THIS IS MAY DAY.

Child Health Day.

The American Child Health Association, of which Herbert Hoover is president, urges all people of good will to join in the celebration of May Day as Child Health Day. In each State a chairman has been appointed and, in Pennsylvania, is Dr. S. McC. Hamill, of Philadelphia, one-time resident of Oak Hall, Centre county. Last year was the first nation-wide observance of this day when very complete programs were carried out in many places. Most attractive plan books and May Day festival books have been prepared and sold for ten cents to give suggestions for celebrating this day, some of which are pageants, health plays, tableaux, athletic festivals; attractive posters on cleanliness, food, care of the teeth displayed in store windows; special display cards carried on street cars and ice-wagons; distribution of flowers to shut-in children; children and mothers taken for a drive into the country; talks by physicians and nurses; demonstrations, motion picture films, pamphlets on nutrition and growth distributed, health articles published in newspapers.

Every individual school or organization should find some way of celebrating Child Health Day, if not today, then another day. While no elaborate programs are being carried out in the county, attention will be focused on child health in various ways through the month. An especial effort will be made to have the baby clinics well attended. What facilities are regularly available, as well as special May plans may be seen from the following:

In Bellefonte—Health plays will be given in the schools under the direction of Mrs. Alberta Krader, in charge of music. Each church will observe special baby day and endeavor to get all members of the cradle roll and beginners room to the well-baby clinic. Girl and Boy Scouts will conduct an anti-splinting campaign in co-operation with the tuberculosis committee. Health talks and demonstrations will be given in as many schools as possible in districts surrounding Bellefonte. There is regularly:

- (1) State chest clinic, Tuesdays, 2 to 4 p. m., in Petrikin hall, Dr. David Dale in charge with Miss Ethel Campbell, State Health Department nurse.
- (2) Well Baby clinic, Wednesdays, 2 to 4 p. m., same room as chest clinic, Dr. LeRoy Locke, with Miss Campbell.
- (3) Red Cross community nursing service for the past four years, temporarily discontinued, but soon to be resumed.
- (4) Part-time dental hygienist in schools. The dental hygienist has worked, for short periods of time, in Snow Shoe, Howard, Milesburg, Central City, Lemont, Oak Hall, Boalsburg, Centre Hall, and Spring Mills.

In Milesburg and Central City—The tuberculosis committee is employing former Red Cross nurse, Mrs. Pearl Meeker Hagan, to do follow-up work after medical inspection in the schools, hoping to have defects corrected during the summer. There will be a Well-Baby clinic, Monday, May 11.

In Philipsburg—There will be health plays and songs in the schools; a one-act play between the shows at night and a special baby day next week. There is regularly:

- (1) State chest clinic, Mondays, 2 to 4 p. m., and Fridays 3 to 5 p. m., in room 201 Moshannon bank building with Miss Carrie Hess, State Health Department nurse in charge.
- (2) Well Baby clinic, Wednesdays, 2 to 4 p. m., in same room as chest clinic, with Red Cross nurse in charge.
- (3) Full time Red Cross nurse, Miss Signe Anderson.
- (4) Full time dental hygienist in schools, Miss Helen Holderman.
- (5) Miss Hess has a Well-Baby clinic in Sandy Ridge, first Wednesday of each month, 2:30 to 3:30 p. m.

In State College—The mothers of the freshman girls will have a health party this, Friday, evening in the High school building with health games and songs. The latter part of May or first of June, the Child Welfare committee of the Woman's club will have a "Better Babies" contest and parade. There is:

- (1) A Red Cross community nursing service with Mrs. E. R. Houtz as nurse.
- (2) Well-Baby clinic, Wednesdays, 3 to 5 p. m., in Red Cross room.

—Miss Marguerite Sunday has resigned her position in the office of the Keystone Power corporation and on Monday went to work for the American Lime and Stone company.

