Democratic Watchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., September 26, 1924. P GRAY MEEK. - - - Editor

Te Correspondents .- No communications published unless accompanied by the real same of the writer.

Terms of Subscription .- Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance -$1.50 Paid before expiration of year - 1.75 Paid after expiration of year - 2.00

Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa., as second class matter.

In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. It all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation.

A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET For President, JOHN W. DAVIS, of West Virginia,

For Vice President, CHARLES W. BRYAN, of Nebraska.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. For Judge of the Superior Court, MARGARET C. KLINGLESMITH, of Philadelphia. For State Treasurer,

HEBER ERMENTROUT, of Reading For Auditor General. JOHN R. COLLINS, of Coudersport.

For Representative in Congress, EDWARD M. BENSON, of McKean County

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET. For Representative in General Assembly, W. H. NOLL Jr., of Spring Township.

Bellefonte Academy News Notes.

The opening game on the Academy's hard football schedule will be played on Hughes field tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, with the Dickinson College freshmen. The Carlisle team has never played the Academy before and naturally much interest will be awakened in the outcome of the game. Coach Snavely has been working hard with his proteges since September 6th, and expects them to give a good account of themselves. He has a wonderful amount of good material, both for the line and backfield positions, and ex- ant car repairer at Harrisburg. Bepects them to be able to hold their own with their strongest opponents. of Halfmoon valley. Defendant plead Real college football will be displayed in this game and a thrilling contest is in the above case. He gave surety for anticipated. Because of the expense faithful compliance and was releasincurred in bringing the Dickinson players here, it will be necessary to charge an admission price of $1.00.

The annual opening reception took place at the Academy last Saturday evening. It assumed the nature of a double reception to the many new students enrolled and to the students of the Princeton geological expedition

A BUSY WEEK IN COURT. Violators of the Liquor Laws and the Moral Codes Reveal Much Sadness and Depravity Among Our People.

The regular September term of Monday morning with a record breaking attendance. This was due to the large number of cases listed for trial and the fact that the Musser murder case has excited much interest.

All the regular court officers were in their place and Lincoln Swartz, of Hublersburg, was appointed foreman of the grand jury. He got his fellow jurymen together at once and began work on the 39 bills of indictment the jury to render a verdict of not that were presented. That the grand guilty from the box and then told jury had a busy time is evidenced by the fact that it didn't get through with its work and file its usual report until yesterday afternoon. Of the 39 bills acted on it found all but 3 true ones. Owing to the amount of time district attorney Dale had to give the grand jury in its deliberations on the Musser case the court appointed former district attornev James C. Furst als moving in the court room. Othertwo weeks longer.

MANY CRIMINAL CASES DISPOSED OF.

Of the long list of criminal cases up for this term many had been disposed of before court convened. They were mainly liquor law violations and escapes from the penitentiary and upon pleas of guilty the court sentenced the convicted parties a week or more ago at which time the "Watchman" published the list with details. Those that actually came to trial were as follows: Commonwealth vs. Grafford Casher, of Snow Shoe, betrayal. Prosecutrix, Rebecca Beals. Defendant plead not guilty, went to trial and was convicted. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, costs of prosecution, $25.00 lying in expenses and $3.00 a week for seven years, if the child shall survive that long, and to give security to the overseers of the poor of his district for the faithful carrying out of the sentence. Casher went to jail in preference to paying the sum.

Com. vs. Edson D. Pierce, an assisttrayal. Prosecutrix, Elizabeth Gray, guilty and was given the sentence as ed.

Com. vs. George Molchosky and Paul Yatcik, of Snow Shoe. This case grew out of the burning of the Lehigh Coal Co's tipple No. 26, in October, 1923. It was the time of the coal strike out there. Molchosky ran away and was arrested later in West Virginia. He was charged with having set fire to the tipple and Yatcik was involved as an accessory after the fact. They plead guilty and both were sentenced to the Huntingdon reformatory, but next morning, after the court had learned something more of Molchosky's age and character, he was recalled and given from three to six years in the western penitentiary. Probably the most pathetic case before the court was that of the Com. vs. Foster Walker, of Liberty township, charged with betrayal. The prosecutrix, Alice Ayers, of Curtin township, appeared to be a poor, afflicted character of very low mentality. Walker denied on the stand that he had ever had anything to do with announced that only one sentence was permissible in the circumstances-"If I sentence him." White moved for a new trial.

