PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

Mrs. W. R. Port is among the sick this week. John B. Walls mingled among the boys in town on Saturday evening. J. W. Sunday is having a pipeless furnace installed in his home on east Main street.

Carpenters are now at work putting a new roof of asbestos shingles on the I. O. O. F. hall. Postmaster Ralph Musser, of Pennsylvania Furnace, is sporting a new Buick roadster.

Miss Mary Heninger, teacher of the Glades school, spent Sunday with her parents in Tyrone. Addison Golden and Hugh C. Fry motored to Marsh Creek and spent Sunday with friends.

Dr. Glass and wife, of Uniontown, are visiting the "Squire" Ed K. Woomer home at Graysville. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bryan and Mrs. Ed Little, of Tyrone, were visitors in town on Sunday afternoon.

William K. Goss, of Tyrone, is looking after some repair work on his farm at White Hall this week. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woomer, of State College, spent Sunday with Cyrus Gross and family, at Graysville.

W. H. Glenn and wife and G. B. Fry and wife were Sunday visitors at the C. A. Weaver home at Port Matilda. Chester Behrer reports a new arrival at his home. It's a boy, and now there are two girls and two boys in his family.

The Shoemaker brothers have been awarded the contract for hauling 340,000 brick from Lock Haven to State College, the job to be completed before snow falls. John Sloop, R. F. D. carrier, has been in Pittsburgh this week attending the funeral of his sister. During his absence Darcey Struble is handling Uncle Sam's mail matter.

Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick filled the pulpit in the Presbyterian church at Bellwood last Sunday, Dr. Samuel Martin, of State College, filling his regular appointment here that evening. Alex B. Tanyer, who has been an invalid for almost a year, is now able to go about with the use of a cane, and came to town on Saturday evening. He will not be in condition to go deer hunting this season, however.

At a joint meeting of the Reformed Church, on Sunday, Rev. W. W. Moyer, of Steelton, was extended a unanimous call to this charge as successor to Rev. S. C. Stover, resigned. The charge consists of Pine Grove Mills, Pine Hall and Boalsburg, with Houserville as a supply.

Mrs. Ira Gray Burket, of Stormstown, was called to Cleveland, Ohio, last week, to add her blessing to a little grandson who arrived in the home of Paul Burket and wife. It is the first born and the young parents are proud as can be. The little chap has been named Robert Gray Burket. During Mrs. Burket's absence her home is in charge of Mrs. Ellis Lytle.

Gatesburg is having a streak of hard luck as the result of fires, as the home of Mrs. Loretta Rider went up in smoke last week. The woman lived alone and after kindling a fire in the stove that morning went out in the yard on an errand. Returning to the house she found the entire first floor in flames. Not a thing was saved from the burning building. Mrs. Rider is making arrangements to go to Blair county and make her home with relatives.

The Michael Musser store and dwelling, at Union Furnace, were burned to the ground last Wednesday night. Just ten days previous the building was on fire but the flames were extinguished before any great damage was done. It is believed to have been the work of an incendiary. Very little was saved from the store and dwelling, but the loss is partially covered with insurance.

R. T. Wolfgang, of Tyrone, will give a select reading in the Methodist church at Pine Grove on Saturday evening, October 25th. His readings will include selections from "A Menonite Maid," by Helen R. Martin. Price of admission will be 25 cents. Mr. Wolfgang has quite a reputation as a reader and entertainer and inasmuch as the proceeds will be for the benefit of the church he should be greeted by a large audience. Last Saturday evening was an historic event for the Odd Fellows in this vicinity, it being the installation of the new officers and a visit from the "Keystone Traveler." The installation was in charge of district deputy Ed Zong and the following officers were installed: Noble Grand—James A. Gummo. Vice Grand—R. L. McDowell. Rec. Sec'y—J. F. Musser. Fin. Sec'y—D. S. Peterson. Treasurer—E. C. Musser. R. S. to N. G.—A. L. Bowersox. L. S. to N. G.—C. M. Powley. Warden—W. H. Fry. Conductor—J. H. Bailey. R. S. S.—Paul E. Sunday. L. S. S.—M. A. Reish. Chaplain—E. M. Krebs. O. G.—E. Close. I. G.—W. H. Glenn. R. S. to V. G.—J. M. Ward. L. S. to V. G.—J. H. Pfoust. Trustee—H. A. Elder.

