—Some very interesting pictures are scheduled for exhibition at the Scenic during the ensuing week, with that wonderful film, "The Covered Wagon," to be shown at the Moose Temple theatre tonight and tomorrow night. If you are not a regular movie fan read the list of showings published in this issue of the "Watchman" and you will readily see that they appear enticing. If you like good pictures the Scenic is the place to see them.

—After considerable negotiations the Bellefonte High school management has scheduled the strong McKeesport High school five, for a game of basketball. This team is well known in the south-western part of the State and has just concluded a very successful season. In the B. H. S. line-up will be Emel, Waite, Furey, Harvey, Clark, Martin and Best. Game will be played in the Y. M. C. A., tomorrow (Saturday) night, and will start at 9 o'clock.

—Victor Schenerner, a State College student who has been a patient in the Centre County hospital the past five months, was taken to the Abington hospital, at Elkins Park, near Philadelphia, on Sunday. The young man suffered an injured leg in an auto accident at the College late last October and infection setting in the injury failed to respond to treatment. As his parents live near Elkins Park his mother came to Bellefonte and took him down there so as to have him nearer home.

THREE STATE POLICE HELD FOR COURT IN PACKER CASE.

Bail for Each Fixed at $1,000. Packer Also Held for Court for Attempted Assault.

The arrest of J. Cleveland Packer, of Holt's Hollow, by three state policemen on the afternoon of March 14th on the charge of possessing and transporting liquor, and the alleged brutal assault on that gentleman by one of the police officers, is to be thoroughly aired in the Centre county courts. As stated last week, when Packer was arrested on the public highway a half pint bottle not quite half full of moonshine was found on his person. For this he was held in $1,000 bail for trial at court, his car and its contents confiscated and placed in the hands of the sheriff of Centre county. Packer was hit on the eye by W. J. Lyster, one of the policemen, and because of the alleged unwarranted assault had the man arrested for assault and battery.

The hearing was held before justice of the peace J. M. Keichline, at eight o'clock last Friday evening, and the 'Squire's office was not large enough to hold more than about one-fourth of the people who clamored for admittance. Mr. Packer was represented by S. D. Gettig Esq., and the three state policemen who figured in his arrest were present, namely, Sergt. J. V. Buckley, W. J. Lyster and J. J. Downing.

Mr. Packer, in his own behalf, stated that on the afternoon of the day in question he drove to Bellefonte in his Ford car and went up to the Chemical Lime company. Returning to Bellefonte he went to Frank Mayer's mill, purchased 50 pounds of bran and 100 pounds of chop, exhibiting receipted bill for his purchase, and after buying a pound of coffee at one of the stores started home. About half a mile from his home he was stopped by three men in civilian's clothes. One of them threw back the lapel of his coat and exhibited a badge, at the same time saying "state police." Mr. Packer was told to get out of the car, which he did, and as he stepped down onto the road one of the policemen frisked his clothing and took the half pint bottle above referred to from his inside coat pocket. He promptly demanded to know where he (Packer) had gotten the moonshine and the latter told him a man gave it to him. When asked the man's name he said he didn't know him. Thereupon, he averred, the policeman grabbed him by the throat and choked him and also hit him on the left eye. He then pushed him down onto the bank and hit him twice. Packer denied having kicked the officer, attempting to kick him or in any other way resisting arrest.

Roy Shope, a young man, who said he lived from fifty to seventy-five feet within where the police stopped Packer, claimed to have been sitting at the window and saw the officers stop the car. He saw Packer get out and saw the officer push him down on the bank, saw the officer's arms move but could not tell whether he was hitting Packer or not. Did not see Packer kick or kick at the officer.

In response to questions put by 'Squire Keichline Packer said the officers neither read nor exhibited any warrant for stopping him on the highway and placing him under arrest. That they confiscated the car and its contents and took him to jail, refusing him the privilege of giving bail. That the jail physician attended his eye on Saturday night and on Sunday evening Dr. Irwin attended him. That he could not see out of his eye for five days.

When asked if they had any defense to offer Sergt. Buckley said they had not at that time. The 'Squire then announced he would hold officer Lyster in $1000 bail for trial at court.