BOAL.—Capt. George M. Boal, one of the best known residents of Pennsylvania, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. A. Booser, at Centre Hall, at three o'clock on Monday morning. His death was the result of the natural dissolution of a one-time strong and rugged constitution. His failing health became apparent eleven weeks ago and became more pronounced with each passing day. Several weeks ago he was compelled to take his bed and his death on Monday morning was not unexpected.

Capt. Boal was of Irish descent, his father having been born in Ireland, but brought to this country by his parents when only a year old. It is upwards of a century and a third since the elder Boals located in Pennsylvania and it was in Harris township that George M. Boal was born on March 17th, 1839. His parents were George Welch and Sarah Shannon Boal and his entire life of 86 years, 1 month and 10 days was spent in the region of his birth with the exception of his several years of service during the Civil war. A son of a farmer his first schooling was received at the Rock Hill school in Harris township, under the direction of Christina Wieland. Later he attended the Boalsburg Academy and the Kishacoquillas seminary. With the exception of two years spent as a clerk in the store of Ard & Dunlap, at Pine Grove Mills, all his youth was devoted to assisting his father on the farm and in receiving an education.

Following the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted as a private in Company D, 148th infantry. This was on August 16th, 1862, and his first active service was at Chancellorsville. Following that memorable battle he was assigned to detached duty as clerk at the headquarters of the First division, Second army corps, under General Hancock. Later he was detailed to the general recruiting service at Harrisburg. On March 10th, 1865, he was commissioned first lieutenant and quartermaster of the 83rd P. V. I., joining that command at City Point and was with the regiment in the field until the close of the war, having been discharged in June, 1865.

Returning home he located at the old homestead in Harris township, owned jointly by himself and brother, Shannon Boal. Two years later he sold his interest to his brother and purchased the John Durst farm in Potter township, where he lived until his retirement to a comfortable home in Centre Hall.

He was a charter member of the Samuel Shannon Post, No. 282, G. A. R., at Centre Hall, until their hall and equipment were destroyed by fire when he joined the thinning ranks of Gregg Post, No. 95, of Bellefonte. He was also a charter member of the Centre County Veteran club and its treasurer for many years. He was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church and one of its most faithful supporters. He was also a member of the Grange and always actively interested in every movement for the uplift of his community and the public in general.

In politics he was unwaveringly Republican and during his active life was a man to be reckoned with in the councils of his party. He never sought office for himself but under the Taft administration accepted the appointment as postmaster at Centre Hall and his administration in that office is still referred to as one of unusual efficiency and courtesy. Possessed of many kind and generous impulses, he was always a friend of the weak and those less fortunately situated than himself. He loved the social side of life and being endowed with a jovial nature and natural Irish wit made him a very companionable gentleman.

While at home on a furlough in February, 1863, he married Miss Ellen Love, a daughter of associate judge W. W. Love, of Potter township. She passed away about fifteen years ago, since which sad event he had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Booser. He was the last of his generation of the Boal family but his survivors include five daughters, namely: Mrs. D. A. Booser, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Charles Meyer, of Reedsville; Mrs. Charles Slack, of Centre Hall; Mrs. W. E. Park, of Asheville, N. C.; and Mrs. W. Gross Mingle, of Philadelphia. Most of his children were with him a good part of the time during his last illness.

Funeral services were held at the Booser home at three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by his pastor, Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, assisted by Rev. Keener, of the Reformed church, after which burial was made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

The honorary pall bearers were all G. A. R. men, as follows: Capt. W. H. Fry, B. D. Brislin, W. E. Tate, W. H. Bartholomew, Amos Rice, Harvey Griffith, William Flack, Rev. G. W. Emehizer, T. A. Snyder, Ben E. Espenshade, J. B. Holter, W. H. Brown, P. H. Dale, M. N. Garver and C. M. Walker.

