Democratic Watchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., February 13, 1925.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Property owners in State College have completed plans for rebuild- daring and accomplishment might ing the block recently destroyed by have been the work of professionals. The boys in question are Chester fire.

-All women interested in the Rice, seventeen years old, son of Gamwork of the Y. M. C. A. are requested mill Rice; Walter Lucas, fourteen to meet at the Y rooms Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

fourteen years of age, who lives with ---The annual banquet of the ladies fourteen years of age, who lives with his grandmother, Mrs. Breon, in Bush house last evening, a number of Bush's Addition; Clarence Hoy, nineteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. out of town guests being present.

John Hoy, and Joe Gingery, twelve -Sylvester D. Ray, who suffered year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Curt a slight stroke of paralysis of the left Gingery. side, last week, is slowly recovering, now being able to be about the house.

-The Willing Workers of the Bellefonte Lutheran Sunday school will be glad to fill orders for homesalted nuts. Call 257 on Bell phone.

-A card party will be held in the on the first floor they loaded up with Episcopal parish house on Tuesday body is invited.

en to issue quite a pretentious publication.

-Assistant deputy warden C. C. Rhoads, of the Rockview penitentiary, part of the State, on Tuesday, to see of provisions while policeman Dukehis mother, who was reported as critically ill.

-----The breaking off of the top of one of the big transformers out at the Keystone Power corporation's station on Willowbank street, put the electric service out of business for an hour or so, on Saturday afternoon, until the big plant at Milesburg could be cut in. The break was repaired on Sunday.

-The country is dotted with movie shows but none of them are any better than the Scenic, in Bellefonte. Manager Brown devotes all his energies to securing the best and latest motion pictures for exhibition there, believing that nothing is too good for the biggest cache was in a closet unhis many patrons. If you are not a der the steps leading to the second regular attendant you are missing a floor apartments in the Cadillac buildlot of good pictures.

-His mind temporarily unbal- a regular rendezvous by the young arced through religious fervency burglars. A flashlight tied to the James Krape was taken to Danville ceiling with a heavy string served as by poor overseer Alex Morrison, last a light, and most if not all the provis-Thursday night, and committed to the ions stolen from the Gingery grocery asylum. While his condition had not were stored there. There were bread reached a stage of violence two phy- and butter, cheese and crackers, sicians who examined him decided it a breakfast foods, coffee and other matter of prudence to remove him to things that would appeal to the appethe State hospital for treatment. tite of a boy. This was probably used ----On Monday morning as the big as their regular meeting place when Berne Oberly, of Tyrone, went 10 min- Man Arrested on Suspicion of Being delivery truck of the C. Y. Wagner they planned a foray.

Moose about a month ago when Mr. Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. and Ging-Dunlap was in temporary charge as steward. He plead guilty to the ery's Grocery Robbed by Young Lawbreakers.

Five Bellefonte boys, ranging in years old, who makes his home with

Harry Rice; Roger Bell, also about

Their first escapade was pulled off

when they broke into the Potter-Hoy

Hardware company's store by forcing one of the basement doors on Water failed to see them.

ure.

on the second, sentence was suspended age from 12 to 19 years, pulled off for a period of two years and on the TOTAL SEALS SOLD IN BELLEFONTE two robberies early this week that for third, he was sentenced to pay a fine third, he was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs. Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R. The February meeting of the Belle-fonte Chapter D. A. R. was held at the University club, State College, last Thursday evening. Mrs. R. H. Bell, Mrs. O. A. Knight, Mrs. W. C. Kelly Twenty mer cent of this money and Mrs. Norman C. Miller, all of about two o'clock on Monday morning gagingly.

street. Going to the main store room revolvers and cartridges, pocket day bedroom farces and sex plays, nesday afternoons. evening, February 17th, at eight knives, flashlights, gold watches, pen- | will be the announcement of the como'clock. Admission, 50 cents. Every- cils and other miscellaneous articles ing engagement of America's great- this year to pay salary and expenses home on Bishop street, having come to dynamited and while the family all such as appeal to a boy, to a total val--"La Belle," the annual of the uation of two hundred dollars or Old Homestead", a comedy-drama of Senior class of the Bellefonte High more. Chief of police Harry Duke- rural life in New England back in for one week; in several places, where school, is to be much enlarged this man passed the building while the the early eighties. This wonderful year. In fact the class has undertak- boys were at work inside but they all play, called by eminent critics a the hygienist, toothbrushes have been Potter-Hoy Hardware Co., held in the ofducked behind show cases so that he

