

Bellefonte, Pa., April 3, 1925.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

4th.

---The Bellefonte Amusement company is arranging another boxing match for Wednesday night, April 22nd.

-A. C. Gingery last week sold his grocery store in the Harter building, on Allegheny street, to the Oriole Stores company.

was able to go to work at the P. R. R. in Detroit. freight depot on Monday.

-J. W. McKelvey, son of the Rev. the Methodist church here, has been mobilization at Camp Custer, Michi-C. A. of Dickinson college.

and Co., died at his home in Los Angeles, California, on Tuesday morning.

-John Bertituzia, a native of Italy, died at Rockview penitentiary on Monday as the result of an attack of pneumonia, aged 54 years. The remains were shipped to Erie for burial.

-The Penn State Auto Co. has sold its belongings in Bellefonte to J. C. Hockman and gone back to State Lewis Hill property, on east Bishop street.

-A chicken and noodle supper at Halfmoon, Friday evening, April supper and a good time is assured.

Methodist church, sixty in number, its 175 pages and we had never heard who will address the popular evening went to the parsonage, Tuesday even-of a man in its story except private meeting, Tuesday, April 7th. ing for a farewell party to Rev. and Edward W. Barry. Mrs. McKelvey, presenting Mrs. Mc-Kelvey with a very beautiful floor lamp, in appreciation of the great work she has done in the church since coming to Bellefonte.

of the U.S. army. William was a scholastic basket ball contests. junior year.

emy interests.

ager T. Clayton Brown always makes father and a brother. his selection with an eye single to pleasing his many patrons. Get the movie habit and be a regular.

-On Wednesday afternoon of last week D. H. Way drove to Port molished his car.

---When Judge Maxwell, of Ly-Seyler, of Lock Haven, to from one and penitentiary for the theft of motor accessories, the young man requested the judge to send him to the western penitentiary so he would be nearer home. Sevler has relatives in Centre but when he arrived at the eastern institution he should prefer his request is not badly hurt. and he might be transferred.

see the basket ball tourney. The driv- the bottom of the shaft. He was Taylor. The latter warned him head and a big bruise under the jaw. back in the vicinity of Yarnell also against driving the car while under Of course he suffered somewhat from the influence of liquor and the man shock, also. told the sheriff to go to a warmer country than this. One word brought and costs for his misbehavior.

esting Publication.

Most of the older people will rememper Mrs. Edward Barry, widow of Edward Barry, furnace man at the old -The Catholic Daughters of kept the family they had been blessed cratic member of the board and as no-America will hold a food sale at the with together. About eighteen years body can question Mr. Muffly's Democ-City Cash grocery Saturday, April ago they moved from Bellefonte. The racy the appointment is not only a well remembered, is in business in St. ular approval. Louis; Edward and John were mere lads when they left here. John will never be back. He fell in the battle of the Marne, July 15th, 1918. Edward went out from Michigan with Battery B, 328th field artillery and from the diary he kept has compiled a lasting memorial to himself in a his--M. T. Eisenhauer has so far re- tory of the service of his unit. He is covered from his recent illness that he at present in the automobile business

The publication is a most comprehensive and intimate recital of what E. E. McKelvey, formerly pastor of Battery B did from the time of its chosen a cabinet officer for the Y. M. gan, on September 1st, 1917, until they were mustered out April 16th, -William S. Phillips, well known 1919. We know of no written words here thirty years ago, when he was a that have had the same impelling intailor in the employ of Montgomery terest for us as those narrating the experiences of the boys of the A. E. official offered to advance her money We have had a most peculiar and indescribable reaction to their tales, either written or spoken, and a consuming desire to analyze for ourselves Missionary Society to Meet in Philipsthe mental attitude of those millions of young men who, in a twinkling, were drafted from happy-go-lucky pursuits of peace into the iron hands of war discipline. And for what? its annual meeting at Philipsburg, None of them knew more than that responsibility for anything else than duty had ended and that their future, Presbyterian church. The Philips-College. It had been located in the their lives were nothing more than pawns in the terrible game of war.

