THE CHINESE FLOWER FAIR.

Mrs. North Writes of Weather, Musicals, Flower Fair, Etc.

Chengtu, China, April 6.

Dear Home Folks:

Although it is only April you would think it was the middle of summer. The roses and all kinds of lovely flowers are in full bloom. We have had some rather warm days already, but just now it is rather cold. There was a thunder storm during the night and it has cooled the atmosphere considerably. We have been without a fire for weeks but this evening are having one built in the fireplace in order to be more comfortable. The few warm days we had have given us some idea of what it will be like in the summer. But Bill and I are planning to spend the summer months at a place called Kwanhsien, about a day's journey from here. Most people with children go there because it is not far from Chengtu and is a nice place for the children to play. We are going there this year, because we thought we would probably

The first case called was that of Raymond Rudy and Jesse Deering, of College towncouncil to insist on Homer Baldwin ship, charged - with manufacturputting down a pavement in front of ing moonshine. The arrest was made by constable R. R. Mingle, of State College, who stated to the court that about a month ago, acting upon information which he had received, he visited the farm on the White Hall road occupied by Mr. Deering and there found Raymond Rudy in the act of emptying a small from Paul D. Wright, of the State barrel of corn mash. That he confiscated a still which was quite warm, evidence that it had been in operation only a short time before, and also found another still hidden in the cellar under the kitchen. He admitted, however, that he had not found any available for road construction in this moonshine. Judge Quigley told constable Mingle that his over-zealousness in making the arrest before securing evidence of the manufacture State Sanitary Water Board regard- and sale of the moonshine would reing the laying of a pipe in Spring sult in losing the case.
