

Bellefonte, Pa., December 19, 1924.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-The barn on the George Hackenberg farm, near Rebersburg, was burned to the ground on Wednesday morning, with all its contents.

-Mrs. Susan Lyons, who has and Miles Decker on Spring street, since last June, was taken to the hospital, on Monday, for medical treat-

---The Catholic Daughters of America will hold a card party in their rooms New Year's Eve. Game will begin at 8:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited. Admission, 25 cents.

---In accordance with the custom inaugurated last year the Brockerhoff house dining room will be closed all day on Christmas in order that every one connected therewith can have as much time at their homes as possible.

---With winter's icy blasts swirl-W. H. Garman as his daily connection with Bellefonte has been put in storage and he now rides back and forth in an Essex coach purchased last week.

-The United States Supreme Centre County bank case. It will reprobable.

-A little daughter was born to home in Cleveland, Ohio, last Friday night. The new papa is a son of Mrs. is on being a father.

-Word was received at Howard, on Tuesday, from Philadelphia that the second operation performed on Dr. W. J. Kurtz, on Monday, resulted in the successful removal of a tumor which has caused all his trouble. He came through the operation in such good shape that the physicians have every hope of a permanent recovery.

overlook the fact that the Scenic is programs of motion pictures being shown there every evening will not be repeated and if you miss seeing them now you'll never have another the place to spend your evenings during the Holidays. the State, particularly Lycoming the general public. county. According to reports the disthis section of the State will escape ers are accredited. the flu.

tlemen, accompanied by Peck Snyder by sportsmen's associations. and a Mr. Holmes, of State College, will leave for Florida. They are all there if they like the place and can bill's. locate advantageously but failing in the latter they will return to Centre Centre Countians Contribute to Bond county.

-Announcement was made from Harrisburg last Thursday of the dismer E. Davis, former assistant deputy warden at the western penitentiary at Rockview. It will be recalled that viduals in Centre county: Mr. Davis about two months ago shot now under bail for appearance before the Mifflin county court to answer to brouble at Lewistown Davis was of State College; Philip Foster, of suspended from duty at Rockview and State College; John H. Mokle, of moved to Altoona.

-The attention of Christmas buyers is called to a consignment of the thread laces, made by the women of India, on display at the William Houser home on Water street. Thread is provided these Hindu women through the missionaries, who also put on the market their work, which is in all practical designs. These laces were originally for the Lutheran bazaar last week, but arrived too late, consequently the public is still given an opportunity for securing the beautiful productions at a very reasonable cost.

-Before leaving Penn State for the holiday vacation undergraduates were advised that a mid-year class of 100 additional Freshmen will be admitted to the college at the beginning of the second trar. State College, Pa.

AGRICULTURAL COMMISSION VISITED CENTRE COUNTY. Seeking Information to Present to the Next Legislature. especially as they relate to the public made her home with Miss Josephine ary. These presentations were made judge take the oath, including four so that in future years there will be to the Pennsylvania commission of ag- members of the bar, though most of less eye trouble because of poor or inhouse.

town, chairman; W. Albert Haines, Bristol, secretary; Charles W. Sones, Williamsport; Frederick W. Culbertagent R. C. Blaney was in charge and a number of Centre county people attended the conference.

and discussed relative to reduction of taxes, schools, assessments, roads and court adjourned on Monday without marketing conditions. Opinions were having handed down a decision in the asked for and freely given and there was general unanimity in the senticonvene on January 5th and while it ment that the present rate of taxation is possible that an opinion might be is too high for the returns secured. filed before that time it is not very Among the solutions offered was de- Winifred M. Gates that her services centralization of power in the government at Harrisburg and greater au-Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ward, at their thority delegated to local boards. Several instances were cited where erine Hartle official court stenogralarge sums of money were expended pher. J. E. Ward, of Bellefonte, and she is for road work and school supervision probably just as proud of being when local authorities could have segrandma for the first time as her son cured much better results at about fifty per cent. of the expenditure. A more equitable taxation for school purposes throughout the county was also advised. In Centre county today taxation runs from 8 mills in some have a tax of 35 mills while the aver-While most people still have a be the result. Redistricting the town- Eight of the cases were against men lot of Christmas shopping to do don't ships was suggested as a better meth- for operating motor vehicles while undoing business at the old stand every the urgent need of another assistant eight five of them plead guilty on the evening during the week. The big county superintendent as the county is advice of their attorneys, the bill of Bellefonte High School Basket Ball the county superintendent and one as-, and two were found "not guilty." sistant.