On Monday night three of the boys, the direction of Miller and Lewis and supplied. Rice, Lucas and Bell, broke into the comes to the Moose Temple theatre took a prisoner to the northwestern Gingery grocery store and stole a lot Wednesday, February 18th, in identiman was scouring the town on the hunt of the young burglars. Several of the boys have been mixed up with famous farm hands quartette, the cal funds. robberies previous to this and when the Potter-Hoy robbery was reported to chief Dukeman, on Monday, he suspected them and a little inquiry developed the fact that they had not been home the night of the robbery. your tickets early.

boys and recovered most of the stolen Fine Athletic Show Wednesday Night. loot, enough to fill a half bushel meas-

The boxing and wrestling tourna-Some of it young Rice had taken ment staged at the Moose Temple, Wednesday night, by "Little Joe" Dehome; Joe Gingery had his share se-Cenzi, for the benefit of the American creted at his home; some of the stuff Legion was not a great financial was found hidden under the barn at success, but it was on the level and Capt. Russell George's residence while provided good sport for a fair sized house.

"Little Joe," himself, and Eddie Gutsafson, of Philipsburg, were the ing. This closet had been fixed up as principals in the wrestling match. They went the limit of time and gained a draw.

Bob Moore, of Bellefonte, and young Shultz, of Tyrone, went 20 minutes to a draw.

Buck Davidson, of Tyrone, in 8 minutes. Fred Meyers, of Bellefonte, and utes, to a draw.

BELLEFONTE BOYS BURGLARIZE the raid on the Bellefonte Lodge of Results of 1924 Tuberculosis Christ-

The tuberculosis committee of the from Macon, Ga., on business. charge and on the first, sentence was Woman's club reports the following suspended for a period of one year; sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals for 1924:

DISTRICT.

State College, were hostesses; and in- alized, or $59.34, goes to the Pennsyl- home in Williamsport, Wednesday afterstead of the historical play scheduled vania Tuberculosis society in Philato have been given by the Strolling delphia, to help carry on its work; Players, Dr. Wayland Fuller Duna- also, $13.10 for seals, posters and litsold. In Bellefonte, the money to pay rent ($100) and janitor service for the dren, who had been with Mrs. Young's The Fighting Parson's Home Dyna-chest clinic is held Tuesday after- shortly after Christmas, left Sunday to re-A welcome relief from the present noons and the well-baby clinic Wed- turn to Clearfield. -Mrs. Howard Gearhart, of Millville, N.

est play, Denman Thompson's "The for dental hygienist in schools for two Bellefonte a week ago, expecting to be here weeks; in Howard for dental hygienist the money was not sufficient to pay classic of the American stage, is now supplied to pupils unable to purchase on its thirty-eighth annual tour under them and desired health literature delphia on one of her occasional visits The salary of the dental hygienist with her sister and brothers, Miss Josephis $100.00 per month but as she ranks ine and James and John McDermot, at with other teachers in the schools a their bungalow on south Allegheny street. man Thompson was alive, with all the portion of this is paid by the State, -Mrs. C. B. Williams, of Westfield, N. original features of past years-the leaving only $57.50 to be paid by lo- J, was in Bellefonte for a short time last

> The Bellefonte board of education employed Miss Helen MacDonald as hygienist in our schools for half the school year and hoped other schools in the county would employ her for the remainder of the year but this was Miller family, on Logan street, and with not done and she went to Sunbury the some of her relatives in this locality. Mrs. beginning of this week to finish the Miller expects to return to Ohio within a school year. During her stay in Cen- few days.

tre county, Miss MacDonald cleaned the teeth of 519 school children. ton, was here the early part of the week

If school directors in the various to see his father, John P. Harris, who is townships are slow to see the excel- critically ill at the home of his daughter, lence of dental hygiene work, it would be a splendid thing for interested women and men to sponsor, since it is possible to secure the service of the hygienist for a few days, week or month. depending upon the number of Rev. M. I. Jamison, of Williamsport; the pupils in schools as her general av- Rev. Paul E. Keen and his mother, of Meyerage is to clean the teeth of eight pu- erstown, Pa., and the Rev. E. B. Dunn, of pils a day and the cost $14.40 per Wheeling W. Va.

week. The value of this work is not alone to teach care of the teeth but of the mouth cavity since it is claimed her aunt, Mrs. Martin Fauble. Miss Newninety per cent of contageous diseases are transmitted through the secretions of nose and mouth.

a Firebug.

