Democratic Matchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., September 12, 1924.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Another little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jones, at the Bellefonte hospital, yesterday morning.

-All services at the Bellefonte lecture room while the main auditorium is being repainted and cleaned.

-Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forsburg, of Curtin street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Forsburg is a patient in the Bellefonte hospital.

-The appointment of Kenneth L. McCauley, of Hublersburg, as a Department, has been approved by Governor Pinchot.

-Flying snowflakes last Friday and slight frosts on Saturday and Sunday mornings were forewarnings that the fall season will soon be here, and the coal man will take the place of the ice man.

-All persons who desire to take advantage of the Old Age Pension act are requested to present their appli-specifies that the payment of all just cations to Mrs. Rebecca C. Tuten, at the court house in Bellefonte, on or before September 30th.

-Altogether the most attractive the early fall, was the card dinner of thirty-five covers, given by Mrs. tion; or any other lawful interest he Charles Garbrick, at the Bush house, Wednesday evening of last week.

-Rumor was abroad in Bellefonte yesterday of the marriage of Gordon L. Montgomery and Miss Sara Woods, of New York city. Miss Woods is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Woods, former residents of Bellefonte.

-A progressive five hundred party will be held in the parish house of St. John's Episcopal church on Tuesday evening, September 23rd. Admission, 50 cents. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments served. The public is cordially invited.

-The marriage of Charles S. Krumrine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Krumrine, of Philadelphia, but former residents of Bellefonte, and Miss Jane Brown Gilfillan will be solemnized at 6 o'clock p. m., on Monday, September 22nd, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gilfillan, at Overbrook.

-The increase in the price of "bobs" by the barbers of Bellefonte, last week, will doubtless result in many girls retaining their "crown of glory," especially as Paris has ruled that bobbed heads are now out of style. There has also been an increased demand among the dealers for safety razors.

Dr. Ellen Potter has announced will be stationed permanently at the may in their judgment see fit and di-

PROBATED ON MONDAY. Voluminous Docket. Bellefonte

Presbyterian Church and Hospital Receive the Only

Charitable Bequests.

The will of the late Hon. A. G. Morris was entered for probate late on estimated at approximately one million dollars. The only charitable bequests are to the Presbyterian church of Bellefonte and the Bellefonte hospital, (now the Centre County hos-18th, 1923, was drawn by Mr. Morris' legal advisor and confidential friend, the attorney in charge of the settleis left in trust during the present generation.

While, as stated above, the estate consists of decedent's interest in the his appearance at court. American Lime & Stone company, and the preliminary paragraph of the will debts, funeral expenses, inheritance taxes, legal fees, charitable and spethe proceeds of the sale and settleand common stock of that organizamay have therein. Of course, Mr. Morris had property interests in other sections of Pennsylvania as well as of the will. Stripped of its legal verbiage and phraseology the will disposes of the estate as follows:

To Eliza Egbert Morris the family home on east Linn street, with all its contents, such as furniture, silverware, heirlooms, etc.; also, the farm of 163 acres in Butler county, Pennsylvania, which is underlaid with valuable minerals; also, his right, title and interest, in fee simple, of the California lime quarries (heretofore now operated by the Pittsburgh Lime and Stone company.

To his four sons, Charles A. Morris, Thomas King Morris, Robert $30,000 each.

To Homer Thompson, who for years was Mr. Morris' chauffeur, $2,000, to be paid within six months, as a consideration for his uniform courtesy and strict attention to his duties at all times. To the Bellefonte Presbyterian church the sum of $5,000 to be used and applied in any way and manner as the official board may see fit.

To the Bellefonte hospital (now Centre County hospital) the sum of that a detail of five state policemen any purpose the board of directors

WILL OF THE LATE A. G. MORRIS Morris, Thomas King Morris, Charles Margaret McDowell Was Accidentally A. Morris and Frank K. Lukenbach, now president of the Blair County National bank, each of whom are to receive for their work the sum of Bootlegging at Granger's Picnic.

$5,000.