Com. vs. William Dando, of Julian. Charge, unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors. Mrs. Julia Parsons, of Unionville, was prosecutrix but her case fell for want of personal knowlquarter sessions court convened here edge. All she knew was hearsay so she was dismissed. Two state policemen were there and two empty jugs and two small jars were toted in, but nobody could put anything on Dando. It was the farm of Mrs. Beals on which the evidence had been procured. Dando lived there, of course, because Mrs. Beals is his mother-in-law, but they could prove nothing on him. The court ordered Dando that he was hiding behind his mother-in-law's petticoats and had better go straight hereafter or he'll treat him rough. Mrs. Beals plead guilty some time ago and on Saturday was sent to jail for three months, given a fine of $500 and costs.

Com. vs. Jack White. Charge, unlawful possession of liquor. Prosecutrix Mrs. Julia Parsons, of Unionville. Mrs. Parsons again had only an assistant attorney to keep the tri- hearsay evidence. State officer Dawson made the arrest after finding wise court might have been in session | White in charge of 14 gallons of moonshine and 10 barrels of mash on the Campbell farm near Julian. There were two stills working at the time. After the case had proceeded so far as the prosecution's evidence Mr. Bower, for the defendant, explained to the court that White was not employed on the place, merely staying there for a while with Mrs. Beals while awaiting money to take him to the Pacific coast. The court then talked to White and suspended sentence, ordering him to pay the costs.

Com. vs. Graves Shay, of Bellefonte, charged with illegal possession of liquor and disturbing the peace of his neighborhood. Shay plead guilty but said his family fights were largely provoked by his wife. The court paroled him on good behavior for a year and ordered him to pay the costs and digest the stern lecture he was given.

A bench warrant was issued for James Ryan, who works at the Lock Haven paper mill, and failed to appear to answer a charge of fornication preferred by Roxanna Yeager.

A peculiar kink in the law saved Lloyd Johnstonbaugh, of State College, from trial here for the betrayal of Emily Barnhill, a very pretty little girl, of the same place. It was discovered that owing to her physical condition she had to be sent to a home in Allegheny county where her child was born. Because of its birth there the Centre county court was discovered to have no jurisdiction. While Judge Quigley dismissed the proceeding he directed that a persentment against Johnstonbaugh be made to the courts of Allegheny county.

The case of Perry

MANY CRIMINAL CASES MAKE the mercy of the court. The court in face of the evidence presented which seemed to indicate that it was a case Auman was brought back into court, directed to change his plea to one of

"not guilty" and go to trial, which looks as if a jury will be directed to find a verdict for the defendant. The work was all cleaned up early made at drawing a jury for the Musser murder case.

tation and possession of liquor. Taylor, Long and a Miss Rudy went to the namite. Taylor said he knew nothing cause of evidence he gave to the state police but declared Long guilty. He was given a year in jail.

Last Saturday William Kutz, of John D, of White Hall. Philipsburg, who was then on parole for a previous offense, was called before the court and given a year in jail to think over violating the liquor laws and beating up his eighty year old mother while a suspended sentence was hanging over him.

BILLS IGNORED BY THE GRAND JURY Com. vs. E. L. Reminsnyder, of Philfor killing while driving a car in a of paralysis.

drunken condition. Com. vs. Jos. Grafmyer. Violating the liquor laws.

Com. vs. Jos. H. Hull. Making and delivering a worthless check.

MANY CIVIL CASES ARE CONTINUED. Of the sixteen cases on the civil list calendar for trial this week all but seven have been continued to the December term. Three of the seven have been tried this week and the other four come to issue next week. The ones held over for next week because of the murder trial are: H. L. Orr vs. Mrs. Julia Peters and Edward Peters, her husband. Eject-ment. Paul Kassob, Isaac Kassob and Cas-

per Kassob, trading as Kassob Brothers vs. H. A. Laura B. and John E. Mark, trading as the H. A. Mark Motor Co. Trespass with a plea of not guilty. John Watkins vs. James L. Leathers. Assumpsit. Bellefonte Central R. R. Co., vs.

American Lime and Stone Co. Trespass, with a plea of not guilty. S. H. and Blanche Hoy vs. Keystone Power Corporation. Feigned issue. The civil cases tried were those of the defendant. He contended that he last Thursday morning. She retired DREIBLEBIS .- Martin A. Dreiblebis, one of the best known residents of of justifiable homicide. Accordingly College township, died at 6:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning as the result of abscesses in his throat.

