"Get-Out-the-Vote" Caravan Here and Gone.

The ten men and women representing the much heralded "Get-Out-the-Vote" caravan have been in Bellefonte and are now on their way to the northwestern part of the State in an effort to instill a greater spirit of patriotic duty in the minds of the delinquent voter, both man and woman.

Twelve carloads of representative people from Bellefonte and almost an equal number from State College and Boalsburg met the "Get-Out-the-Vote" persuaders at the Centre-Clinton county line, escorting them to Bellefonte, but stopping along the way at every school house where brief talks were made.

An outdoor meeting was held in the Diamond at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Odd Fellows band gave a brief concert and Mrs. Robert Mills Beach presided. John B. Payne, on the part of the Kiwanis club, extended a most cordial welcome to the visitors in a neat speech in which he urged the people of Bellefonte and Centre county to more religiously observe their right of franchise.

Mrs. Edith Ellicott Smith, of Philadelphia, was next introduced. She spoke almost entirely upon economic conditions as they prevail today between the producer and consumer. As an illustration, she stated that her husband operates a truck farm in New Jersey and sweet corn grown there is sent to Philadelphia and sold for fifteen cents a basket, where the dealers sell it at sixty cents a dozen. Although unable to point out a solution of the problem she advocated legislation that would correct the extortion.

Miss Lucy Lewis, vice chairman of the League of Women Voters of Philadelphia, gave statistics in which she claimed that twenty-seven million people failed to exercise their right of franchise at the 1920 presidential election, a greater number than voted, which shows that we are really living under minority rule.

Following a brief talk by burgess W. Harrison Walker Albert Smith Fought, of the City club, Philadelphia, was introduced and talked on the urgent need of constitutional revision. The final speaker of the evening was Miss Sleichter, of Chambersburg.

While the visitors talked against the handicap of passing automobiles they claimed that it was the best outdoor gathering they had had since leaving Philadelphia. Some of the boys on the outskirts of the crowd were a little noisy until requested to keep quiet, by Mrs. Ferree, when they paid close attention to the speakers.

The caravan left yesterday morning for Philipsburg and Clearfield, being joined by Mrs. Robert Mills Beach, of this place, who will go with it as far as Erie.

Whatever justification there may have been for the quarrel in Philadelphia when the "Caravan" was preparing to leave that city on its tour, there wasn't utterance by the speakers here, of anything that could have been distorted into partisanship. All studiously avoided mention even of the name of a candidate for President so that the impression they left here, at least, was of interest single to getting out the vote, of whatever complexion it might be.

The annual fall rummage sale, a hospital benefit of the Woman's auxiliary of the Centre County hospital, will be held in the Undine hose house on the afternoon and evening of October 29th. Clothing, furniture, and anything you do not want in your homes, please make a special effort to send to these women to aid them in their good work.

KLINGER.—Jesse Guy Klinger, a well known young farmer of College township, died at the Centre County hospital at an early hour on Tuesday morning as the result of an obstruction of the bowels, following just one week's illness.

He was a son of Jesse and Elizabeth Williams Klinger and was born on his father's farm in College township on October 9th, 1901, hence was within two days of being twenty-three years old. He was a graduate of the State College High school class of 1919, and later took a course in agriculture at State College, graduating in June, 1923. Last spring his father divided his large farm along the state highway between Lemont and State College and gave his son one-half of it and his work there this summer evidenced the fact that he would make a success at tilling the soil.

Last June he was married to Miss Margaret A. Williams, of Lemont, who is heart-broken over the death of her husband. He also leaves his parents and one sister, Mrs. R. M. Walker, of Oak Hall. He was a member of the Evangelical church and a model young man in every way.

Funeral services will be held at his late home at ten o'clock this (Friday) morning. Rev. M. C. Piper, of Milesburg, will be in charge of the services and will be assisted by Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, and Rev. Bingman, of Centre Hall, burial to be made in the Houserville cemetery.