In "Doings of Battery B" we discovered more that satisfied than we have the Presbytery. The speakers who will be served at Gray's M. E. church, found in any of the stories of great will bring Bible lessons and messages war correspondents. In fact we pick- from the mission fields are Miss Anna 3rd, a church benefit to which the ed the volume up merely because it Elizabeth Taylor, of the national public is cordially invited. A good had been edited by a former Bellefonte boy and the greatest compliment we can pay him is that we never | cal president for Pennsylvania, and The volunteer bible class of the laid it down until we had read all of Dr. A. K. Reischauer, of Tokio, Japan,

Died from Injuries Sustained in Motor Accident.

William R. Henderson, of Lock Ha--William B. Garbrick, a son of ven, died at the Lock Haven hospital terstate Commerce Commission, in Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garbrick, of about nine o'clock on Saturday morn- Washington, for permission to build a Bush's Addition, left on Monday for ing as the result of a fractured skull new low grade railroad from Alleghe-Washington, D. C., to enter the med- and other injuries sustained in an au- ny to Easton. The survey for this ical school at the Walter Reed gener- tomobile accident near Nittany late road was made in 1906 and 1907, and al hospital, having enlisted last week Friday afternoon, while on his way to at frequent intervals since then a for service in the medical department State College to witness the inter- news item has bobbed up that the road

High school but quit school during his posed of LeRoy Fox, Harry F. Feltz- there was when the survey was made. er, Lee J. Schwarz and George Fox, The survey runs through Centre coun-Bellefonte Academy students who were traveling in LeRoy Fox's ty, coming by way of Houtzdale, in have given up the idea of producing a car. About one hundred yards west Clearfield county, across the mountain of May 21st and 22nd, the minstrel er as a passenger, going in the oppo- ville, Potters Mills, Coburn and Glen will be no question about the field bedance to follow the last night's per- site direction. The latter saw the Iron. formance. Keep the above dates in Fox car coming and ran his car into mind and reserve them for the Acad- the ditch to avoid a collision but the Fox car sideswiped him.

Both cars were badly wrecked and -There is no place like the Scen- all the occupants more or less injured, Mrs. Haller, president of the Woman's ic, in Bellefonte or any nearby town. though none so badly as Mr. Hender-It is one of the cleanest and tidiest son. Passing motorists took them all president of that of Bellefonte, to arplaces of amusement to be found any- to Lock Haven where Mr. Henderson range for a representative number of where and its nightly programs of mo- was placed in the hospital. He never persons from Centre county to attend tion pictures are always top-notchers. regained consciousness and died on the conference of clubs of the Central That is, they are the best and latest in Saturday morning. He was 38 years filmdom that can be secured, and man- old, leaves a wife and one son, his

Julian Resident Killed in Auto Accident.

James McMullen, who for some Matilda to get two of his children who years past has made his home with the time the party may decide. Persons were at school. Returning home he family of Daniel Straw, in Julian, was had to cross the railroad and failed to knocked down by an automobile driven notice the approach of the Lehigh ex- by James Wood, of South Philipsburg, press going west until he was almost on the streets of Philipsburg on Wedon the track. He became confused nesday evening of last week, and so and stalled his engine just as the Ford badly injured that he died while being car got onto the railroad. Reaching conveyed to the Philipsburg hospital. into the rear of the car he grabbed A coroner's jury exonerated Mr. Isabella Hill, at the Academy, as soon the children and threw them to safe- Wood of all blame, as witnesses of the ty then jumped just as the train de- accident saw McMullen walk right in the path of the slowly moving car. McMullen was 65 years old and uncoming county, sentenced Orvis W. married. He had stopped in Philipsburg from a trip to DuBois. His rea half to three years in the eastern mains were buried in the Philipsburg cemetery on Saturday afternoon.