George Long, of Ferguson town-Monday afternoon in the office of reg- of State College, were all arrested at ister of wills, Harry A. Rossman. It the Granger's picnic at Centre Hall tral garage, at Clarence. Pinchock Methodist church will be held in the is a voluminous document, covering last week by state policeman J. A. some fifteen or sixteen pages of legal King, on the charge of bootlegging. size paper and disposes of an estate The three men are under bail for their appearance at the next term of court. Mrs. Harry Miller, of Boalsburg, sold a quart of home-made wine to a stranger, one day last week, for $1.50, and that proved her downfall, as the tal.) The will, which is dated May man was a state policeman in plain clothes and he promptly searched her home, finding two more quarts of draftsman, Class B, in the Highway W. Harrison Walker, who will also be wine. The woman was placed under arrest and will also have to answer ment of the estate, the bulk of which to the court for having in her posses- right side of her back just above the sion and selling intoxicating liquors.

Harry Brooks, of Snow Shoe, was arrested last week by Sergt. Jimcousis estimated at approximately a mil- ky for maintaining and operating hospital but died before reaching that

Tony Stec, Polishman, Goes Bughouse.

Last Thursday night a Polishman by the name of Tony Stec registered cial bequests are to be made out of at the Bush house and at his request was assigned a room for the night. and most successful social event of ment of his holdings of the preferred Shortly after going to the room he pil in the Clarence grammar school Taylor was summoned and the door in his hand and brandished it in self- at this writing. in other States, which necessitated the defense. But the sheriff had little probating of a dozen or more copies difficulty in taking him into custody and conveying him to the county jail.

While the man can talk only broken English he told a weird story of being wanted in Wilkes-Barre where he killed a man sixteen years ago. Now it happens that one of the state policemen stationed in this section is a Polishman and he went to the jail and undertook to interrogate the man. man at or near Wilkes-Barre sixteen years ago, but asked as to when he known as the Pemberton quarries), came to this country he replied "fourteen years ago." So the only conclusion is that the man is completely out of his mind, but what occasioned his condition or why he selected the Bush Morris and Alexander G. Morris Jr., house to start his stunts has not been determined.

> Bush House to Change Hands on proval. Monday.

A deal was closed on Wednesday whereby J. T. Stewart, a well known hotel man of Central Pennsylvania, purchased from the Daggett estate the interior furnishings and equipment of the Bush house, and next Monday, September 15th, that gentle-$10,000 to be used in any way and for man will succeed Lewis Daggett as landlord.

hotel man. He at present has under and Marble Hall, in Mount Carmel.

As to Mr. Daggett, he has two open

"The Cat and the Canary."

Canary" will pay its first visit to

Bellefonte on Tuesday evening, September 16th. The company engaged

Killed at Clarence on Wednesday Evening.

Fooling with a loaded revolver caused the death of Miss Margaret Mc-Dowell, fifteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy McDowell, of Scotchtown, near Snow Shoe, on Wednesday evening. The young girl, with ship; Bert Lyle and Theodore Taylor, Jane Stark, accompanied John Pinchock and Kenneth Shank to the Cencarried a loaded revolver in a holster strapped around his waist.

While in the garage the girls were playfully tussling with Pinchock when young Shank warned them to desist. owing to the loaded revolver in Pinchock's belt. The latter stated that there was no danger from it and pulled the gun from the holster and "broke" it to show how harmless it was. But as he snapped it together one chamber was discharged, the bullet striking Miss McDowell in the hip. First aid was promptly rendered and she was brought to the Bellefonte lion dollars, the major portion of it gambling devices and gave bail for institution. Justice of the peace John M. Keichline held an inquest and after inquiring into the case the coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental shooting, and Pinchock was permitted to return home. Just why he was carrying the loaded revolver was not divulged.

The victim of the tragedy was a pulocked the door and started in creat- and a bright and winsome young girl. ing a general commotion. Sheriff In addition to her parents she is survived by several sisters. Arrangebroken open. Stec had a window stick ments for the funeral are not known

Contract Awarded for the Excavations at Centre County Hospital.

