

Bellefonte, Pa., January 16, 1925.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-The Green and White Revue opens at 9 this morning at Motts.

-So far we have had six weeks of real winter weather, and a warm wave would be a pleasant relief.

----Wheat has reached $1.90 and many farmers are in a quandary as to whether to sell or hold theirs a while longer.

-The Bellefonte High school basket ball team lost a league game to the Lewistown High, last Saturday night, by the score of 29 to 25.

-The annual banquet of the stockholders of the Bellefonte Trust Co., will be served at the Brockerhoff kimona or child's dress or rompers, house Tuesday, January 20th, at 12:30

-Only one marriage license was issued by register Harry Rossman D. Yearick and Dorothy K. Dorman, both of Nittany.

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer are receiving congratulations on the birth of their first child, a son, Robert Alexander, who was born at the Centre County hospital Sunday, January

-There will not be any poultry exhibit at the State farm products show to be held in Harrisburg next week. All other exhibits, however, are expected to exceed those of former years.

-Thermometers in Bellefonte touched 3 below zero yesterday morning. It was the coldest of the year thus far. The low for the winter had been 2 degrees which was recorded early in December.

-Dr. Lewis Tryon, of Hamburg, Pa., but at one time a resident of Bellefonte, and who won the title of Major for services during the world war, has been appointed a surgeon in the Veterans Bureau hospital, at Pittsburgh.

-J. Fall Stover, among the older well known citizens of Bellefonte, is home on Bishop street. Mr. Stover has not been in the best of health for several years, consequently much fear is felt concerning his recovery.

-County farm agent, R. C. Blaney has been at State College this week attending an extension conference of all county agents and various specialists in different lines of agriculture. The meeting was held to discuss plans for the current year.

The family of the late John W. Hall, of Milesburg, desire to acknowledge with many thanks the kindness shown them in their recent sorrow on the occasion of the death of their father, who was suddenly stricken strations and hot school lunch. In while at his work, on January 3rd.

Rev. Reed O. Steely was appointed juvenile court officer by Judge Dale, on Tuesday, to succeed Rev. M. DePui Maynard, who resigned because of his leaving Bellefonte in the near future. The appointment is a meritorious one and we feel confident that Rev. Steely will make a creditable official.

niversary at her home at Pleasant Gap on Wednesday, February 11th. treasurer and secretary. Arrangements are being made to have all her children home on that occasion and the venerable lady insists that she will prepare the big dinner which will be a feature of the gathering.

-Mr. Robert Foster Whitmer has his home, 4703 Kingsessing Ave., Philadelphia. The breakfast will be served immediately after the wedding ceremony which will be solemnized at 12:30, Saturday, January 31st. Mr. however, to sell his home, corner of Y. M. C. A. gym. Last year Philipsand Mrs. Love will be at home in Bellefonte after February 23.

-The Scenic has started the new year right by giving its patrons some high-class pictures, in fact, the very best that can be obtained from the leading studios in this country. Every picture shown is worth seeing, and the large attendance every evening is evidence that the many patrons appreciat the efforts of manager T. Clayton Brown to keep his movie show up to the highest standard possible.

snow brought out sleds and sleighs portance. galore and the tinkle of the merry sleigh bells was music on the frosty air. But the tinkle is now a thing of the past, having been relegated to the byways in rural districts by the auto- High street, purchased by Mr. and mobile, and about the only horse and sleigh attracting attention on the streets of Bellefonte these days is Martin Cooney with his black colt, which he is training in the hope that Miss Valentine and conducted under some day it will be classy enough to put on the track.

Jacob Mills, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mills, of Belle- Derstine's reputation as a good cook Hanna. Mr. Dukeman declares that fonte, sustained a bad cut on the head is so well established in Bellefonte he was informed by sheriff Hanna at the High school building on Tues- that an increase in the popularity of that the Clinton county official did not the church, Dr. S. C. Breyfogel, of desire to see the new grand-son, son and day morning. While it is not definite- the tea room is already assured. ly known how the accident happened it is the general impression that he undertook to slide down the banisters | got four new boarders from Philipsinto the basement, fell off and struck burg. They were John Hart, charged his head on the concrete floor. He with possessing and transporting inwas taken to the Centre County hos- toxicating liquor; James Leitzell, pital where the wound was sewed up and there being no other serious in- house keeper, and Homer Johnson and jury he was able to leave the hospital Grace Eckley, committed on an adul-

HOME ECONOMICS

IN CENTRE COUNTY. Women and Girls' Clubs Make Garments and Study Cooking and Canning.

been organized in Hublersburg, with Mrs. Vonada as the leader of a club of nineteen members. The girls are in their clothing club work. Girls' clothing is divided into three apron, hemstitching problems, undergarments, and stocking darn; second, slip, hemming of a towel or napkin, combination, and middy blouse or over blouse; third, making of a cotton or woolen garment, making of a and sponging and pressing.

