Bellefonte, Pa., April 24, 1925.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Six steam shovel gangs are now Eagle valley.

-W. J. Emerick has been confinphoid fever.

-The Catholic Daughters of America will hold a card party in their rooms in this place this evening. Admission 25 cents.

-The Standard Bearers of the Methodist church will hold a bake sale April 25th, at ten o'clock.

sum, however.

and all are requested to take a lunch box with them.

-Miss Jennie Morgan, who recently purchased the Dorworth home on east High street, will dispose of her shop in the Heverly building and devote her time to making her new home one of the popular rooming houses of the town

-Angelo Gelfi, of Westmoreland county, was electrocuted at the Rockview penitentiary on Monday morning for the murder of his wife, Josephine Gelfi, in November, 1923. He made no statement and his body was lights on Logan street had been out and Fort Humphreys, Va., are: sent back to Greensburg for burial.

control of the Central Pennsylvania by the police. Volunteer Firemen's Association, held for holding the annual convention at seenting vote. Houtzdale.

---The weather man made a heavyweight man. Let us hope the favor of it. fruit buds were not far enough advanced to be frozen.

long enough to spend indoors, and the mittee. most interesting place in Bellefonte is Bills were approved to the amount motion pictures constitute the regu- journed. lar program and no amusement centre offers more for the money. Get the habit and be a regular attendant, thus Business Men Want Curb Market in seeing all of the good pictures.

-The Morgantown, W. Va., Post, of dents, all of whom are expected to assistance. make the grade in their classes."

date of April 3rd, we stated that the on around the base and painted. home of William Fisher mentioned as one of the stopping places of the au- opposing the granting of a certificate thor, Dr. William Bye, was at Union- of public convenience for the estabville. In that we were in error. Wil- lishment of a bus line between Belleliam Fisher did not then live in the fonte and Tyrone, by way of Bald place so long identified as the Fisher | Eagle valley, giving as a reason that home just on the outskirts of Union- it would probably result in the curtailville. His first residence in the Bald ment of train service on the Bald Eagle valley was in the old stone Eagle Valley railroad, thus seriously house, just west of Snow Shoe Inter- interfering with prompt transportasection, now known as the Boggs town- tion of mail service. ship poor farm.

pictures of beautiful gardens she had visited abroad and in America, were shown in the Presbyterian chapel on Monday evening, and which elicited the association. Mr. Payne reported of the latter represents a considerable such favorable comment, is a de- that he already has a number of farmscendant of one of the oldest families of Bellefonte, her grandfather, John Irvin, having built and lived in the stone house on High street now owned time basis, when from twenty to thirby the local Y. M. C. A. Miss Bright ty farmers attended the market two drove here from Lock Haven with her cousin, Mrs. George S. Green, and was entertained during her stay by Mrs. Beach and Miss Blanchard.

-Feeling that a large number of middle of May. folks along the Tyrone division of the P. R. R. will wish to avail themselves of the opportunity of sending a congratulatory telegram to General John J. Pershing on the occasion of the national tribute to be paid him in New York city on Saturday, April 25th, all training school for nurses will be held be the horse pulling contest. So far stations on the Division handling in the court house on Tuesday even-Western Union telegraph business ing, May 12th. Rev. William C. been such an event in Centre county. will be equipped with special facilities | Thompson, of the Presbyterian church, | This one will be conducted by the colfor the prompt handling of this par- will deliver the address to the grad- lege and the Horse Association of ticular business. The Western Union uates, and a special musical program America, jointly. Any teams, farm, Telegraph company has installed a will also be arranged. The graduat- dray, lumber, etc., will be eligible to special telegraph wire in the Hippoling class includes five young ladies compete. Pulling in harness against drome in New York city, where the who will have completed their three a dynamometer over a distance of 272 national tribute ceremony will be years' course, namely: Misses Pearl feet will be the test. The dynamomstaged-for the handling of the tel- G. Clevenstine, Alma M. Detwiler, eter will record the maximum load egrams which it is believed will be Faye G. Watson, Jane A. Keller and each team or single horse can haul filed by members of the American Le- Alta M. Yarnell. A reception will be over the given distance. Such coned citizens who will wish to thus hon- ercises in the court house, but up to where owners of good heavy teams No preliminaries will be held in the Pennsvalley and being so near they could

EXECUTED.

Borough Council Also Passed Ordinance Licensing Motion Picture Theatres and Circuses.