At a regular meeting of the board of trustees of the Centre County hospital, on Monday evening, the contract for the excavations and foundations for the new wing of the institution was awarded to John T. Harnish, he being the lowest bidder. Mr. Har-Stec persisted that he had killed a nish started work on Wednesday morning.

The general plans for the building were submitted by H. S. Moore, chairman of the building committee, and approved by the board. The committee was authorized to advertise for bids for the work. Copies of the plans have already been sent to the Department of Labor and Industry and the State Welfare Department for ap-

Physicians recently elected to the hospital staff and who have signified their acceptance are LeRoy Locke, of Bellefonte; George H. Woods, of Pine Grove Mills; G. S. Frank, of Millheim; H. S. Braucht, of Spring Mills; W. J. the U. G. I. company, the corporation he Kurtz, of Howard; P. H. Dale, of has been associated with for a number of State College; J. R. Barlett and J. T. years. Ritenour, of Pleasant Gap.

ANNUAL MEETING OCTOBER 18th. The annual corporate meeting of the sister, Mrs. Lyon, and in the interest of For more than thirty-six years the hospital association will be held in the name of Daggett has been prominent- | court house at 8 o'clock Monday evenly identified with the management of ing, October 13th. At that time a this well known hotel. In fact it was new board of trustees will be elected in March, 1888, when W. L. Daggett and every person who has contributed and Mr. Elliett, under the firm name ! to the support of the hospital during of Daggett & Elliott, took charge of the past year is entitled to attend and the hotel, succeeding W. R. Teller. have a voice in the meeting. Mr. Elliott continued in the firm only Prior to the annual meeting a pea year or two when he withdrew and tition will be presented to the court Mr. Daggett was in charge until his to change the name of the institution death a few years ago, since which from Bellefonte Hospital to Centre veek. time the management has devolved County Hospital. upon his son Lewis. A deed for a lot in Muscle Shoals, given by Mrs. Ella J. Mountz, of The Bush house has always been recognized as one of the leading ho- Smith's Mills, during the big drive tels in the central part of the State, for the hospital, has been received by and is located conveniently to the the hospital authorities. The board authorized the publicarailroad station. Hence it has always enjoyed a large clientelle among the tion of the by-laws of the hospital in transient trade. Mr. Stewart, the pamphlet form, copies of which will new proprietor, will come to Bellebe distributed to the public.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL. -Miss M. C. Snyder is in New York this week, selecting her early winter millinery.

-Miss Agnes Brown, who had been with friends at Lamar, returned to her home in Altoona Tuesday.

-Bruce L. Burlingame visited here for several days of the week, with friends and relatives of Mrs. Burlingame.

-Misses Sarah Haag and Mildred Brown left last Thursday to resume their studies at the Mansfield Normal school.

-Miss Isabella Hill returned Wednesday from her home at Norwich, Conn., to resume her winter work at the Academy. -Joseph Parrish and Miss Isabelle Ward left on Wednesday for Carlisle to continue their work as students at Dickinson College.

-Miss Overton is expected in Bellefonte comorrow, from Atlantic City, where she has been at the Childrens Seashore Home during the summer school vacation.

-Miss Helen Brown, a daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Brown, returned home last Saturday from a week's visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ross, in Pittsburgh.

-Miss Agnes Beezer is spending this week in Philipsburg, having gone over to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Ruth Beezer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Beezer.

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Foltz and two children, of Philadelphia, are at the Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick home in Bellefonte for the month of September, Mrs. Foltz being a sister of Mrs. Kilpatrick.

-Mrs. William Derstine was a motor guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Klinger, on day, to spend the remainder of the month drive Tuesday, to Centre Hall, where she remained for a visit of several days with Miss Rebecca Derstine.

-Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Lyon motored here from their home in Chester on Friday and were guests of their aunts, the Misses Anna and Rebecca Lyon, of Howard street, until their return on Sunday.