-Dorothy Odenkirk, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk, of Centre Hall, was in Bellefonte Saturday afternoon and sold to Mr. Schlow.

Public Dances May be Cut Out at the Armory.

Information has reached Bellefonte this week that the State armory board has approved the renting of the Bellefonte armory to the Bellefonte Academy and all charitable organizations for the purpose of holding dances and day, from a week-end visit wit hher parreceptions, which would indicate that the armory will not be given for the -Mrs. Preston Lytle and her little daughter went to Pittsburgh, Wednesday, holding of public dances, indiscriminately. It is understood that this defor a visit of a week or ten days with cision was made because of the use of -Mrs. Benjamin Bradley has been in intoxicating liquors and a certain de-New York State since the early part of last gree of rowdyism which has characweek, visiting with members of the family terized some of the public dances held there in the past. This ruling of the armory board naturally will not affect the Academy football dance to be held in the armory tonight, and while it will be open to any one who cares to go and holds a ticket, every precaution will be taken against drinking and no misconduct will be permitted.

mited Again.

Less than a year ago the home of Rev. Elmer I. Williams, known as the "Fighting Parson," of Chicago, was escaped injury the house was considerably damaged. About two weeks ago the house was again dynamited. Fortunately no one was hurt in this second outrageous attack but it will cost a few hundred dollars to repair the damage done.

Rev. Williams, who is a native of Worth township, Centre county, is at the head of the department of better government in Chicago and with his characteristic directness swings the axe, let the chips fall where they may. week, having come here with her son Fred- For more than a year he has been waging a strenuous campaign to clean up the city and it will take more than a few dynamiting outrages to deter -Mrs. William H. Miller has been here him in his work.

The Broadway Limited Calendar.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has just had printed for general distribution, an exceedingly interesting calendar. Interesting from two viewpoints: Its utility and its artistic significance.

It is a reproduction of a painting by Harold Brett, eminent American artist, from an actual photograph of the "Broadway Limited," model train of the Pennsylvania system, crossing the Rockville bridge near Harrisburg. Catching the world's finest passenger train on the world's greatest railroad bridge was not a coincidence. It was a conception that has given historic value to a very striking picture. been visiting here this week, a guest of man was a former business woman of McMullen-Bachman.-Oscar Mc-Bellefonte, having taken over the store of Mullen, of Coleville, and Mrs. Amelia the late Mrs. J. A. Aiken, which she later Lyons Bachman, of Bellefonte, were married at St. John's Episcopal church, Bellefonte, on Thursday, January 29th, by Rev. M. DePui Maynard. The bride is the widow of the late Nathan Bachman and a good part of her life has been spent in Bellefonte and vicinity. Mr. McMullen was a widower and is employed by the Chemical Lime and Stone company. Immediately following the marriage ceremony they went to the bridegroom's home in Coleville.

way told of manners and customs in erature used in the seal sale, the reold Philadelphia, picturing life there maining eighty per cent. is spent in present with Mr. Whally in Schenectady. in the early days very vividly and en- the community where the seals are N.Y. "The Old Homestead" Coming.

cally the same manner as when Den-Swanzey band, the Salvation Army and the choir from Grace church. Plan now to renew the acquaintance of Denman Thompson's neighbors from West Swanzey, New Hampshire. Get

On Tuesday he rounded up all the

Dan Wieland, of Bellefonte, pinned

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL. mas Seal Sale. -Elliot Lyon Morris was here for

-Mrs. David Washburn returned, Tues-ents, at her former home in Madisonburg.

at her former home at East Aurora.

-Robert Sommerville, of Winburne, was

-Mrs. Mary Harris is here from Phila-erick, who has returned to the Academy to continue his school work. Frederick has been at the Academy for a year or more.

from Canton, Ohio, for the past ten days, making a visit back home with the William

-John P. Harris Jr., of Newton Hamil-

Mrs. Warfield. Mr. Harris' condition has become very alarming owing to his ex-

-House guests whom Mr. and Mrs. J.

Frank Smith entertained during the past week included Mrs. Jamison, wife of the

-Miss Hannah Newman, of Altoona, has friends.

a short time this week, having been north -Mrs. Samuel Shallcross left Wednesday to go to her former home at Wilmington, Del., for a short visit with her mother.

