—Among the numerous bids for the construction of state highway in Pennsylvania to be opened at Harrisburg on January 24th will be those for four sections in Clearfield county totaling 93,663 feet, or a total of practically seventeen and three-fourths miles. Three of the above sections are in what is known as primary routes of travel and one is a state-aid project. In Centre county there are three sections of road on the primary routes which have not been built or improved, and they are the Bald Eagle valley from Snow Shoe Intersection to Bald Eagle, over the Snow Shoe mountain and across Nittany mountain to Centre Hall. These are included in plans Highway Commissioner Wright has mapped out to be built out of the proceeds of the pending fifty million dollar bond issue, which will probably be within the next few years.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Hon. J. Will Kepler was a Johnstown visitor last week.

Mrs. Edward Lucas spent Friday at the J. F. Kimpfort home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Porter were Bellefonte visitors on Saturday.

Roy Henry and bride are now housekeeping in the Margaret Reed home.

A little daughter arrived recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummo.

Miss Sallie Barr visited her brother Elmer, at the Centre County hospital on Friday.

The high wind following Sunday night's snow fall drifted many of the township roads.

Etta Viola, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover G. Cori, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

The Millheim High school orchestra will give a musicale in the I. O. O. F. hall at 7 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Mairs have returned to their home in Brownsville after spending the Christmas season at State College.

After spending two weeks among friends at State College Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lytle left on Thursday for their home in Sistersville, W. Va.

Instead of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bowser, as stated last week, it is Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Burwell who are occupying the Dunlap apartment.

Miss Elizabeth McDowell and Miss Eugene Garrett, of State College, spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Edith V. Dale, on the Branch.

Miss Ida Sunday, who has been in charge of the P. K. A. fraternity, at State College, is now at home taking care of her mother, who is in feeble health.

Mrs. Cyrus Goss has closed her home and with her two grand-sons has gone to the home of her son, George A. Goss, near McAlevy's Fort, for the winter.

Comrade George Krape is ill at the home of his son-in-law, William Ferree. During the war he served in the army of the Cumberland as a member of the Seventh cavalry.

Among the grip victims in town are G. H. Everas, H. A. Elder and Mrs. L. D. Musser. Mrs. O'Bryan is housed up with a bad attack of rheumatism. Comrade D. W. Miller is somewhat improved.

Fire which originated in one of the outbuildings about two o'clock yesterday morning destroyed the smoke house, wood shed and chicken house on the old Dr. Christ farm between Lemont and State College. The house was saved by the timely arrival of the State College fire company.

The following officers of State College Grange, No. 1707, were installed on Tuesday evening by past master John M. Dale: Master, Fred Stump; overseer, R. G. Bressler; chaplain, Nellie Shuey; treasurer, Lucretia Way; assistant steward, Lena Anderson; cures, Helen Unger; pomona, Annette Zeller; flora, Margaret Garvey; organist, Lucretia Biddle.

Living Up to Our Promises

In these days of prolific advertising writers are sometimes apt to make promises which a Store cannot fulfill.

Mindful of this common failing, the entire Management of this Store rigidly supervises the advertising so that it is never possible for a mis-statement of fact or an exaggeration of value to creep in. Any attempt to "gild the lily" is instantly frustrated.

Thus those who read our advertisements have come to know from experience that the promises we make in our advertising are always fulfilled.