The aim of the work is to develop the technique of plain band sewing stitches as applied in the construction the past week, and that one to Russell and repair of garments and to develop neatness and accuracy.

Work has been organized in Rebersburg with both the girls and women interested. Mrs. Mary Abbott is the aid of Mrs. Flora Limbert and Mrs. Abbott a group of twenty-five women are doing clothing work. The John Harnish and George Smith women's work is divided into three parts, as follows: First, undergarments; second, children's clothing; third, giving the women fitted patdress each from the fitted pattern.

Under instructive talks and demonstrations are included: How to esti- a new industry in this community. ments.

Watts, instructor in the Vocational elties in wood. color of the eyes and hair and the entirely new line of work.

complexion are considered. In dress design the aim is to make the stout lady look slim and the slim lady pleasingly plump. This is easier than the present fad of dieting.

In food work for the women are included: Food selection and prepara- Bellefonte Girls Can Play Basket household management, kitchen arning, preparation and serving clubs.

Hands.

the business.

Mr. Keichline has no definite plans factory offer is made and locate temis hoped that escape from the rigors called promptly at eight o'clock. of our winters will restore Mrs. Keichline's health.

The dropping of the Keichline name from the roster of Bellefonte's business men is another step in the all too rapid passing of the old Bellefonte. For years it has been associated with the town's business activities and been responsible for the building of a clean, always inviting store where quality -A dozen years ago the first and courtesy were matters of first im-the William A. Lyon home, on east second is the "Last Resort," which ing to $45. since being sold a few months ago by -Sheriff E. R. Taylor on Sunday charged with defrauding a boarding tery charge.

Ladies Join Kiwanis at Dinner on Tuesday Night.

to accommodate the Bellefonte Kiwanis and ladies at their dinner at the Bush house on Tuesday evening, which Home economics work is becoming was held as a celebration of Educapopular in Centre county. At present tional day. The Academy orchestra will be presented again tonight. Chart the clothing work seems to make the was present and furnished music and greatest appeal to women and girls, the vocal selections were in charge of

> Rev. Wilson P. Ard, having resignparts, as follows: First, serving club, Mr. Riden, an instructor in the smoke. Bellefonte High school who has been chosen Scoutmaster to take the place to the presidency. The prize of the evening was awardclub has seventeen members and with factorily, and the entertainment will house and other outbuildings. likely be given some time next month.

Starting New Industry.

In the what was the machine shop of the old Titan Metal Co. plant at terns, giving them instructive talks | Milesburg, John T. Harnish and and demonstrations and making one George Smith, operating as the Milesburg Novelty Co., are about to throw the lever over and start the wheels of mate, how to cut, and how to finish Without blare of trumpet or pleas collar and cuffs for dress. How to cut for bonuses to start an industry these and put on bias binding. How to gentlemen have been building and inmake round buttonholes and set-in stalling machines for the past six pockets, and the use and making of weeks and are about ready to start suitable decorative stitches for gar- the manufacture of sucker and flag sticks, skewers, etc., on a large scale. At Spring Mills twenty-five women Graudally they expect to broaden out have organized with Miss Emma into production of a full line of nov-

school, as their leader, and are work- Mr. Harnish will have supervision ing on the third part of their clothing of production, while Mr. Smith will critically ill with pneumonia at his work. Many of them will be ready to go on the road as salesman for the wear their new spring frocks by the output. He will be remembered as last of February. They will have had the gentleman who bought and ran work in lines and color. In color the | Hecla Park for a season or so several aim is to develop a knowledge of fun- years ago and, after selling it, went damentals of color schemes. The ob- back to his work with the Bell Teleject of choosing color is to enhance phone Co., in Michigan. Having reand bring out beauty and express signed this latter position he comes personality. In choosing color, the back to Centre county to take up an