P. C. Shoemaker, of Linden Hall, vs.

He was a son of Daniel and Julia When a lad his parents moved to Fernear Struble where he grew to manhood, following in the footsteps of his burg, and George Long, of State Col- a member of the Pine Hall Reformed lege. Charged with illegal transpor- church for many years and a model citizen in every way.

On July 15th, 1895, he married Miss Granger's picnic in Long's car. Some- Hattie Ewing, of Fairbrook, who surwith them. When they arrived on the Mrs. Cecil Irvin, of State College; in it. Long said ditto. The jury said and Mrs. Jacob Krumrine, of State

Funeral services will be held in the Pine Hall cemetery.

ROWAN .-- Albert Henry Rowan, for many years an engineer on the Snow Shoe branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, died on Monday evening ipsburg, charged with manslaughter of last week as the result of a stroke

He was born at Julian on January 16th, 1867, making his age 58 years, 8 months and 15 days. When but nine years old he went to Snow Shoe with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richard, and that place had been his home ever since. While yet in his teens he went to work on the diligence and close application to his work he won various promotions until he became an engineer at the age of thirty-two years, and for almost a quarter of a century he handled the throttle on that famous switch-back road.

When but nineteen years old he married Miss Emma Goldman who survives with the following children: Mrs. Lillian Mooney and John Rowan, of Snow Shoe; Mrs. Grace Kustaborder, of Bellwood; Albert and Chaney Rowan, of Sunbury; Mrs. Nellie Bryan, of Tyrone; Roy, of Miami, Fla., and Melvin, at home. He also leaves fifteen grand-children.

Funeral services were held at his late home at 10:30 o'clock last Friday morning by Rev. Kirkheimer, after which burial was made in the Askey cemetery.

George M. and Anna M. Meyer, trad- Houseman, widow of J. S. Houseman, land, Ohio; Mrs. A. M. Miller, of ing as State College Cimmission Co. died quite suddenly at the home of Hastings, Minn.; Mrs. W. G. Bridg-The litigation arose out of the sale of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas A. Hoster- man, of Paris, Ill.; Mrs. W. H. Benner, KINNE .- Edwin T. Kinne, a well known resident of Milesburg, died very suddenly between twelve and one o'clock on Sunday night. For some time past he had been suffering with kidney and heart trouble but on Sun-Grenoble Dreiblebis and was born in day had been around the house. Late Gregg township on April 22nd, 1862. Sunday evening his sister prepared for him a light lunch which he ate yesterday afternoon when a start was guson township and located on a farm with apparent relish. About 11:30 o'clock, while sitting on the couch, he remarked that he "could scarcely get Com. vs. Theo. Taylor, of Boals- father as a tiller of the soil. He was his breath," and got up for the purpose of getting some medicine when he fell to the floor and expired in less than an hour.

He was a son of Henry T. and Mary J. Bennett Kinne and was born at how a dynamite box got into the car vives with the following children: Milesburg on March 17th, 1866, hence was 58 years, 6 months and 5 days picnic grounds state police found that Mrs. Fred B. Tate, on the Branch; old. During the earlier years of his the box contained liquor and not dy- Miss Dora, Bruce and Carroll, at life he worked as a foreman on railhome. He also leaves these brothers | road contract work and later was enabout whose box it was or what was and sisters: Mrs. Harvey Bowersox gaged in a similar capacity at the brick works, at Milesburg. He was a that Taylor should be discharged be- College; Mrs. Paul Wrigley, of Fair- member of the Bellefonte Lodge of brook; Mrs. George Lutz, Maude, Elks. His only survivor is one sis-Mary and Walter, all of Struble; Wil- ter, Miss Emma Kinne, a semi-invaliam, of Houserville; Newton C. and lid as the result of an accident last winter.

Funeral services were held at his Reformed church at Pine Hall at ten late home at 2:30 o'clock yesterday o'clock tomorrow morning by Rev. S. afternoon by Rev. M. C. Piper, of the C. Stover, burial to be made in the Methodist church, and interment in the Bellefonte Union cemetery was in charge of his brother Elks.

> CUPP.-Mrs. Elizabeth J. Cupp, widow of William Cupp, for many years residents of Centre Line, died at the Methodist home for aged in Tyrone, where she had been a guest for a year or less, on Monday morning.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Hastings and was born near Charlottesville, Va., on June 9th, 1842, hence had reached the age of 82 years, 3 months and 13 days. Following her marriage to Mr. Cupp they took up Snow Shoe railroad and through his their residence at Centre Line where she lived until going to the home for the aged almost a year ago. Her husband had been dead for some years and she has no surviving relatives.