W. J. Emerick and Thomas Hazel. A dressed and tarred. Referred to the Street committee.

for sale of old material.

definite instructions before proceeding -An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. much further. Mr. Cunningham wife. Clair Miller, of Logan street, died on stated for the information of council Tuesday morning and was buried the that the boilers are in such shape same day in the Sunnyside cemetery. that they would not stand a maximum ing there, though it is not his inten- the rejuvenation of the home orch-There will be a poverty social load of steam. That the two steam in the Bellefonte Methodist church pumps are in the neighborhood of months, at least. It is just twenty acre of berries. next Thursday evening to which all fifty years old and out-of-date. That years since he came to Bellefonte and are invited. Admission 5 cents, but the base of the big stack is crumb- bought the jewelry store of the late this doesn't include refreshments ling away and is not in an absolute- F. C. Richard and during the interwhich will be served for a very low ly safe condition; and because of vening years he and his wife have bethese facts the committee recommend- come integral parts of the town. -The annual Sunday school con- ed the tearing out of the boilers and Their many friends will naturally revention of the ninth district will be all steam equipment and the purchase gret to see them leave when they certified Michigan seed potatoes to all held on the afternoon and evening of and installation of a motor and elec- finally take their departure for Cali-May 2nd in the Presbyterian church tric pump as emergency equipment. fornia, but the best wishes of all will conduct potato projects by planting tional society, in Washington, this week. at State College. Everybody welcome This will materially reduce the size of go with them. the building and naturally lessen the expense of construction. On motion of Mr. Brouse the committee's recommendation was approved and they were authorized to do the work as suggested.

The committee reported the colduplicate and that borough manager corps area, according to Major Wm. Seibert had made a test of the water pressure at the John Porter Lyon home on west Curtin street, and it registered 46 pounds. The Fire and Police committee reported that a number of the street for almost a week, notwithstanding -At a meeting of the board of the fact that they had been reported

The ordinance relating to the licenat Philipsburg last Thursday, Wed- sing of motion picture theatres, cirnesday and Thursday, August 12th cuses, etc., was read for the second and 13th were selected as the dates time and passed finally without a dis-

The contract submitted by the Keywas frozen hard enough to carry a member of council present voting in parking rules and ordinance by a num- ligations. -While regular spring weather ber of motorists and the matter was prevails the evenings are still cool and referred to the Fire and Police com-

Bellefonte.

The Associated Business Men of last Saturday acclaims the production | Bellefonte held their monthly meeting of "Wooden Shoes" by the Penn State at the Brockerhoff house last Friday Thespians, at the Strand theatre in evening and among the questions that city the night before, as "the discussed was the advisability of havfinest musical comedy offered the publing the weekly band concerts this lic in a long while." It also says that summer. A special committee was "many of the best musical comedies appointed, with W. H. Brouse as now being presented by professionals chairman, to ascertain the desire of would suffer much by comparison with the public and also the possibility of this show put on by a bunch of stu- borough council giving some financial

A committee headed by H. C. Yea--In a story of "A Diary of 1822" ger was instructed to have the band published in the "Watchman" under pavilion repaired, lattice work put

The association passed a resolution

The agricultural committee, headed by John B. Payne, brought up the -Miss Anne Linn Bright, whose matter of the establishment of a curb met with the hearty endorsement of ers and truck growers interested and could be re-established on the oldof borough council and, if possible, have the market opened about the Nurses Commencement to be Held Tuesday Evening, May 12th.

The first annual commencement exercises of the Centre County hospital gion, ex-soldiers and all public spirit- tendered the nurses following the ex- tests are very popular in the west, or one of America's greatest genor one of America's greatest genor one of America's greatest genBellefonte for the night.

Buckwheat

Greatest genBuckwheat

Buckwheat

Buckwheat definitely decided upon.

Wilmer Crossley.