VONADA.—Benjamin F. Vonada, a well known retired farmer of Marion township, died at his home near Jacksonville, on Sunday, of general debility.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Vonada and was born in Marion township on August 30th, 1850, hence was 74 years, 1 month and 5 days old. He followed farming most of his life and was always regarded as one of the most substantial citizens of Little Nittany valley. He was a life-long member and liberal supporter of the Reformed church. His wife died many years ago but surviving him are five children, namely: William Vonada, of Blanchard; Frank, of Hubbersburg; Edwin E., on the home farm near Jacksonville; Mrs. Oscar Kling, of Juniata, and Mrs. Heltman, of Salona.

Funeral services were held at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning by Rev. Gass, after which burial was made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

WEAVER.—John L. Weaver, a retired employee of the Pennsylvania railroad, was found dead in bed at his home in Altoona last Friday morning. He had been a sufferer with heart trouble for a number of years and his death was the result of that ailment.

He was a son of George and Magdalene Weaver and was born near Spring Mills, Centre county, on April 26th, 1856, hence was in his sixty-ninth year. He married Miss Jessie A. Sheets, of Aaronsburg, who survives with two sons, William C. and George E., both of Altoona. He also leaves four sisters, Mrs. Susan Smiley, of Nittany; Mrs. Mary Stover, of Millheim; Mrs. John Ziegler, of Howard, and Mrs. Rose Winkelman, of Altoona. He was a member of the Second Lutheran church, the Verandah lodge of Odd Fellows, Junior American Mechanics, the Red Men and the Lathe shop Aid society. Burial was made in the Rose Hill cemetery, Altoona, on Monday afternoon.

GUNSALLUS.—Ira Gunsallus, for many years a well known farmer of Liberty township but who since his retirement has been living at Beech Creek, died at noon on Sunday as the result of general debility, aged 89 years. In addition to his wife he is survived by the following children: Jeremiah Gunsallus, of Altoona; Mrs. Helen McClintock, of Bellevue, Ohio; Mrs. Ira Hunter, of Bellwood; Mrs. John Winn and Mrs. Joseph Miller, of Altoona; Monty, Henry, Lee, Wilbur and Zena, all at home. Funeral services were held at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Disciple cemetery, at Blanchard.

CUPP.—Lawrence W. Cupp died at his home in Homestead on Sunday following a brief illness. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cupp, and was born at Centre Line fifty-seven years ago. Prior to going to Homestead he lived in Tyrone. He is survived by his wife and five children; also one brother and three sisters, one of the latter being Mrs. Myron Cupp, of Bellefonte. The remains were taken to Tyrone where burial was made in the Grandview cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

BAISOR.—Miss Leah Baisor, the last of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Baisor, formerly well known residents of Halfmoon valley, passed away at her home at Centre Line last Saturday morning.

She was in her eighty-second year, her death having been the result of a general decline. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery, at Centre Line, on Tuesday.

Last Friday morning sheriff E. R. Taylor took to the western penitentiary in Pittsburgh Harry Musser, convicted last week of murder in the second degree for the killing of his uncle, William Musser, and George Molchosky, of Snow Shoe, convicted the week before of blowing up a coal mine in the Snow Shoe region. In order to avoid the crowd the sheriff and deputy, with Musser in charge, motored to Milesburg and took the train there. Musser was very docile on the trip to Pittsburgh and was no trouble at all.

The Love Bet.

This is a delightful musical comedy, dealing with the experiences of two women who can endure any temptation without faltering, and with a beautiful love story woven into one of the best musical comedies of the present season's offerings.

Nothing better in the line of laughter has ever been written, and while most musical plays lack a story it is in "The Love Bet" that Mr. Bowers is seen at his best, for the reason that there is a story to follow which gives him ample opportunity to be seen and heard in both song and acting.