opportunity. The Scenic will be just county is the large amount of State- ment was ignored by the grand jury, out in force and, under the direction It was the general sentiment that this of "not guilty" w -What is believed to be chicken land should be taxed and help to bear conviction secured by a jury trial. flu or pleuro-pneumonia is playing the burden of local government, thus havoc with flocks in various parts of relieving the load on the shoulders of Commissioners' attorney S. D. Getease gets in its deadly work in short tig discussed the present law relating order, entire flocks being wiped out to escaped convicts from the Rockwithin twenty-four hours. Up to this view penitentiary, which so far has time no reports have reached county, proven very costly to Centre county, farm agent Blaney of an outbreak of as costs aggregating thousands of that the board of managers of what the disease in Centre county, and it is dollars have never been paid by the has been known as the Dix Run cemeto be hoped that all the chickens in counties to which such escaped prison- tery decided to change the name of

The commission was urged to sup- with an action taken on Saturday, De--Lyman L. Smith has sold his port legislation favoring the approbusiness at Centre Hall and William priation of more money for the eradi-Shoop has resigned his position as cation of tuberculosis in cattle herds. head clerk in Fauble's store, Belle- Regarding damage done on farms by fonte, to take effect the first of the deer and other wild animals it was year, and shortly thereafter both gen- suggested that this be taken care of going with the intention of remaining sewing cabinets, at $6.75.—Brach- etery" because they have another Issue and Campaign Fund.

Contributions to the forest bond ismissal from the State service of El- sue campaign fund of the State Conservation council have been made by the following organizations and indi-

United Sportsmen of Pennsylvania, and killed a man at Lewistown and is of Pleasant Gap; State College Conservation Association, of State College; Col. Theodore Davis Boal, of the charge of murder. Following the Boalsburg; Professor J. A. Ferguson, Howard. Centre county amount to $76.00. The day. fund is being raised by the Conservation council to tell the public why the State should float a loan of $25,000,-000 to buy 3,500,000 acres of forest time was pastor of the Evangelical land to enlarge the present State for-

Officers of the council expect substantial donations to the campaign fund from other clubs, sportsmen, and interested persons in the county.

-Reduction on all shoes-Yea-50-1t ger's.

Methodist Home, at Tyrone, Bequeathed $50,000.

Starting life as a breaker boy William A. Phillips, who died recently at to the people who strive so hard, week friends by giving them delicious, absemester arly in February. This his home at Mt. Carmel, left an estate after week, to give you your paper group of new students is to replace estimated to exceed one million dolthose of senior rank who are to be lars, $550,000 of which was left to ing. The next issue of the "Watchgraduated on February 10th, and to charitable and philanthropic institutake the place of students of other tions. Among the bequests were classes who have withdrawn during $50,000 for the Methodist home for the courtesies extended us during the past the latter part of the week a light the first semester. The usual en- aged, at Tyrone; $50,000 to Williamstrance requirements are necessary for port Dickinson Seminary; $10,000 for ry Christmas and a Happy New Year. day was quite stormy and cold with a admission. Application blanks may the Wesleyan Foundation, at State be secured from W. S. Hoffman, regis- College, and $10,000 to Dickinson College, Carlisle.

Arthur C. Dale Sworn in as Judge of PRIZES AWARDED IN Centre County.

