

Democrat Watchman

Bellefonte, Pa., April 10, 1925.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The Easter vacation at Penn State began yesterday and will continue until April 14.

The annual W. C. T. U. dues social will be held at the home of Miss Mira Humes next Wednesday evening, April 15th. Go and take a friend.

The Easter services to be held in St. John's Episcopal church, Bellefonte, on Sunday, will be in charge of the Rev. Mr. MacMillan, of Carlisle.

The Grange fair and encampment committee has started the planting of five thousand evergreen trees on the picnic grounds at Centre Hall.

The ladies bible class of the Lutheran church will hold a bake sale at Schaeffer's hardware store Saturday, April 11th. A good place to buy Easter eats.

John Howard Harris, Ph. D., LL. D., president of Bucknell University from 1889 to 1919, died at his home in Scranton on Saturday, in his seventy-eighth year.

On Tuesday morning a bunch of five deer came out of the woods just west of the McCoy-Linn iron works and grazed unconcernedly in a field where several men were plowing.

Centre county farmers who intend enrolling in the ton litter club of hog raisers should do so before May 15th. Send name and address to the county farm agent if you expect to participate.

The matrimonial market was quite low the past week, only one marriage license having been issued, and that to Emory W. Fink, of Han-nah, and Miss Ida M. Woodring, of Port Matilda.

What is designated as a family hotel will be opened at State College the latter part of this week under the name of the Penn State hotel. It is located on east College avenue, next to the Reformed church.

A. R. McNitt, of this place, is scheduled as one of the lecturers on saw mill operation in its relation to State forests at the first course for portable saw mill men at The Pennsylvania State College, week of April 13th.

The Young People's society of the Milesburg Presbyterian church will hold an Easter sale Saturday, April 11th, in the firemen's hall. Pies, cakes, candy, bread, sandwiches, coffee and home-made ice cream will be for sale.

The spring trip of the Penn State Therapists will include Johnson-town, Indiana, Greensburg, Uniontown, Morgantown, Va.; Pittsburgh, Altoona and Tyone. The clubs will present their musical novelty "Wooden Shoes."

Turn to page two and read the opening installment of "So Big," the literary success of 1924. No book of recent years has been so universally acclaimed a success as this big story of Edna Ferber, the O. Henry of modern fiction.

An evidence that work on the state highway through Bald Eagle valley will be started right away is the fact that on Tuesday detour signs were put up in Bellefonte directing all traffic for Tyone and points west to go either by way of the Buffalo Run valley or State College.

The members of the Methodist Episcopal church, of Bellefonte, will tender a reception to their new pastor, Rev. Homer C. F. Fox and family, at the church on Spring street, this (Friday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. It will be a public affair and everybody is invited, whether members of the church or otherwise.

A little daughter, who has been named Joyce, arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. William Bradford, at Centre Hall, last Friday. The little girl is the only grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Bradford and we'll wager a mess of trout when fishing season opens that they are about as much "set up" over the arrival as the young parents.

We know a number of people in Bellefonte who always read the scenic advertisement in the "Watchman" before anything else; for the reason that they are anxious to see what the program is going to be for the ensuing week. Of course they know that scenic programs are always good, and that is why they are regular movie fans. The only way to see all the good ones is to be a regular.

Edward L. Gates, a former Bellefonte newspaper man but who the past four years has been located in Johnstown, has resigned his position as telegraph editor on Warren Worth Bailey's Johnstown Democrat and on Monday morning went to work in a similar capacity on the Johnstown Tribune. The latter is an afternoon paper and the change from night to day work was the impelling factor which induced him to make the change.

Rev. Reide Bingaman, a Senior in the theological department at the Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, preached in the Lutheran church, Bellefonte, on Sunday. It was his second appearance here since the church has been without a regular pastor and the congregation was so favorably impressed with him that they voted to extend him a call to fill the vacant pastorate. While Rev. Bingaman has not yet given his answer to the call it is believed he will accept.

NEW STREET LIGHTING

CONTRACT SUBMITTED.

Spring Street to be Repaired but Not Widened Nor Paved.

The borough dads sure earned their salaries (?) on Monday evening. Every member with the exception of Thomas Hazel was in his seat at 7:30 o'clock and it was 9:30 when the borough law-makers adjourned. A number of important questions were up for consideration and action, but here is the story in detail:

Mr. and Mrs. John Porter Lyon were present to request a correction of their water tax statement, having been charged for two houses for three months before one house was completed and occupied. The secretary was authorized to make the proper adjustment. Mr. and Mrs. Lyon also complained about the low pressure of the water at their residence, which they contended is not sufficient to furnish ample fire protection.

