirds innings. Gingerich and Fisher pulled the fielding features of the day by fielding clean hits in rapid fashion and nearly pegging their man atives. out at first base. While neither one —Mr got their man they proved to the opposing players that it doesn't pay to Bellefonte Saturday with her three chilloaf on a clean hit with such an outfield on the job. State and Centre Hall broke even last week, State winning Thursday's game 8 to 7 while Centre Hall won on Saturday 7 to 5. Following is the standing of the clubs:

Bellefonte ..........13 Millheim ..... 9 .563 Centre Hall ..... 6 State College ..... 4 12

Tomorrow's game will be State at Bellefonte and Millheim at Centre will be for the remainder of the summer, Hall, while next Thursday Millheim a guest of her son and his wife, Mr. and will play in Bellefonte and Centre Hall at State College.

-No charge for parking cars, Business Men's picnic. -Prices on shoes reduced, Yea-29-1t days.

Miss Valentine Exhibits Her Paintings

Caroline M. Valentine gave two exhibitions of thirty of her paintings, last week, in her studio at Burnham. It was her work of the last two years in Bermuda, Nantucket, Olgunquit, Maine; Chester Springs and Capri, Italy. The "Yellow House" at Chester Springs had an interesting write-up in a Paris art magazine, by their art critic, Count Chabrier, who was in America visiting art exhibitions. Of it he said:

"Yellow House" the work of Caroline Valentine, sent to the exhibition of the Pennsylvania Academy, Philadelphia, gives a very attractive and charming idea of the talent of this artist. I liked in it the sure and large vue). Also from Geo. Bridgeman, equally well known. From these good her beautiful talent will find means of | Sunday. expression."

Miss Valentine's friends will be interested in knowing that she sold her 'Nantucket Trees."

-Children's play oxfords reduced to $1.25, Yeager's. 29-1t

-Two good ball games, Business Men's picnic. 29-1t

Bellefonte Scouts at Camp Kline.

The following boys are at Camp Kline, the Williamsport Boy Scout camp, along Pine creek, above Jersey Shore: Charles Bullock, Walter who took charge of the body, took out | Clark, Carl Dubbs, Fred Fisher, Hugo a permit to bury the remains in the Frear, David Geiss, Ben Herr, Harold Heckman cemetery on Tuesday morn- Hoag, Daniel Holter, Graham Hughes, Michael Hazel, Frederick Kurtz, Da-Harry Musser home for the funeral vid Locke, Donald Mallory, Howard Murphy, William Markley, Richard Mabus, Philip Mignot, Robert McClellan, Carl Moerschabacher, Joseph Moerschbacher, George Ray, John Shoemaker, Frederick Shope, Gilbert Shope, Leslie Shultz, Richard Taylor, rangements had been made for the Ralph Toner, Victor Watson, Philip Wion, together with their scoutmaster, Rev. Malcolm Maynard, and assistant scoutmasters, Carl Gray and Robert Raymond.

The boys are having a very nice time and are passing many tests to advance them in their scouting rank. favorable with the exception that the air has been rather cool for swimming. Many visitors were in camp on Sunday. A number of the boys went to mother, Mrs. Canfield, at Wyncote. Jersey Shore to church and later in the morning a service was held in the to their homes on Saturday of this week.

-Boating and swimming, Business Men's picnic. 29-1t half price, Yeager's.

Wanted .- Position by efficient young woman to do house work, for the first two weeks of August. Inquire at this

-Ladies' pumps and oxfords,

29-1t

29-1t

-$6.00 pumps reduced to $2.98, Yeager's.

-Good band concert, Men's picnic.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Charles F. Cook left on Sunday for Cleveland, Ohio, for a few day's visit with his son Joseph.

-John Van Pelt came in from Johnstown last Saturday to spend a portion of his summer vacation among Centre county friends.

-Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Nissley are entertaining Mrs. Nissley's mother, Mrs. J. C.

-Jacob Bottorf, the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bottorf, returned home Sun-Lambert, at Johnstown.

-Mr. and Mrs. M. A. McGinniss, of the Allen House, Allentown, were in Bellefonte field which buried itself in the tall during the week, guests of Mrs. McGinniss' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield.

-Miss Margaret Brockerhoff is expected here from Philadelphia early in August. for her summer visit with her uncle and brother, Dr. Joseph and Henry Brocker--Miss Evaline Troup and her sister,

Anna Mary, returned home Sunday from Hanover, where they spent Evaline's vacation of two weeks with their father's rel--Mrs. Thompson, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Linn McGinley, arrived in dren, for an indefinite stay with their grand-parents. -Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Derstine, of Ambridge, and their two daughters. Dorothy and Betty, will be here Sunday to spend

Mr. Derstine's vacation with his mother, Mrs. William Derstine. -Edward L. Gates, telegraph editor on the Johnstown Democrat, is expected in Bellefonte tomorrow to join his wife and family for a week's vacation, when he will accompany them back to Johnstown. -Mrs., Jared Harper left Wednesday night for Schenectady, N. Y., where she Mrs. John Harper, at Scotia, a suburb of Schenectady.

