

Farm Products and Poultry Show.

The date for the farm products and poultry show to be held in the armory at Bellefonte, as announced by R. C. Blaney, county agent, has been set for December 5th and 6th. Plans are under way for the biggest show of the kind ever held in Centre county.

The committee has decided to include a poultry department this year. This will be a utility show which will give every poultry man in Centre county a chance to compete. The entries will include old and young pens of all breeds, and single cockerels of all breeds. A pen will be made up of four females and a male. Under the direction of John B. Payne, vocational supervisor, sixty boys who have poultry projects over the county will exhibit here for this final round-up. In addition to the boys' exhibits plans are being made to take care of at least sixty pens and as many single entries in the general competition.

Due to the fact that the premium money is limited it was thought best to limit the farm crops to corn, oats, wheat, potatoes, apples and eggs. By doing this it will be possible to make more prizes in each class and have them larger. Many shows have classes of all kinds of miscellaneous and uncommon farm products which have no competition, and need only to be exhibited to win a prize. By limiting the classes to our most popular farm crops it is hoped to make the classes larger and the competition so keen that it will be an honor to take first in a class, and the exhibitors who did not place will go home with the determination to come back with a better exhibit next year.

Exhibits will be in place by Friday noon, December 5th, and the judging will be done in the afternoon. Judges will be requested to give their reasons for placings and answer any questions any one may ask. The show will be open all day Saturday and exhibits can be taken home that evening.

Every big business must advertise its products, and the farmer must fall in line. This is a good way to show the consuming public what you are producing. The best exhibits from the Centre county show will be sent to Harrisburg to the State show, so everybody should start now and make this show a real success.

Brief Meeting of Borough Council.

Every member was present at the regular meeting of borough council, on Monday evening, with the exception of Thomas Hazel. Conrad Miller appeared once more in regard to the putting down of a pavement on Ridge street from east High to Pike alley, and once more the matter was referred to the Street committee.

The secretary presented four permits from the Public Service Commission to garage owners and auto supply dealers in Bellefonte for putting down gas tanks and erection of pumps. They were referred to the Street committee and borough manager.

The secretary also reported that the five beacon traffic lights recently ordered by council have been shipped and should arrive in Bellefonte this week.

The Street and Water committees reported various repairs and work done on the streets and water system.

The Finance committee requested the renewal of notes aggregating $26,000, which was granted.

The Fire and Police committee presented the burgess' check for $43.00, in payment for costs collected for damages to the silent police.

Borough manager J. D. Seibert made complaint about residents of Bellefonte emptying their ashes on the streets and in the alleys, claiming that every rain washes them into the sewers, causing all kinds of trouble. The Street committee was authorized to have printed copies of the clause in the nuisance ordinance prohibiting the throwing of ashes on streets or alleys, the same to be conspicuously posted and distributed generally. If that does not bring the desired result arrests will follow.

Bills were approved to the amount of $5394.90 after which council adjourned.

Carnegie Tech and Pennsylvania Day.

Tomorrow will be Pennsylvania day at The Pennsylvania State College. Before "Alumni Home coming" day was changed from commencement time to a fall date "Pennsylvania" day was the incentive for wonderful annual gatherings at the institution. The crowds grew greater with each year and the natural growth of the College in student body brought an ever increasing influx.

Some thought that "Alumni Homecoming" would have the effect of reducing the "Pennsylvania day" crowd, but it has not so it is expected that thousands of people from all parts of the State will be there tomorrow to join in the celebration.

The sporting part of the entertainment program will be the football game with Carnegie Tech. Time was when this game would have been listed as merely a practice contest. Not so now. The Skibos have progressed in the football world and State will be lucky if she comes out of that contest victorious.

Comparative scores are not dependable sources from which to dip dope, but they are intriguing none-the-less. Two weeks ago Syracuse defeated State. On the same day Carnegie Tech defeated Pitt for the second time in succession. Last Saturday Pitt tied Syracuse. Now where does State stand in her game tomorrow.