The story is full of many ludicrous situations which are acted by a company of excellent players, especially selected for their respective parts, and include such well known musical comedy artists as Misses Mary Drury, Mimi Jean, Nellie Lynch, Ann Meade, Messrs. Jo Clare, Billy Barlow, Victor Fry, Tom Rankin and Ben Grinnell, and a large beauty chorus. The play possesses many novelties and is claimed to have the daintiest and most engaging figures in musical comedy whose fresh voices lend charm to a pretentious musical program.

There is a great treat in store for our patrons in music and song, as Mr. Bowers will render some of his own compositions, both old and new, but we are sure to hear "While the Stars are Shining," "If I Ever Get You," "Kiss Me Again, Dear," "Out of the Sunshine Into My Heart," and many others.

Seat sale opens Friday at Mott Drug Co., and we would advise early reservations for choice locations. Mail orders will be filled promptly by enclosing a self-addressed envelope. Prices, $2.00, $1.50, $1.00, plus 10 per cent. tax. 50 cents general admission.

New Motion Picture Machine Installed at Scenic.

Manager T. Clayton Brown has just completed the installation of a new motion picture machine and a new curtain at the Scenic at a cost of upwards of fifteen hundred dollars. The machine is the very latest and best on the market. It is electrically operated with automatic feed and shut-off and equipped with the very latest reflector lighting system which gives a steady white light at all times.

The machine heretofore in use at the Scenic has been rebuilt and equipped with the same kind of lamp and automatic electrical feed as the new machine, and installed in the Moose Temple theatre, so that patrons of both these popular movie shows will now have the advantage of the very best machine service in use. The interior of the Moose Temple theatre has also been repainted and very much improved throughout, making it as cosy and comfortable as any amusement house of its capacity in the State.

In his desire to give the people of Bellefonte and vicinity the very best entertainment possible manager T. Clayton Brown considers the comfort of his patrons just as necessary as the quality of pictures shown, and in both he leaves nothing to be desired. Regular movie fans realize this fact and those who are not regulars should get the habit, as the long winter evenings will soon be here and the Scenic will be an ideal place to spend them.

A Great Football Game.

Go out to Hughes field this (Friday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock, and see the best team the Academy ever had defeat the strong Susquehanna University reserve team. The playing of the local team at the present time is nothing short of college standard. Few colleges in the country have a better set of backfield men than Hill, Hood, Rooney, Whitmore and Douglas. The Academy's brilliant victory on last Saturday over the Syracuse Freshmen by the score of 28-0 verifies the above statement. Six thousand people saw this victory in the Syracuse stadium. It surely put the Academy on the map in that section of the country. Why not give the team your best support today?

According to all reports there was considerable fluctuation in the price of moonshine in Bellefonte Saturday night. Some of the fiery liquid sold at $8.00 a quart while another lot went at $16.00 a gallon.

Perry Krise Fined for Killing Doe Out of Season.

For killing a doe out of season and hunting without a license Perry Krise, of Pleasant Gap, was fined $125 and costs, last Friday, by justice of the peace S. Kline Woodring. Including the costs the bill was approximately $140, and Mr. Krise admitted his guilt and settled. He also lost the venison as that was confiscated by game protector Thomas A. Mosier, who brought it to Gettig's butcher shop where it was dressed and the meat turned over to the Bellefonte hospital.

For some time past there have been rumors that somebody was killing deer over in Green's valley, in the Nittany mountain east of Pleasant Gap, and Mr. Mosier set himself to catch the guilty party. He was up on the mountain last Friday morning when he heard two shots down in Green's valley. He at once proceeded to the road coming out of that valley and waited for the man to come out who had fired the shots.

In the course of half an hour an automobile appeared and Mr. Mosier got out in the road and flagged the driver. Instead of stopping, it is charged the automobilist attempted to run down the game protector but he not only evaded being hit but jumped upon the running board of the car and reaching in through the curtain turned off the switch. When the car came to a standstill Mr. Mosier recognized the driver as Perry Krise and a search of the car revealed the carcass of a nice, fat doe, with the head cut off.