Among those who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mingle and daughter, Miss Roxie; Harry Keller Esq., and Miss Mary McQuisition, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Walter Mann, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Bess Garber, Mrs. Homer McNeill, Mrs. H. T. Reed, Taylor Reed and Miss Rhoda Reed, of Reedsville; Col. Theodore Davis Boal, Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wagner, of Boalsburg; Hon. J. Laird Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Corl, Mr. and Mrs. Seibert, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foreman, J. J. Foreman, Charles Foster and Phil. D. Foster, of State College; Mr. and Mrs. W. Gross Mingle and son Philip, of Philadelphia.

MEEK.—The last of his generation, Reuben Herron Meek died at his home at Clarence Sunday evening at 9 o'clock. He had been declining in health for several months as the result of over taxing his strength during a long walk over the mountains near his home to revisit scenes dear to him through their association with earlier days.

Deceased was a son of William J. and Jane McElhattan Meek and was born in Ferguson township May 4th, 1844, on the tract of land taken up by Capt. George Meek, in 1790, and part of which still remains in the family name. In early life he took up the work of mill-wrighting and necessarily traveled over much of Central Pennsylvania, most of his time having been employed in the Reynoldsville, Galeton, Falls Creek region and a year in Florida. Having married Elizabeth Beaver in 1873, they determined to make their home in what was later called South Snow Shoe, now Clarence. They built there in 1879 the first house in the village. That was before the N. Y. C. R. R. entered the place and is the home of the family now.

Mr. Meek was a man of exceptional intellectuality. His leisure moments were devoted almost entirely to good literature which his clear, analytical mind fed upon until it was a veritable store house of philosophy. He was interested in everything, Democracy and Methodism especially. His devotion to the doctrinal traditions of his forebears found expression in all of the services of a Methodist church that he was able to attend. In his home community he was for years superintendent of the Sunday school and a class leader.

Surviving him are his widow and the following children: Mrs. Robert Lucas, of Clearfield; Miss Zoe, a teacher in the public schools of Snow Shoe, and Democratic nominee for the Legislature three years ago; Mrs. Charles Watson, of Clarence; Mrs. John Russell, of Avis; Mrs. Emil Krone and Clifton B., of Clarence.

Interment was made in the family plot in Meek's cemetery, Ferguson township, on Wednesday at 10 o'clock, Rev. Burkheimer, of the Snow Shoe Methodist church, having had charge of the services.

AIKEY.—William Aikey, a well known resident of Boggs township, died on Saturday morning as the result of a stroke of paralysis following an illness of three weeks.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Aikey and was born in Spring township seventy-four years ago. He is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Harriet Leathers, and the following children: Benjamin Aikey, of Curtin; George, of Salona; Bliss and Toner, of Bellefonte; Oscar, of Curtin; Mrs. Henry Shultz, of Flemington; Mrs. Victor Bright, Mrs. Thomas Mosier, and Mrs. Robert Thompson, of Bellefonte, and William, of Curtin. He also leaves one brother and two sisters, Theodore Aikey, of Curtin; Mrs. Rachel Glenn, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Mary Gregg, of Lewistown.

He was a member of the Methodist church and his pastor had charge of the funeral services which were held at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, being assisted by Rev. M. C. Piner, of Milesburg. Burial was made in the Curtin cemetery.

MINNICK.—Mrs. Amy Y. Minnick, wife of Lester Minnick, died at her home at Milesburg on April 9th, following two years' illness with chronic endocarditis. She was a daughter of Scott and Susan Stover and was born at Rebersburg, Centre county, being 38 years, 6 months and 19 days old. In addition to her husband she leaves two sons, LeRoy and Stover Minnick. She also leaves two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Carrie Houser and Mrs. Elizabeth Wance, both of Rebersburg, and Edgar Stover, of Bloomfield, N. J. Burial was made at Rebersburg on April 18th.

WOODRING.—Mrs. Nancy J. Woodring, widow of the late Aaron Woodring, died on Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. T. Spotts, at Port Matilda, following an illness of some months. She was 78 years of age and is survived by the following children: Mrs. W. C. Rothrock, of Tyrone; Mrs. J. C. Mattern, of Stormstown; Wilbur and S. M. Woodring, and Mrs. Spotts, all of Port Matilda. Funeral services were held at the Spotts home at 2:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Presbyterian cemetery, at Port Matilda.