With this announcement Sergt. Buckley produced another warrant for the arrest of Packer on the charge of attempted assault and resisting an officer. When he finished reading the warrant 'Squire Keichline informed Packer that he could have all the officers arrested for assault and battery, and for arresting him on the highway without a warrant and confiscation of his car and contents. Consequently an information was made out to that effect and the three officers were held in $1000 bail for their appearance at the May term of court, T. E. Jodon going on their bond.

From Keichline's office the officers and Packer went over to 'Squire Woodring's office where the latter gave bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance at court to answer the charge of attempted assault. John Gilliland, of State College, went on his bond.

Chester A. Barnes, of Bellefonte, who the past few years has been connected with the Norristown public schools, at present holding the position of assistant superintendent, is forging ahead in the educational world. Yesterday he was one of the chief speakers at a series of meetings being held at the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia, his talk being on the financial aspects of a county unit of administration for Pennsylvania. Mr. Barnes has received a most flattering offer from a western Pennsylvania city to become superintendent of its schools but so far as known has not yet decided on accepting the offer.

Attorney M. Ward Fleming has been elected president of the Phillipsburg baseball association for 1925.

Many Movings in Bellefonte and Vicinity.

George Carpeneto is moving into his new home on Curtin street, going there from the Cadillac apartments.

Contract Awarded for New Aviation Field Hangar.

The contract for the big hangar on the new aviation field, near Bellefonte, has been awarded to the Spaulding Construction company, of New York.

While it has not been announced just when they will begin work on the hangar, it will likely be about the first of April, or shortly thereafter. A small force of men have already been put to work on removing a few scattered trees and getting the ground in shape where the buildings will be located, and it is expected that the near future will witness considerable activity on the new field.

The new hangar will be of steel and concrete blocks, as completely fire-proof as possible to make it, and also durable. An office building and oil building of permanent character will also be built.

The man who will have charge of the work of construction arrived in Bellefonte on Wednesday evening, spent yesterday in getting together a crew of workmen and expects to break ground for the hangar this morning. The contract, it is said, calls for the completion of the buildings within a month.

The work of erecting the standards and the big beacon light for lighting the field will be done by the aviation field mechanics, the material having been ordered and expected here most any day. A roadway six hundred feet in length, running from the main road in to where the big hangar will be located, has already been graded and covered with limestone. All the fences on the big field have been removed and the fence rows cleaned up and leveled, so that considerable progress has already been made toward getting the ground in shape for the inauguration of night flying.

Elizabeth T. Cooney, of the Hat Shop, will introduce correct styles in spring millinery at a formal show-giving March 26-27-28.

ACCIDENTALLY ELECTROCUTED.

State Highway Employee Shocked to Death While Surveying on Nittany Mountain.

Arthur D. Himes, a rodman in the State Highway surveying corps which is engaged in making the survey for the new highway over Nittany mountain, was accidentally electrocuted about three o'clock last Friday afternoon when the metal tape he was carrying came in contact with one of the high tension wires of the Keystone Power corporation. The exact details of the unfortunate tragedy will probably never be known, as no two stories correspond.

Himes was a member of a surveying corps of five men working out of the Bellefonte office. P. M. Lollick is the engineer in charge and the men were engaged in making cross levels of the road at a point about four hundred feet beyond the watering trough above Pleasant Gap. Himes, with one end of the metallic tape in his hand climbed up the side of the mountain, which at that point is very steep. The other end of the tape was held by Samuel Cross, chairman, of Curwensville, who stood in the roadway. Cross hooked the end of the tape on the surveyor's rod and was in the act of raising it to the required elevation when it either came in contact with the high tension wire or got close enough to it to form an arc, and both men were knocked down. Their fall, of course pulled the tape away from the wire.

Engineer Lollick, who was nearby, had his back turned toward the men so did not see the accident, and the only person who did see it was a young man whose name could not be learned. He called to the other members of the corps and they hurried to the fallen men. Cross was merely stunned and was soon able to stand but Himes was past all aid.

The young man had been a member of the surveying corps a little over a year. He was twenty-six years old and a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Himes, of Falls Creek, Clearfield Co. Since the men had been at work on the survey of the Nittany mountain road he had made his home with the family of Jack Noll, at Pleasant Gap. His father was notified of his death within an hour after it occurred and he came to Bellefonte and took the body of his son home after it had been prepared for burial. The funeral was held at Falls Creek on Monday and was attended by all the members of the surveying corps to which Himes had been attached.

