—Virginia Healy, of the class of 1924, Bellefonte High school, has entered St. Elizabeth College, at Morristown, N. J. Anne Wagner and Ruth Deitrick, Cedar Crest College, at Allentown; Elizabeth Hazel, Jack Yeager, Carl Gray, James Carpeneto, William Waite, Edward Harnish and William Nichols, Penn State.

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

G. C. Corl, Paul Sunday and Ernest Trostle are all building new silos.

Mrs. J. Cal Sunday spent the latter end of the week at the Waldo Homan home at Oak Hall.

John G. Miller came up from the city of Brotherly Love and spent Sunday at his home here.

Miss Nannie McWilliams and Misses Belle and Lizzie Goheen motored to Tyrone on Monday on a shopping tour.

Hugh C. Dale, of the Branch, was a caller among friends at Baileyville and Rock Springs on Sunday afternoon.

W. R. Port and wife motored to Eagleville and spent Sunday with old acquaintances.

Our coal dealers, Keller & Koch, are busy filling coal bins for the winter season, having two big trucks in service.

J. B. Wireman and family, of Alexandria, motored to Rock Springs and spent Sunday with the Chester Breneman family.

George Boal Thompson is arranging to move to Bellefonte and take up his residence in the Bush Arcade. He has several jobs in view.

Misses Virginia Dale, Maude Glenn and Irene Fletcher were entertained at the Waldo Weaver home on the Branch on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell and Mrs. Fred Rossman motored to Burnham on Saturday and visited among friends until the early part of the week.

Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick preached in the Presbyterian church at Bellwood, on Sunday, his appointments here and at Boalsburg being filled by Chaplain Metzger, of State College.

Prof. T. C. Houtz, of Selinsgrove, spent last week among relatives and friends in the valley. Almost a half century ago he was principal of the Pine Grove Mills Academy, so is well remembered here.

Miss Nannie McWilliams gave a surprise party, last Saturday evening, in honor of the birthday of her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Goheen. It proved a very enjoyable occasion for all who were fortunate in being present.

The Lord's Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian church at Graysville at 10:45 o'clock on Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. Harry D. Fleming. Preparatory service will be held at 7:30 o'clock on Friday evening.

Fred Corl and sister Florence came down from Altoona to take part in the Defense day program at Boalsburg. Fred plays E flat in our band and can always be depended upon to be on hand when there is anything doing.

Our mutual friend, J. E. Bressler, is now in the Bellefonte hospital where, on Monday, he underwent an operation for chronic appendicitis. His friends will be glad to know that he is recovering nicely and yesterday was about as fit as a patient could be after coming through an operation.

William Wagner, of the Branch, last week took an option on the James Glenn farm at White Hall, paying $500 down and the 1924 taxes with the privilege of taking over the farm next year at the price of $8,000. Mr. Wagner has been tenant on the Thomas Fishburn farm but owing to the scarcity of farm help is anxious to get a smaller place.

Miss Elizabeth Miller, of State College, the young lady who was fortunate in winning the $120 McAllister scholarship prize, accompanied by her brother Raymond, are spending her vacation with her aunts, the Misses Maude and Gertrude Miller, at Rock Springs. Raymond has been quite ill all summer but is now able to go out for short drives through the country.

A wedding is scheduled to take place in the Reformed church at Boalsburg, tomorrow afternoon, when Fred Brouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brouse, of Boalsburg, will be united in marriage to Miss Edwina Wieland, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Wieland, of Linden Hall. The ceremony will be performed by Rev.

J. Max Kirkpatrick. The prospective bridegroom holds a good position in the forestry department at State College.

Week-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20:

LARRY SEMON, in "THE GIRL IN THE LIMOUSINE," is a perfect scream by this eminent comedian of the screen, in his first long production, and sure to please all who like good comedy. Also, 2 reel Educational Comedy.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22:

ELMO LINCOLN, in "THE RIGHT OF THE STRONGEST," is a strong melodrama by this athletic star in which might sometimes overcomes right. Also, Pathe News and Topics.

TUESDAY, and WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23 AND 24:

GLORIA SWANSON, in "SOCIETY SCANDAL." This feature is noted for the gorgeous dresses of the star with an interesting story and the theme is the harm the scandal mongers do to their neighbors. She pays her opponents' lawyer in his own coin but in the end falls in love with him and they marry. Also, 2 reel Comedy.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25:

DOROTHY DALTON, in "THE MORAL SINNER," is a good crook melodrama and will please the lovers of this style of story. Founded on stage play of Leah Kleeschna. Love and romance weave through the play. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26:

Title will be announced later. Also, the 13th episode of "THE FAST MAIL."

OPERA HOUSE.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19 AND 20:

FLORENCE VIDOR, in "THE VIRGINIAN," is a very good play founded on the book of that title and said by some to be as good as "The Covered Wagon." Also, 2 reel Comedy.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26 AND 27:

All Star Cast in "GALLOPING FISH." Is the story of a trained seal that will make you laugh until your sides ache, with Louise Fazenda, Sydney Chaplin, Ford Sterling and Chester Conklin. Also, the Jack Dempsey serial, "SO THIS IS PARIS."