> --- I just received another shipment of Sunbeam heaters. Call and rangement and conveniences, and cause they consider it a tame affair, report showed a substantial increase Zeigler and M. Ward Fleming, of Philipshousehold accounts are included. The but any such who saw the game be- in all departments, and earnings in burg. They had come over on a morning girls in their part of food work have tween the Bellefonte High school and canning clubs, bread clubs, food selec- Lock Haven Normal girls, at the Y. tion and preparation clubs, meal plan- M. C. A., last Friday evening, got in deposits and of $165,000.00 in total plenty of action for their money. The resources, the latter now being more Any girl between the ages of twelve local tossers started off with a rush than $2,300,000.00. Fifty thousand Mrs. James F. Myers, expecting to remain and eighteen years may become a and rolled up a score of 18 points in dollars were added to the surplus for a visit. Mrs. Crispen, who makes her member of a club, and each club must the first half to 8 for the visitors. At fund, making the amount $225,000.00, -Mrs. Jonathan Bilger will cel- have at least five members. It is the opening of the second half Lock which, with the profit and loss account gan, has been a resident of Bellefonte for ebrate her ninety-fourth birthday an- preferable if the girls organize a club Haven bobbed up serenely with a rush of $40,000.00, makes a total surplus of their own and elect a president, that added 7 more points to their of $265,000.00; more than double the string while the Bellefonte girls were bank's capital of $125,000.00, placing held entirely on the defensive. In the it among the strongest institutions of The Keichline Business Has Changed last quarter, however, the girls of the country. both teams uncorked an extra supply of pep and shooting baskets was about Wednesday afternoon Charles C. the only thing there was nothing else Keichline sold his eigar and confec- but. Twelve more points were chalktion business to Robert Roan, who ed up for Bellefonte and just an even issued invitations for the wedding took charge of the business yesterday half dozen for the visitors, and when breakfast of his daughter, Martha morning, with Edward Garbrick back the final whistle sounded and the girls Cameron and Mr. John Gray Love, at in his old position as chief clerk. The were given a chance to preen their sale included the building as well as feathers the score stood 30 to 21 for Bellefonte. This (Friday) evening the girls will for the future. It is his intention, play the Philipsburg High girls in the High and Thomas streets, if a satis- burg was defeated after a hard tussle and an effort will be made to turn the porarily, at least, in Florida, where it trick again this year. Game will be

The boys' team will have two league games this week, at Huntingdon this (Friday) evening and Mt. Union tomorrow night.

for Evading Board Bill.

Last Friday's Lock Haven Express voted to help with the work. said that "L. D. Quick, an assistant state enforcement officer who, with and reports will be received this Sun-spend a part of the day in the shops. Willis L. Howell, has been active in day. Subscriptions will also be takthe prosecution of alleged liquor vio- en at the services and it is expected -Two property changes of inter- lators in this section recently, was that the amount will be covered in est to those in Bellefonte, is that of placed under arrest at noon today at pledges and cash. A committee has the Hotel Russell by county detective W. H. Myers on the charge of de- residents of Bellefonte for their as-Mrs. Mark Williams, who will get frauding Mrs. Rebecca Nolan, of sistance. possession of it the first of April. The Bellefonte, out of a board bill amount-

"A warrant for Quick's arrest was sent to detective Myers this forenoon the name of the "Tavern Inn," has by chief of police Harry Dukeman, of now been bought by Miss Mary Ders- | Centre county, who stated that he had tine, who is already in charge. Mrs. previously sent the warrant to sheriff care to serve the warrant, at least not Reading will be the officiating minis- brother of the visitors. Mrs. Samuel Hess for a few weeks. Quick settled the ter. Services will be conducted by is in the hospital here with a fine little baclaim, with $7.50 additional in costs."

Mr. Quick is a resident of Milesis not very creditable for a man in the employ of the State.

Wanted .- A small house or apartment, to be occupied by one person. Call this office.

BIG BARN BURNED

ON SATURDAY NIGHT. It took one hundred and ten covers Horses and Cattle Perish in Fire on Sheriff Lee Farm in Gregg Township.