On Thursday of last week C. D. Six members were present at the Crossley, of Schuylkill Haven, who conducting their agricultural home regular meeting of borough council on took possession the same day. The projects. The term project is used to at work on the state highway up Bald | Monday evening, the absentees being new proprietor is a veteran of the designate any practical farm activity petition, signed by sixty-seven resi- Chateau Thierry, in France. Prior to labor, cost accounting, general care, ed to his home on Linn street, this dents of east Howard street, was pre-enlisting for service he was a rail- and educational data are kept on the week, threatened with an attack of ty- sented asking that that street be top- roader, but the nature of his disabil- project in a standard note book. This The Street committee reported var- clerkship in a jewelry store and later jects, including the following: ious repairs and the collection of $2.00 was given a course in watch repairing, engraving, etc., by the government, in production; raising and marketing of The Water committee reported that a school at Lancaster. He has just chicks; hatching and selling day old work is progressing on the remodeling completed the course and comes to chicks. of the pump house at the big spring Bellefonte on his first business ven- | 2. Plant Production:-Truck growat Kissell's meat market Saturday, but the committee should have some ture. Mr. Crossley is married and ing; the growing of half acre of beans,

Mr. Casebeer has in view a trip to Seven Centre Countians Accepted for C. M. T. C.

With vacation time fast approaching, young men are applying in great numbers to attend the Citizens' Millection of $182.75 on the 1923 water itary Training camps of the Third L. Culberson, Baltimore, Md.

Among the young men of Centre county whose applications have been recently approved and accepted to attend the camps at Camp Meade, Md.; Fort Monroe, Va.; Fort Eustis, Va.;

Frank Callahan, Philipsburg; Philip Foster, State College; Carl Matthew Glasgow, Coburn; Everett Laughlin, Philipsburg; James Martin, State College; Roy Vonada, Coburn; Frank Warner, Philipsburg.

These young men will have a month of outdoor physical and military training at government expense, from July stone Power company for lighting the 1 to July 31, 1925. The government record on Tuesday morning, April streets of Bellefonte was also read will pay all their necessary expenses, 21st, when thermometers stood at 27 for the second time. It was also ap- including railroad fare to camps and degrees above zero and the ground proved and ordered executed, every return, and lodgings, food and uniform at the camps. The students will be under no responsibility to attend Mr. Cunningham called attention to future camps nor will they be requirthe utter disregard of the borough ed to assume any further military ob-

Aged Lady Dispatches Snake.

act a little business. He is a grand- be announced in these columns very fonte's very fashionable modiste. son by marriage of one of the "Watchman's" oldest readers, Mrs. H. F. Spotts, of Unionville. In answer to our inquiry as to the health of the good lady Arthur assured us that she is remarkably preserved for one of her years, approaching 87. Rarely does she have to use glasses, takes great delight in caring for her own garden and last week performed a the young flappers would swoon dead

Mrs. Spotts was on the way to the spring where she gets her water when she suddenly came upon a large water snake lying in her path. She was a bit startled at first, but didn't scream and then fall over in a faint. She just took a firmer grip on the cane she carries and belabored the reptile until it gave up the ghost.

Many Beauties Among the Models.

With its famous models beauty chorus the talk of the American show going public, George E .Wintz's nationally acclaimed musical comedy, "Models of 1925," headed by Nyra Brown, America's foremost stage beauty, and mirthful Johnnie Getz, the monkey-man comedian, will come to the Moose Temple theatre next Tuesmarket on the Diamond during the day evening, April 28th. This extrasummer months, and the proposition ordinary production is presented in two acts and sixteen scenes, and each fortune in costuming, lighting effects, settings and newly imported European believed, if properly worked up, it novelties. The models beauty chorus -lovely girls selected from the motion picture studies of Hollywood, California, and from the famous esdays every week. The committee was tablishments of Lucille, Lady Duff instructed to secure the co-operation Gordon, Peggy Page and Franklin Simon, is the most alluring ensemble of feminine pulchritude ever yet beheld in the American theatre.

How Much Can Your Team Haul?

One of the most interesting events scheduled for the Farmer's Field day at State College in June promises to as our knowledge goes there has never STREET LIGHTING CONTRACT C. D. Casebeer Jewelry Store Sold to Junior Farmers Out to Make Record This Year.

The members of the Junior Farm-Casebeer sold his jewelry store and er's association of Centre county are watch repairing establishment in the making preparations for one of the Brockerhoff house block to Wilmer biggest seasons they have ever had in isburg. world war, having been wounded at carried on by the student. Records of ity prevented him from returning to year the students of Centre county his job on the railroad. He secured a will conduct a number of different pro-

1. Poultry:-Keeping hens for egg

will be assisted in the store by his tomatoes or potatoes; the growing of at least two acres of corn.