Fell Thirty Feet and Still Lives.

Ralph Sampsell, an employee at it might become serious. Whiterock quarries, fell thirty feet county and he doubtless had visions of down an elevator shaft, about 8:15 landing at Rockview. Judge Maxwell o'clock last Thursday evening, onto a fire got the flames extinguished but told the young man that he could not pile of crushed limestone, and though not before it had burned over four or send him to the western penitentiary he is in the Centre County hospital five hundred acres, destroying much at 7:30 o'clock. Every member of the receiving treatment for his injuries he young timber.

Ralph was at the top of the eleva-

on another until the young men jump- will begin the publication of Edna ed by fire. Mr. Shively was away at ed from the car and undertook to Ferber's wonderfully interesting the time but his brother and sister chastise the county official, but the story, "So Big," which will be run as were sitting in the kitchen reading, latter got one of the men while the a serial in this paper. It is one of the and the first knowledge they had of other jumped in the car and escaped. most intensely interesting stories ever the fire was when informed by passing The man arrested gave his name as published in this paper, and we advise motorists. All the furniture on the Joseph Mikalonis, and he was com- you to read the first installment. If first floor was saved but nothing was pelled to pay a fine of twenty dollars you do so we know you will continue gotten out of the second floor. The reading it to the last paragraph.

Former Bellefonte Boy Edits Inter- C. M. Muffly, of Howard, Appointed Jury Commissioner.

In open court yesterday morning, Judge Arthur C. Dale appointed C. M. Muffly, of Howard, Jury Commission-Valentine iron works. She lived here er to succeed the late Joseph A. Emlong after her husband had died and erick. Mr. Emerick was the Demoboys grew up and scattered. Jim, so merited one but should meet with pop-

Juvenile Court Hearing.

At a juvenile court hearing yesterday morning the court made an order placing in the custody of the overseers of Benner township Harry LeRoy Moyer, aged 15, and Betty May Moyyer, aged 11, two children of Margaret Moyer-Weaver. A third child, Dorothy Ellen Moyer, aged 13, was taken charge of by her sister, Mrs. Ruth Hannah Grubb.

Jane Granis, aged 16, who was brought over from Philipsburg on a charge of incorrigibility and a menace to the public health, was discharged by the court for lack of evidence. As most of her relatives live in Allegheny county a kind-hearted public sufficient to take her to the home of her aunt, in Pittsburgh.

burg.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Huntingdon Presbytery will hold April 7th and 8th. The first session will begin at 2 p. m., April 7th, in the burg people are making most cordiai plans for the entertainment of the delegates from the seven counties of board; Mrs. Doolittle, of the foreign board; Mrs. Bion B. Williams, Synodi-

That Pittsburgh-Easton Railroad Bobs Up Again.

Attorney H. O .Evans on Wednesday filed an application with the Inwas to be built, but there is no more member of the class of 1925 Bellefonte | Henderson was one of a party com- assurance now of such a reality than

To Harrisburg by Bus.

An effort is now being made by club of State College, and Miss Hill, district of Pennsylvania, to be held at Harrisburg, Wednesday, April 15th. "Miss Nittany," the party bus, which will accommodate thirty persons, has been secured and will leave at six o'clock in the morning, arriving in Harrisburg in time for the first session, the return trip to be made at any who are not club members, wanting a day in Harrisburg, are invited to join these women on this drive. It is asked, however, that reservations for a seat in the bus be made by both members and non-members, to either Mrs. F. W. Haller, of State College, or Miss as possible.

Forest Fire in the Barrens.