FRAVEL.—Mrs. Elizabeth Fravel died on Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Welliver, in Lock Haven, following an illness of some weeks. She was 64 years old and was born at Salona, where most of her life was spent. In addition to her daughter mentioned above she is survived by two brothers and one sister, Toner Bricker, of Williamsport; Mrs. Catherine Eddy, of Salona, and J. M. Bricker, of Bellefonte. Burial was made in the Cedar Hill cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

JORDONOFF.—Kosta Jordonoff, a Dauphin county inmate at the Rockview penitentiary, died last Friday following a month's illness with tuberculosis. He was 24 years, 11 months and 15 days old, and unmarried. By occupation he was an electrician. The remains were taken to Steelton on Sunday by funeral director Widowski, where burial was made on Monday.

McFARLANE.—Frank McFarlane, a well known farmer of Harris township, died at his home at Boalsburg on Saturday evening as the result of a stroke of paralysis.

He was a son of William and Margaret Kyle McFarlane and was born in Buffalo Run valley on June 14th, 1857, hence was not quite 68 years old. He was educated in the public school at Centre Furnace and the Boalsburg Academy, later entering State College for a course in agriculture but was compelled to quit study at the end of two years, owing to his weakened eyesight, which had been affected by an attack of typhoid fever. In fact he was greatly handicapped all through life by his poor eyes, and for a number of years past could not see to walk alone.

After leaving college he went to his father's farm near Boalsburg and took charge of same living there until his death. He was a member and for years a trustee of the Presbyterian church, and prominent in Christian Endeavor activities. He also was a member of the board of directors of the Centre County Mutual Fire Insurance company.

In 1905 he married Miss Bella A. Rankin, of Bellefonte, who survives with no children. He leaves, however, one sister, Mrs. John Mitchell, of Lemont. Funeral services were held at his late home at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning by Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, burial being made in the Branch cemetery.

DAVIDSON.—Miss Julia A. Davidson died at her home in Tyrone on Friday evening, following an illness of three years with pernicious anemia. She was a daughter of James and Mary A. Davidson, and was born at Unionville over forty-seven years ago. The greater part of her life was spent in that place but eighteen years ago the family moved to Tyrone where she had lived ever since. For four years she filled the position of community nurse in Tyrone, being compelled to relinquish her work when overtaken by ill health. Her father died a number of years ago but surviving her are her mother, two sisters and two brothers, namely: Mrs. Harriet Ingram, Mrs. Howard Bricker and Atee S. Davidson, all of Tyrone, and J. C. Davidson, of Jamestown, N. Y. Funeral services were held on Monday, burial being made at Unionville.

MILLER.—Mrs. Mary D. Miller, widow of the late Jacob Miller, died on Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lydia Irvin, at Wingate, following a decline of several months as the result of general infirmities. She was a daughter of George and Catherine Shawley and was born on Marsh Creek ninety years ago. Her husband died twenty-six years ago but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. Lydia Irvin, of Wingate; Mrs. Rebecca DeGarmo, of Castanea, and Mrs. Daniel Rine, of Flemington. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Yarnell, of Tyrone. Burial was made in the Advent cemetery on Tuesday.

SHEARER.—I. H. Torrence Shearer, of Lock Haven, but who was well known throughout Centre county, died at his home in that place last Wednesday afternoon following a lingering illness with heart trouble. He was almost 69 years old and was a native of Nittany valley. He served one term as sheriff of Clinton county, having been elected in 1902. In 1923 he was elected an associate judge and had served a little over a year. He was a member of the Lutheran church, the Masonic fraternity and the Elks. Burial was made in the Highland cemetery on Saturday afternoon.