Arthur C. Dale, appointed by Governor Pinchot, on Thursday of last week, as president judge of Centre Reduction and equalization of taxes county to succeed the late Judge Henand decentralization of government, ry C. Quigley, was sworn in in open schools are two of the things Centre ing. The oath of office was adminis- pils in the public schools in the Unitcounty has requested to be urged up- tered by the Recorder of Centre coun- ed States and Canada. The purpose on the next Legislature when it as- ty, Lloyd A. Stover. Several dozen of the contest was to educate the pubsembles in Harrisburg early in Janu- persons were present to see the new lic in the proper use of electric light riculture which visited Bellefonte on the attorneys entered the court room efficient lighting. Eleven national Monday and held a brief meeting in after the judge had taken his seat prizes were offered, ranging in value the grand jury room in the court upon the bench. Just as Recorder from a $15,000 model electric home to The members of the commission are judge's wife entered the court room Senator Horace W. Schantz, of Allen- with a bouquet of carnations which she presented to her husband.

announce that Register Harry A. son, Lewis own; Mrs. Martha G. Rossman desired to offer his accounts DeHaas, E. C. Musser, Roy C. Wit-Thomas, Whitford; George W. Wil- for confirmation nisi, but that because mer, E. K. Stock and Mrs. Merrill Ha-Tunkhannock, and Albert Reim, Beth- he had withdrawn the advertisements lehem. As the commission sits in only from the newspapers after they had fonte schools, all of which were subcounties: Tioga, Lycoming, Snyder, filing exceptions because of that fact. ing around the Dim Lantern, near Clinton, Potter, Clearfield, Cameron, Two attorneys questioned their right Runville, that old Ford truck used by Elk and McKean. County extension to waive exceptions but Mr. Keller George T. Bush. stated that to readvertise them would mean additional expense and he fail- ing at the Brockerhoff house on Moned to see any reason why the accounts day evening to hear a report of the Various questions were brought up couldn't be confirmed. Other attor- judges and select the local prize winneys withdrew their objections and ners. The six students whose essays

the accounts were confirmed nisi. Mr. Gettig presented several legal papers for the judge's endorsement following which court adjourned.

The judge's first official action on leaving the bench was to inform Miss as official stenographer would no longer be required, and on Tuesday he issued an order appointing Miss Cath-

Judge Dale will continue to occupy his offices in the Cohen building on High street until the first of next April when he will move into the judge's chambers in the court house. During his eleven months term as district attorney Mr. Dale handled an unusually large number of cases of all districts to 45 in one. Nine districts kinds, including the famous Musser murder case in which he secured a age is 21. Protest was entered against conviction of second degree murder. the consolidation of schools unless the All told he handled forty-eight cases State helps bear the expense of erect- that had to do in one way or another ing the new school houses that would with a violation of the liquor laws. od. Another question discussed was der the influence of liquor. Of the too large to be adequately covered by indictment against one was ignored

Of the forty other cases twenty-A big question confronting Centre three plead guilty, one bill of indictowned land which is free of taxation. seven were nolle prossed, five verdicts of coach Riden, have been getting in

> -Ladies' 4 buckle arctics, $2.98. Yeager's.

Cemetery Name Has Been Changed.

Jean Hall, of Unionville, was in town on Saturday and informed us that burial place and in accordance cember 6th, it will hereafter be known as the "Ook Ridge" cemetery.

Because the burial plot lies west of Unionville and that borough uses, on occasion, the cemetery east of it Unionville has always regarded the Dix Run cemetery as the "upper cemetery," while residents along Dix run -Mahogany finished Priscilla have designated it as the "lower cem-50-1t north of it further toward the Alleghenies.

The new name, "Oak Ridge," was decided on so as to avoid all further confusion, as to location, and in the future it will be referred to as such.