3. Fruit Production:-The plant-California with a possibility of locat- ing and care of a two acre orchard; tion to leave Bellefonte for several ard; the Ilanting and care of a 1

Through the co-operation of Mr. A. F. Hockman, of the Hecla hatchery, the boys have secured most of their chicks early and are now started with their poultry work. The county supervisor has just finished distributing parts of the county, to boys who will of the D. A. R., at the congress of the na-2½ bushels of Michigan seed and 2½ bushels of home seed for comparison raising, the members of the Kiwanis clubs of Bellefonte and State College turn in potatoes, the money value of week-end visit in Bellefonte. seed received. In poultry, the boy is | -Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Mabus entertainone hundred day old chicks. The boy and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mabus, returns in the fall broilers and eggs for the loan. At the close of the year there will be a general round-up of all produce from projects. This will be held at products show. Prizes will be awarded on the basis of quality of produce, business methods, note book, and general attitude of the student. The State Department of Public Instruction will again award medals to the best project students of the State, and Centre county boys have set out to bring home a few of these medals. The vocational classes conducted in seven high schools throughout the county have just completed a very interesting eight week's course in farm fruit growing. Examinations are being conducted in the various high Arthur Robb, of Coleville, dropped schools for a record in class-room

as Baptist Minister.

Very interesting religious services were held in the Baptist church, at Milesburg, on Sunday, April 3rd, when Stephen S. Aplin, former genfeat at the very thought of which half | eral secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., was ordained a minister in the accept a pastorate at La Jose, Clear- age of ninety-three years. field county. The church council included pastors and lay delegates from Mr. Neff's sister, Miss Evelyn Neff, of State churches at Milesburg, Lewistown, College, spent a part of Saturday in Belle-Huntingdon, Altoona, Johnstown, Ty- fonte. Mrs. Neff had been to State Colrone, Mount Union and Winburne. Rev. lege for a two week's visit with her hus-S. F. Forgeus, of Huntingdon, was chosen moderator and Rev. T. Philips, of Lewistown, stated clerk.

The examination of Mr. Aplin as to and Bible teachings was conducted in the afternoon and proved most satisplace in the evening. Rev. Forgeus visit of Mr. and Mrs. Funk, who were forpresided and devotions were conducted mer residents of Bellefonte, was one of by Rev. Croft, the pastor. The charge to the candidate was delivered by Rev. Philips; the dedicatory prayer by Rev. H. F. King and the right hand of fellowship extended by Rev. G. W. Hatch. The ordination sermon was delivered by Rev. B. A. Fisher.

Very interesting Easter services ed the administering of the Holy ing trip back home to Centre county. Communion. A class of twenty-eight united with the church. The oldest | Centre county folks, especially about State sistent member of the church for 68 with her daughter in Dallas, Texas. While years. The youngest communicant was only nine years old, and was Virginia Irvine, who had been a member just one week.

Big Centre County Meet at State College Next Saturday.

The annual track and field meet of burg, Spring Mills and State College Bellefonte. being in Class A, and all the other schools being in Class B. Four events were figuring on calling it a day and going for girls are included in both classes.

Three new team trophy cups will be provided this year, and small cups will be awarded the winning relay teams. Instead of medals attractive ribbons will be awarded winning contestants. former meets.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Miss Daisy Graham is visiting in New York, having gone east last week.

-Miss Mary H. Linn is home from a weeks visit with her sisters in Williamsport, and with friends in Milton and Lew-

-Mrs. Gammil Rice went over to Huntingdon the latter part of last week, remaining there for several days to visit with relatives.

-Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Landsy went to Philadelphia yesterday to attend a convention of hotel men, to be held at the Benjamin Franklin hotel. -Robert V. Miller has returned from Reading, where he spent the winter with his daughter. Mr. Miller will be in Bellefonte for the summer. -Mrs. Joseph Ceader came here from

Newark, N. J., Saturday, expecting to be in Bellefonte with her daughter, Mrs. Mc-Clure Gamble, for an indefinite time. -Mr. and Mrs. George W. Sherry, who are in Pittsburgh for a ten day's visit with their sons, Leo and Oscar and their families, left Bellefonte Friday of last week. -Mrs. Frank E. Naginey went to Scranton a week ago, expecting to spend sev eral weeks there with her sister, Mrs. Brandon and her daughter, Miss Winifred. -Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brewer, their two children, and Mr. Brewer's sister, are planning a drive to New York State, expecting to spend the coming week-end at the Brewer family home, at Kirkville.