Music was furnished by the lodge orchestra, with Mrs. D. S. Peterson presiding at the piano. The "Keystone Traveler" was brought here by a delegation of Bellefonte lodge, with J. E. Smith in charge. Addresses were made by J. Kennedy Johnston and S. D. Gettig Esqs., of Bellefonte; Profs. Ham and Smith, of State College, and D. W. Meyers, of Boalsburg, who talked on his fifty years' experience as a member. Dr. R. M. Krebs, A. S. Bailey and William Saucerman were each awarded twenty-five year jewels, J. Kennedy Johnston making the presentation address. The evening receipts showed $100. Refreshments were served and a smoker enjoyed.

Visitors from other lodges included Jacob Hoy, L. C. Thompson, E. F. Young, Samuel Gordon, Paul Tharp, P. W. Krupp, A. F. Smith, C. E. Paxton, A. E. Gingerich, W. R. Ham, R. H. Dale, J. R. Irvin, L. K. Dale, Hugh C. Dale, W. R. Raymond, G. W. Rowe, R. P. Reitz, S. R. Rishel, H. M. Harsstine, J. E. Pennington, Cal Murcott, W. H. Fable, D. H. Ewing, Milton Shuey, D. W. Meyers, Cam Phillips, J. E. Corman, W. R. Rishel, Henry Kyle and J. F. Smith.

Victor Thompson, of Howard, was a Sunday caller among friends here. Mrs. James Bartley and son Miles spent Sunday with friends at Renovo. Miss Jane Yearick has been very ill but at this writing is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bartley and sons, Arthur and Roy, Mr. James Bartley and daughter Mary were Sunday visitors at the Charles Bartley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Vonada, of Detroit, Mich., are spending a few days at their home here, after attending the funeral of their grandfather last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon and son Melvin, who are in the Centre County hospital as typhoid patients, are reported as doing nicely under the excellent care given at that institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Yearick, of Philadelphia, were over Sunday visitors at the J. J. Vonada home. Mr. Yearick and his brother have returned to Philadelphia but Mrs. Yearick will remain at her home here this winter.

The members of the Ladies Aid society of the Reformed church and their families spent last Thursday evening at the home of their pastor, Rev. Gass and family, in Howard. All members but two were present, those being Miss Jennie Glossner and Mrs. William Dixon, both being on the sick list. At eleven o'clock refreshments were served which consisted of all kinds of things good to eat. Those who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Swope, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Yearick and son Homer, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bartley and sons Arthur and Roy, Mr. and Mrs. James Bartley, Mr. and Mrs. John Condo, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bathgate, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Weight, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Rodgers, Misses Mary Bartley, Nora Yearick, Alta Yearick; Mrs. N. H. Yearick, Mrs. Emma Shaffer, Mrs. J. J. Vonada, Mr. and Mrs. George Ertley, Rev. and Mrs. Gass, Miss Viola Hartzell.

Mr. Newton Steele, of Mill Hall, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth White.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Miller, with their children, of Lewistown, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes.

Quite a large crowd attended the linen shower which was held at the Woomer home, for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolf, who were recently married, in Milesburg.

Mrs. John Rote returned home last week after spending several weeks with her son Harry and family, of Chestertown, Md., and with friends and relatives in Huntingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Rote, accompanied by Roy Woomer, left Saturday for Greensburg, where Mrs. Rote expects to spend a few weeks at her home in that place, while Ned and Roy will return on Monday. The former being an enterprising merchant it is hard for him to get away for any length of time. While away his business is in the care of his mother and Mrs. Wilbur Tulse, who are both very capable and obliging clerks. Mrs. Bumgardner, of State College, is staying with Mrs. Rote while her son and wife are away, she having accompanied Mrs. Rote to Chestertown and Huntingdon.

Why Suffer So? Get Back Your Health as Other Bellefonte Folks Have Done. Too many people suffer lame, aching backs, distressing kidney disorders and rheumatic aches and pains. Often this is due to faulty kidney action and there's danger of hardened arteries, dropsy, gravel, or Bright's disease. Don't let weak kidneys wear you out. Use Doan's Pills before it is too late! Doan's are a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Here is one of many Bellefonte cases: Mrs. Boyd Vonada, E. Bishop St. says: "My kidneys were weak and I could hardly rest at night. When I was on my feet, my back gave out and ached so I often had to stop and rest. I frequently had dizzy, nervous headaches and my kidneys acted too often. I used Doan's Pills purchased at the Mott Drug Co. and they rid me of the trouble." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Vonada had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