-Polycrome bridge lamps, complete with silk shades, at $11.50.—W. R. Brachbill's Furniture Store. 50-1t Exhausted by Hunting Trip Former Bellefonte Clergyman Dies.

The Rev. William H. Brown, a former pastor of the Evangelical church at Bellefonte, Spring Mills and Millheim, died at the home of his son, J. To date the total contributions from Good Brown, in Lewisburg, on Satur-

> He had just returned from a deer hunting trip when he was stricken. Deceased was 53 years old and at the church at Loganville, York county.

-Men's $5 shoes now $3.75.-Yeager's.

No Paper Next Week.

The "Watchman" force will take a holiday next week and consequently no paper will be issued from this of- Abram Fry, Rebersburg, Pa. fice. This is in accordance with an old-established custom and we feel will not begrudge a week's relaxation happy holiday for your family and bright and fresh every Friday mornman" will appear on January 2nd, and with due acknowledgments of all the

at Yeager's.

HOME LIGHTING CONTEST.

Six Bellefonte Students Entered in National Essay Contest.

Several months ago the National Lighting Association announced a court at ten o'clock on Saturday morn- home lighting contest open to all pu-Stover concluded reading the oath the a $300 scholarship in an American or Canadian college.

Bellefonte joined in the contest and named as a general committee John B. Judge Dale's first official act was to Payne, chairman; C. Ward Fisher. Charles F. Mensch, A. H. Sloop, J. B. liams, Wellsboro; Oscar D. Stark, of the sudden death of Judge Quigley gan. A large number of essays were submitted by the pupils of the Bellethrough Bellefonte early on Monday morncertain districts in the State represen- been published three times, and he mitted to the following judges for contatives were here from the following asked all attorneys interested to waive sideration: Rev. M. DePui Maynard, W. Harrison Walker, Mrs. R. M. Beach, Miss Helen E. C. Overton and

The general committee held a meetwere adjudged good enough to give them a place in the international contest are as follows: Mary Teresa ces Willard McKelvey, Rachel Dorothy McKelvey, Clyde V. Smith and Margaret Eisenhauer.

Local prizes were awarded as fol-Seniors and Juniors-Mary Teresa Shoemaker, $20 in gold; Grace Belle Cohen, $15; Frances Willard McKelvey, $7.50; Clyde V. Smith, $5.00. Sophomores and Freshmen-Rachel McKelvey, $20; Kathryn Bullock, $15; Gilbert K. Fleming, $7.50; Walter Thomas Irvine, $5.00.

Gertrude Barlett, $20; Dorothy Runkle, $15; Lois Virginia Kurtz, $7.50; John William Smith, $5.00.

All the prizes were in gold and John B. Payne, chairman of the Bellefonte committee, made the presentation to the winning students on Tuesday morning.

-Good, sturdy, folding card tables, at $3.50.—W. R. Brachbill. 50-1t

Schedule.

Candidates for the Bellefonte High school basket ball team have turned shape for the opening of the season at dates have been in training for the last fall. various positions on the team and the exact line-up will not be announced schedule for the season is as follows: December 19-Hollidaysburg at Hollidaysburg. December 20-Juniata at Juniata. January 2-Houtzdale at home. January 9-Mount Union at Mount Un-

January 10-Lewistown at Lewistown. January 16-Huntingdon at Huntingdon. January 24-Hollidaysburg at home. January 30-Philipsburg at Philipsburg. January 31-Houtzdale at Houtzdale. February 6-Philipsburg at home. February 13-Huntingdon at home. February 21-Lewistown at home. February 27-Mount Union at home. March 6-Juniata at home.

Two games will also be played with Lock Haven, the dates to be announced later.

-Men's $8 shoes now $5.85.-Yeager's.

Postoffice Hours Christmas Day.

