Country Correspondence

Items of Interest Dished Up for the Delectation of "Watchman" Readers by a Corps of Gifted Correspondents.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Caroline Dale is not improving as rapidly as her friends would like to see.

Miss Irene Pletcher, of the Branch, is spending ten days with friends at Snydertown.

Irvin H. Keller and son Jack are here from Pittsburgh for the former's annual hunt.

Postmaster Barr, who had been confined to his room for ten days, is able to be at his desk again.

Lewis Baylett and brother motored to Patton, on Saturday, to try the hunting in that section.

Master Jack Dale, of Bellefonte, is having a rollicking good time visiting grandpa Dale, on the Branch.

Miss Elizabeth Coheen, of Baileyville, spent Sunday afternoon with her friend, Miss Virginia Dale, on the Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Homan Goss spent Friday in Bellefonte and visited Elmer Barr and other patients in the Centre County hospital.

C. M. Dale spent Friday in Bellefonte to assist Mrs. W. R. Dale in her preparations for leaving on Saturday to join her husband at Lake Worth, Florida.

George and Walter Woods, of Pittsburgh, have been called to the bedside of their father, Dr. G. H. Woods, who is quite ill and showing few signs of improvement.

Your correspondent is under obligations to Will Wagner, a member of the Modoc hunting club, for a nice hunk of venison from a six point, 180 pound buck that fell before his unerring aim.

Samuel Everhart and family spent Sunday at the Reed home at Rock Springs and on Monday Mr. Everhart departed for Harrisburg where he is this week serving as a juror in the U. S. district court.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Port Smith will be sorry to learn that she is a patient at Mayo Bros. sanatorium, at Rochester, Minn. It is to be hoped that she will be greatly benefited by her stay there.

Owing to ill health Miss Gutard has resigned as teacher of the Centre school and Miss Mildred Campbell has been elected to complete the term. She has had enough experience in the school room to assure her success.

Last Friday evening the Gill home on the Branch was the scene of a happy gathering in celebration of Michael's 21st birthday anniversary. Games, music and choice refreshments constituted the evening's program, which proved a most delightful occasion for all those fortunate enough to be present.

We are sorry to note the illness of that veteran hunter, David Robb, of Liberty township. He came up to join the Rossman-Sunday club for their annual hunt but was taken sick and for several days his condition was quite serious. He is now considerably improved but will not be able to enjoy his 68th annual hunt.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. W. H. Phillips was called to the burg to attend the funeral of her brother, James Moyer.

Thursday of last week F. S. Tomlinson attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Frank Klepper, in Bellefonte. Mrs. Klepper was 87 years old.

After a ten day's trip to points in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, Mr. and Mrs. George Cunningham returned home, Saturday, reporting having had a most delightful trip.

Owing to a misunderstanding the services scheduled for 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Reformed church were not held. Rev. Gass, of Howard, was in town Saturday. However, Sunday evening, December 14th, at 7 o'clock, Rev. A. J. Irey, will fill the pulpit in the Reformed church. Everybody invited to attend this, as well as all other services held in the church.

We regret to note the critical illness of our fellow townsman, George Homan. For some months Mr. Homan has been in failing health but only within the past few weeks has he been confined to the house and the past week in bed. His physician has little, if any encouragement to offer.

HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

SOME FOLKS ACTS A FOOL EN GITS DRUNK EN SOME GITS DRUNK EN ACTS A FOOL!!

However, his friends and neighbors trust he may rally and be able to go about again as was his custom.

Mrs. C. C. Bell and daughter, Mrs. Frank B. Patton, and chauffeur, Chas. Duke, of Huntingdon, motored to the village Tuesday afternoon and spent a few hours at the home of Mrs. Bell's sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Hull and family; also Mrs. Bell's brothers, G. J. and T. C. Weaver.

RUNVILLE.

Miss Catherine Rowe, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her home folks.

Philip Confer was the lucky hunter of this place the first day of the deer season.

Mrs. Ida Witmer, of Wingate, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Heaton.

Mrs. Forden Walker, of Snow Shoe, called at the home of her sister, Mrs. Earl Kauffman, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tufel, of Milton, spent the week-end with Mrs. Tufel's parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Rowe.

Mrs. J. O. McClincy, D. F. Poorman, and Frank Lucas attended the butchering at the Claude Poorman home, at Bellefonte, on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson and son Malin, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson, of Holt's Hollow, helped Boyd Johnson butcher on Wednesday.

The Ladies Aid, of the U. B. church, will hold a miscellaneous supper and sale at the P. O. S. of A. hall on Saturday evening, December 13. Everybody welcome.

Huge Sum to Aid Hunting.

The Pacific Coast Sportsmen's club, with headquarters in Los Angeles, proposes to begin operations with a fund of $4,000,000 and contemplates an unusual arrangement of wild game preserves in California. The organization will begin an immediate campaign to dispose of 4,000 memberships at $1,000 each, according to the incorporation papers, recently filed. The program includes establishment of huge game preserves in Central California, where members from all over America will be able to hunt wild game of every species.

A letter from the secretary of the San Francisco S. P. C. A. and of the State Humane Association of California says that these organizations "are going on record as disapproving of the objects of this corporation," and "we will do what we can to prevent the unnecessary slaughter of animals." It also states that the greatest cruelty in the proposed plan would be through the capture of the wild animals and bringing them from Africa. All Humane Societies should try to stop this.

—When you see it in the "Watchman" you know it's true.

ALL MADE IN AN HOUR.

It will not take very long to make any of these gifts, nor very deep reaching into your pocket, and yet when the friend who receives them peels off the Christmas wrappings she is likely to feel a little nearer to you for having made the gift. There is a different thrill to a home-made gift.

Begin by making a pair of fancy garters, and don't allow yourself more than an hour to make them. If you have all the materials assembled and your thread does not spring too many knots, you can easily do it. Buy the fancy webbing already ruffled, then with scraps of ribbon tied in knots and made into a rosette, or a few twists that will suggest a flower, or possibly a few fronds from a discarded feather, and your garters are ready to delight in the heart of a friend who dotes on negliges.

The friend who delights in perfumes is an easy person to buy for. Select a bottle, the quality and size to be determined by your purse-strings, then cover the bottle tightly with a scrap of gold lace, cover the edges at the top with narrow fancy gold braid, applying some tiny roses from some rose trimming that can be bought at any fancy goods shop, or even the five and ten, and your gift is finished. For an invalid friend a bottle of smelling salts can be thus artistically treated for a gift.

A nest of sachets for milady's dresser can be made of a satin six-inch ribbon folded in squares, sewed together and filled with cotton and sachet powder, are a simple gift that will make you sweetly remembered all year. Place three of such filled squares one on top of the other, tie them all together with inch-wide double-faced satin ribbon of your own color choosing, and your gift is ready to be sent. Tout mon Jardin, potpourri, or lavender flowers may be substituted for sachet powder when the gift is intended for bed linens.

MEDICAL.

All Out of Sorts?

So Was This Bellefonte Woman Who Tells Her Experience.

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Bellefonte case is one of many:

Mrs. Susan Lyons, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 49, says: "I suffered with disordered kidneys and my back gave out and ached as if it would break. I was hardly ever free from nervous, dizzy headaches. I used Doan's Pills bought at Zeller & Son's drug store and was relieved."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Lyons had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 69-49
