J. Milton Keller, wife and mother motored to Snow Shoe on Friday to visit relatives, leaving on Saturday for Altoona where they took in the auto races on Monday.

Rev. R. M. Campbell, of Altoona, very ably filled the pulpit in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church on Sunday evening and very forcibly demonstrated the fact that he has lost none of his old-time vigor.

On Monday morning Earl Harper, son of Gordon E. Harper, was holding the brake on a wagon loaded with oats as it was being backed out of the barn, and in some way he tripped and fell, the heavy wagon passing over his shoulder and just grazing his head. His shoulder was crushed and his face and head badly lacerated. A local physician dressed his injuries and he was later taken to the Bellefonte hospital.

Luther Krebs and wife, of Salt Lake City, are visiting old friends in this vicinity. Mr. Krebs went west forty years ago and as a civil engineer assisted in locating some of the western railroads over the Rockies and Pacific slope. Though naturally he is beginning to show his age he is looking fine. Prior to going west he was one of our successful school teachers and is now sending some of his pupils in the grand-parent class.

The sportsman's camp of Baileyville, held an enthusiastic meeting last Thursday evening, during which the membership was increased to fifty enthusiastic conversationalists. The speakers for the evening included game protector Thomas A. Mosher and T. H. Harter, of Bellefonte; D. F. Kapp and

J. Laird Holmes, of State College, and Rev. H. W. Fleming. Following the meeting refreshments were served and sixteen large cakes and fifteen gallons of ice cream consumed.

Miss Anderson, a school-mate at Williamsport business college, is visiting Miss Mildred Gingrich.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher and son, Charles Jr., returned to their home in Danville on Monday.

Prof. E. H. Meyer, wife and daughters, left early Monday morning for their home in Newark, N. J., after an enjoyable vacation in this vicinity.

Foster Charles and family moved into their newly remodeled residence last week. William Reish and family are occupying the house on Main street, vacated by Charles.

Saturday morning a number of Odd Fellows and Rebekah members chartered a Corl-Boal bus for a drive to Sunbury to visit the I. O. O. F. home, but failed to reach their destination because of tire trouble and returned home late Saturday evening.

Mrs. James Waddle, Mrs. John Rupp and son James, of State College; Mrs. Berner and daughter Louise, of Williamsport; Miss Bartlett, of Philadelphia, and Arthur C. Dale and wife, of Bellefonte, were visitors at the home of Austin Dale last week.

Mrs. Twigg and family, and Mrs. Heath and family, of Senny Ridge, and Mrs. Williams and family, of Wilmington, Del., were guests of the Stuart families and other friends during the week-end. The ladies are the Wilson sisters, formerly residents of Boalsburg.

The summer house at the Charles Segner home was ruined by fire on Friday afternoon, caused by the explosion of an oil stove. Volunteer firemen took charge of the local fire engine and hose and succeeded in putting out the fire before the arrival of the State College fire engine and company.

PLEASANT GAP.

Mr. and Mrs. Crumlish, accompanied by their son Billy, are visitors in Pittsburgh.

Miss Vera Hile left on Monday for Williamsport, to attend Potts Business College.

Howard Boyer and family, of State College, were week-end visitors at the Fred Hile home.

Miss Emeline Noll, of Philadelphia, visited a few days with her parents, William H. Noll Jr. and family.

Our good neighbor, "Squire J. D. Herman, is a victim of tonsillitis. Glad to announce that he is improving.

Miss Mary Swartz, our postmistress, has returned from her brief vacation at Snow Shoe and Philadelphia.

A. M. Kerstetter, Guy Kerstetter and family and Willis Markle, Virgie and Bobbie Markle, spent the week-end at the Pleasant Gap hunting camp.

The McMurray vaudeville company played to a fairly good crowd on Monday evening on the Pleasant Gap baseball grounds. Their singing, dancing, and other stunts were highly appreciated by our lovers of such entertainments.

Pleasant Gap, as usual, is well represented at the Grange picnic. The following is a list of those who are tent-holders: John Noll and family, Bertha Rimmer, Tom Jodon, Nettie Gill, Henry Shauey, Samuel Reish, Anna and Virgie Bilger, Frank Irwin, Blair Rice, James Bilger, Walter Dunkelbarger, John Ripka and Samuel Zettle.

John Furey, of Sharon, visited with his sister, Mrs. William Florey, the past week. This was his first visit to his former home for over thirty years. Mr. Furey is a practical newspaper man of more than ordinary capacity. He has been one of the head pushers of the Sharon Herald for some years. He was also connected with several southern newspapers before returning to his native State.

Pleasant Gap was fairly well represented at the Altoona races on Labor day. The following enjoyed the festivities, Samuel E. Noll, C. K. Stitzer, Elvin Stiver, R. S. Melroy and wife (accompanied by Dr. Langley and wife, of Williamsport); Ray Noll and Katharine Wian, George Rimmer, Earl Weaver and Thomas Williams. They universally agree that they got value received for the time consumed in the Mountain city.

Last Sunday the Horners held a very agreeable reunion at the George Horner farm on Nittany mountain, at the head of Greens valley. Among the happy participants were Mr. George Horner and wife, Elmer Horner and wife, Claire, Wallace and Floyd Horner, accompanied by their wives and children; Mrs. Leslie Horner and family and Saul Burris and wife. Everybody in the happy aggregation enjoyed themselves hugely and all were glad that they were fortunate enough to be present.

Paul Keller, wife and daughter Betty, and Mr. and Mrs. John Herman, of Philadelphia, are spending a part of their vacation at the Grange picnic. They seem to think that visiting Centre Hall at this particular time is a delightful occurrence and causes a universal expansion of vital action; the heart seems to bound more lightly, and the body appears literally to dilate under the pleasurable affections of the mind. John Herman remarked a few evenings ago, that to be at the Granger's camp makes one feel more contented. It causes nature to smile with us; the air is apparently more balmy, the sky clearer. The flowers smell more fragrant, the birds sing sweeter, and the sun, moon and stars seem to shine brighter.

"Spare that Tree" Pinchot Orders.

"Woodman, spare that tree," by orders of Governor Pinchot.

This warning in large letters is placarded on a 300 year old oak tree in upper Octoraro Churchyard, near Coatesville.

The State Highway Department had wanted to cut down the tree in order to run a new concrete road through the spot where it now stands. Local citizens organized and named Representative William W. Long, as their spokesman. He telephoned Pinchot at Millford and the Governor immediately ordered that the tree stand.

The new road will wind around the tree instead of over its roots.

Saving His Breath.

The judge eyed the prisoner sternly. "Have you anything to say before sentence is passed upon you?" he demanded.

"What's the use, judge?" the culprit asked. "You won't take my word against them 12 guys 'wot found me guilty."

MEDICAL.

Oh! My Back!

Aching Backs Make Life Miserable for Many Bellefonte People.

It isn't right to suffer day in and day out with dull, unceasing backache. Or be utterly miserable with sharp stabs of pain whenever you stoop or lift. But chances are you will suffer these tormenting aches and pains as long as your weakened kidneys are neglected. You may have headaches, too, spells of dizziness and urinary disorders. Then use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Experiences of Bellefonte people prove the merit of Doan's.

Mrs. H. W. Johnson, Valentine St., says: "I felt so miserable with backache I could hardly stand. Mornings when I came down stairs I was so lame I couldn't raise my feet to go up the steps again. My kidneys were disordered and annoyed me. Doan's Pills from Runkle's drug store soon put an end to my suffering."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Johnson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

AARONSBURG.