The early morning collection and delivery will be made by city carriers. The general delivery, stamp and registry windows will be open from 10:30 until 11 a. m. No carrier service from their window by carriers as Postoffice Department has ordered all business ended at 11 a. m. Only outgoing mail will be handled after that hour. No Christmas. service on rural routes Christmas day. JOHN L. KNISELY, P. M.

-Twenty-one different models doll carriages at W. R. Brachbill's. 50-1t

Want to Schedule Basket Ball Games.

The basket ball teams of the Miles township High school at Rebersburg, both the boy and girl teams, have open dates on January 2, 23 and 30 which they would like to fill with games at Managers of any teams interested are requested to communicate with A.

-A real Christmas is one good solutely pure Belle Mead Sweets, which can be purchased at the Mott and a member of the agricultural commis-Drug Co.

-Following the mild weather of year we wish one and all a very Mer- snow fell on Saturday night and Sun--Prices slaughtered on all shoes was the most disagreeable day so far with the commission to the western part Barley 50-1t experienced this winter.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Hardman P. Harris is on a business rip to Philadelphia, having gone east on Wednesday.

-Mrs. R. S. Brouse will go to Brooklyn during the Holidays, for her annual winter visit with her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Topelt.

-Among the college set to return home for the Holiday vacation, will be Miss Louise Barnhart, who is taking her first year at Oberlin College, Ohio.

-Miss Edrie Walker will be here from Philadelphia next week for her winter vacation and to be the Christmas honor guest at the W. Miles Walker home. -Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Valentine, of Lancaster, and their son Richard, will be Christmas guests of honor at the Mrs. Harry Valentine and Miss Mary Valentine home, on Curtin street. -Arthur Ward, of New York city, will join his sister, Miss Isabelle Ward, a student at Dickinson College, in Bellefonte to spend the Christmas week here with their mother, Mrs. J. E. Ward -Mr. and Mrs. John Confer and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Confer, of Snow Shoe, passed

ing on a motor trip to Florida, where they anticipate spending six weeks. -Miss Margaret Brockerhoff will come here from Philadelphia, to celebrate Christmas with her uncle and brother, Dr. Joseph and Henry Brockerhoff, at the for mer's home on Bishop street.

-Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Landsy went to Altoona, on Friday, where they attended the Greeters convention, going from there to Philadelphia to do some Christmas shopping, returning home early in the week. -Mrs. McChesney, who spends much of her time in Centre county with her daughter. Mrs. Edward Williams, went to Pitts-Shoemaker, Grace Belle Cohen, Fran- burgh Monday, for a Holiday visit with the other members of the family. Mr.

Williams is a guard at Rockview. -Boyd Irwin, the only son of Dr. and Mrs. W. U. Irwin, is expected in Bellefonte to be the Christmas honor guest of his parents. Boyd, who is with the Western Electric Co., is now in Minnesota doing special work, but is planning to come east next week.

-Mr. and Mrs. Barry Case arrived in Bellefonte Sunday, from Washington, D. C., for a mid-winter visit of three weeks with Mrs. Case's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McGowan, at their home on Seventh and Eighth grades-Mary Spring creek, expecting to return home early in the New Year. -The guests of the family house party entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Griffith at Thanksgiving, are expected in Bellefonte again for Christmas. The party included Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Green, of Camden, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dawson and their family, of Philadelphia,

-Mrs. George Dallas Dixon, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bowen, of Buffalo; Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker, Dr. Joseph Brockerhoff and his nephew, Henry Brockerhoff, of Bellefonte, were among those who accompanied the body of the late William Simpson here for burial, Monday, from his home in Lock Haven.

-Mrs. E. H. B. Callaway is anticipating making a third trip around the world, expecting to sail with the Clark's fifth cruise, from New York, January 20th, going by way of Panama Canal and across the Pacific ocean. Mrs. Callaway has been with Hollidaysburg this (Friday) evening. her daughter, Mrs. Harry Garber, at Col-As usual, a large number of candi- lege Point, N. Y., since leaving here early

-Elwood Iddings, one of the twentyfive High school students who come here until some time today. The entire from Fleming every day, spent a short time in this office, Tuesday, looking after some business for W. A. Peters. With so many of the younger set to look after their business matters in Bellefonte, we do not see as much of the older residents of Unionville as we might wish.