LOVE.—Sarah Love, five year old child of Win and Cordula Pacini Love, died at 12:30 o'clock on Wednesday night as the result of five day's illness with intestinal grip. In addition to the parents these brothers and sisters survive: David, Ann, Elizabeth and Jerome. Funeral services will be held in St. John's Catholic church at ten o'clock tomorrow morning, burial to be made in the Catholic cemetery.

The Bellefonte fire department was called out shortly after the noon hour, last Friday, when an awning over one of the kitchen windows at the Brockerhoff house caught fire and burned. The window frame was badly scarred but the flames were extinguished by employees at the hotel before the firemen reached the scene. Hardly had they gotten back to the fire houses when they were again called out by a fire on the roof of the Benner building, adjoining the Brockerhoff house. This fire was extinguished with chemicals and a small stream of water before it did any great amount of damage. It is the general supposition that the second fire was caused by a spark from the first.

Four weeks ago Bellefonte borough council passed a motion authorizing the Street committee and borough manager to fix up Spring street from Bishop to Linn, and suggested that the work be done before May first. That date is here and so far not one stroke of work has been done towards fixing the street.

The rain of Wednesday night and yesterday came as a godsend to those farmers who have to depend upon cisterns as their source of water supply, as many of them have been quite low for some time.

Ton Litter Contest Will Close May 15.

The time is drawing near when the entries for the ton litter contest will close. May 15th is the date all entries should be in the agricultural extension office. The object of this club is to produce a ton of pork from a litter of pigs in 180 days from time of farrowing.

Last year Peters Bros., of Stormstown, were successful in reaching the goal. There are a number of litters entered this year in Centre county and a large increase of enrollment over the State. Every member in the contest made money on their litter last year therefore the project is economically sound. The swine breed association of the State is offering gold medals for the man making 1,800 pounds. Enrollment blanks can be secured at the agricultural extension office. Any one who has a litter of eight pigs or over, either pure-bred or grade, should take advantage of this opportunity.

Michael Soos, a Hungarian, 26 years old, of Cambria county, was electrocuted at the Rockview penitentiary on Monday morning for the murder of his sixteen year old wife in July, 1923. The young couple had been married but three months when the husband shot his bride in a fit of jealous rage. He then attempted suicide but failed. Soos was brought to Rockview from "Ebensburg" by sheriff Logan M. Keller on Saturday morning. He was taken to the chair at seven o'clock on Monday morning and six minutes after the first contact was pronounced dead by Dr. C. J. Newcomb. His body was unclaimed and was buried in the penitentiary cemetery.

The board of inspectors of the western penitentiary are at Rockview today on a tour of inspection and it is stated on fairly reliable authority that their trip is for the purpose of deciding on the building program for this summer. As their meeting was not held until last night, after the "Watchman" went to press, it is impossible to state the decision reached, but indications are that considerable work will be done there within the year. The inspectors motored in from Pittsburgh.

Centre county stockholders of the bankrupt R. L. Dollings Co., which did a flourishing business in this section two years ago, will be interested in learning that they will probably receive twenty cents on the dollar of their investment.

A boom in the silk business at the present time is the cause of unusual activity at the Bellefonte silk throwing plant of the Eagle company. The mill is running on full time, night and day, with its entire force of operatives at work.

The household goods of James Y. Seig were moved from Bellefonte to Erie, early in the week in a big moving van. Mr. Seig came to Bellefonte to superintend the packing.

Dauphin County Court Rules Against Submission Bonus Amendment.

President Judge Hargest, of the Dauphin county court, on Saturday ruled that the proposed amendment to the State Constitution to provide for a soldiers' bonus cannot be submitted to the voters until 1928. The ruling was based on the decision of the State Supreme court that the Constitution can not be amended oftener than once in five years. The Constitution was amended last in 1923. Judge Hargest's decision was given in the mandamus action brought by Ray E. Taylor, commander of Harrisburg Post No. 27, American Legion, against Secretary King, to decide whether the bonus amendment could be voted on next November. Taylor will appeal to the State Supreme court.