The deer was confiscated and Krise placed under arrest. He was taken before Squire Woodring and was fined $100 for shooting a deer out of season and $25 for hunting without a license. Mr. Krise, it is said, is a member of the United Sportsman's League, of Pleasant Gap, and has always been loud in his condemnation of illegal hunters, and was the first man to be caught red-handed in the contemptible practice.

Saturday night you will know the results obtained by using Texaco gas and oil in the 100 hour endurance run. 40-1t

"Dewey" Stratton Burned to Death in Shanty Fire.

Roy Stratton, better known among his associates as "Dewey," was burned to death in a shanty fire at the Rusnak coal mine in Rush township, last Thursday morning. The shanty was built of concrete blocks with a shingle roof. It was divided into two compartments, one of which was occupied by Stratton and his two faithful dogs, and the other used as a stable for the mine mule.

How the fire originated will probably never be known, but the authorities have uncovered the fact that four young men of Philipsburg had spent most of the night with Stratton, and all of them had consumed considerable moonshine liquor. The young men left the shanty between two and half past two o'clock in the morning, all more or less under the influence of liquor. Stratton waved them goodbye from the door and that was the last seen of him alive.

When Stephen Rusnak and his two sons, John and Martin, went to the mine at 6:30 o'clock Thursday morning, to go to work, they found the shanty a mass of smouldering, smoking ruins. Investigation revealed the fact that Stratton, his two dogs and the mine mule had met death in the holocaust. The supposition is that either Stratton or one of his dogs upset the lamp in the shanty which started the blaze and the man was unable to reach the door. The unfortunate man was thirty-two years old and had no immediate relatives. His remains were buried in the Philipsburg cemetery alongside those of his parents.

Bellefonte Chapter, D. A. R.

The attendance record of the Bellefonte Chapter, D. A. R. was broken at its last meeting; the evening of October 2nd, when Mrs. James I. Thompson, of Centre Furnace, entertained over seventy of the members from State College and Bellefonte.

This winter the programs are to include a series of studies of D. A. R. activities; at this meeting Mrs. James T. Morris was to have spoken, advocating the making of the Yorktown battlefield a national park. Mrs. Morris being unable to be present, Mrs. Edwin Erle Sparks impressed paucity of such honors to Revolutionary soldiers. She said that only one-third of one acre has been so used, while such memorials to Civil war soldiers occupy fourteen thousand acres.

Mrs. Holben, accompanied by Mrs. H. H. Hayner, sang several solos. Mrs. E. B. Callaway gave a lively account of her last year's, her second round-the-world trip. Mrs. Callaway's animated verbal description of her experiences and the foreign views was made more vivid by her showing many very beautiful and curious souvenirs; a wealth of articles which seemed to bring the Orient near.

As a field for D. A. R. activity Mrs. Callaway told of the need in Manila of homes for our soldiers and sailors. She urged this upon her home chapter as she had asked all the D. A. R. on her round-the-world steamer to do on theirs.

The ladies of the Reformed church announce that their annual Thanksgiving market will be held this year at the usual time, the day before Thanksgiving. Watch for further particulars.

Business Men to Establish County Credit Association.

The business men of Centre county are assembling facts and ratings for the establishment of a Centre county credit association, the object of which will be the elimination of all undesirable creditors, commonly known as "dead beats," as well as being a help to worthy persons in securing credit. A good sized list of members among the merchants of Bellefonte and State College have already been signed up as members.

The association will be in a position to give to its members a record of whether the person asking credit owns property; how much credit he or she has had in the entire county, and the merchants' report as to how he or she pays bills contracted. The association plans to give the merchants a complete record of everybody which will enable them to extend a credit to all those who meet their obligations promptly and cut out the ones who make it a practice to take advantage of merchants.

Membership and ratings will include the entire county except Philipsburg. The organization is under the direction of John W. Jacobs, who owns and operates the merchants credit association of Williamsport, and the office of the association will be in the Odd Fellows building. Mr. Jacobs will be glad to call on any person interested.

Friday, October 24th, has been designated by Governor Pinchot as fall Arbor and Bird day.