-The Holiday house party of the John Dunlap family will be held at the Dunlap home, on Thomas street, on New Year's day instead of Christmas. All the members of the family, including Mr. and Mrs. Sabert Ramsey, of Altoona, and their three boys, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Raymond, of Bellefonte, with their four children, will be there for this family get-to-gether par-

-Mrs. Mary Payne left Bellefonte, Monday, to return to Roanoke, Va., to be for the remainder of the winter, with her daughter, Mrs. Paul B. Seanor. Mrs. Payne, who has spent much of her married life in Roanoke, came north to go with her son, the late William Payne, to Arizona, 50-1t and since her return from there has been visiting with her sons, John and Gideon, and their families, in Bellefonte.

-Mrs. Alice E. Budinger, of Snow Shoe will leave today to spend the remainder of the winter as a guest of the Robert Budinger family, at Santa Monica, Col. Going west over the Southern route, Mrs. Budinger's present plans are for spending Christmas at San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. J. P. Irvin, of Snow Shoe, and Mrs. Budinger, were in Bellefonte Tuesday, the day being spent in the shops preparing for

-Boynton Daggett has been so ill at the home of his mother, Mrs. Wells L. Daggett, on Linn street, that it is feared their plans for spending Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Murch Jr., in Cleveland, will have to be abandoned. Boynton, as one of the frequenters of the Logan hose house, and one of the company's most loyal members, is no doubt greatly missed in his part of making things go at their club home on Howard street.

-Members of the family Christmas party Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes will entertain at her apartments in the Eagle Block, will include Mr. and Mrs. Edmund P. Hayes, of Pittsburgh; Miss Ellen Hayes, of Syracuse University; John, of New York city, Pa. and Thomas, of Harrisburg. Dr. Hayes' sister, Mrs. Reish, who has been with Mrs Hayes for the past year or more, will go to Mifflinburg, where she and her son Haves will be guests of Mr. Reish's famisure that the "Watchman" readers candy feast! Make this a specially ly for the Holidays. Hayes is a student at Penn State.

> -Miss Martha G. Thomas, state vicechairman of the League of Women Voters 69-50 sion of the House of Representatives, was a week-end guest of Miss Mary and Henry S. Linn. The visit made here at this time was to attend a meeting of the commission held in the grand jury room of the court house, Monday, at which representative Corn farmers from all over the county were succession of snow squalls. In fact it present. Upon leaving, Miss Thomas went Oats with the commission to the western part Barley - - - - 1.00 of the State in the interest of their work. Buckwheat - - - - 1.10

-Phil. Reynolds, who is now in Philadelphia, will come home to be with his parents, Col. and Mrs. W. F. Reynolds during the Holiday season

-John A. Lane Jr., of Philadelphia, is among those planning for a Christmas visit to Bellefonte, coming up for the day with the L. A. Schaeffer family. -The Misses Anne, Eleanor and Louise Taylor, the three daughters of R. B. Taylor, will all be home next week for a Chrismas visit with their father. -Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming will go over to Philipsburg to be with their grandchildren for the great day, as has been their custom for a number of years.

