-Slipping on a cake of soap that had accidentally fallen on the floor of the bath room, yesterday morning, Miss Elizabeth Parker, corner of Howard and Spring streets, fell against the wash stand, breaking it and injuring herself quite badly A deep gash on her hip required several stitches to close. She is now under the care of an experienced nurse.

-Joseph Spearly, the twelve year old son of Commissioner and Mrs. John S. Spearly, who had his right arm broken at the shoulder, two weeks ago in an automobile accident, is now rapidly recovering from this and other injuries received. The boy, with his brother Grover, were driving into town in the family car when the steering gear broke, throwing them against a tree, with the above results. The car was considerably damaged, but Grover, the driver, was uninjured.

—A. B. Law, with his big Life Saver auto truck, was in Bellefonte last week advertising the candy with a hole in it and paid his respects to this office with a generous sample of his product. Men, women and children have eaten the little life savers and appreciate their purity and quality but it is only the very few who have come in contact with Mr. Law and come to know what a really valuable asset he is to the Life Saver company in advertising their product.

-The picnic season at Hecla park will virtually close next Monday with the big gathering of Odd Fellows, comprising the Central Pennsylvania association, which includes all of Centre and Clinton counties, and portions of Lycoming, Blair, Clearfield and Huntingdon. Thirty or more lodges will be represented and a large crowd is anticipated. While the gathering will be under the auspices of the Odd Fellows the public in general is invited to attend. Refreshments can be secured on the grounds by all those who do not care to take a basket.

----As stated in the "Watchman" last week the public schools in Bellefonte will open for the ensuing term next Tuesday, September 2nd. The teaching staff is complete notwithstanding the fact that a number of important changes have been made since the close of the schools early in June. About 325 pupils have already been registered for the High school, which does not include all the pupils who are expected to enroll from the country districts. When the registration is complete next week it is expected that the High school will show an attendance in excess of 350.

NEXT WEEK THE GRANGERS. Program for Their Big Annual Fair and Encampment at Centre Hall.

Next week all roads in Centre county will lead to Grange park, Centre Hall, where the Grangers will hold their fifty-first annual encampment. The committee in charge promises the best fair and biggest program ever arranged, but aside from the speakers who will be present at the annual reunion of the Centre County Veterfarm and the farmers' interests generally. There won't be any political this is a presidential year. Of course both old-time political parties will have headquarters on the grounds, and candidates of all political faiths will be given free range of the grounds, but there will be no stump speakers. The grounds were closed to the publis yesterday and from then on the price of admission will be 50 cents. This sum, however, entitles the ticket holder to the privilege of the grounds during the entire week. Children under fourteen years of age will be admitted free.

While the exhibits of farm machinery and implements are now pouring into the grounds, the stock, poultry and produce will not be placed before Monday and Tuesday, but all the available space has been taken and in Hecla park, the Grangers at Centre this line the fair promises to excel all former years.

The play ground for small children has been enlarged and will be under the constant supervision of experienced persons. The Red Cross will have a first-aid tent on the main avenue and also conduct a day nursery where infants and children of tender years will be cared for. All necessary supplies can be purchased on the grounds. An information bureau has been established at the administration building where both phones are in service. In addition to the large midway of various amusements (no gambling devices) the "Filipino 5," a popular musical company, will give free concerts daily, beginning tomorrow evening. The different Granges will give plays in the auditorium each evening during the week, the admission to which will be 10 and 20 cents. All trains will stop at the park during the week, with special trains on Thursday. Following is the week's program in detail:
