BOALSBURG.

Miss Anna Sweeney spent Monday at State College. Miss Mary Hazel, of Bucknell, was home over Sunday. George Fisher is having a neat iron fence built around the lawn. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reitz and fam- ily visited friends at Lock Haven on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brown, of Yeag- ertown, spent Saturday and Sunday in town. Miss Lois Lonebarger spent several days last week with their cousins, at State College. Sheriff Taylor, of Bellefonte, was in town on Monday, interviewing a num- ber of our citizens. The members of the Civic club are expecting a large attendance at their bazaar on Friday afternoon and even- ing. Mac. Mothersbaugh, who has been ill for several months with typhoid fe- ver, is able to leave his room and is improving nicely. H. M. Hosterman's Sunday school class gave a party for one of their members, Mrs. E. E. Brown, last Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. William Rataan, of Harrisburg, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer for the week-end, and also attended the State- Syracuse game. Mrs. Elizabeth Mothersbaugh has returned from a visit with friends in Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap. Mrs. Mothersbaugh and grand-sons, Linn and Daniel, spent Sunday in Williams- port. The trustees of the Reformed par- sonage are making some improve- ments, hoping to make the parsonage comfortable for their new minister, Rev. Moyer, who has accepted a call to the Boalsburg charge. Special services will be held in the Lutheran church at Boalsburg, Sun- day, November 9th. Morning service at 10 o'clock, sermon by the Rev. Wil- son P. Ard, of Bellefonte. Afternoon service at 2:30. This will be a rally service by the Sunday school. There will be addresses by the Rev. John Harkins, of State College, and Prof. Oscar Smith, of Boalsburg. Another special feature at this service will be music by a male quartette. Evening service at 7:30 o'clock. Sermon by the Rev. William English, of Pine Grove Mills. These services are being held on the installation of a new warm air heating system in the church. An offering will be lifted at each service. Everybody welcome to all of these services.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mrs. G. W. Watkins has been very ill but is improving at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers and children spent Sunday with friends in Mill Hall. Mr. and Mrs. James Bartley spent Sunday with friends in and about Bellefonte. Earl Yearick and family, of Hub- lersburg, were business visitors in our town recently. Mrs. Hutchinson Lutz is suffering from the effects of a paralytic stroke, which occurred last Friday. Miss Mary Bartley and Raymond Harter were Saturday evening callers at the William Beightol home. Mrs. Homer Yearick, of Philadel- phia, who has been visiting at her home here, has decided to remain un- til spring. Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley and daughter Rebekah, and Mr. Raymond Harter, of Howard, were Sunday vis- itors at the James Bartley home. The Ku Klux Klan burned a beau- tiful fiery cross in the diamond of our town on Thursday evening. No one saw them until the cross was burning and surrounded by the white-robed figures. The first the town had any inkling of the doings was when three terrific blasts announced the begin- ning of the services, which were quiet and orderly. After their mysterious services they quietly marched away, single file, while the cross burned for nearly an hour longer.

CENTRE HALL.

Crowded out last week. Mrs. H. W. Kreamer was somewhat indisposed the past week. The F. J. McClellan family is spend- ing the week in Washington, D. C. The Huyett family went to the Ma- gee home in New Jersey, on Wednes- day. Miss Grace Smith spent several days at State College during the past week. Rev. M. C. Drumm and family, now located at Middleburg, visited in Centre Hall on Tuesday. The C. A. Spyker family is spend- ing the week at the home of Mrs. Spy- ker, near Huntingdon. Miss Sara A. Weiser, of Warren, Ohio, recently spent the week-end at the Bartholomew home. Rev. B. F. Bieber and family visit- ed among their former people in this pastorate, for several days recently. Rev. Greenhoe, who has preached several times for the Lutherans, has been given a call to become their pas- tor. No school this week! The "kiddies" had a good time at home; and the teachers had an equally good time at institute in Bellefonte. The next Republican National committee will know that a straw vote is not worth what it costs.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Robert Barber, of Mifflinburg, is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Hollen- bach, at the Reformed parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boob and Mrs. Boob's mother, Mrs. Henry Beam, of Millmont, were Sunday guests at the George E. Stover home on North 2nd street. Mr. and Mrs. Grove, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the James E. Hollo- way home on North 2nd street. Miss Pearl King accompanied them and spent the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. King. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crouse, accom- panied by their daughter, Mrs. Lee Hain, of Sunbury, last Thursday motored to New York, near Watkins Glen, where they were guests of Mrs. Crouse's nephew, John Kreider. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Boob and son Ray spent a few days recently with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stover, in Twin City. While there they witnessed a great Ku Klux Klan demonstration. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Homan, their son-in-law, John Isenberg and family, of State College, spent a few hours on Sunday as guests of Mrs. A. S. Stover. Miss Marian Isenberg had been a guest since Tuesday at the Stover home. Saturday evening Steral Frazier and Miss Grace Stover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stover, were quietly married and on Tuesday morning they left for Akron, Ohio, where the groom has employment. Best wishes to them for a long and happy wedded life. Master David Orwig came up from Northumberland to spend a week, (during which time teachers institute will be held in that county), with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bright. David's many friends are pleased to see his sunny face in our midst. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McVey, accom- panied by friends, motored down from Altoona recently and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mowery. Sun- day morning the Altoona party ac- companied by Mr. and Mrs. Mowery, motored to Williamsport, where they spent the day very pleasantly. The services which were held in the Reformed church in this place, on Sun- day, were well attended. The sermon and singing were in the German lan- guage. Rev. Hollenbach delivered, what to the writer, seemed like a very excellent discourse. The pastor also sang a very beautiful solo, "Holy Night, Silent Night," in German. Ed. C. Bressler and daughter, Miss Isabel, of Plainfield, Ill., and Mrs. William Summers, of Clearfield, motored to this place to attend the funeral of Mrs. Summers' uncle, Samuel Mowery. Mrs. Harry Lane, of Ty- rone, was also here for the same purpose. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomlinson and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Stover. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wyle, their sons Harry and James, and daughter, Mrs. Tittle, and Miss Bertha Graham, all of Akron, Ohio, motored here to at- tend the funeral of Mrs. Wyle's moth- er, Mrs. Sarah Shreffler, whose body was brought from Erie to Millheim, where they had been living for some time. While in town they were guests at the William A. Guisewite home.

Aaronsburg Reformed charge, Rev. John S. Hollenbach, pastor. St. Paul's, Sunday school 9:30; Holy Communion, 10:30. Coburn, Sunday school 9:30; Holy Communion, 10:30. Aaronsburg, Sunday school 9:30; Holy Communion, 7. Subject: "Our Two-fold (but not Two-faced) Citizenship." These services mark the close of the work of the present pastor in this field. It is his hope that his efforts have accomplished some good which will bear fruit in after years.

MEDICAL.

Are You Tired, Achy--- All Run Down?

This Bellefonte Resident Tells You How to Get Well.

Tired all the time? Lame, stiff and achy? Tortured with nagging backache? Knife-like twinges when you stoop or lift? Miserable with headaches, dizzy spells and bladder irregularities? All are signs of kidney sickness? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Here's Bellefonte testimony: Mrs. E. E. Ardrey, Reynolds Ave., says: "My kidneys were weak and out of order and my back ached. I became run down, too. Doan's Pills from Runkle's drug store have always relieved these attacks and strengthened my back and kidneys." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills, the same that Mrs. Ar- drey had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 69-43

Week-Ahead Program SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1: A Paramount Feature, title to be announced later. Also the fine Imperial Animal Comedy, highly recommended. MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3: GLORIA SWANSON in "MY AMERICAN WIFE," is an adventure intrigue with Spanish setting. A girl in South America enters her horse in big race and carries off honors in insulted and duel results. Finally clears man she loves and marries him. Also, Pathe News and Topics. TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4 AND 5: THOMAS MEIGHAN in "PIED PIPER MALONE," with George Fawcett, is an eight reel story, and like the Pied Piper is beloved by children but misjudged by grown-ups. He goes to sea, the ship founders and he is sup- posed lost, but still misjudged he finally makes good. The action is very good. Also, two reel Educational Comedy. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6: CONWAY TRABLE in "THE NEXT CORNER," a seven reel lavish pro- duction. Plot starts in Paris with the wife falling in love with a ladies' man but husband believes her true though he finds her a vamp. After many complications they finally become reunited. Also, Pathe News and Review. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7: MIRIAM COOPER in "BROKEN WING," a fine comedy melodrama with human interest as well. Has to do with Mexican rebel potboiling and scenes are mostly laid in that country. Also, 4th episode of "THE IRON MAN." OPERA HOUSE. FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, OCT. 31 AND NOV. 1: MARGUERITE de la MOTTE in "WHEN A MAN'S A MAN," with John Bowers, is a good western melodrama, with fast action, suspense and a quantity of human interest. The outdoor Arizona scenery is beautiful. Also, Al St. John Comedy. FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7 AND 8: All Star Cast in "BROKEN HEARTS OF BROADWAY," with Colleen Moore, Johnnie Walker, Alice Lake and Kate Price, is a seven reel ap- pealing drama. Also, the Jack Dempsey serial, "THE TITLE HOLDER." Brilliant pictures at opera house, with the new silver screen. If you go one time you will go again.
