PLEASANT GAP.

Mrs. Hugh Crumlish entertained with five hundred at her home, Saturday evening.

A Legislative committee visited Rockview a week ago, with a view of investigating existing circumstances. Sixty prisoners from the Pittsburgh penitentiary were transferred to Rockview the latter part of last week. Of course Rockview is the dumping ground for both east and west. The

The fact that spring is about due is verified in our community. About one-half of our residents are busily engaged in cleaning their yards and side walks. Now, since the tail end of a long winter is upon us, our women are beginning to arrange for a siege at the sea shore.

Ralph M. Weltmer, of Altoona, representative of the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times, called on Levi A. Miller on Monday last. A very agreeable meeting was the result, since Miller was for some years connected with the old Commercial Gazette, the oldest daily west of the mountains.

The Noll Bros., after being in business for almost half a century, on the same floor all these years, were necessitated to re-floor their entire store building. The contractors, William Kerstetter and David Rimmey, did the transformation; a self-evident fact that the work was done in a mechanical way. Freeman Hale says one peculiarity of a wild goose is that the farther it flies the higher it gets, until out of reach of the pursuer's shot-gun. A tame goose is different. If pursued diligently for a time it stops and permits itself to be caught and plucked of its soft feathers and strong quills, without a show of resistance. It is a wise man who knows a wild goose

Mrs. Jack Noll gave a very enjoyable St. Patrick's day five hundred party on Thursday evening. The guests were Mrs. Ralph Noll, Mrs. Hugh Crumlish, Mrs. Samuel Noll, Mrs. Raymond Melroy, Mrs. Ward Showers, Mrs. Henry Noll, Mrs. Ausin Gough, Mrs. Wade Evey, Mrs. Walter Dunklebarger and Mrs. Blaine Mabus. Mrs. Hugh Crumlish was the ucky winner of first prize. ucky winner of first prize.

Mrs. Raymond Melroy was hostess it a St. Patrick's day party, Friday night. The decorations and refreshnents were in keeping with St. Pat-ick's day. Four tables of five hunired were in play. Mrs. Blaine Ma-ous and Mrs. Jack Noll were tie for irst prize and on cutting the cards Ars. Mabus won out. The guests vere Mrs. Langley, of Williamsport; Ar. and Mrs. Wade Evey, Mr. and Ars. HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this pussle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.