A farmer in the vicinity of Scotia afternoon. The fire started running across his fields and got into the barrens before it could be stopped. Once among the dry choppings there it ran wild for a while and looked as though

A large crew of fire-fighters gathered and by surrounding it with back-

While the season is rather early for mountain fires the one in the barrens speakers from the Grand Castle, as -Last Friday evening two young tor assisting in replacing a belt that was not the only one. Out in the men from Nanticoke reached Belle- had just been mended and the belt Snow Shoe section fire swept over sevfonte on their way to State College to slipping he lost his footing and fell to eral hundred acres on Sunday, the 19th, and it was finally conquered er of the car was steering an unsteady brought to the hospital as quickly as through the arduous work of a large course through the streets of the possible where the only injuries dis- force of volunteer fire fighters. On town when accosted by sheriff E. R. cernible were a cut on the back of his Thursday of last week a forest fire did considerable damage before it was extinguished. Early last week the home of Orvis -Next week the "Watchman" Shively, at Stormstown, was destroyloss was covered by insurance.

Some Additional Movings.

Collins Shoemaker has leased from his mother the west side of the Shoemaker home, recently vacated by the Wagner family, who moved a month or more ago, to the Mrs. John Wagner home, on north Spring street.

from the W. H. Miller property, on of Logan street. Logan street, to Pleasant Gap, and the William Hepburns went from east Lo- his son, Edward Jr., drove down to Bellegan street into the house from which the Dugans moved.

Edward A. Bower, who has purchased the property on Howard street, occupied by the late Miss Sara Owen, will move there from the Krader S. Moore, Mrs. Quimby and her daughter, apartments the first of May. Mr. Miss Christine Quimby, left Monday for and Mrs. Rachau, who also have been Ohio. From here they went to Cleveland, living in apartments in the same to spend a short time with relatives, after building, have moved to Bush's Addition. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wood will move from Rockview into the Krader building.

from the Runkle apartment, leased by Bishop street, having arrived here Sunday. the John F. Marks family, to that Mrs. Hammond, who will be here for sevapartment in the Cadillac building va- eral weeks, is Mr. and Mrs. Fromm's oldcated by the George Carpenetos, who moved to their own home on Curtin street.

Mr. and Mrs. Boniface Mignot, after their sale last week, went to Williams- home in Waynesboro, Wednesday. Durport to make their home, expecting to ing Mrs. Croft's stay, Mrs. Grace Furey be for the present with Mr. Mignot's McMurtrie, of Altoona, spent a day in brother.

Russell Smith, who has been with his parents since leaving the Misses Benner, went with them to the farm near Milesburg, expecting to commute from there.

Two of the four apartments in Mr. Roan's house on the corner of Allegheny and Curtin streets, have been rented and will be occupied by Dr. and Mrs. LeRoy Locke and the W. S. Williams family.

The Clevenstine family, who were in the Cooke apartments on Bishop street, moved to the Mary Wright property on east Bishop street.

The Misses Margaret and Martha McKnight have taken one of the apartments in the Haag house, going ties on Spring street.

The Hockmans have left the Brouse apartment over the City Cash grocery store and moved to the Kalin property on Logan street, vacated by the Rhinesmiths.

Wonderful Progress Being Made at New Aviation Field.

The Spaulding Construction compawork, is making wonderful progress be her guests. in their work of putting the new aviathe night airmail. The transformer ing in shape when needed. All but one of the four or five sink holes on the big field have been filled up and aside from these there is no great amount of leveling to do to put the ground in good shape. Compared lery, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reidenbaugh, with the old field the new one looks a Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norris, Mr. and Mrs. veritable mammoth in size, and the pilots should have no difficulty in taking off or landing there under any and all circumstances.

Kiwanians Meet.

The Bellefonte Kiwanis club's regular weekly meeting and luncheon was held at the Brockerhoff house on Tuesday noon. The speaker of the day was Pref. Nixon, of the agricul-College, who delivered a very excellent address on the "Relation of the Business Man and the Farmer," and and the community as a whole are de-Nixon also offered some good suggestions as to how to effectively co-operate with the farmer so that his condition, as well as the agricultural development of the county may be betwas burning rubbish last Thursday the Moose Temple theatre the fore During that summer he scraped the kalso-

Knights of Golden Eagle Banquet.