Mrs. Samuel Shallcross was also present and stated that her husband had purchased a lot on east Curtin street with the intention of erecting thereon a comfortable home, and they are anxious to know if they will be able to get an ample supply of water there and also have adequate fire protection before they start to build. Both the above were referred to the Water committee and borough manager for a thorough investigation and report.

The Fullington Auto Bus company gave a written notice that they have applied for a certificate of public convenience to operate a motor bus between Bellefonte and Tyone, and that a hearing will be held before the Public Service Commission, in Harrisburg, on April 23rd.

A communication was received from the State Board of Health requesting council to file plans of water and sewage system of the town at the earliest possible date. Referred to the Sanitary, Water and Street committees and the borough manager.

A petition was received from residents of east Linn and Curtin streets asking that they be given a more regular supply of water. Referred to the Water committee.

G. Edward Haupt again protested against his water bill of $98, and the matter was referred to the Water committee and borough manager for investigation and adjustment.

The Street committee presented the borough manager's report of work done on various streets, and also the collection of $60 for sewer permits.

The Water committee reported a new water line laid to the milk station and that the old building at the pumping station has been torn down to make place for the new building authorized. Chairman Cunningham also reported that after the building had been torn down they discovered that the brick walls around the big boilers had become so disintegrated that they will have to be torn down, and an examination of the two big boilers reveals the fact that they are also in a bad condition. The boilers were installed about 1900, and the ordinary life of a boiler being twenty years, have about served their days of usefulness. Mr. Cunningham stated that one of two things ought to be done: Purchase and install one new boiler of ample capacity to use in emergencies, or install an oil engine and centrifugal pump and electric generator. The pumping contract with the Keystone Power company will expire next year, when the electric pump will become the property of the borough, and with an oil engine, centrifugal pump and electric generator the borough would have ample equipment to pump all the water needed for twenty-five years to come, and at a much less annual expense than at present. The committee was instructed to get figures on the cost of installation of one boiler, and also on the oil engine, centrifugal pump and generator, with the probable cost of operation of the latter, and report at next meeting.

The Finance committee reported a balance in the hands of the treasurer of $5672.39. The committee also asked for the renewal of notes totaling $7,830.

The Fire and Police committee suggested that all crossings in the business section of the town be outlined with white stripes of paint, as automobilists are stopping and parking on crossings without regard to the rights of pedestrians. Mr. Flack also reported that policeman Howley is in need of a new uniform. Mr. Cunningham stated that he is opposed to purchasing uniforms for the police. That no company nor business man buys the working clothes of their employees and the borough should not be obliged to do it either. The committee was instructed to find out the custom in other towns.

John Spicer wants a sewer on Logan street and the matter was referred to the Street committee.

The revised ordinance for licensing movie picture shows, circuses, carnivals, etc., was read for the first time.

Mr. Brouse, of the Street committee, submitted the revised contract of the Keystone Power corporation for lighting the streets of the town. It provides for the installation of a new system of lighting on the present standards owned by the borough on High and Allegheny streets, and the total yearly expense, for the same number of lights now in use, to be $6368. The total cost for lighting the streets last year was $4845.60, but that was under the contract made ten years ago when everything was very much cheaper than it is today. A provision in the new contract gives council the right to terminate it at the end of one year from the day it becomes effective by giving sixty days notice, but if not terminated at that time, then to be in effect for a period of ten years. Another clause provides that in the event of power rates to the producer being reduced at any time in the future, then the consumer is to be granted a relative reduction in rates. The contract will come up at the next regular meeting for final action.

Mr. Brouse, of the Street committee, stated that so much opposition had developed to the widening of Spring street, between Bishop and High, that the committee deemed it unwise to undertake it now; and that the financial condition of the borough does not warrant paving the street this year. But it should be fixed and the committee recommended that it be given a top dressing of tar and stone chips from Bishop to Linn street, and that the work be started at once so that it can be completed by the first of May. Council approved the recommendation of the committee and authorized the work done. This will put Spring street in relatively the same condition as Allegheny, Linn and east Bishop streets are now.