"The Covered Wagon" has been obtained for the last showing in Bellefonte, by repeated requests, for Friday and Saturday evenings, March 27 and 28, at the Moose Temple theatre and Saturday matinee at the Scenic.

Many Changes in Methodist Ministers' Assignments.

More changes were made in the assignments of Methodist ministers in the Central Pennsylvania conference, which closed its sessions at Chambersburg on Monday, than has taken place in a number of years. Rev. E. E. McKelvey, who has been pastor of the Bellefonte church the past three years, was sent to Diamond avenue church, Hazleton, and Rev. Homer C. Knox assigned to Bellefonte.

Rev. C. C. Cole, who the past year has been student pastor at State College, was assigned to Gettysburg and Rev. Edwin H. Witman sent to State College.

Rev. Richard S. Oyler was transferred from Philipsburg to St. John's church, Sunbury, and Rev. S. B. Evans sent to Philipsburg.

Other nearby appointments are as follows:

Pine Grove Mills, F. B. Norris. Sandy Ridge, W. A. Dysart. Warriorsmark, R. H. Fasic. Pennsvalley, Collins E. Hazen. Halfmoon, H. H. Troutman. Port Matilda, S. H. Engler.

Dr. W. E. Watkins was appointed district superintendent of the Williamsport district instead of Dr. Edwin A. Pyles, returned to the active ministry.

Free, during the Hoosier kitchen cabinet sale at W. R. Brachbill's, a thirty-one piece set of dishes, a ten piece Dexter domestic service set, and fourteen pieces crystal glassware with each Hoosier Beauty sold. 13-11

Rev. McKelvey to Leave Bellefonte.

The recent conference of the Methodist church at Chambersburg made few changes in assignments of pastors but among them was one that affects Bellefonte and has brought very general expressions of regret. Rev. E. E. McKelvey, who has been in service here for three years, has been sent to Diamond Methodist church, Hazleton. The change came as a surprise, especially since the board of the church had voted to request conference for his return. Whatever the exigencies of assignment schedules, or devious machinations of individuals injected into the change the fact remains that Rev. McKelvey and his interesting family have done a splendid work in Bellefonte and have found a place in the esteem and affections of many of our people that is indeed enviable.

Among the pastors ordained to the ministry in the Pilgrim Holiness church, in the annual conference at Reading, on Monday, was Rev. William R. Mason, of Port Matilda.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

Miss Smith was rapidly recovering from her serious spine trouble when through an accident this winter, it was necessary for her to resume the rigid treatment of a year or more ago.

—J. J. Carroll, the gentleman who put on the "Buy-at-Home" advertising campaign, in Bellefonte early last fall was most unfortunate in having been taken ill here and detained for five months. Mr. Carroll is an overseas veteran, wounded several times and had been under eight operations for removal of shell fragments. He had just completed his work here and was taken ill while watching the Elks "Hallow-een" parade. His condition became so bad that he was taken to the hospital and lay in the D. A. R. room until two weeks ago when he had recovered sufficiently to undertake the trip to Cresson where he is staying with relatives.

Secretary Applin Called to Pleasant Field.

S. S. Applin, retired after several years of conscientious service as secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., has received a call to enter the ministry at La Jose, Clearfield county. He will have two churches and a Union Sunday school in charge and will be head of practically the only organized christian work at La Jose. Fairview and Thompsonstown, all pleasant villages with people eager for the leadership of a Godly man in touch with the modern idea of evangelism.

We understand that the field offers many advantages to Mr. Applin, not only by way of a satisfactory income, but a nice home, pleasant environment, good schools and a great opportunity to carry on the work he has dedicated his life to.

He will probably be ordained as a regular minister of the Baptist church at ordination services to be held in Milesburg Friday night and while he will enter the new work at once his family will remain here until the children have finished the year in the schools.

There is nothing we can say that would fully convey to the people of La Jose a full understanding of the esteem in which we hold Mr. Applin. When his departure was first hinted at we commented on the loss to Bellefonte and then said that it would be so very serious as to be beyond reckoning.

—Miss M. H. Snyder will have exclusive models in millinery on display, Friday, April 3. Miss Snyder has secured Miss Clayton, of New York city, as head of the work room.