-Mrs. Hastings, Mrs. E. E. Sparks and her daughter, Mrs. Carvel Sparks, have been representing the Bellefonte Chapter

-Miss Agnes McGowan, one of the superintendent of the Altoona general hosstudy. To assist boys in getting a pital, Miss Theresa Shields and Miss Anna start in potato growing and poultry Snyder, all were Sunday visitors in Bellefonte; it being a visit home for Miss Mc-Gowan and Miss Shields.

will sponsor the boys and finance the had charge of the services in the Presbyterian church, Sunday, speaking in the containing 21 bushels will be given to interest of the girls schools of his country, each boy, and in the fall he will re- was a guest of Henry S. Linn during his financed to the extent of having the ed several of Mr. Mabus' relatives over the business man pay one-half the cost of | week-end, the party including his father of Lewisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Mabus and their child, of Berwick.

-Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Musser were here from Altoona for the week-end, guests of Mrs. Musser's sister, Mrs. J. M. Driver, at her home on east Lamb street. Mr. the time of the general county farm Musser's time while here was spent principally trout fishing in the nearby streams. -Councilman Harry Flack and his son-in-law, George Carpeneto, went out to Pittsburgh on Tuesday afternoon to be on hand bright and early Weednesday for the opening of the baseball season in that city; both of them being big rooters for the Pirates.

-Mrs. H. J. Loeb, of Punxsutawney, spent the greater part of last week in Bellefonte, the guest of her sister, Mrs. James K. Barnhart, leaving on Saturday for Washington, D. C., to attend the annual congress of the national society of the D. A. R.

-Miss Annie Pearl returned to her home in this place, the fore part of the week, with the grip. Mrs. Gephart went direct schools this week, and there is keen from an over Easter visit in New York competition between the various city, where she was studying the latest daughter, while Mr. Thomas was taken ill the Scenic. Two hours of excellent of $1395.94, after which council ad- in here Wednesday evening to trans- work. The results of this contest will Pearl has long been recognized as Belle-

-Miss Sommerville and her sister, Miss Mary were over from Winburne Monday night, to see Miss Anne Linn Bright's pic-The Ordination of Stephen S. Aplin ture of beautiful gardens she has seen abroad and in America, shown in the Presbyterian chapel, and while here were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Potter.

-Mrs. Henry Meyer stopped in Bellefonte Saturday, for several hours, on her way back to Rebersburg, following a visit to her former home in Unionville, where she had been called by the death of her step-mother, Mrs. Thomas J. Taylor, who church preliminary to his leaving to died Monday of last week, at the advanced

-Mrs. Joseph Neff, of Jacksonville, and Mr. and Mrs. Leopold, of Milton. band's family and Miss Evelyn was accompanying her home, intending to spend a month with her brother and his wife.

-Mr. and Mrs. Richard Funk, their his experience, call to the ministry daughter mary and a treet, spent daughter Mary and a friend, Mrs. Bennett, Sunday and Monday at the Brockerhoff house, and left early Tuesday morning to factory. The ordination proper took return to their home in Michigan. The both business and pleasure.

-Mr. and Mrs. Newton Tressler who had been here for a week's visit, left early Tuesday morning on their return drive to Pittsburgh accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Tressler. The latter expected to leave them enroute to visit for several days compete in the U. of P. relay races. before returning to Bellefonte. Mr. Newton Tressler had been here with his parwere held in the church, which includ- ents and brother Samuel, while on a fish-

-Mrs. John Harter, well known to many communicant was Mrs. Nancy Mc- College and Pine Grove Mills, where she Meen, who has reached the age of 95 lived so long, has returned to her home at years and 8 months, and been a con- Bellevue, Pa., after a four month's visit she was there her sister, Mrs. Houseman and her husband, from Altoona, paid her a visit and timed it so they could accompany her back north. She writes that the weather has been wonderful all winter in

-Rufus Lochrie, of Central City, Somerset county, brought his faimly to Bellefonte Saturday, hoping by the change that they might all more quickly recover from the Centre county interscholastic asso- their recent illness. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Lochrie, their two children, Mrs. ciation will be held on Beaver field, at Lochrie's mother, Mrs. Malin-Shugert, and State College, on Saturday of next her sister, Miss Sara Malin. Miss Malin week. The association includes all had gone to Somerset county on account the high schools in the county, Belle- of the illness in the Lochrie family, then fonte, Centre Hall, Millheim, Philips- becoming ill herself, they all came to

-On Wednesday evening, just as we home who should drop into the "Watchman office but our old-time friend, John R. Bartruff, of New Bloomfield, and Charles Zeigler, proprietor of the Hill Crest had come to Centre county to deliver a truck load of fruit trees to the farmers of Bellefonte for the night.