-Miss Caroline M. Valentine anticipates spending the first two weeks of August at down a week ago. Mrs. MacCoy, who be-Ogunquit, Maine, working under Charles H. Woodbury, the celebrated painter, who will criticize the paintings that have been on display at her studio for the past ten

-Gordon Montgomery was here for a short stay with his mother, while she was making her preparations for going to Peoria, Ill., to be with her sister, Mrs. Hamm, for a month or more. Mrs. Montgomery, accompanied by her son, left Wednesday afternoon for Illinois.

-Mr. and Mrs. McMutrie passed through Bellefonte Monday, returning home from a short visit with Mr. McMutrie's cousin, Miss Elizabeth Green, at Briarly. Mrs. Mc-Mutrie is known to many here as Miss Grace Furey, Mr. McMutrie being one of the leading druggists of Altoona, though an invalid for almost a year.

-Mrs. C. H. Young and her two daughters, who have been visiting here with Biery, president of the Allentown Business Mrs. Young's parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. College. The party stopped here on a drive Kirk, went to Harrisburg Wednesday to to Greenville, Mercer county. join Mr. Young. The Young family will occupy a funrnished house there for several months, when Mr. Young expects to and are with Mr. Fleming's father, Thombe transferred to Pittsburgh.

-Miss Charlotte Powell is arranging to of Bellefonte for the past month or more. entertain a motor party next week. Her Mr. Fleming has been with the Firestone name of W. S. Shelton on the supplies mouth. The other bullet entered the never sold any illegal stuff. Since his most sincere encouragement. She has guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Gam, of Rubber Co. for a number of years. committee, whereas it should have right side of the neck and came out discharge from jail it is alleged, he received excellent instructions from St. George, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes Schreyer, of Wilmington, Del., read, Edward Owens, David Chambers, Ralph Mallory.

the left side just below the ribs. A wanted his nephew to return the deed of transfer of his property and the West Chester, and Mrs. E. D. Bradford, of Mr. Schreyer motored to Chicago with Mr. honor of speaking in our recent Re- New York city. The party will drive to and Mrs. Harry Schreyer, on their return Bellefonte in Mr. and Mrs. Gam's car.

-Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Hall and instructions this artist, honest and daughter, Miss Marian, of Titusville, ar- his old home friends here until tomorrow. conscientious has retained, one can rived in Bellefonte on Sunday and —James Cook will arrive home from see, the best principles, joined to her were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Manitou this morning, the trip east being natural gifts. She likes to paint the Harrison Walker and family until made at this time on account of the sudsea and rocks. Hoping that she will Wednesday when they went to Philbring back from Capri (where she is adelphia expecting, however, to return to- son, whose body was brought to Bellenow sojourning) some pictures; where day and be at the Walker home until fonte yesterday, from her home in New Or-

-Mr. and Mrs. Girard Oswald, of Philadelphia, who were married early in the month at the home of Mrs. Oswald's sister. Mrs. Charles R. Wynn, at Sunbury, since been convalescing at the home of his arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday of last sister, Mrs. G. C. Keen, at Spring Mills, week for a ten day's visit with Mrs. Os- spent Wednesday night in town calling on wald's father, Martin L. Altenderfer. Mrs. friends. While Jim has been doing a bit Oswald is well known here as Miss Elsie of work in the hay fields he does not feel Altenderfer.

-Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Morgan, who recently moved to Bellefonte from Snow -Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. Valentine Shoe, have been entertaining their niece, daughter, Phyllis, of Warren. Miss Vivian, make their home in the future. They had joined Mrs. Blackstrom here Monday, both a month while he was considering a new liamsport, yesterday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Albert Canfield, of Min- from their former home in Williamsport. neapolis, and their two children, who are east on a visit with Mr. Canfield's mother, Mrs. Jennie Orvis Canfield, at Wyncote, are expected in Bellefonte shortly. Mr. and Mrs. Canfield will stop here on their way west, and will be guests during their stay of the former's sister, Mrs. Louis Daggett, and other relatives.

-Mrs. Frank Warfield and her daughter. Mrs. James Craig, returned Tuesday from a five day's trip to Pittsburgh. During Mrs. Warfield's absence Mrs. Mary Weaver Childs, of Washington, D. C., was with her grandfather, John P. Harris, having come for a short visit back home and to look after her boys, both of whom are here with Mrs. Childs' aunt. -Miss Helen Stull, of Wyncote, with Mrs. Bruce Burlingame and Jane Daggett as driving guests, motored to Bellefonte Monday. Miss Stull is visiting with Mr. Weather conditions have been quite and Mrs. Louis Daggett, at the Bush house, Mrs. Burlingame is with Miss Helen Valentine, while Jane was returning home from a month's visit with her grand--Mary Adaline Harris, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, of Reading, was in Bellefonte for a week with her grandmother, Mrs. Charles Smith, leaving here for Harrisburg yesterday, which will terminate her summer vacation trip. Mary Adaline came here from New York State, spent a week in Bellefonte and will visit for an equal length of time with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris. -Frank H. Clemson and his daughter

Sara arrived home Wednesday and are now with the family up Buffalo Run. Miss Clemson, who has been teaching music at Elgin, Ill., will return west the latter part of August to resume her work, while Mr. Clemson having completed his course in chiropractry, at Davenport, Iowa, will remain home. Dr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Clemson and their small child came east Shelled Corn 29-1t in May and will also be members of the Clemson family on the farm in Buffalo Oats Business Run valley until Dr. Clemson is perma-

29-1t | nently located at State College.