-Kurtz Houser and his family made one of their frequent visits to Bellefonte last week, driving over from Houtzdale to spend Sunday with Mr. Houser's parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Houser, of Water street.

-Mrs. Jerome Harper will go to Ellsworth, Pa., this week to spend a part of the month with Mr. Harper. Mrs. Harper only returned Monday from Germantown, having been a member of Mrs. Katz' driving party to Philadelphia and the Shore.

-Miss Margaret Cook left Saturday for New Orleans, to be with her brother-inlaw, John Hinman Gibson, for ten days or two weeks to help in dismantling his home. Miss Cook, who had been ill for much of the summer, is greatly improved in health.

-Mrs. John I. Olewine and Miss Olewine were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. West on a drive to Indiana, Pa., and from there went on to Pittsburgh, for a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. West's daughter, Mrs. Pearce. Their plans were for returning home this week.

-Bond Valentine, of Philadelphia, who had been here for his annual ten day visit with his aunt, Miss Mary B. Valentine, of Curtin street, and other relatives, departed on Sunday. Mr. Valentine is still with

-Joseph D. Mitchell, of Lewistown, was here last week for a short visit with his residing in Renovo, where he is connected his new work. Mr. Mitchell now has the r the sale of a sp

-Miss Katherine Allison returned Tuesday evening from, a month's visit with Miss Dashiels, in Salisbury, Md.

-Dorris Moore entered Dickinson seminary, at Williamsport, this week, for a two year's course in preparation for college.

-Miss Georgie Daggett, of New York city, is a guest of her aunt. Mrs. Wells Daggett, at her home on east Linn street. -George P. Bible returned home Saturday, from his summer Chautauqua work, expecting to be here with Mrs. Bible and their daughters for the winter.

-Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kerlin, of New York city, who are occupying the Kerlin house on Howard street, expect to be in Bellefonte during the entire month of September.

-Mr. and Mrs. Paul Seanor, of Roanoke, Va., was among those from out of town here for the funeral of William H Payne, Wednesday. Mrs. Seanor is Mr. Payne's sister.

-Miss Minnie Murphy, of Ithaca, N. Y., the youngest daughter of Linn and the late Minnie Crosthwaite Murphy, was in Bellefonte for the week-end, a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Donald Gettig.

-John Bair, of the postoffice force, entertained his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Bair, last week. It was Montgomery's first visit to Bellefonte since the family left here a number of years ago.

-Mrs. Robert M. Beach, Miss Mary Blanchard and John Blanchard Esq., went to Overbrook Wednesday, to attend the funeral of their aunt. Mrs. Wistar Morris. who was buried there yesterday afternoon. -Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Moeslein and their small child arrived in Bellefonte Wedneswith Mrs. Moeslien's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Undercoffer, the trip from Brooklyn being made in their car. Mrs. Moeslein will be remembered as Miss Esther Undercoffer.

-Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Irwin, who had been visiting with Mr. Irwin's mother, Mrs. Daniel Irwin, and with Dr. and Mrs. W. U. Irwin, in Bellefonte, returned to their home in Buffalo, early in the week. Mrs. Irwin had been in Centre county since the middle of August, Mr. Irwin joining her here a week ago.

-Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sohner, of Waterloo, Iowa, who stopped here last Tuesday, while on their way to Philadelphia, were guests until their departure, yesterday, of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Garthoff, of Willowbank street. Mr. A. J. Campbell, of Lewisburg, has also been a recent guest in the Garthoff home.

-Mrs. Grant Pifer has been spending several days in Bellefonte with her sister. Mrs. Clayton Royer, before returning to her home in Wilkinsburg. Mrs. Pifer had been on a visit with her mother, Mrs. H. K. Hoy, who is with Mrs. W. J. Wagner, in Boalsburg, and who has entirely recovered from her recent illness.

-Miss Jennie Zimmerman will return to Washington, D. C. tomorrow, after spending her vacation in Centre county visiting with friends and relatives at State College, Milesburg and with the Oliver Witmer family in Bellefonte. Miss Zimmerman was a resident of the town at one time, having lived on Lamb street.