The remains were taken to Centre Line where funeral services were held in the Methodist church on Wednesday morning by Rev. J. E. Kahler, assisted by Rev. Emerson Karns, superintendent of the home, after which burial was made in the Friends cemetery in Halfmoon township.

WHIPPO .- Levi W. Whippo, for many years a resident of Bellefonte, died on Tuesday of general debility, aged 89 years, 4 months and 11 days. He followed blacksmithing most of his life until advancing age compelled his retirement. He had been a member of the Methodist church for 67 years. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Walter, of Wilkinsburg; Mrs. H. E. Crook, of Harris-HOUSEMAN.-Mrs. Susan Moyer burg; Mrs. L. G. Mulbarger, of Clevewheat which Shoemaker made to man, at Centre Hall, at four o'clock of Bellefonte; Mrs. B. Walters, of sold it as wheat at $1.31 a bush- on Wednesday evening in perfect Kan., and R. H., of Wilcox. He also el, which the defendant later re- health but early Thursday morning leaves one brother, C. O. Whippo, of Jersey Shore, and a sister, Mrs. Rebecca Maffet, of Galeton. The funeral will be held this afternoon, burial to be made in the Union cemetery. JUSTICE .- Mrs. Lowery Justice, of Valley View, died at the Bellefonte Calderwood vs. A. Rushnock, of Snow on the farm near Colyer but during hospital on Tuesday night following a month's illness with typhoid fever. of a horse Calderwood had sold Rush- with her son-in-law and daughter, at She was a native of Blair county and was sixty-four years old. Her husband and the following children survive: John, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Harry ter mentioned above and one sister, Bradley, of Lewistown; Mary, of Bellefonte; Elmer, of Coleville; James, eral services were held in the church of Altoona; Edward, of Pittsburgh; at Zion, on Saturday morning by Rev. Dewey, at home, and Susan, of Tyrone. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

who spent last week in geological research in Centre county. It was a great pleasure to Messrs. James R. and Charles S. Hughes to entertain the representatives of their own Alma Mater. The reception was very largely attended and the Academy orchestra and an orchestra made up of Princeton students alternated in furnishing delightful music for the occasion. It will be interesting to the friends of the Academy to note that students have been enrolled from the following States: Colorado, North Carolina, West Virginia, Michigan, Ohio, New Hampshire, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Texas and Pennsylvania.

-----If you are interested in a bed room or dining room suit you should 38-1t get our prices .-- West Co. ance.

Home Destroyed by Fire.

Frank Dimeo's home at Valley View was totally destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon leaving the fam- She was charged with having presentily practically destitute, so far as fur- | ed it at the Foster shoe store at State niture and clothing is concerned.

Frank was shaving at the time and his wife was resting in another part of the house. The fire evidently started on the roof or in the attic for it al bank at State College as a forgery. was a seething mass of flames before Mr. Foster was some time in locating he discovered it.

as there was no water near it could not be put in service.

The organ, a few chairs and two trunks were about all that was gotten had never been in his store and the dren were taken in by neighbors, but they are all in a bad way for clothing had been in the store at the time who and furniture so that if you have anything in those lines that you don't need we're sure the Dimeos would be put the costs on her. Inconsistent placed the costs on the county. very grateful for it.

Two More Prisoners Escape.

lice at Rockview penitentiary doesn't appears that after she had made inkeep prisoners from escaping, as two formation against Kioski she went inmates made a getaway on Sunday down to visit his family at Jersey him. Not tried yet. evening. They were John Meyers and Harry D. Brubaker, both of Mifflin marry her. While there she was percounty. The former was a driver and suaded to charge Gerald Fohner, of of liquor. the latter a stable man, and both left Kewaydin, with being her betrayer from the barn at which they were also. She swore to the statement and working. Meyers was serving a one appeared in court in the position of to two years sentence for escaping charging two men with being the fathfrom prison on a former occasion and er of one and the same child. The had but five more months to serve. court took the case of Kioski from the Brubaker was convicted of felonious entry and larceny and his term would against Fohner was dismissed on the have expired in August, 1925.