One of the most disastrous barn fires that has occurred in Centre county in years took place Saturday night | being east for a visit with relatives at Elon the ex-sheriff Arthur B. Lee farm kins Park. Work of this type with the girls has Cecil Walker, R. Russell Blair and the in Gregg township, probably better known as the Duck farm. Three horses, one mule, eleven milk cows, ed as president of the club, Prof. A. six head of young cattle, one calf, working on aprons, the first problem H. Sloop was elected to succeed him, over three hundred bushels of grain, and presided at the gathering. Three all the hay and straw and practically new members were taken into the all the farm implements went up in

The farm was tenanted by John Condo and family, all of whom had of Rev. M. DePui Maynard, who is gone to Spring Mills to do some shopshortly to leave Bellefonte; S. M. ping and spend the evening. When Shallcross, superintendent of the the fire was discovered about nine New Year, to spend the remainder of the American Lime & Stone company, and o'clock by neighboring farmers the Homer P. Barnes. W. Harrison Walk- fire was breaking out through the roof er was elected a trustee to succeed of the barn, and the first arrivals at Charles Garbrick, of Coleville, went to Mr. Sloop, who resigned when elected the scene of the conflagration found Philadelphia by train on Sunday, attendthe entire interior of the barn a rag- ed a dinner and meeting of Nash dealers ing mass of flames so that it was imed to Mrs. John B. Payne, and con- possible to save anything. The livesisted of a cross-word puzzle book and stock had already perished and as dictionary. The arrangements for the there was no means of fighting the minstrels to be given by the Kiwanis fire all that could be done was stand noon, having driven Mrs. McCormick down as a means of assisting the under- by and watch it burn and keep the for a little visit with her sister, Mrs. Mar- removed to the hospital. The man the leader for each group. The girls' privileged child are progressing satis- flames from communicating to the garet Hutchinson, of Howard street. Mrs.

The hog pen and corn crib, as well as the chicken house, stood some distance away from the barn and these risburg, and their daughter Mildred, forwere saved. But a large shed attach- mer residents of Bellefonte, were weeked to the barn, in which most of the end guests of friends here. The Lentz ure. farm implements were stored, was burned. Mr. Lee carried some insurance on the barn but not nearly enough to spring as possible.

First National Bank of Bellefonte Makes Splendid Showing for 1924.

house on Tuesday, January 13th. These annual meetings are held for the election of directors to serve for the ensuing year and for such other business as requires action by the shareholders.

All the members of the present Charles M. McCurdy, W. Fred Rey- when he chanced to call. nolds, George M. Gamble, Charles C. Shuey, Henry S. Linn, James C. Furst, board then organized by electing Charles M. McCurdy, president; W. J. A. Aiken, returned to Cleveland Friday Fred Reynolds, vice president; James see them. They heat 15,000 cubic C. Furst, secretary. James K. Barnfeet .- W. H. Miller, Bellefonte. 2-3t hart was made cashier and C. E. Robb, nied her home. assistant cashier.

President McCurdy presented to the excess of any previous year. There was an increase of $83,000.00

During the year the bank added a Trust department, having been granted the full fiduciary powers of a Trust such powers.

Milesburg Baptists to Help Build a New Church at State College.

Tentative plans that have been forming for some time with a view to State College have now taken more Va.; Raleigh, N. C.; Columbia, S. C.; Atdefinite form and the funds are being lants, Ga., and Jacksonville, Fla. The project.

ams, of State College, presented the need for a church at the College, where there are many students of the Baptist denomination, to the congre-Alleged Enforcement Officer Arrested gation at Milesburg. It was so impressed with the spirit to help that at the last business meeting $200 were time, remained for several days only. Mrs.

A committee has been appointed Bellefonte, Friday, having driven over to been appointed to canvas the Baptist

Evangelicals Will Dedicate New Room Sunday, January 25th.

The new Sunday school room recently erected by the Evangelical church of Bellefonte, and about completed, will be dedicated on Sunday, January 25th. The senior Bishop of the Bishop during the forenoon by boy, who was born on the tenth anniand evening and a platform meeting versary of her marriage to Samuel, the son burg and his action in the above case will be conducted during the afternoon, the program for which will be publisher and what-not, of State College. announced later. The public will be along, of course, to decide whether he apa modern Sunday school room, as well to share the affections of the Hess home. as cordially invited to attend the ded- He will be named David, for his maternal 70-2-tf | icatory services.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-F. W. West went out to Chicago on

Philadelphia this week attending the big daughters, Evalyn and Jean, came over annual automobile show.

several weeks in and near Philadelphia, and Mrs. M. A. Kirk. Mrs. Young and the

-Mrs. William Dix arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday morning, from Dayton, Ohio, called here by the sudden death, Sunday, of her sister, Mrs. L. T. Munson.