-W. T. Hunt, of Renovo, was in Belle fonte both on Saturday and Monday. He motored over Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Patton, of Roanoke, Va., relatives who had been visiting at their home in Renovo. Mr. Hunt was formerly a resident of Bellefonte but for a number of years has been with the Pennsylvania R. R. organization. -Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Casebeer's guests Rockview penitentiary as a precautionary measure against prisoners escaping or a general outbreak. Durteen men have been at Rockview but of ed until the detail is down to five.

-The painting recently done on the Presbyterian church and manse at ly financed by a class of young men in the Sunday school, assisted by the always faithful Ladies Aid. These enterprising people hope to start work on the interior of the church in the near future, improvements which will make the little edifice one of the most attractive in that vicinity.

-While driving along the mountain road in the Fishing Creek narrows, Tuesday evening, Miss Henrietta Quigley, in passing another car, drove her own too close to the side of the road and it went over onto the rocks. Fortunately for its occupants the rocks were so large that they kept the car from turning over and falling down a four foot embankment. It had to be abandoned and was not gotten out until Wednesday.

-Quite a number of motion picture fans in Bellefonte turn to the Scenic program published in the Egbert Morris, and the income from "Watchman" and read it before they one-sixth of the total to be paid to look over the news in the paper. They each of his sons, Charles, Thomas, are men and women who depend on Robert and Alexander Jr. the Scenic for their evening's entertainment, because they know the pictures are always new and interesting. All those who are not regular attendants should get the habit and see all the worth-while pictures.

----Good speakers, good band, good quartette and refreshments on the ground are among the inducements offered at a big Ku Klux gathering to be held at Grange park, Centre Hall, tomorrow afternoon and, evening. The speakers will be from Atlanta, 'Ga.; Pittsburgh and Altoona, while the latter city will furnish the band. No definite program has been announced but there will probably be speaking in the afternoon with fireworks, the flaming cross and initiation of new members at night.

mountain in Centre county after Count Charles Trcziyulny, the Polish dren share and share alike. refugee who came to Centre county as a young man and engaged in civil engineering, assisting in the construc- tion with any provisions of the will along the Susquehanna river. His re- whatsoever, shall be paid the sum his name has not yet been designated, | equally among the others. it is quite likely it will be as near the old family cemetery as possible.

| rect. The will then directs that the sum of $105,000 be placed in trust in the ing the past few weeks a squad of fif- Peoples Savings and Trust company. Pittsburgh, the income from this number will be gradually reduc- $20,000 of which sum, less all costs and fees entailed in handling same, be paid to his grand-son, Thomas King Morris Jr., during his natural Milesburg was suggested and partial- life. In the event of his death the principal to go to his widow and children, if any he should have. To Elizabeth Morris is left the income on $25,000, less expenses, etc., for a period of ten years, when the principal is to be paid to her outright. To Elliott Lyon Morris, the income from $20,000 for a period of ten years, when the principal is to be paid to him. To Alexander G. Morris III and Robert Morris Jr., sons of Mr. and fonte with years of experience as a Mrs. Robert Morris, the income from $20,000 each until they attain their his supervision the management of the Liecester house, in Huntingdon, majority when the principal is to be paid them outright.

All the residue and remainder of the estate is to be converted into a offers to go into the hotel business trust fund and placed in charge of the elsewhere but has not yet decided which one he will take over. Peoples Savings and Trust company, of Pittsburgh, and apportioned into five shares, two-sixths of which is devised outright to his daughter, Eliza in this spooky thriller is the one The will further devises and bequeaths to Eliza Egbert Morris the which played for thirty-six weeks last right to dispose of all her right, title and interest in the estate by will to drama has yet many cities on its callwhomsoever and whatsoever she may see fit, but none of the sons are granted the power to dispose of anything, tralia and has been played through quest granted outright. Their inter- celebrated traveling reportoire comest in the one-sixth of the trust fund pany. of the residue of the estate ceases at their death, according to the terms of the original will, and their interest is then to be paid outright to their children, or in the event of no legal issue, then divided share and share alike among the surviving grandchildren; but in a codicil the interest was extended to the death or remarriage of the wife, in the event of her surviving the death of her husband. -Upon the recommendation of But if any such shall remarry their from a sleeping girl's throat. Doors Col. Henry W. Shoemaker the State interest ceases and the principal is geographic board has decided to name then to be paid to the children, if any, stage, while a maniac roams at large and if not, the surviving grand-chil-