Rellefonte

1,6001,019 900 425

325 300 -Mrs. Fannie Packer returned to her Twenty per cent. of this money renoon, following a week's visit in Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs. James Clark. -Mrs. D. G. Whally is expected in Bellefonte shortly, for a visit with her mother, Mrs. D. I. Willard. Mrs. Whally is at -Mrs. C. H. Young and her two chil-room in Petrikin hall where the State parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, since

In Snow Shoe, the money was used J., is a guest of the Fox family at their for the greater part of the month. in Bellefonte Tuesday, to attend the annufices of the company that afternoon.

ments.

-The lunar eclipse of the moon, on Sunday evening, attracted very little attention, coming so soon after the solar eclipse of the sun, and the result was few people in Centre county knew anything about it. The eclipse took place between 6:50 and day afternoon after the "Watchman" 7:15 o'clock and about one-thirl of the moon was in shadow but the entire transition occupied such a brief period of time that it was hardly noticeable.

-Jacob Cole, for years a well known resident of Bellefonte but who has been spending some time in Al- six months to one year. The court toona, was struck and knocked down also directed that his car be sold and by an automobile, on Sunday, driven the money received from same distribby P. J. Durbin, of Eldorada. He was uted pro rata amongst those having taken to the Mercy hospital in that city where it was found that he had with a possible fracture of one of the Pleasant Gap, plead guilty to the posbones. Mr. Cole is seventy-eight years old.

-A W. C. T. U. tea will be given the home of the president, Miss in the county jail for a period of five 13th, from 2.30 to 5.30. Each member | being immediately suspended. is asked to invite a friend who does not belong. All teachers of the public brought before the court on an old schools, academy and Sunday schools are extended a most cordial invitation to be present. Special music adultery he was given a five years' and a general good time will be the suspended sentence but warned to Shoe Intersection to Port Matilda, a order of the day.

-Bellefonters who like to trip the light fantastic toe will have a downfall. splendid opportunity to enjoy themselves this (Friday) evening at the annual football dance of the Bellefonte Academy, which will be held in the armory. The Challis Collegians, who have appeared in Bellefonte on former occasions, will furnish the music, and this is assurance that it will be the best there is. Tickets are $3.00 and the public is invited.

Lauderbach-Griest Co., had been en- atrizum said, "who, me, Judge?" gaged in shooting rats with a 22 will be more careful of his aim. ing liquors. This case grew out of Runville to Snow Shoe.

company was backing up to the curb At a session of court yesterday at the R. S. Brouse store it skidded on morning Chester Rice and Clarence the icy street, bumped into the elec- Hoy, the two oldest boys, were sen- students. One knock-out having been Pennsvalley on Saturday and took in- drive over of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Alexantric light standard and broke it off at tenced to indeterminate terms in the recorded. the pavement. The top of the light Huntingdon reformatory. Rice did was pretty badly shattered last week not appear at all perturbed over his when Brouse's delivery truck bumped sentence but young Hoy was very into it and broke the globe into frag- much broken up and his mother, who was in court. cried when the sentence was pronounced by Judge Dale and was taken from the court room by her husband.

The cases against the other three boys, Lucas, Bell and Gingery were disposed of in juvenile court yesterwent to press.

OTHER CASES DISPOSED OF. Joseph Firment, of Morrisdale, porting intoxicating liquor and was imprisonment in the county jail for to 4 o'clock.

legal claims against the same. Clyde Blackford and W. W. Bicksession and operation of slot gambling machines on their premises, and each one was sentenced to pay a fine of fif-to all members and their friends at ty dollars and undergo imprisonment and 7 active cases.

Centre County. Thomas Smeal, of Philipsburg, was charge of statutory rape, but having just completed a year's sentence for woman who had contributed to his Wincety Leatrizum, of Spike Island, Philipsburg, was charged with a vio- Matilda to Bald Eagle, a distance of guilty of starting any of them. lation of the liquor laws. He plead 46,214, was submitted by J. M. Hutchguilty to having had on his premises inson, of Altoona. It was $410,825.90. an eight gallon still and coil, though or that he had made or sold any whiskey. He said that while he was sup--On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. posed to be boss the wife had bought made, the contracts as a rule are giv- 1899, when it was scraped and painted Harry C. Menold was sitting near the the still and made the moonshine, but en to the low bidders. Of course the window in her apartment in the Beat- only for herself, and didn't sell any. work will depend entirely on the pasty building when a bullet whizzed He said the wife was at home in bed sage of the fifty million dollar road coat of buff. through the window glass, struck the with a little baby but as soon as she bond enabling act by the present Legframe of a door and dropped at her got well she would come over and ex- islature and the constitutionality of side. Naturally she was considerably plain it all to Mr. Judge. The court the same. The bids for the three frightened and visions of bloodthirsty evidently did not believe all his story pieces of highway aggregate $1,375,assasins kept running through her as he sentenced him to pay a fine of 082.86, and if the bond bill is finally head but the next day it developed $100 and three to six months in jail, legalized it will mean an abundance that Robert Osman, employed by the and as he pronounced the words Le- of work in Centre county the coming rectors were re-elected, as follows: triotic Sons of America, on Friday