······ A PROUD SHOWING.

On another page of this issue we publish a condensed statement of our condition at the close of business on April 5th. We are proud of the loy-alty of our depositors. It is something we highly appreciate. Many of them have been with us for a generation, a few almost a half century.

This speaks well for us both. It shows stability and character on their part. It shows proper treatment and efficient service on our part. Thoughtful, worth-while people carefully select their bank. An institution that shows a surplus of more than double its capital; that shows deposits of more than a million and three-quarters, and total resources of almost two and onehalf millions, has great elements of strength and secur-

The number of people who realize this is shown in our large list of depositors; a list that is constantly growing. NEW ACCOUNTS NO MATTER HOW SMALL ARE WELCOME HERE. FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Bellefonte, Pa.

-Mrs. Oscar Wetzel went out to Wash ington, Pa., yesterday to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Mc.

-Sister Roberta, of Pittsburgh, came in Saturday for an over night visit at the convent here, returning home Sunday afternoon.

-Joseph Hoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hoy was taken home from the hospital Wednesday, recovering from an appendici-

-Mrs. Philip Haler, of Pittsburgh, is in Bellefonte for a visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Weston, of Linn street. Yesterday morning her little daughter met with quite a serious mishap. While playing in the back yard she fell and ran a rusty fork into her arm, causing a bad wound.

-Rev. Malcolm DePui Maynard, of Ridgway, spent several days last week visiting friends in his former parish here. He was looking well and happy, but we felt that it would be impertinent to inquire as to whether the happiness was begotten of a pleasant field in Ridgway or the fact that he was back in Bellefonte where he is so generally esteemed.

-Miss Agnes Shields, who was called to Jackson, Miss., several months ago, by the illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Shields, has completed her plans for returning north, expecting to leave there Thursday of next week. Mrs. Edward Shields will not make her visit home at this time, but will come to Bellefonte later in the summer.

-Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Thomas, who left here two weeks ago for a stay at Atlantic City, and to spend a short time with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gephart, are both ill during a week's business visit in Phila delphia, and before going to the Shore. A rumor is current that Mr. Thomas' condition is rather serious, Mrs. Thomas, however, is growing better.

-Those from out of town who were here last week for the funeral of the late Harry Baum, included the following members of his immediate family: Mrs. Reisman and Mrs. Metz, of Princeton, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Monash, of New York city; Isadore Baum, of Manhattan, Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Baum, of State College. In addition to the above relatives, his friends included Mr. and Mrs. Cohen and Mr. Kaufman, of Sunbury; Mr. and Mrs. Kaiser, of Selinsgrove; Miss Jessie Burket, of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Lewison and Bellefonte High Defeats Millheim High Baseball Team.

The Bellefonte High school baseball team journeyed to Millheim on Tuesday and opened the season by defeating the Pennsvalley stickmen 7 to 6. The game was nip and tuck from start to finish but the Bellefonte boys finally got the long end of the string.

The High school relay team composed of James McCullough, John Emel, Merrill Waite and James Shope, accompanied by E. K. Stock, coach J. M. Ridan and John Y. Gilson, will be taken to Philadelphia today by Willis E. Wion where the young runners will The expenses of the trip are being met by the Kiwanis club of Bellefonte.

Social Welfare Worker Here.

Dr. J. C. Bateson, graduate of New York University, with business headquarters in Baltimore and a home at State College, is in Bellefonte for a few days in the interest of a social welfare program of his own arrangement. He devotes most of his time to constructive education of the young as to harmful habits and at the same time has some very helpful suggestions and appliances for older folks who are suffering from nerve disorders in which he has specialized.

-Centre Lodge I. O. O. F. will attend divine services in a body next Sunday morning. Rev. Homer Charles Knox will deliver the annual sermon to the Order in the Methodist church.

-See "America," Moose Temple theatre, April 23, 24 and 25.

Bellefonte Grain Markets. Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co.

nurseries, at Duncannon. The gentlemen Wheat - - - - $1.60 and come to Centre county to deliver a Corn - - - - - 1.20 Corn -1.10 .45 1.00