-Mrs. Edwin Erle Sparks has given up her home on the Campus, at State College, and gone to Pedricktown, N. J., where she expects to make her home in the future. -George Geiss, the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss, who is with the P. R. R. Co., 'n Philadelphia, will be among the home-comers next week for a day's visit. -Miss Minnie Simpson and her sister. Mrs. Strong, are arranging to close their home in Lock Haven, intending to spend the winter with their sister, Mrs. Dravo, at -Mrs. William Weiler, of Water street, was taken to the Centre County hospital, Tuesday, to be under the observation of physicians there until her condition has improved. -Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Coxey are coming over from Clearfield next week, to be with Mr. Coxey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Coxey and the family for a part of the Holiday season. -Mrs. Nora Ferguson will go to State College the early part of the week for a Holiday visit with her sisters, expecting to be a house guest during her stay, of Mrs. Edward Corl. -The honor guests at the W. R. Brachbill family Holiday house party will be Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Wagner, of Watsontown, and their young son, who will come to Bellefonte for Christmas. -Archibald Allison and his daughter, Miss Katherine, will have as Christmas day guests the Humes and McCov families. Miss Mabel Allison, of Spring Mills, and Miss Mary Shorkley, of Williamsport.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Benson and their two sons, John and Edward, will be here from Pittsburgh next week, to join in the Holiday celebration at the Christ Beezer home. Mrs. Benson is a sister of Mrs. Beezer.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McClure will come east from Aurora, Ill., Mrs. McClure going directly on to Philadelphia, while Mr. McClure will stop here to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McClure, for the Christmas day. -Samuel M. Shallcross, general superintendent of the Bellefonte operations of the American Lime and Stone Co., and Mrs. Shallcross, will leave Christmas night for Florida, to spend Mr. Shallcross' three weeks winter vacation at Miami. -Mr. and Mrs. John Waite will come over from Johnstown late next week for a Holiday week-end visit with Mr. Waite's mother, Mrs. George Waite, on Phoenix avenue, joining in the family Christmas and New Year celebration at that time. -Miss Louise Taylor is preparing to go to Detroit, Mich., for a mid-winter visit with her aunt, Mrs. Robert Burns, i

Taylor, of Franklin, will be in Bellefonte as the Christmas guest in the Taylor fam--Miss Louise Carpeneto was on a business trip to Altoona for several days the early part of the week, returning home Tuesday. Miss Carpeneto had been entering to spend her vacation there. Vincent taining Frank Cuneo, of Connellsville, who was a guest of the Carpeneto family during his stay in Bellefonte. -The Holiday guests of Misses Anna and Mary Hoy will be J. Harris Hoy, of Wilmington, Del., and Mr. and Mrs. Randolph H. Hoy, of Crafton. The Albert Hoy family had planned to come from New York, to complete the party, but will be compelled to remain at home. -The Christmas house party at the L. H. Gettig home will include Mr. and Mrs. R. Wynn Davis, of Washington, Pa., and Mrs. Gettig's brother, H. F. Ulrich, of Wil-kinsburg. Mrs. Davis is coming home, expecting to remain for a visit of several weeks, while the men will be here for a Holiday visit of several days only. -May Crider, from Philadelphia; Mary Katz, from the Sargent school, Boston; Elizabeth Hunter, Syracuse; Dorris Moore, Dickinson Seminary; Martha Hunter, Philadelphia; Lois Foreman, Columbia University, New York city; Mary Chambers,

Betty Hazel and Dorothy Mallory, of Penn

State, are among the college set who will spend the Christmas vacation at home. -Thomas King Morris Jr. was in Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon for a short time on his way to Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, going over as publicity manager for the Thespians of Penn State, to meet the Alumni and make arrangements for the presentation of the "Wooden Shoes," in those two cities. King will then go to Pittsburgh, and join the Thespians, New Year's day for their trip east.

Additional personal news on page 4, Col. 5.

Young Women Wanted for Training as Nurses.

The training school of the Philipsburg State hospital will admit a class of nurses on January 15th, 1925. Candidates should be young women of good moral character, who have finished one year of High school, or its equivalent. Apply to directress of nursing, State hospital, Philipsburg, 69-49-2t

-Ladies' slippers, all colors 98c. -Yeager's.

-Belle Mead Sweets candies, we will be glad to pack for shipping. The 69-50 Mott Drug Co.

-Nothing over $4.85 in ladies' shoes at Yeager's.

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. Rye -50