-Mrs. Frank Mullen, a former resident of Bellefonte, is here visiting at the home of Dr. Joseph Brockerhoff.

-Mrs. Hiram Fetterhoff, of Pleasant Gap, is with friends in Howard, where she expects to spend three weeks.

-Mrs. James R. Hughes and Miss Mary Wistar Green returned home Saturday from Danville, where both had been patients in the Geisinger hospital. -Mr. and Mrs. Francis Thal and their small son drove over from Osceola Mills early yesterday morning, to spend the week's holiday with Mr. Thal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thal. -Mr. and Mrs. John Blanchard and their two children will leave early in the week on a two week's summer trip, the first week of which will be spent with Mrs. Blanchard's mother, at Yonkers, N. Y.

-Mrs. H. S. Cooper left Dallas, Texas, Wednesday morning and will arrive in Bellefonte today, to be here for the remainder of the summer and fall with her aunts, the Misses Benner, on High street. -Mrs. Harry Cox and Miss Myra Sechler, both of Franklin, Pa., were at the Harter home on north Allegheny street last week, being visitors in the home at the time of the sudden death of their aunt, Friday evening. -Messrs. Edward Robb and R. J. Green returned last Thursday from a two week's trip to Canada. During their absence Mrs. Robb and son visited with the Shoemakers at Linden Hall, and in Williamsport with the L. A. Miller family.

-Mrs. W. S. Hornbacker left Bellefonte this week to join Mr. Hornbacker, in Altoona, where they will make their home in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Hornbacker have occupied rooms in the home of Mrs. John Meese for the past two years.

-Katherine Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dawson, of DuBois, will come to Bellefonte next week for a two week's visit, the first to be spent with her aunt, Mrs. T. Clayton Brown, and the second with her father's aunt, Mrs. Satterfield.

-Miss Mary Blanchard is spending two weeks at Overbrook with the family of her cousin, Mrs. Logan MacCoy, having gone fore her marriage was Miss Marguerite Wood, has gone to Europe for the sum-

-Eugene Robb, the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robb, returned home Sunday from a ten day's visit with his uncle, James Pacini, in Johnstown. This being Eugene's first time away from home alone. it was, of course, the most wonderful trip of his life.

-Mrs. Wynn and her two children and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill, all of Philadelphia, are house guests of Mrs. E. H. Richard, Mrs. Wynn and Mr. Hill being Mrs. Richard's niece and nephew. Mr. Wynn accompanied his family to Bellefonte but returned home Sunday.

-Miss Sara Benner had as over night guests Saturday of last week, her niece, Mrs. Silas Biery and Miss Leilie Geary, of Emaus, Pa., and Mrs. Biery's son, Nathan

-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming Jr. came here Wednesday from Akron, Ohio, as Fleming, who has been among the sick from their recent eastern trip, and came back by way of the Lakes. He will visit den death of his sister, Blanche Cook Gibleans. Mr. Cook has been in Colorado for two years on account of ill health.

-James B. Krape, who was discharged from the hospital a month ago and has sufficiently recovered to return to his work here.

with their little baby, left Bellefonte for Mrs. V. A. Blackstrom and her small Lancaster, yesterday, where they expect to Bitner, of Williamsport, another niece, been here with Mr. Valentine's mother for leaving for the former's home in Wil- position offered him in Lancaster and in consequence of its acceptance have moved

Marriage Licenses.

Leo Leonard Foreman, Glenwood, and Ella E. Crain, Sandy Ridge. George W. Lawver and Odessa M. Sipe, Derry township, Mifflin county. Leone G. Pichetti and Antonetta Coraggio, Pleasant Gap. Melvin Keen and Sarah E. Bartley, Spring Mills.

Real Estate Transfers. John Smith to Elmer Laird, tract in South Philipsburg; $2,000. Isaac Miller to J. M. Keichline, tract in Spring township; $300. Philipsburg Realty Company to George F. Coldren, tract in Philipsburg; $1.

-Price boy's oxfords reduced at Yeager's.

-Members of the Gray family held a delightful little reunion at the home of Miss Jennie Potts, at Stormstown, on Wednesday.

For Sale.—At the Brant House, a trunk containing the personal effects of Mrs. Mary Wolfe Hunt, held for unpaid bills.

-$5.00 oxfords reduced to $2.98, 29-1t Yeager's.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co Rye - -Barley Buckwheat