Mr. Seibert stated to council that W. R. Shope is desirous of opening up a tract of land he owns east of the Catholic cemetery and extending back to the old Nittany Valley railroad, and that he will give the ground if the borough will open up and grade the street. Referred to the Street committee.

Bills to the amount of $2467.37 were approved for payment, after which council adjourned.

A Regrettable Loss to Music Circles Here.

The departure of Miss Rebecca Pugh Lyon to resume her studio work in Philadelphia is a distinct loss to the music life of this community. During her three years residence here she was very active, musically, and, while devoting much of her time to training young teachers anxious to enter the profession, she organized, with the assistance of Mrs. Joseph Mitchell, the music study club that numbered over one hundred members and, in cooperation with the music clubs of State College, Phillipsburg and Harrisburg, gave a number of delightful concerts and recitals. Especially to be remembered was the song and piano recital by Mrs. Arthur Hull assisted by Mrs. Rhodes and the costume song-recital by Miss Latta, at that time president of the State Federation of music clubs. The melodrama of Enoch Arden, given by Miss Lyon last November for the Woman's club, was considered one of the finest treats the club has had.

Born of an old and prominent Bellefonte family, Miss Lyon has spent most of her life in Philadelphia studying under such prominent teachers as Maurits Leeftson, and Constantijn von Sternberg from whose conservatory she holds a player's and teacher's certificate as likewise one from the Leschetzky school of piano playing. Added to these has been study in Berlin under Philip Scharwenka, the eminent Polish composer and teacher. Her clientele in Philadelphia were among the leaders in the musical life there, including the McKean, Cassat, Montgomery and Leidy families. She is a member of the Art Alliance of that city and of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania.

While it is to be regretted that there were not inducements sufficient to hold Miss Lyon in Bellefonte, her influence will continue to be felt in a higher standard of musical excellence especially on the piano, her chosen instrument.

"So Big," Edna Ferber's Realistic Novel Begins in This Issue.

The "Watchman" today offers the first installment of "So Big," Edna Ferber's astonishing literary achievement.

Nearly every one is talking about the novel that has continued to be a "best seller" ever since its publication early in 1924, and the "Watchman" believes it has scored a scoop in obtaining the serial rights for its readers.

"So Big" defies analysis and description in that it is a vastly different story than it is customary to publish serially in a newspaper. It deals with human beings, their thoughts and actions, with the usual breathless thrills conspicuous by their absence.

Turn to another page and start reading it now. You will enjoy every word of it to the surprising but not startling finish.

Rev. Wilson P. Ard Accepts Call to Denver, Col., Church.

Word has reached Bellefonte that Rev. Wilson P. Ard, who upon leaving Bellefonte two months ago went direct to Santa Monica, Cal., has accepted a call to become pastor of a big and influential church in Denver, Col. Exact data in connection with his new pastorate has not yet reached Bellefonte, but it is understood that the church has a large and growing congregation, and they have just completed the erection of a new and handsome parsonage which Rev. Ard and his family will occupy; Mrs. Ard and her little son expecting to go to Denver from Santa Monica early in May. The salary the church pays its minister is not definitely known, but it is decidedly larger than he received in Bellefonte.

The Denver church will afford Rev. Ard a good field for his talents in rebuilding and creating an interest in all kinds of church work. That he will succeed is a foregone conclusion and we feel sure that he has the best wishes of his many Bellefonte and Centre county friends for unlimited success in his new pastorate.

State College Man Willing to Fly to North Pole.

Among the forty-three navy and marine officers who have volunteered to fly the two navy planes that will accompany the MacMillan Arctic expedition and attempt to cross the unknown continent believed to lie between Alaska and the North Pole is Lieut. M. B. Gardner, of State College. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Gardner, of that place. The young lieutenant is a regular soldier of fortune. He graduated from the Naval Academy, at Annapolis, in 1918; served in the world war and later against the Bolshevik in the Black Sea. While there he was sent to protect American interests in southern Russia. Returning home he was appointed an instructor at the naval air station at Pensacola.

The goddess of luck has been with Lieut. Gardner most of his life. During his school days he invariably won out over all others in any matter of volunteer service and always made good. This fact may be in his favor now and result in his selection as one of the North Pole fliers. While it is a hazardous and dangerous undertaking the lieutenant's parents are satisfied to have him make a try at it should he be chosen as one of the pilots.