Bellefonte Castle No. 357 K. G. E., of Bellefonte, will hold its thirty-fifth annual banquet at the Brockerhoff house on Tuesday evening, April 7th, Kelley's appearance was certainly not that Castle and of Queen Temple, No. 148, past twenty-two months. Nearly two are invited to attend. Prominent well as others, will be present. Tickets can be secured from either C. D. Young, Melvin Cherry, William Nighthart, Henry Houser or David L. Bathurst. Price, $1.00 each.

Friends Quarterly Meeting.

Friends quarterly meeting will be held at Unionville this week-end with the usual program of exercises.

Saturday, 2 p. m., first day school council meeting. Sunday, 10 a. m., regular meeting for worship. 2:30 p. m., conference; subject to be announced on Saturday. Joel Borton, a minister from New Jersey, will attend the Sunday meet-dially invited.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Miss Dorothy Coxey went down to York Saturday, for a ten day's visit with her sister, Mrs. A. Howard Tarbert and her family.

-Lloyd Flack, of Blairsville, and his son, Harry Flack II, were in Bellefonte on Sunday, for an all day visit with Mr. The Edward Dugan family has gone Flack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flack,

> -Dr. Edward Harris, of Snow Shoe, and fonte Monday, spending several hours here in the stores. Dr. Harris, by his frequent visits here, has always kept in close touch with his boyhood friends.

> -After a visit of almost five months in Bellefonte, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio which they will return to their home in Toledo.

-Mrs. H. R. Hammond, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and her three children are in Bellefonte, visiting with Mrs. Hammand's par-Mr. and Mrs. Malone have gone ents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fromm, of est child. -Mrs. Clarence Croft, who had been here visiting for a month with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Summers, at the Academy, returned to her Bellefonte as her guest.

-Mrs. William Derstine went to Juniata Wednesday, to spend the remainder of the week with the family of her son, Frank Derstine, while Mrs. Derstine went east for the funeral of her father, the late Samuel Donachy. Mr. Donachy died at the home of his youngest daughter, at Haddonfield, N. J., and was buried at Watsontown.

-William Crow, son of the late Senator Crow, of Uniontown, and Matt Dougherty, of Philadelphia, two young law students at Dickinson College, were guests of Joseph Parrish, Saturday night and Sunday. The young men had come up to State College to witness the inter-scholastic basket ball tourney, which was won by Uniontown.

-Mrs. Chester Irvine and her two younger children. Ottalie Jr. and Bobby Taylor. came north from Louisiana last week, to be guests of Mrs. Irvin's brother and his there from one of the Schad proper- wife, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hughes, at the Academy, until the close of school. Mrs. Irvine's elder daughter has been a student at the Academy during the year and will accompany her mother south in June.

-Dorris Moore, accompanied by school-mate, Lucille Sell, both students at Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, will come to Bellefonte today. Miss Sell to be a guest of Dorris at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Moore, for a part of the Easter vacation. Mrs. Moore will entertain tomorrow night in honor of her ny, with Mr. Arthur in charge of the daughter and her friend, the school set to -The Rev. E. E. McKelvey, with Mrs. tion field near Bellefonte, in shape for McKelvey and their youngest son, Vincent, left Thursday morning for their new home the night airmail. The transformer building has been almost completed and more than half the concrete for the highest has been almost completed and more than half the concrete for finish the school year, one being a Senior Bush's Addition. William has been gone and the other a Junior in the High school. poured. The foundations and the floor At present they are with Mr. and Mrs. J. musical comedy this year and will of the Inn, at Nittany, Mr. Fox at- to Dix station; over the Muncy mound of the hangar will be completed be- K. Barnhart, expecting to be there for the cling to the minstrelsy. They are now tempted to pass a big motor bus but tain to Centre Line, thence across to fore the steel superstructure and confirst two weeks of April, following that industrously practicing for the big minstrels they will give on the nights have a coupe driven by Clark Pennsylvania Furnace and through at the rate they are now going there are now going that they will be house guests of Mrs. Wood-cock, at her home on Howard street, until leaving in June.