get even with Doug. for having spent so much on "The Thief of Bagdad." was acquitted of forgery on Tuesday. conclusion that it did not care to take would be more satisfactory if in the ial will be made in the Grandview The jury found him guilty and asked the responsibility of fixing the degree cellar.

her, but the jury thought otherwise so he was convicted and given sentence as in other cases of this sort

Commonwealth vs. Carrie White, of Rock Forge. Charge, forgery of the name of J. Fred Musser to a check of $32.00 payable to Mrs. George Dale. College in payment for a pair of boots, Mr. Foster having given her the change in cash and later finding the check refused by the Peoples Nationthe woman but finally thought he rec-A pumper went out from here, but ognized her on the street and found her name to be Carrie White. Later he caused her arrest, but the woman went on the stand and swore that she that of Foster and another man who positively swore that she was the woman. It found her not guilty, but verdict, wasn't it?

Commonwealth vs. Doyle Kioski, formerly of Snow Shoe, but now of Jersey Shore. Charge, betrayal. Pros-The presence of a detail of state po- ecutrix Clara Dietz, of Snow Shoe. It Shore with the hope of getting him to same grounds.

Com. vs. Blaine White. Betrayal. "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Prosecutrix Dorothy Coble, of Rock of the injury. Auman came into Hall" will be shown at the Pastime | Forge. White is a married man and court, plead guilty and asked the court theatre, State College, on Monday and was accused by the Coble girl of being to fix the degree of his crime. The Tuesday of next week. This is the the father of her second child. He is court then heard part of the Commonpicture that Mary put on the screen to a son of the Mrs. Carrie White who | wealth's testimony and came to the coal during the coming winter, but it | wife, one son and two brothers. Bur-

Detweiler, or Spring Mills, one of the liquor violators, was continued until December because of the absence of an important witness.

The assault and battery charge against John Bachelor, of Philipsburg, was quashed on motion of his attorney, M. Ward Fleming, when it was shown that he had been returned twice by the justice for the same offense. The law does not allow a person to be put in jeopardy more than once for any offense.

Com. vs. Howard Cole and John Matley, of Philipsburg, and E. L. Remsnyder, of Bigler. Charge, operating an automobile while drunk and transporting liquor. This case grew out of an accident that occurred on the highway between Snow Shoe and went to jail in default of compli- and Clarence last May. The three defendants with William Harvey Nelson, a Philipsburg carpenter, were driving to Clarence when a front wheel on their car collapsed. This threw the car against a culvert heading with such suddenness that Nelson was catapulted out into the ditch. He was picked up and brought to the hospital here where he died the same day. It had been charged that Remsnyder, owner and driver of the car, was drunk and caused the death of Nelson because he was in no condition to drive. The Commonwealth could produce no evidence that he was drunk or had been drinking that day and as there was nothing more to substantiate such a charge than the testimony of two eye witnesses to the accident, who out. The parents, with their six chil- jury took her statement as against said they had found a small bottle partially filled with something they neither smelled nor tasted, in the ditch near Nelson, the court directed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty and

> Com. vs. W. R. Lamoreaux, of Philipsburg. Defendant was formerly a state policeman but is now in the drug business. He was charged by Raymond E. Askey with having kept and converted to his own use a $350 diamond pin that was only loaned to

> Com. vs. Theo. Taylor. Charge, unlawful possession and transportation

The case of the Com. vs. Frank Auman which was partially disposed of at the May term was up for final disposition which has been continued to December. It will be recalled that Auman struck constable Hugh H. Giljury and discharged him. That lette with a pick handle during an altercation out in Snow Shoe township on last April 3rd. Gillette died in the Lock Haven hospital from the effects fused to pay because when the grain suffered an attack of neuralgia of the reached an eastern market it was heart and died within half an hour. graded much lower than No. 2 and its grading. The jury found a verdict | yer on October 13th, 1846, hence was of $337.80 for the prosecutor. The next case was that of M. F.

found, after trial, that the animal was balky and returned it to Calderwood. The verdict was for the defendant.

The "White Cargo."

Any attraction that can run continuously for two years in New York and still play to turn away business must contain all that is best in theatrical cemetery, near Tusseyville. endeavor. Not only has the Metropolitan city placed its stamp of approval on "White Cargo," the dramatic sensation of the age, but London of the best plays seen there in a detheir special companies playing with equal success.

