PLEASANT GAP.

Miss Mary Hile spent the week-end in Williamsport. H. H. Lohman and family are visiting old-time friends at Berwick. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Corman, of Lock Haven, were over Sunday visitors at the home of H. E. McClincy. Miss Catherine Wion, of Bellefonte, was a brief visitor recently at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ward Showers. Miss Jean Noll, a nurse in training in Philadelphia, came home for the funeral of her uncle, the late Boyd A. Noll. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keller, of Philadelphia, were over Sunday visitors here, coming for a last look at their deceased uncle, the late Boyd A. Noll, of Zion. Miss Emeline Noll also came up from Philadelphia owing to her uncle's death. While coasting, on Wednesday evening, John Barnes Jr., met with a painful accident. In collision with another sled he was thrown and sustained a fractured jawbone. He is receiving proper attention at the Centre County hospital. Some of our progressive citizens are awakening to the fact that it would be a wonderful improvement to have Main street from Noll's store to the cross roads illuminated with electric lights. There is no doubt but that it would be grand and add materially to the comfort of our pedestrians as well as make the outside world take notice of our progressiveness. When the state road was completed the improvement added, almost instantaneously, an increase of twenty-five per cent. in real estate values. The lighting process would no doubt mean another increase, and particularly since Whiterock is moving on the upward grade and prospects for an increase in activity at Rockview penitentiary are very good. It is an undeniable fact that more properties were sold here during the past year than has changed hands in a decade. Keep the ball a rolling. From personal observations we find no objections to the lighting movement, and the quicker the deal is consummated the better it will be for all concerned. Everybody about the Gap was shocked to learn of the sudden death of that genial friend, Boyd Allen Noll. He was a man of sterling worth and of him it can be safely said that he had fewer enemies than any man in Centre county. He was for many years a consistent member of the Reformed church and died in the faith he so well lived. Mr. Noll practiced charity to a much greater extent than generally known. He was modest and unpretentious. It was a source of gratification to the writer, and must be to the reader, to know that he always took sides with the oppressed. He always stood with the weaker side, that being nearest to God and humanity. He never heard of a case of human suffering without a deep feeling of sympathy. He frequently suffered personal inconvenience, sacrificed his ease and comfort to give of his time and money to aid the needy. If his good acts were not always placed with the best of discrimination, his errors were on the side of charity. We have all lost a good friend, hence it is that the Gap is in mourning.

JACKSONVILLE

Miss Adella Garbrick is spending a short time among friends here. Ray Deitz, of Lock Haven, is home on a short vacation, visiting among friends here. Miss Kathryn Swope was a caller at the E. E. Vonada home on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. John Beck, of Lock Haven, were Sunday visitors at the C. N. Yearick home. Sunday visitors at the Mrs. Ella Deitz home were Mrs. William Thompson, Ruth and Viola Thompson and the twin babies. The revival meeting in the Evangelical church came to a close on Thursday evening after a successful two weeks campaign. Many of our folks attended the banquet given by the I. O. O. F. at Howard, last Wednesday evening, and all report having had a fine time. The Conrad Miller lime kiln was put in full blast on Monday morning.