The codicil also provides that any ters in the play. legatee, who may express dissatisfaction of the old Pennsylvania canal or questions its legality in any way to relieve the tension.

tors to settle the estate Eliza Egbert | William Dean and Earl McCauley.

New Physical Director at the Y.

Mr. J. Fred Pandel has been engaged as physical director by the and is now busy preparing for the | Trust company. opening of the gymnasium classes this month. The gymnasium is being thoroughly cleaned and the equipment overhauled and put in good shape for the winter's work. The first The internationally known "Cat and class will be held for the juniors next Wednesday afternoon, September 17. Mr. Pandel comes to the position well prepared to present a very active physical program, having been under the leadership of physical diseason. John Willard's hair raising rector J. S. Koller, of the Burnham

Y. M. C. A., for eight years. He is a ing list in this country but has alsplendid gymnast and has assisted Mr. ready had runs in England and Aus- Koller in a large number of stunts in connection with their programs there. with the exception of the $30,000 be- the Orient by T. Daniel Frawley's He is of light build and very nimble in his acrobatic work, which should prove to be an attractive feature to

"The Cat and the Canary" was built the younger element. He is a graduupon the established principle that ate of the Burnham High school and people like thrills as long as they a member of their 'Varsity basket ball know that the end is rosy. It is like team, on which he played forward poreading Poe's "Black Cat" with the sition. Basket ball will have a prominent place on his program this year lights down and have them flare up; like a journey on a roller coaster with and it is quite likely that an indussafety never out of sight. In this sentrial basket ball league will be conducted. sational success a will is read at midnight, there is a murder and an icy Dr. R. B. Tinsley is chairman of the new physical committee. He has aphand removes a valuable necklace pointed a strong committee to co-opopen and panels slide on a dimly lit erate with the physical director in making the program of his departand vague noises cause the audience ment a most attractive one. as much apprehension as the charac-

Mr. Pandel is a member of the Evangelical church and is active in But it comes out all right and whenyoung people's work. He was presi- an hour or more, stopping here on ever the lights are up there is comedy dent of the Mifflin county young people's division, which position he had O. E. Wee Inc. presents "The Cat to resign when taking up his duties mains are buried in the Trcziyulny | of $1.00 as his or her interest in the and the Canary" with scrupulous care in Bellefonte. He is a man of stercemetery just north of Milesburg and, estate and the portion devised and be- and with this exceptional cast: Louise ling character and will prove a great while the mountain which is to bear queathed thereto then be divided Price, Chas. F. Seel, James F. Ayres, asset to the staff of the Y. M. C. A. Anne Gordon, Jeanne Neilson, Mary in their work of putting on an at-Lastly the will appoints as execu- Diehl, Charles Long, Fred E. Strong, tractive program for the young men and boys of Bellefonte.

did accounting system for merchants, which promises to be very popular in the business world.

-Mrs. Washington Irvin and her daughter, Mrs. Fred Hollobaugh, had as guests Patterson's visit was made in the form of over the week-end Mrs. Irvin's brother, W. W. Thomas, his wife and daughter, ing next week to make her home in Caliand Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hackett, all of Austin, Potter county. The party had motored to Centre county to attend the Thomas reunion in Halfmoon valley, last

-Boyd Magee, of Philadelphia, has been and spent several days of last week with friends in Bellefonte, returning then to Centre Hall to continue his visit there. Boyd, who is the youngest son of the late bered among the real estate men of Philadelphia.