"White Cargo" was written by Lescenes; in writing this play Mr. Gordon has made no conscientious effort to create or eliminate sensationalism, but has faithfully portrayed Africa as it really is, with its eternal sunshine and rot-a rot which penetrates the minds and hearts of those white men who attempt to civilize a country that defies their encroachment.

The play abounds in intense dramatic situations; with a love story the ordinary run found in plays of to- eral have not been made. day; the comedy is clean cut and subtle. If you enjoy thrills that are true to life with the passions let loose, comedy sufficient to relieve the tears stars each one a master of their respective arts and all set in a scenic ty then you cannot afford to miss the sensational wonder of the stage today. "White Cargo" will send you on Wednesday night, October 1st, well made at Zion. satisfied that you have not spent an evening in vain. The Reading and Allentown papers of progressively intense interest.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. could only be paid for on the basis of Jacob Moyer and was born near Colalmost seventy-eight years old. Practically all her married life was spent Shoe. It was to recover for the price the past year she had made her home nock. The latter testified that he Centre Hall. She was a member of the Evangelical church all her life. Her only survivors are the daugh-

Mrs. P. B. Jordon, of Colyer. Fun-H. C. Manevel, of Reedsville, assisted by Rev. C. F. Bingman, of Centre Hall, burial being made in the Zion

BIDWELL.-Henry M. Bidwell, for many years a well known resident of Bellefonte, was found dead on the audiences have also proclaimed it one floor of his bedroom about 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning. He had not been cade-Chicago and Boston also have feeling well on Wednesday but his condition was not considered serious. He had evidently gotten out of bed and dressed before he was stricken, on Gordon and is a vivid love play of as he was fully clothed when found the tropics, it is in three acts and six by his son Morton. Had he lived until next month he would have been seventy-eight years old. He was an upholsterer by occupation and of late years had conducted a little shop at his home on south Allegheny street. He is survived by the following children: Fred, at Warren; Trood D., of San Francisco; Mrs. Vesta Culveyhouse, in New Jersey; Mrs. Young, of New York city; Mrs. John C. Matthews, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Morton, that has an angle quite different from at home. Arrangements for the fun-

GARBRICK .-- John Mitchell Garbrick, of Bellefonte, died on Tuesday afternoon following an illness of six and an acting company of Broadway years. He was a son of Joseph and Susan Garbrick and was 68 years old. He was twice married, his first wife environment that is true to its locali- having been Emma Wion and his second Catherine Walker, who survives with one brother, Joseph Garbrick, of Bellefonte. Funeral services were away from the Moose Temple theatre held yesterday afternoon, burial being AMMERMAN .- Perry Oliver Ammerman, for years a well known locogave this play and players most com- motive engineer on the Bald Eagle plimentary notices last week. Ac- Valley railroad, died at his home in cording to them it is a problem play, Tyrone on Tuesday morning following several year's illness. He was a son fonte, a daughter, Viola Love. of Joseph and Margaret Ammerman -It is encouraging to learn from and was born at Unionville over fiftysix years ago. He is survived by his a dealer that there will be plenty of

-Recently the Keystone Lodge I. O. O. F., of Bethlehem, conceived the idea of sending a book of fraternal greetings through various lodges on a trip to the Pacific coast and return. They named it the "Keystone Traveler," and it was brought to Bellefonte last Thursday and presented to Centre Lodge by Past Grand Whitman, of Lock Haven. Delegations from nineteen different lodges in Centre county were present at the meeting. J. K. Johnston Esq., made the speech of acceptance and other addresses were by Past Grand Gilmore, of Williamsport; Past Grand Lay, of Evansville, Ind., and Past Grand S. D. Gettig, of Bellefonte. Centre Lodge expects to deliver the "Keystone Traveler" to Tyrone on October 3rd.

-Real over stuffed living room. suits, nine different styles, at West Co. 38-1t

BIRTHS.

Ross-On September 10, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robert Ross, of Spring township, a son, Robert Swartz.

Summers-On September 19, to Mr. and Mrs. George E. Summers, of Wingate, a son.

Waite-On September 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Waite, of Pleasant Gap, a son, Guy Richard.

Houtz-On September 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Houtz, of Spring township, a son, Melvin Jay.

Forsburg-On September 1, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Forsburg, of Bellefonte, a daughter, Eleanor Christine. Auman-On September 1, to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Auman, of Belle-Kustenborder-On September 4, to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar G. Kustenborder, of Bellefonte, a son, Thomas Edward. Jones-On September 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jones, of Bellefonte, a daughter, Frances Louise.