The last case called was that limestone. calibre rifle on Tuesday afternoon, and against Jesse Dunlap, of Bellefonte, The State is also advertising for ford and Orin A. Kline. Mr. Potter it is a twenty to one shot he missed charged with selling, manufacturing bids for the construction of the road the rat. In the future, however, he and unlawful possession of intoxicat- over the Allegheny mountains, from

There were three boxing bouts between Academy and State College

Clinics Held at Red Cross Rooms.

The chest clinic conducted by the State Department of Health in the Red Cross room, Petrikin hall, is open Tuesday, 2 to 4 o'clock, for the examimonths. nation of children who are undernourished or who have lowered resistance to respiratory infection, for adults and children who have been in fact, seems more or less demented. contact with tuberculous individuals. also who are suspected of having tuberculosis. Patients sent to clinic by physicians for examination or admission to State sanatoria will be replead guilty to possession and trans- ferred back for treatment and further observation. This clinic is held weeksentenced to pay a fine of $500 and ly. Baby clinic every Wednesday, 2 der to avoid arrest and imprisonment.

> The State chest clinic is held every Tuesday afternoon in the W. C. Pennsvalley since that time. On Fri-one who may care to attend. During go after him that day. On Saturday the past year there have been 60 patients examined in the clinic, 40 under Hanson lying alongside the road just observation, 10 cases sent to Cresson below Penn Hall and brought him county. back to jail.

Rhoads, Friday afternoon, February days, the jail sentence in each case State Highway Bids for Work in

Among the state highway bids opened at Harrisburg, last Friday, were those for the construction of the Bald Eagle Valley road from Snow have nothing whatever to do with the distance of 85,502 feet. The low bid was by the Miller Construction company, of Punxsutawney, $841,598.96. The low bid for the road from Port On Saturday the bids were opened the officer who confiscated the same for the construction of the state highsaid it was not in operation when he way through Centre Hall and to the found it and made confiscation. top of Nittany mountain, a distance of to the effect that from the time it was Wincety denied that the still was his 11,378 feet. Reitz Bros., of Sunbury, were low bidders at $121,658.

While no awards have yet been summer and a big demand for ground while here looked after some business for Sheriff E. R. Taylor went over into her father. Dorothy was a guest on the to custody a man who gave as his der and their daughter Margaret.

treme weakness.

name Christian Hanson, bringing him | -Mr. and Mrs. Al. Woche had as weekto Bellefonte and locking him up in end guests at their apartment in the Wilthe Centre county jail on suspicion of lard home, on north Thomas street, Mr. being the man who has been starting Woche's two sisters, Miss Clara Woche, of the fires which destroyed four Centre Wilkinsburg, and Mrs. D. J. Mackenzie, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Mackenzie makes county barns within the past two her home in Shidzeeoka, Japan, for several months of the year, her husband being en-The man is forty-five years old and gaged in business there, as a tea importer. a native of Denmark. He appears to -Miss Agnes Shields left Friday afterhave no regular abiding place and, in noon of last week for Jackson, Miss., called there unexpectedly by the illness of He was in Centre Hall last Decemher sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Shields, ber and his actions while there were who before her marriage, was Miss Sara such that residents of the town ap- Galbraith. Mrs. Shields is now a hospital pealed to the sheriff for protection patient and her condition is slightly imagainst him. The sheriff at the time proved. Miss Shields will remain south went to Centre Hall and saw Hanson until May, expecting then that Mrs. Shields and her two children will be able to ac who agreed to leave the county in orcompany her home.