-Mahlon Robb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson E. Robb, who spent his summer vacation as a clerk in the Bellefonte Trust company, left on Saturday for Philadelnhia, where he is a student in the University of Pennsylvania. LeRoy Resides, of Fleming, a graduate of the Bellefonte Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A., High school, has succeeded him in the

> -Mrs. Charles Heisler has been in Belle fonte during the past week, her visit at this time being to look after some business relative to the sale of her property on south Thomas street. Although the home was bought by Charles Wetzel, no change will be made for the present, Mr. and Mrs. Wetzel remaining with Mrs. Jared Harper until the Rumbergers find a suitable home.

-Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Lucas, of Washington, D. C., made their second summer tion as he was on his way to Lewis' visit to Centre county, last week, being motor guests this time of another son and his wife. Mr. and Mrs. John Grvis Lucas. Mr. Orvis Lucas is an employee of the weather bureau, being one of the expert decorators and painters in that department. The party made the return drive Sunday, after spending eight days with relatives in Unionville.

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilcox and three children, Emily, George and Charles, lifelong residents of Philipsburg, passed through Bellefonte last Thursday route by automobile to Orlando. Florida, where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Wilcox is a contractor and builder and of late has not been enjoying very good health. His physician advised a change to a warmer climate, so | Telephone this office. he purchased a home in Orlando and started for that place last week.

-Mrs. George Benner, of Centre has been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Patton, of Norfolk, Va., Mrs. Patton ing been a girlhood friend of Mrs. Be The party was in Bellefonte Monday way to Martha Furnace, where they dinner guests that evening of Mr. and O. D. Eberts, From Martha Mr. and Patton went to Pittsburgh, expectin return home from there. Mr. Patton perintendent of Motive Power of the board Air Line and his interest in C county affairs is through his wife was Miss Ida Woodring, of Martha nace, before their marriage.

since their return from Somerset, have included their niece, Betty Montgomery, who accompanied them home, and two of

Mr. Casebeer's sisters, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Rhoads, both of Pittsburgh, Mrs. a farewell one, in anticipation of her leavfornia.

-Mr. and Mrs. R. Russell Blair and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schad have just returned from a two week's motor trip to Philadelphia, Atlantic City and in New York. While in the latter city Mr. and Mrs. in Centre county for the past two weeks Blair purchased the latest fall showings in jewelry and silverware for the F. P. Blair & Son store, which will be on display in the near future. Other members of the driving party were Franklin Schad, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Magee, is now num- Miss Anna Straub and Mr. Staples. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bible, of Philadelphia, and a friend of theirs joined them at Atlantic City.

Clubbing Affray at Moshannon.

Edward Fye and Foster Quick, two young men living near Moshannon, are under $1,000 bail for trial at the September term of court for brutally clubbing Cyrus Schnarrs on Tuesday. September 2nd. The assault was the culmination of a feud that has existed between the families for two years or more, dating back to a law suit over Mr. Schnarrs' cows trespassing on land owned by his neighbors.

According to the testimony at a hearing before 'Squire Kline Woodring, in Bellefonte, the two young men followed Schnarrs on the day in quesstore, at Moshannon, stoning him. Near the store they assaulted him with a good sized club, which they broke over his head. Mr. Schnarrs sustained a cut on the head which required five stitches to close and was so badly injured that he has been confined to bed ever since.

Information Wanted-Of an old wooden settee, taken from the front porch of the home of the late Mrs. D. G. Meek, at State College, two weeks ago. The settee was originally painted green, had vertical rungs in the back and a decided split in the seat. 35-tf

Hall, C. S. hav- nner.	For Rent.—Three furnished rooms, with heat, light and use of bath. No children wanted. Inquire at this of- fice. 36-1t
for their	-Get your job work done here.
were Mrs. Mrs.	Bellefonte Grain Market.
g to s su-	Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. Wheat
Sea-	Corn 1.30
entre	Rye = = = = = = = 1.10
who	Oats50
Fur-	Barley60
	Buckwheat