William R. Quick, whose name was kept very much in the limelight a year or so ago because of unconventional domestic relations, is again in the toils of the law, having been arrested by State police, last Thursday night, with two quarts and a pint of moonshine in his possession. He is now in the Centre county jail awaiting disposition of his case.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kustaborder, of Warriorsmark, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller spent several days during the middle of the week in Clearfield.

Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin have been spending the week motoring through the western part of the State.

Mrs. George Karstetter came here from Harrisburg Tuesday, for one of her frequent visits back home with her sister, Mrs. H. C. Yeager.

Miss Jennie Potts, who had spent the winter with friends in Phillipsburg, has returned to her home in Stormstown where she will be for the summer.

Joseph D. Mitchell, of Lewisport, was a business visitor to Bellefonte the fore part of the week, during which time he was a guest of his sister, Mrs. John P. Lyon.

Miss Anna Lyon left Tuesday to join her sister, Miss Rebecca, at their new home at Coatesville. Both Miss Lyon and her sister were born in Bellefonte and lived all their earlier life here.

Betty Curtin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Curtin, of Pittsburgh, has been spending her Easter vacation in Bellefonte with her grandmother, Mrs. George F. Harris, at her home on east Linn street.

Spring is really here. There is no longer any doubt about it. Mrs. Martin Hagen has returned to her home in Unionville for the summer after having spent the winter, as has been her custom for years, in Tyone.

Mrs. John G. Love and her daughter, Miss Katherine, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John G. Love Jr. on their drive to Philadelphia, Wednesday, going direct from here to Atlantic City, where they will spend Easter.

Miss Ruth Garman, who spent the winter in Brooklyn, returned to Bellefonte on Tuesday and went at once to make preparation for the opening of her tea room, the Dim Lantern, near Knunville, for the summer season.

Mrs. Schreck, of Lemont, has been a guest this week at the William Houser home on Water street, her visit being made at this time in order to be with Mr. Schreck, who is a surgical patient in the Centre County hospital.

Members of the Presbyterian church who represented it at the Missionary meeting in convention in Phillipsburg, Tuesday, were Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Samuel Sheffer, Mrs. Shively, Mrs. Heckman, Miss Mary H. Linn and Miss Anna McCoy.

The Misses Anne and Caroline Valentine, who have been spending the winter in the Bermudas, have arrived in Philadelphia, where they will be for a week before coming to Bellefonte to open their house south of town for the summer.

Elizabeth Hunter, from Holyoke, and Mary Katz from the Sargent school at Boston, have both been in Bellefonte this week, home for their Easter vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. William Katz.

Mrs. George M. Glenn, who has spent the winter with her son, who is an instructor at Princeton, has returned to her country home in Halfmoon valley, where she expects to spend the summer, as usual, with her sister, Miss Esther Gray.

Miss Annie Gray returned from Chicago on Saturday and is now at her home "Echo Farm," Graysdale, where she expects to spend the summer. She had spent most of the winter with her sister, Mrs. Thompson, at Evanston, Ill., and in Chicago.

Miss Lydia Way, the professional nurse who had been with Miss McManus since the beginning of her illness before Christmas, was obliged to give up the case on account of ill health, leaving Tuesday to return to her home at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Brennan are among the recent newcomers to Bellefonte. Mr. Brennan being here in connection with the advertising campaign the Trust Co. is putting on. At present they are occupying an apartment in the Price home on Curtin street.

Miss Edith Sankey arrived in Centre Hall Friday of last week, from Middleburg, coming to Centre county to look after some business relative to the Grange Encampment association, of which she is secretary. Miss Sankey remained in Centre Hall until Tuesday.

Mrs. J. M. Decker returned from Lancaster, on Saturday, after having spent most of the winter with her husband in that city. She expects to be here for a part of the summer, at least, with her daughter, Mrs. John Smith, at their apartments in the Cadillac building.

Alter K. Ush and Mr. Bashour, two former business men of Bellefonte, drove here from Millersburg, Wednesday, spending several hours looking after some property interests. Mr. Ush will return next week to join one of the fishing parties going into camp for the opening of the season.

Mrs. Bruce Burlingame arrived here Sunday, from New York, she and Mr. Burlingame having landed the day before from an extended trip in Europe. Mr. Burlingame went direct to Syracuse, but will join Mrs. Burlingame here at her mother's, Mrs. Harry C. Valentine, for Easter, and accompany her to their new home in Syracuse.