-W. J. Emerick and Robert F. Hunter But he evidently failed to do so as he left Bellefonte on Friday on a ten days has been seen at various places in trip to Muscle Shoals, Ala. This does not T. U. room in Petrikin hall with Dr. day residents of Woodward telephoned with a view of leasing the big nitrate David Dale in charge, assisted by Miss the sheriff that he was there and mak- plants in opposition to Henry Ford. Their of Media. Mr. Sager is well known in Ethel Campbell, State Health Depart- ing threats about burning down the trip is mostly one of pleasure, but they sustained a puncture of the left leg etts, of Bellefonte, and Ray Noll, of ment nurse. The clinic is free to any town, but the official was unable to will also look over the real estate possibilinquiry in regard to the piece of property he started for Woodward and found ago by Mrs. Ella J. Mountz, of Clearfield

-Mrs. George VanDyke, who has been in While there is no direct evidence Bellefonte for the winter, with her mother from Philadelphia, Mr. Sager holding that the man is a firebug, or started and sister, Mrs. John Noll and Miss Roany or all of the fires which recently berta Noll, is arranging to leave shortly Camden, N. J. have caused a property loss of about to join Mr. VanDyke in Philadelphia. On fifty thousand dollars in barns burned her way east she will stop at Harrisburg in Centre county, he is at least a de- for a visit with her cousin, Miss Marilla cided suspect. In fact he told the Williams. Mrs. VanDyke was a guest of friends at the banquet at the Bush House sheriff on Sunday that he left Denmark because he was accused of burning a barn and after coming to this has been a prominent member for a numcountry he had to leave Michigan beber of years. cause of a number of barn fires, although he did not admit that he was Bellefonte yesterday; having come down for his third visit to his brother S. D. Ray Esq., who is ill at his home on Curtin street. Cal, as we called him when playraised, a few days ago, as to what mates here has been quite successful in the dairy business in the Mountain city. It seems but yesterday that they were living on the Thomas farm that was located about where the American Lime and Stone built until 1874 it was natural brick. Co's office building now stands. In their At that time it was kalsomined white meadow was one of the pet swimmin' holes and we often think that the kindly old father of the Ray boys must have had his patience tried many times while trying to save a crop of grass in the meadow from being tramped down by his sons and their hordes of friends, for we flocked there in such numbers that there was scarcely enough water in Buffalo run to cover us

-J. M. Keichline will deliver a lecture in the lodge room of the Paevening, February 13th, at 8:30. Subject, life of Abraham Lincoln.

-When you can't find it in any Oats other paper look in the "Watchman," it's sure to be there.

Wagner - Iddings. - Earl Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wagner, of Unionville, Centre county, and Miss Doris Iddings, of Altoona, were married at the First Methodist church, in that city, on Wednesday afternoon of last week, by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Skillington. They will reside in Altoona where the bridegroom is employed.

Announcements were received in Bellefonte this week of the marriage of Mrs. Lyda R. Thomas Gibson and Elmer Ellsworth Sager, which mean, however, that they have gone there took place Tuesday, January twentyseventh in the First Methodist church Bellefonte through his frequent visits here to see Mrs. Gibson when she was back home during the summer occudeeded the Centre County hospital a year pying the home she maintains here, adjoining that of her mother's, Mrs. Isaac Thomas, on Thomas street. Both Mrs. Gibson and and Mr. Sager are a position with the P. R. R. Co., at -Last Friday night Paul Miller, son of Charles Miller, who operates a line of taxi cars in Bellefonte, took last night, given by the women of the his father's big Buick car and, accom-Eastern Star, of which organization she panied by James Morrison, took a run to Milesburg. On the return trip the car skidded on the ice on the hill this -Calvin T. Ray, of Altoona, was in side of the McCoy & Linn furnace plant and crashed into the guard fence, smashing one wheel and doing considerable other damage. The boys then walked to Milesburg, telephoned Mr. Miller of the accident and disappeared temporarily, as they had not returned home at the time this item was written.

> -Letters have been received in Bellefonte from Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Ard stating that they have arrived in California and are wonderfully delighted with that section of the United States. Roses and various kinds of flowers are in bloom and the change from Pennsylvania is so decided that it will take them some time to become acclimated.

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. Wheat - - - - $1.80 Corn - - - - 1.20 1.20 Rye .55 1.00 Barley - - - - -Buckwheat 1.10

-The question having been the original color of the Bush house was, we are in position to answer now and remained white until November, red, with green trimmings. Last fall the red was covered by the present -At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Potter-Hoy Hard- all. ware company, held in the offices in Bellefonte on Tuesday afternoon, all the old members of the board of di-James H. Potter, Robert Sommerville, Col. W. F. Reynolds, Frank M. Crawwas re-elected president; Mr. Crawford treasurer, and Mr. Kline secretary.