

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Quigley had an over Sunday guest, Stewart Coryell, of Williamsport. Mrs. H. S. Taylor is in Philadelphia with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Manchester, who were married here six weeks ago. Miss Eckert, superintendent of the Centre County hospital, will spend a short Easter vacation with friends at Sayre, Pa., and at Elmira, N. Y. Miss Mary Cooney is home from a visit east, having been in New York, stopping at Hazleton with her sister, Mrs. Stauffer, and with Mrs. Wagner, at Watsonstown, on her way back to Bellefonte. Mrs. L. F. Richards and her son have joined Mr. Richards in Bellefonte, expecting to make their home here in the future. Mr. Richards, as superintendent of the local Bell telephone, was sent here from Lebanon, following Mr. Heilhecker's death late in the winter. Among the recent visitors to Bellefonte was Mrs. Joseph Grossman, of Williamsport. Since leaving here with her daughter, Miss Ida, several years ago, Mrs. Grossman makes occasional trips back to look after some business interests they still have in Bellefonte. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Miller returned home the afternoon of last week from a week's visit with relatives of Mrs. Miller, at Altoona and Williamsport, and from a consultation visit with Dr. Waterworth, of Clearfield, under whose care they both have been for a year or more.

Allegheny County Negro Electrocutated at Rockview.

Henry Jackson, alias J. C. Taylor, alias "Pistol Pete," a negro of Allegheny county, was electrocuted at the Rockview penitentiary on Monday morning for shooting patrolman Daniel Conley, in Pittsburgh, on December 30th, 1922, while the officer was in the act of searching him for carrying liquor. Jackson went to the chair protesting his innocence. Six minutes after the first contact was made he was pronounced dead by Dr. Baker, of the Riverside penitentiary, in the absence of Dr. C. J. Newcomb, the regular prison physician. The condemned man was attended to the death chair by the prison chaplain, Rev. C. J. Krahnke. This was the first electrocution at Rockview since N. J. McFarland succeeded Mr. Healy as deputy warden and all preliminary details had been so carefully looked after that there was not a minute's delay in carrying out the mandate of the law. Jackson's body was buried in the penitentiary cemetery.

August Glinz, former landlord of the Garman house, Bellefonte, and who the past year has been located at Cambridge, Mass., has gone to Newport, R. I., where he has established a chicken farm with a capacity of two thousand. He has twenty or more acres of ground, with up-to-date pens, and the production of eggs will be his chief object.

Some time ago the "Watchman" made mention of the fact that a deal was pending for the sale of the Coburn Farm Products Co. creamery, at Coburn, to the Sheffield Farms company. The deal was consummated on Wednesday but the transfer will not take place until the first of August.

Any person wishing to attend the conference of social welfare at Williamsport, April 15th to April 18th, will please communicate with any of the following local committee: Miss Mary H. Linn, Miss Elizabeth Meek, Mrs. R. S. Brouse, Mrs. Robert M. Beach.

Social Welfare Meeting to be Held in Williamsport.

Williamsport will greet the delegates of the seventeenth annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State conference on Social Welfare, to be held April 15th-18th.

A special meeting of mental hygiene will be arranged at a luncheon to be given April 16th, in the ball room of the Lycoming, by the directors of the Public Charities Association of Pennsylvania. Mr. George R. Bedinger, executive director of this association, will be the presiding officer. Addresses will be made by Dr. Ralph P. Pruitt, of New York city; Dr. H. W. Mitchell, superintendent of Warren State hospital, and Dr. George K. Pratt, of the national committee for Mental Hygiene, New York city. The tickets for this luncheon will be $1.50, and reservations may be made at the registration desk in the Lycoming.

Another interesting session of the conference will deal with problems of family welfare, as seen by the teacher, the hospital worker, and the general social worker. Speakers in this group will include Mrs. Martha J. Magee, social service consultant, Harrisburg; Mr. Aaron M. Lopez, general secretary of the Erie associated charities; Dr. Charles H. Miner, state secretary of Health, and Mr. William T. Root, Ph. D., of the University of Pittsburgh and trustee of the western penitentiary.

Mr. Ernest H. Cole, field secretary of the public charities association of Pennsylvania, has already taken up his quarters at the Lycoming, where he will assist the local committee on arrangements under the chairmanship of Mr. Brooks Reese.

SMULLTON.

Dormer Crouse and wife, of Lock Haven, were visitors at the home of George Crouse, Sunday. Richard Detwiler takes his daily runs down the road and back, training for another contest at State this summer. He is a good runner with good endurance. Herbert Stover was at the county seat on Monday in attendance at the funeral of John Love, former janitor and tipstaff at the court house and a very warm friend.

Wallace Debler has recovered from the severe bruise to his fingers sustained some time ago, and is again busy at different kinds of work. He certainly is a busy man. Herbert Stover has installed an electric motor in his printing room, which is a much more improved method of power over the gasoline engine he formerly used.

The man mentioned in a last week's paper who was asked about minding his own business, has seemingly not yet learned that part of life and keeps up his pranks in this line. The Methodists will have a new minister this coming year, the former one having served only one year. We trust the tide of Christianity will be more noticeable than it has been for some years past, not only for this church but all of them. There was a time when brotherly love pervaded but it seems that it has changed, and as a minister put it some time ago, it has come to the point where members of the same church do not speak to each other. This is not because religion has changed but because the people have changed.

Fittings are all the go at present, and we have to report the following changes in and about our town: Charles Bressler moved from a farm near Spring Bank to town and will engage in the blacksmith business, after erecting a new shop for this purpose. Charles Snyder has decided to go to batching and has erected a small shack on the greens of S. H. Hackenberg's woods. Huston Shreckengast, at the time the writer is penning this, has not made known where he expects to move, having occupied the home of W. M. Bierly here for the last year. He was supposed to work for Mr. Bierly but quit some time last summer. His friends, who were instructing him as to what he should do, should now step in and help him when he has followed their instructions. Henry Rupp, whose wife is an inmate of the Centre County hospital, informed us last week that he is undecided as to where he will move.