Mrs. Martha Van Rensselaer, head of the household arts department of Cornell, and a co-director, Miss Flora Rose, drove here this week that Miss Van Rensselaer might look after some business interests she had in Bellefonte. Tuesday evening they were guests of honor at a dinner given at the Woman's building at State College, where Miss Van Rensselaer addressed a large body of students.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Fauble, with the former's mother and sister, Mrs. Martin Fauble and Mrs. Schloss, motored to Harrisburg Sunday to spend the day with the Tausig family. While it was not the elder Mrs. Fauble's birthday it was so near that eventful date that the trip was made as an anniversary affair and a birthday dinner at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tausig, was the culmination of the celebration.

Mrs. James B. Strohm returned to Centre Hall Saturday, after spending the winter with her two daughters, Mrs. A. E. Person, of Trenton, N. J., and Mrs. Ammon Burkholder, of Flemington, N. J., and with her son Rufus, at Scranton. Mrs. Strohm was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Person, and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hicks, of Easton. A niece, Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss, of Bellefonte, and some relatives in Centre Hall had opened her house and were there to receive Mrs. Strohm upon her arrival home.

A Regrettable Loss to Music Circles Here.

The departure of Miss Rebecca Pugh Lyon to resume her studio work in Philadelphia is a distinct loss to the music life of this community. During her three years residence here she was very active, musically, and, while devoting much of her time to training young teachers anxious to enter the profession, she organized, with the assistance of Mrs. Joseph Mitchell, the music study club that numbered over one hundred members and, in cooperation with the music clubs of State College, Phillipsburg and Harrisburg, gave a number of delightful concerts and recitals. Especially to be remembered was the song and piano recital by Mrs. Arthur Hull assisted by Mrs. Rhodes and the costume song-recital by Miss Latta, at that time president of the State Federation of music clubs. The melodrama of Enoch Arden, given by Miss Lyon last November for the Woman's club, was considered one of the finest treats the club has had.

Born of an old and prominent Bellefonte family, Miss Lyon has spent most of her life in Philadelphia studying under such prominent teachers as Maurits Leeftson, and Constantijn von Sternberg from whose conservatory she holds a player's and teacher's certificate as likewise one from the Leschetzky school of piano playing. Added to these has been study in Berlin under Philip Scharwenka, the eminent Polish composer and teacher. Her clientele in Philadelphia were among the leaders in the musical life there, including the McKean, Cassat, Montgomery and Leidy families. She is a member of the Art Alliance of that city and of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania.

While it is to be regretted that there were not inducements sufficient to hold Miss Lyon in Bellefonte, her influence will continue to be felt in a higher standard of musical excellence especially on the piano, her chosen instrument.

"So Big," Edna Ferber's Realistic Novel Begins in This Issue.

The "Watchman" today offers the first installment of "So Big," Edna Ferber's astonishing literary achievement.

Nearly every one is talking about the novel that has continued to be a "best seller" ever since its publication early in 1924, and the "Watchman" believes it has scored a scoop in obtaining the serial rights for its readers.

"So Big" defies analysis and description in that it is a vastly different story than it is customary to publish serially in a newspaper. It deals with human beings, their thoughts and actions, with the usual breathless thrills conspicuous by their absence.

Turn to another page and start reading it now. You will enjoy every word of it to the surprising but not startling finish.

Rev. Wilson P. Ard Accepts Call to Denver, Col., Church.

Word has reached Bellefonte that Rev. Wilson P. Ard, who upon leaving Bellefonte two months ago went direct to Santa Monica, Cal., has accepted a call to become pastor of a big and influential church in Denver, Col. Exact data in connection with his new pastorate has not yet reached Bellefonte, but it is understood that the church has a large and growing congregation, and they have just completed the erection of a new and handsome parsonage which Rev. Ard and his family will occupy; Mrs. Ard and her little son expecting to go to Denver from Santa Monica early in May. The salary the church pays its minister is not definitely known, but it is decidedly larger than he received in Bellefonte.

The Denver church will afford Rev. Ard a good field for his talents in rebuilding and creating an interest in all kinds of church work. That he will succeed is a foregone conclusion and we feel sure that he has the best wishes of his many Bellefonte and Centre county friends for unlimited success in his new pastorate.

State College Man Willing to Fly to North Pole.