-Mrs. George B. Thompson went east Monday to spend a week with her mother, Mrs. Callaway, at College Point, L. I., before the latter sails next week on her trip -After having spent the fall in Belle-legheny street, Miss Annie Gray went to the eastern part of the State before the winter there with relatives. -Willis E. Wion, of Bellefonte, and on Monday, took in the auto show and drove home on Tuesday in a new Nash car. Hutchinson has not been in the best of health of late. -Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lentz, of Harfamily, through their occasional visits back, have kept in close touch with the friends whom they knew best while living among us. -Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roan, Mr. and the announcement that the late W. L. cover his loss. Mr. Condo also car- Mrs. Clarence Swartz and Harold Edmisried insurance on his stock and crops ton, of this place; Mr. George Roan, of but it, also, was not enough to cover Oak Hall, and Miss Luetta Edmiston, of the amount of his loss. The barn, of State College, were the members of a party course, will be rebuilt as early in the that motored to Williamsport, last Tuesday evening, to visit the automobile show in that city.

-Mrs. John Mohr Otto, of Aaronsburg, has gone to Williamsport for an indefinite visit. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Reese, of that city, will celebrate the fiftieth au-The annual meeting of the share-niversary of their wedding soon and as holders of the First National bank of Mrs. Reese is a sister-in-law Mrs. Otto nine who took the examination was Bellefonte, was held in the banking will be one of the family gathering for the auspicious event. -We regret excedingly having missed the visit of friend Hiram Lee, of State College, who was in town on Saturday and dropped in at the "Watchman" office for a few moments. We have about only one chance a year for a chat with Mr. Lee so don't recall whether Congressman you will understand our chagrin at hav- Curtin didn't act on the recommendaboard were re-elected, as follows: ing been foolin' around some place else

-Miss Emma J. Aiken, who had been a guest at the John S. Walker home since Thomas B. Beaver, David Dale. The coming to Bellefonte before Christmas, with the body of her mother, the late Mrs. of last week. Miss Aiken was met at Pittsburgh by her sister, Mrs. Johnson and her daughter, of Beaver Falls, who accompa- ber, will finish her work here today and

-Rambling up street Tuesday morning Snow Shoe schools, the following week board a statement showing the results or any other kind of a race was the fur-Many basket ball fans are adverse of the past year, the most successful thest thing from their intention-present to going to a game between girls be- in the long history of the bank. The or prospective-were attorneys George W. train to look after some legal matters here and spent only a few hours in town.

---Mrs. M. E. Crispen went down to Fairpoint, Tuesday, to attend the golden wedding of her brother and his wife, Mr. and home with her daughter, Mrs. O. P. Moralmost a year, having come here with the Morgan family from Snow Shoe last sum-

-Miss Maude Miller, of Pennsylvania Furnace, was among the visitors from over the county in Bellefonte Saturday, having driven down herself to look after some business. Miss Miller has taught in the schools of Huntingdon county for a numcompany, and it is now prepared for ber of years, and with her sister, lives on any business requiring the exercise of the home farm, managing it and a second one near by, thus being recognized as one of the leading business women of that sec-

-Merchant G. O. Benner, of Centre Hall, left yesterday for a trip to Miami, Florida, but is not going with any intention of locating there but merely taking a much needed vacation. His plans provide for the erection of a Baptist church at stops at Washington, D. C.; Richmond, raised with which to carry out the length of his stay will depend entirely upon how lenient the southerners are on his Some time ago Dr. Clarence Ad- pocketbook.

-Mrs. J. H. Kuhn and her daughter, of Williamsport, have been visiting with Mr. Kuhn's mother, Mrs. C. H. Kuhn, in Boalsburg, since before Christmas, Mr. Kuhn, who is with the Keeler Co., accompanied his family to Centre county, but on account of the press of business at this C. H. Kuhn was among the visitors to -Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Irwin, former residents of Bellefonte, who had been visiting friends in Centre county since before the Holidays, departed for their home in Erie on Tuesday. Mr. Irwin is a brother of Dr. W. U. Irwin and it will be recalled was associated with his brother, E. P. Irvin in the hardware business here for some years. The visit in Centre county of course included considerable time with his mother and sister at Julian. Since going to Erie he has been engaged in building contracting and, happily, has been quite successful.

