PINE GROVE MENTION.

James Smith celebrated his 71st anniversary on Monday. Mrs. George Harpster is seriously ill with an attack of pneumonia. That furry little weather prophet failed to see his shadow on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. George Mothersbaugh were Altoona visitors several days last week.

Keep in mind the agricultural meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall this (Friday) evening.

George Fisher, flour salesman, spent last week in Milwaukee, Mich., a guest of the company he represents.

Tax collector J. E. Elder is laid up with a heavy cold, while quite a number in this section have the grip.

John Klinger is busy taking out timber for a new 40x50 foot straw shed he will erect early in the summer.

Samuel Fogleman and wife, of Houserville, were Sunday visitors at the J. C. Kerstetter home on the branch.

Fred Corl motored down from Altoona and spent Sunday with his other, who is considerably improved in health.

Luther Sunday, who was badly injured on the head and face recently by a premature blast, is now getting along nicely.

G. B. Fry and wife and R. W. Reed and wife motored to Colerain and spent Sunday afternoon with the Edward Reed family.

Mrs. Etta Corl and daughter Esther and Mrs. Vida Musser and son, J. F. Jr., were Monday callers at the G. B. Fry home at Rock Springs.

Henry McWilliams is in Lancaster spending a month with his sister, Mrs. Alice Buchwalter, whose husband has been in poor health for some time.

At a recent congregational meeting of the Lutheran church Hon. J. W. Kepler was elected Elder, J. Foster Musser deacon and R. E. Rossman trustee.

"Squire E. H. Auman and Ray Randolph motored to Philadelphia, on Monday of last week on a sight-seeing trip, the "Squire" bringing home a new Cadillac roadster.

N. E. Hess and son, Samuel M., spent Monday in Williamsport completing arrangements to accompany a party from that city on a hunting expedition to Alaska.

The high wind which followed last Thursday's snow fall drifted shut many of the township roads, but the main highways were kept open by the State Highway Department with its huge snow plows.

Postmaster Barr is not improving as rapidly as his friends would like to see. His brother Elmer is now able to get around on crutches and hopes to be discharged from the Centre County hospital in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potter and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goodhart, of Centre Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Musser, of Pennsylvania Furnace, were entertained on Sunday at the home of the Gohsen sisters, at Rock Springs.

We are sorry to note the death last Friday, at the home of J. F. Saucerman, at Baileyville, of Alfred Ripka, following three days' illness with pneumonia. The young man had worked two years for Mr. Saucerman and only two days before being sick had signed up to work for R. W. Reed.

Word has been received of the safe arrival of D. W. Miller at the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, last week. His condition is such that an operation may be necessary. Mr. Miller was wounded in the Battle of the Wilderness and has never been an entirely well man ever since, having undergone an operation ten years ago.

Trapping in this section is quite good this winter. Guy Rossman came in on Friday morning with two red fox pelts, which makes him an even three dozen so far. He also has a number of skunk pelts ready for shipment. James A. Gummo got $16 for a bob-cat recently bagged and has a number of fox and skunk pelts for sale.

Mrs. Margaret Meek, of Altoona, quietly observed her 84th natal anniversary on Tuesday of last week, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. Ross Gilliford, where she is residing. Mrs. Meek's guests during the course of the day included Mrs. John Carter, JACKSONVILLE. Our sick are all improving at this writing. Willard Weaver was a week-end visitor in Lock Haven. T. A. Orr, of Hublersburg, was a visitor among friends here on Saturday. Owing to the bad weather and the deep snow there were no church services here on Sunday. The Ladies Aid society held in all day meeting at the James Bartley home on Wednesday to do sewing. Our young folks have been taking advantage of the fine sleighing, and many sleds and sleighs were seen on the roads over the week-end. Clayton Poorman and family, of Howard, are staying at the P. P. Beightol and C. A. Aley homes since their house was burned down last week. A sled load of jolly, happy folks from Blanchard and Beech Creek visited at the home of Joseph Neff on Wednesday evening. Those in the party were Marian Courter, Thelma Woodring, Hilda Heverly, Katherine Boves, Mona Hendricks, Josephine Helen Hoy, Beatrice Hoy, Sherla Dair Hoy, Cleo Bathurst, Richard Heverly, Raymond Fisher, Allen Fletcher, Stanford Hoy, William Bechel, John Boves, Donald Bechel, Donald Glossner, Robert Williams, Luzell Dietz, Morris Boves.

Government Marks Grave of First World War Victim. The grave of James Bethel Gresham, Evansville, Indiana, first American killed in the World War, has been marked with a stone sent by the government. Until the government's attention had been called by The American Legion, the grave had been marked only by a pickle bottle with a faded scrap of paper inside on which was written, "James Bethel Gresham, he died for you and me." The American Legion is sponsoring a move to make Gresham's grave an international shrine in memory of the first man of all the allied nations to die in the world war.

MEDICAL. Have You Uric Acid Trouble?

Many Bellefonte Folks Are Learning How to Avoid it. Are you lame and achy; tortured with backache, and rheumatic pains? Feel nervous, depressed, and all-played-out? Then look to your kidneys! When the kidneys weaken uric acid accumulates, poisoning blood and nerves, and many mysterious aches and ills result. Help your kidneys with a stimulant diuretic. Use Doan's Pills! Your friends and neighbors recommend Doan's. Mrs. H. W. Raymond, Reynolds Ave., Bellefonte, says: "My kidneys were weak and I had a dull aching and soreness across my back. I could hardly sweep. I tired easily and had nervous headaches. My kidneys acted too often and annoyed me. I used Doan's Kidney Pills from Runkle's drug store and was relieved of the backache. My kidneys were in good order, too." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Raymond had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Friday, the 13th, Comes Three Times This Year.

Superstitious folks who have a fear of Friday, the 13th, are due to quake at least three times during the year 1925, the following Fridays being on the 13th: February 13, March 13 and November 13.

For school children, it will be an unkind year, since two holidays, Washington's birthday and Memorial Day, both fall on Saturday. Lent will start February 25 and Easter falls on April 12. Tuesday is the only day in the year without a holiday. Christmas in 1925 falls on Friday.

Pacific Coast Club to Have Lion Preserve. Incorporation papers, filed by the Pacific Coast Sportsmen's Club at Sacramento, insure the establishment of a unique hunting preserve in California, according to an announcement at Chicago by Frederick L. Sims, chairman of the board of directors.

The most interesting feature of the club, Mr. Sims pointed out, will be a 20,000 acre park of woodland, enclosed with a safety-fence of iron wire and stocked with African lions, Bengal tigers and other carnivorous varieties of dangerous big game.—Ex.