Among the forty-three navy and marine officers who have volunteered to fly the two navy planes that will accompany the MacMillan Arctic expedition and attempt to cross the unknown continent believed to lie between Alaska and the North Pole is Lieut. M. B. Gardner, of State College. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Gardner, of that place. The young lieutenant is a regular soldier of fortune. He graduated from the Naval Academy, at Annapolis, in 1918; served in the world war and later against the Bolshevik in the Black Sea. While there he was sent to protect American interests in southern Russia. Returning home he was appointed an instructor at the naval air station at Pensacola.

The goddess of luck has been with Lieut. Gardner most of his life. During his school days he invariably won out over all others in any matter of volunteer service and always made good. This fact may be in his favor now and result in his selection as one of the North Pole fliers. While it is a hazardous and dangerous undertaking the lieutenant's parents are satisfied to have him make a try at it should he be chosen as one of the pilots.

William R. Quick, whose name was kept very much in the limelight a year or so ago because of unconventional domestic relations, is again in the toils of the law, having been arrested by State police, last Thursday night, with two quarts and a pint of moonshine in his possession. He is now in the Centre county jail awaiting disposition of his case.

Snow Shoe Had Scare Over a Lost Boy.

Residents of Snow Shoe and vicinity had quite a scare early this week when the little curly headed son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Botson was reported lost. The lad, who is between two and three years old, was noticed playing near the house by his mother about two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. When she looked for him shortly afterwards he had disappeared and no search or calls brought any knowledge of his whereabouts.

Visions of kidnappers and all manner of bogey stories flitted before the frantic mother's vision and it took but a brief time to arouse the entire neighborhood. Searching parties were organized and the country round about was searched without bringing to light any traces of the boy. The search was continued all of Tuesday night and it was not until ten o'clock on Wednesday morning that he was found, safe and sound, though quite hungry, not much over half a mile from his home. He had evidently just wandered away and become lost, hence was unable to find his way back home.

Entertaining Within the Week.

Sixty of the school set were guests of Mrs. Charles E. Dorworth, at a dinner dance given Saturday night at the Nittany Country club, in compliment to the Misses Frances and Sara Furst, of Overbrook, who were here visiting with their grandmother, Mrs. A. O. Furst.

A surprise bridge party originated by Mrs. A. G. Morris Jr., was given Miss Verna Chambers at her apartment in the Heverly building, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. John F. Smith Jr. was hostess at a five hundred party given at her home in the Cadillac apartments, last night.

The Brooklyn Daily Times of last Thursday published a detailed account of a testimonial banquet that was recently given in New York City in honor of John Paul Kottcamp. Mr. Kottcamp has been for nineteen years identified with the Pratt Institute of Engineering in that city and if the felicitations on the occasion are to be believed was easily the most popular as well as most valuable man on the staff. Over two hundred alumni, students and instructors of the Institute gathered to pay tribute to his service to them and wish him well in the new position he has accepted with the Johns-Mandeville Co., of New York. After having heard him make a ten minute speech at the annual Engineer's banquet last December, in New York, the vice president of the Johns-Mandeville Co., was so impressed with Mr. Kottcamp that he offered him such inducements as were irresistible and he severed his long connection with the Pratt. While not a Centre countian by birth we have a strong claim on Mr. Kottcamp. He is a graduate of State, 1904, and his wife is the eldest daughter of Dr. W. S. Glenn, of State College. A coincidence in this connection is that Arthur C. "Bud" Harper, of this place, will succeed to the position made vacant on the Pratt staff by the resignation of Mr. Kottcamp.

Sunday will be Easter day and after you have eaten all the eggs you want you might try going to church, if you are not a regular attendant.

$100.00 Reward.

A reward of $100.00 will be paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who broke into the Wilson cabin on Fishing creek, some time during the last week, and carried away gas lamps, carpenter tools and bedding. Further information as to details can be had at this office.

The annual Easter flower sale will be held at Miller's hardware store beginning Thursday, April 9th. Potted plants and cut flowers of choice variety. 14-2t.

On Saturday afternoon, April 18th, at 1 o'clock Mrs. G. Oscar Gray will offer a lot of desirable household goods at public sale. 70-15-2t

Bellefonte Gram Markets.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co.
Wheat	-	$1.50
Corn	-	1.20
Rye	-	1.10
Oats	-	.55
Barley	-	1.00
Buckwheat	-	1.10