While the opinion of Judge Hargest is devoted to the bonus question only, it has a more far-reaching effect than merely postponing the vote on the bonus bond issue.

The 1925 Legislature passed for the second time the resolutions providing $25,000,000 for forestation; $8,000,000 for buildings at State College, and $5,000,000 for new armories for the National Guard.

These appropriations are to be submitted to the people, but Saturday's decision, unless reversed by higher courts, means that no amendment to the Constitution can be voted upon prior to 1928.

Two Specials.

Here are two specials you may be interested in because they will save you money. We have a big car of high grade 18 inch heavy red cedar shingles that will arrive soon. If you are going to repair your roof, or put on a new roof, it will pay you well to get in touch with us right away—write now and give us your telephone number or name and correct address, so that we can let you know when this car arrives. Arrange to buy your shingles right off the car, for cash if convenient, and we can save you a nice lot of money. We also have a car of splendid German siding, in that good fir, coming in within a few days. If you arrange to get this right off the car, you will save money again. Being thrifty doesn't mean being tight—it's getting the most of the best for the money. Any time you need lumber, sash, doors, roofing, mill work—whether it's a big order or just a little, we can save you money because we want your business and, you know, that means we will go the limit to treat you right.

Lock Haven to Have a Circus.

John Robinson's circus, the earth's oldest "white top," will be in Lock Haven for afternoon and night performances on Tuesday, May 19th, and circus lovers of this vicinity are looking forward with great interest to the appearance of this famous old circus.

For the 1925 tour, the 102nd in the history of the organization, John Robinson has arranged a program that is bubbling over with features and extraordinary numbers. From the Far East, Europe, South America and from practically every country and clime, performers and animals have been imported, and now as always John Robinson will give the best circus performance that money and brains can assemble.

Such noted trainers of the steel arena as Capt. Ricardo, Nellie Roth, Theo Schreder, Lorraine Wallace, Wink Weaver, Margaret Thompson, Bob Thornton, Dewey Butler, and others will send their charges through remarkable routines. One of the extraordinary features will be the appearance of "Kitty," the only wrestling tiger in the universe, which will combat in a regular bout with Miss Wallace.

The regular circus features and acts will also have prominent positions on the lengthy program. From China will come the Sing-Sing Jung Dsai troupe, from Mexico, the famous Morales family, from Austria, the Rudy Rudyoff family of Equestrians; from the Argentine, Senorita Peidada, the demure and petite "wire-artist," and all other countries will have representation in the dressing tents of John Robinson.

To the Voters of Centre County.

I am taking this method to inform all interested voters of my candidacy for the office of Judge of our Courts at the coming—September 15th, 1925—primaries upon the Democratic ticket. This announcement is made at this time and in this manner so that our friends will not be misled by false purposes and objects already being used to cause a division such as occurred ten years ago.

For your kindly consideration, influence and vote I respectfully submit the following principles that shall govern my conduct in office, if it be your pleasure that I should serve you in said office for one term: All attorneys and litigants shall be given an impartial, just and equal hearing, free from prejudice and malice, and all questions of creed, race or political preference shall be eliminated.

All laws, and the liquor laws in particular, shall be impartially and conscientiously enforced for the better protection of our patriotic and law abiding citizens.

Respectfully submitted,
J. KENNEDY JOHNSTON.

Swimming a Big Feature of the C. M. T. C.

The dust will not linger long on young men who attend the Citizen's Military Training Camps of the Third corps area this summer. All camps have been provided with adequate swimming facilities, and the long afternoon periods allotted to athletic recreation will be a great aid in developing high class swimmers among the students.

Fort Monroe, Va., and Fort Eustis, Va., have unrivaled bathing beaches and bathing facilities. Equipment is being overhauled and increased at these posts to provide the maximum bathing and swimming in the salt water of Chesapeake bay and the many available bathing beaches nearby. All swimming will be closely supervised by experts, and the best of instruction will be available.

Further information may be obtained from John B. Payne, or Capt. Russell T. George, Bellefonte, Pa.
