Grove Mills boy, is visiting the scenes of his youthful escapades in this section. Sixty years ago he was one of your correspondent's pupils in the Pine Grove school then Horace Greely advised the young men to go west and he struck the trail, landing in South Dakota, where he has accumulated a snug fortune as a dirt farmer. He is now finding very few of his boyhood friends hereabouts, some having moved away but most of them lying in God's Acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinie Reish were given a delightful surprise party, last Saturday, it being the birthday anniversary of both of them. The well known couple were inveigled from home by Hamill Goheen, who took them huckleberrying over in the Barrens and kept them away until the sun was sinking in the western heavens. When they returned home they found their house and yard filled with neighbors and spacious tables spread upon the lawn piled full of good things to eat. After the supper had been put in its proper places a long list of presents were brought forth and bestowed upon Mr. and Mrs. Reish.

"Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to earth."—Eccles. III, 18-21.

Harry Twitmeier, of Pitscairn, is spending his annual vacation with his mother, Mrs. Henry Twitmeier, and numerous old-time friends here.

George Hughes, of Axe Mann, who for some years kept our state road in presentable shape, now carries his dinner bucket to the Whiterock quarries, having secured work there.

William Hile, of Cleveland, Ohio, is spending a few weeks with friends here after a prolonged absence of forty years. He thinks the Gap has been greatly improved within the past two decades.

Miss Mary Swartz, our assistant postmistress, left on Wednesday for Snow Shoe, to visit her mother during her vacation. If she can secure a few days extension she will probably motor to Philadelphia before she returns to report for duty.

Mercantile vender Samuel Noll took in the Lewistown fair on Saturday last. He says the exhibits were "ponderous," and all who attended got value received. He estimates that fully one-half of the women seen there had bobbed hair and were evidently up-to-date.

Mr. Otto Hile says that Doc Stover's house, now under course of erection, cannot be excelled so far as the superlative stone work is concerned. Come to think it over, we have no right to question his broad assertion in this direction, since he is the fortunate contractor. Otto's work is o. k.

Politics has been unusually quiet hereabouts. However, it is to be presumed that the aspirants will ere long awaken to the fact that the time is near at hand when it will be their duty to acquaint the dear voter that they are running for an office; when all kinds of promises and pledges will be advanced.

The sportsmen's festival, Saturday night, proved a financial success, notwithstanding there were all told nine festivals staged for the same evening, in Centre county. For some years past Saturday night was regarded as the proper evening to pull off festivals—not so now—seven-tenths of the families of Pleasant Gap are now the owners of automobiles, and three-fourths of our population, through habit go to the county seat regularly on Saturday night; this has a tendency to largely decrease the attendance at the festivals held Saturday nights.

Our sportsmen's organization numbers about eighty members; to their credit it must be said nearly all were present on this occasion. The net receipts aggregated over $140.00. The hot-dog sandwich counter alone brought in $40.35. The president of the association, Mr. Raymond Melroy, who by the way is a veteran in this line of business, looked after the dog-end of the proposition, which probably accounts for the unprecedented success attained.

Our youngsters grow up to take the place of their elders, who pass from the activities of life to the restfulness of the beyond, and when they come into full possession of their inheritances they realize what they have missed if their manners are not such as to entitle them to places in society once occupied by their fathers and mothers. Then they feel the humiliation and chagrin which accompanies the knowledge and they are not fit to move in those circles where refinement, culture and good breeding reign; they feel themselves awkward and in the wrong sphere, and not only deserve the contempt with which they are regarded by those with whom they would like to associate, but they cannot help feeling a contempt for themselves. It is then, perhaps, too late, for opportunity, it is said, never knocks twice at the door of any man or woman. Many a man has been ruined selecting a wife who proved to be a hindrance instead of a help; who was a curse instead of a blessing, and who made a "home" for him, that was everything it should not have been. The young man who chooses the right sort of a girl to accompany him through life has made his first long step toward fortune; but it stands to reason that he cannot find such a girl as this among those who possess none, or very few of the gentle characteristics by which the true lady is known, and the lack of which attributes prove such a drawback to a young woman

L. Lorillard Company INCORPORATED

WHY IS IT

That some people will follow the advice of a stock salesman, who makes large commissions and has a direct interest in a sale—and ignore the advice of a banker, who has nothing in view but the protection of his depositors.

The preferred stock of a certain manufacturing company, which was sold to a number of local people at one hundred dollars per share, is now going begging at fifty dollars.

And some men sold Liberty Bonds to buy this stock!