-Relatives here from Altoona, Monday, for the funeral of the late John Daley Love included his son, John L. Love, William Love and his son, William Jr.; Mrs. T. W. Coffman, John G. Love, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ul-Shelden Erringer, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Coffman, William Coffman, Kermit Coffman, Mrs. T. B. Moore, Mrs. Deborah Housel, Wilbur Housel, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Buchannon, Desmond Ullery, Marion Love, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Love, Mrs. Joseph Cox, F. B. Bryan, Alberta Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kelley, Edward Kabella and Edward Fleming.

-Michael Lamb, the veteran painter and paper-hanger was down town last Thursday afternoon for the first time in six weeks. The fact that it took him an hour tural department, Pennsylvania State and forty minutes to walk from his home on north Allegheny street will indicate that he was feeling none too gay physical- as he was looking so unusually vigorous ly. It was his 74th birthday anniversary and he just had to be out a bit so he esin what respect the man in business sayed the journey after having been in a very serious condition with influenza since pendent upon the farmer. Professor the middle of February. In fact Michael was so ill for a while that much of the time it was feared his next trip from home would be a riding one instead of a journey afoot by himself. During a brief chat we learned that it was on June 6th, 1879, that he came to Bellefonte from Baltered. Spencer, "the magic hand of timore at the solicitation of the late D. G. physic science," who was playing at Bush to paint the Bush properties here. part of this week, was also present mine off the Bush house exterior and and presented a few exhibitions of his painted it a pearl gray. All of the other Bush properties here were painted at the same time and then Mr. Lamb returned home, but early in the spring of 1880 he decided to come to Bellefonte to locate permanently and this has been his residence

-M. D. Kelley and his son Robert J. were in Bellefonte last Saturday. Mr. of the very sick man he has been for the years ago he suffered a nervous breakdown and for a long time the disorder baffled all attempts at cure. Growing constantly worse and, to use his own words. "so low in mind that he didn't care whether he lived or died," he was finally taken to Dr. D. J. McCarthy, eminent nerve specialist in Philadelphia, who soon had him on his feet again and on the way to getting a new outlook on life. Mr. Kelley, as you probably know, is the senior member of the well known firm of Kelley Bros., coal operators who started in Snow Sho thirty-two years ago and still have extensive operations throughout the Central Pennsylvania fields. He maintains homes association. 3:30 p. m., ministry and in both Altoona and Philadelphia and both of them are beginning to look good again to him now that he is getting better of the nerves. He doesn't expect to do much for limousine with his son Robert, who acts Rye - - - " as private secretary for his father and is Oats ing of health is going on.

-Mrs. W. Frank Bradford, of Centre Hall, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday, doing some shopping.

-R. L. Kressler, a member of the faculty of the Snow Shoe High school, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Saturday. -Mrs. Edward Mulfinger, of Pleasant Gap, visited the "Watchman" office on tour. -Mrs. Charles Kirby Rath, of Elizabeth, N. J., and her daughter Jane, have been here during the past week, visiting at Mrs. Rath's girlhood home with her sister. Mrs.

Tuesday while in Bellefonte on a shopping

Charles E. Dorworth. -Mr. and Mrs. John G. Love are anticipating spending the Easter Sunday at Mrs. Love's former home in Philadelphia, going down next week to be guests of her father, Robert Witmer and his daughters.

-Mrs. Metz, who had been east for two months, visiting with her brothers and sisters, members of the Baum family, in New York, State College and Bellefonte, left here Sunday with her son Horace, to return to their home in Princeton, Ind. Horace is a student at the Indiana State College.

-An automobile party including the Misses Louise and Angeline Carpeneto, Miss Helen Schaeffer and Miss Christine Curry drove to Mifflinburg, Sunday, for a day with friends there. Miss Schaeffer and Miss Angeline Carpeneto returned by train for business Monday morning, while the others remained for a longer visit.