-Three generations of the Hess family were in Bellefonte last Saturday. While they had a few other things to look after here they were as trifles compared with the of Newton E. Hess, retired farmer, banker, given ample opportunity of inspecting proves of the young man who is destined

-The Rev. Wilson P. Ard is arranging to join Mrs. Ard on her trip to the Pacific coast, where they will spend the remainder Sunday, to attend the national furniture of the winter with Mrs. Ard's family, at

Santa Monica, Cal. -Mr. and Mrs. George A. Beezer are in . -Mrs. C. H. Young and her two small from Clearfield Wednesday for a mid-win--Miss Janet Potter has been spending ter visit with Mrs. Young's parents, Dr. children have been with Mr. Young's mother since leaving Harrisburg in the #### Unknown Austrian Falls Into Creek.

On Sunday evening, about eight o'clock, several boys discovered a man lying with his legs in the water of Logan branch, just below the railroad trestle near the C. Y. Wagner mill. They summoned Curt Gingery, who fonte, at the McGarvey home on north Al- lives in the Mallory property, and with his assistance dragged him out of the water. He proved to be an Austrian and had evidently fallen from the railroad trestle into the stream and then succeeded in dragging himself partly up on the bank of the stream. His clothing was frozen stiff and not knowing what to do with him Mr. Gingery summoned sheriff Taylor, who took the man to the jail, -The Hon. John T. McCormick, of State but realizing that his condition was College, was in town last Saturday after- such as to require medical treatment, summoned the ambulance and had him can talk very little English and aside from the fact that his first name is Louis, could give the hospital authorities little information about himself. He suffered principally from expos-

> -From a copy of the "Watchman" dated January 26th, 1883, which was handed us on Tuesday we note Malin had just severed his long connection with the Western Union Telegraph Co., and joined the Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply Co., which was then just starting and later became a strong unit in the Bell system. We were amused at another article telling of the competitive examination for appointment as cadet from this Congressional district to the one, Harry Keller, "eldest son of Col. D. S. Keller, about sixteen or seventeen years old and a very bright boy." Of course "the very bright boy" was recommended by the committee, but as he didn't go to West Point, we tion or whether Harry later had a hunch to stay at home and strive to be a Judge rather than go and drill to be a General.

> -Miss Helen MacDonald, dental hygienist, who has been employed in the Bellefonte schools since Septemwill spend the next two weeks in the in the Howard schools and will then go to Sunbury where she will complete the school year. The work in Bellefonte was financed this year by the board of education but in Snow Shoe and Howard will be financed out of the tuberculosis Christmas seal sale money. Both of these communities had a larger sale, per capita, than Bellefonte, a fact greatly to their

For the Old Fashioned Gospel.

For the old fashioned gospel with the old fashioned power go, any of these nights, to the United Brethren church, corner High and Thomas streets, where the pastor, Rev. J. A. Mills, is conducting a very spiritual and fruitful revival service. Anybody will be welcomed.

-Samuel Yeager, of Mount Eagle, slipped and fell on the pavement. near the Naginey home, while coming down jail hill on Monday morning. He was picked up by passers by and being unable to walk was sent to the Centre County hospital where it was found that his hip was injured but no bones were fractured.

-A chicken and waffle supper will be held in the basement of the Lutheran church, Thursday, January 22nd. Tickets for supper, including dessert, will be 65 cents for adults and 35 cents for children. Serving will begin at 5:30 o'clock.

The jury commissioners will complete their job this week of filling the jury wheel for the year 1925, and will at once draw the jurors to serve at the February term of court.

W. C. McCLINTIC $22.50 Suit Man

Will be at Garman House, Bellefonte, from Friday at 4:30 p. m., until Saturday evening of this week. The new Spring line is here and we still have a fine selection of overcoats; also suits for all the year wear. Come 70-3-1t see them.

-Just received another lot of weather stripping. It saves coal bills. Call and see it .- W. H. Miller, Belle-

For Sale.—A large frame house and 2-story stable, with all other side buildings .- W. H. Miller.

Bellefonte Grain Markets. Wookly by C V Wa

•	COLLECT	eu	MA CC	TIL	DJ.	U	44 67	SHELL	e co.
•	Wheat			-	-				$1.90
	Corn		-						1.20
l	Rye		-	-	-	-			1.20
	Oats		-					•	.55
1	Barley								1.00
	Buckw	heat		-	-				1.10