-The Misses Frances and Sarah Furst. daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Furst, of Overbrook, came to Bellefonte Wednesday, for an Easter vacation visit with their grandmother, Mrs. A. O. Furst. It may be of interest to Mr. Furst's friends in Bellefonte to know that he is now rapidly convalescing at his home in Overbrook, after a recent rather serious operation. -Mr. James P. Condo, of Penn Hall, was in town during the middle of the week for a short visit with his daughter. Mrs. H. N. Meyer, and the family. While here Mr. Condo stated that he will probably be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Jury Commissioner next fall. So far as fidelity to the party and ability are concerned we know of no one more deserving or who would make a better official.

-Mrs. Philip Beezer and daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beezer, Miss Margaret Beezer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kellerman, Miss Kate McGowan, Michael Hazel and daughter Elizabeth, Miss Agnes Beezer, George A. Beezer and son Herbert will go to Osceola Mills this morning for the funeral of Mrs. William Whalen, who died suddenly at the Philipsburg hospital on Tuesday. Before her marriage Mrs. Whalen was Miss Ruth Beezer, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Beezer.

-Among the many callers at the "Watchman" office on Wednesday was Mrs. H. N. Jones, of Milesburg, who was in Bellefonte looking after some business matters and doing a little shopping. Mrs. Jones' husband, by the way, has been a confirmed invalid for a number of years and she not only looks after his care and comfort but is practically the sole support of the family, and is doing it with a cheerfulness and determination that is worthy of the highest commendation.

from here fourteen years and in all that time has made only four visits home. He has been so busy making a home for himself and family, in the city of his adoption that he hasn't been able to take much time off, but now that the fight is about won and he is getting on fine perhaps he'll have more leisure to spend midst the scenes of his boyhood.

-Miss Anne Keichline left Sunday for a visit of several days in St. Louis, expecting to go from there to Cleveland, to get her new Chandler car. At Cleveland she will be joined by Miss Belle Lowery, for the drive to Moundsville, W. Va., Miss Lowery's present home, and then go on alone to Pittsburgh, to look after some business. On the drive home from Pittsburgh, the after part of next week, Miss Keichline will have as a guest Mrs. Butterworth, who will spend Easter here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Knisely.

-Former sheriff W. M. Cronister was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday. We hadn't seen him for several years and were surprised to learn that he is still actively engaged in business in Altoona. The Sheriff had about made up his mind to retire and spend the rest of his days giving the good old U. S. A. "the once over," but inasmuch we concluded that he had come to realize that he is too young to quit just yet. He still takes a great interest in Centre county affairs and keeps in close touch with political conditions here.

-Miss Thomazine T. Potter, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Minor, arrived in Belleforte Sunday morning, from Elkins Park, Pa. Miss Potter remained only for the day, having come up for a farewell visit with her sister and brother, Miss Lucy and James L. Potter, before sailing Wednesday on the Mauretania, for Europe, with John Stetson, who is returning to Paris to join his family. Miss Minor was a guest at the Potter home until Tuesday. leaving with Miss Janet Potter to return to school at Birmingham, Miss Janet Potter going on from there to Philadelphia, where she will be at the home of the countess Santa, of Eulalia, at Elkins Park, during her aunt's absence abroad.

Additional personal news on page 5, Col. 1.

Cowher-Lyons.-LeRoy B. Cowher and Miss Helen Lyons, both of Bellefonte, were married on Saturday evening at the United Evangelical parsonage, by the pastor, Rev. Reed O. Steely.

-The annual Easter flower sale will be held at Miller's hardware store beginning Thursday, April 9th. Potted plants and cut flowers of choice variety.

House for Rent .- On Bishop street. Inquire of Mrs. Sara Satterfield.

Bellefonte Grain Markets. Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co.

six months but potter around and all the office he intends having will be right in his corn - - - - $1.50 - - - - 428 1.00