

GRIFFIN.—Joseph C. Griffin, for the past thirty-five years a well known business man of Tyrone, died at the Clearfield hospital on Friday evening as the result of uremic poisoning, following an illness of two years.

He was a son of J. Hile and Elmira Campbell Griffin and was born at Stormstown, Centre county, on July 23rd, 1870. His boyhood life was spent in that place but when twenty years old he went to Tyrone and accepted a clerkship in a clothing store. In due course of time he embarked in business for himself and later was joined by one of his brothers and for a number of years past the clothing establishment of Griffin Bros., has been among the leading business houses of Tyrone. He was a member of the First Lutheran church, of Tyrone, the Allegheny Gateway lodge I. O. O. F., Tyrone Encampment Royal Arcanum, a director in the Blair County bank and the Tyrone Chamber of Commerce.

In 1895 he married Miss Ida Albright who survives with the following sons and daughters: Paul F., Ruth, Florence, Joseph H., Margaret, Morgan C. and Eleanor H., all at home. He also leaves three brothers and sisters: Miss Maude, of Tyrone; Mrs. H. M. Way, of Lewistown; John B., W. Clair and E. Roy, of Tyrone, and Herman P., of Stormstown.

Funeral services were held at his late home at 2:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon by Rev. E. M. Morgan, after which burial was made in the Grandview cemetery, Tyrone.

VALENTINE.—Miss Emily Uffington Valentine died very suddenly, at three o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Newcomer, on east Curtin street, as the result of a heart attack. She came to Bellefonte from Baltimore on Monday of last week and spent the intervening time in getting her house in condition to open for the summer. She had everything in order and expected to go in it on Wednesday morning but the death angel intervened.

She was the eldest daughter of George and Mary Natt Valentine and was born in the house on High street, Bellefonte, long occupied by the family of the late Judge Adam Hoy. She was educated in private schools in Bellefonte and at Miss Hall's school in Baltimore, after which she studied art abroad under Mr. Snell and later in this country under Charles H. Woodbury. All her girlhood life was spent here but in later years she spent her summers here and her winters in Baltimore, with the exception of the time she spent traveling in Europe. She was a grand-niece of the late Rev. George Natt, first rector of St. John's Episcopal church in Bellefonte, and her only immediate survivor is her sister, Mrs. Julia Valentine Bond, of Baltimore.

Funeral services were held in her own home, on Curtin street, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. Edward Frear, of State College, and burial was made in the Friends burying ground.

SCHAEFFER.—Samuel Harvey Schaeffer, a well known resident of Walker township, died at the Centre County hospital on Monday night as the result of a complication of ailments. He had not been in good health for some time and on Monday was brought to the hospital for treatment but passed away the same night.

He was a son of Jacob and Hannah Schaeffer and was born near Zion sixty-eight years ago. He followed farming all his life until his retirement a number of years ago, when he moved into a comfortable home in Zion. He is survived by his wife and three children, Charles, of Bellefonte; Joel, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Paul Vonada, of Zion. He also leaves one sister, Miss Emma J. Schaeffer, of Pleasant Gap.

Funeral services were held at his late home in Zion yesterday morning, burial being made in the Zion cemetery.

GATES.—Mrs. Harriet Gates, widow of the late Blair Gates, died at her home at Gatesburg as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained last Friday. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barr and was born at Gatesburg 65 years ago, being the last of her generation. In 1886 she married Blair Gates and all her life was spent in Gatesburg. She was a member of the Lutheran church all her life and a good, christian woman. Surviving her are four children, William Gates, of State College; Robert, Miss Ella and Mrs. Ruth DeArmit, of Gatesburg.

Rev. J. S. English had charge of the funeral services which were held on Wednesday morning, burial being made in the Gatesburg Lutheran cemetery.

ADAMS.—William Adams, of Phillipsburg, died in the hospital at that place on Saturday, following an illness of several months. He was a son of William and Esther Adams and was born at Hannah Furnace almost eighty years ago. He was a veteran of the Civil war, having served in Company H, 22nd Pennsylvania cavalry. He married Miss Hannah Marks, who survives with three sons and two daughters. He also leaves two brothers and one sister. Burial was made on Monday afternoon in the Phillipsburg cemetery.

BURKET.—Samuel Burket, a retired lumberman, died at his home at Graysville last Friday, following an illness of some weeks with a complication of diseases. He was seventy-two years old and a native of Blair county. Surviving him are his second wife and six children. The remains were taken to Tipton where burial was made in the Charlottesville cemetery on Monday.

STINE.—Mrs. Susan Stine, for many years a resident of Port Matilda, died on Wednesday night of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Hoffman, in Phillipsburg, as the result of a stroke of paralysis.

Her maiden name was Susan Halderman and she was born at Marengo on August 12th, 1835, hence was almost ninety years old. She was twice married, her first husband having been Samuel Turner, of Port Matilda. Two daughters were the result of this union, Mrs. J. B. Hoffman, of Phillipsburg, and Mrs. A. S. Williams, deceased. Following the death of Mr. Turner she married Samuel Stine, of Buffalo Run. He died twenty-five years ago and shortly thereafter Mrs. Stine moved to Port Matilda where she lived until three years ago when she went to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hoffman, in Phillipsburg. In addition to her daughter she is survived by the following step-children: Harrison, Daniel and William Stine, of Phillipsburg; Lafayette Stine, of Woodland, and Mrs. Elizabeth Lytle, of Port Matilda.

She was a member of the Methodist church all her life. Funeral services were held in the Black Oak church, north of Port Matilda, on Saturday afternoon, by Rev. S. B. Evans, of Phillipsburg, assisted by Rev. Stewart H. Engler, of Port Matilda, burial being made in the Black Oak cemetery.

With the Sick.

Mrs. G. F. Reiter, of the Academy, who was taken to the Geisinger hospital at Danville, Monday, critically ill, continues in a serious condition. Mrs. Reiter had been home but a short time from the Centre County hospital, where a son had been born to her and Mr. Reiter on the 6th of May, then became so suddenly ill that it was necessary to put her under the care of specialists.

Mrs. Satterfield has been slightly stronger for the past several days, slowly recovering, it is thought, from her recent illness, at the home of her niece, Mrs. T. C. Brown.

Mrs. John Long is in an extremely critical condition at her home on east Howard street, the result of a stroke of paralysis suffered by her, Sunday.

Word from Mrs. W. J. Emerick, at the Clearfield hospital is to the effect that Mr. Emerick's condition is improved and it is now thought that he will recover from the illness, which for several weeks has been considered so very serious.

If you have not tried the Centre county potato chips, do so at once. You then will never be satisfied with others. They can be had at all grocery stores and directly from the kitchen on south Pine street—323 W. Bell phone.

Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, MAY 30:
OWEN MOORE in "CODE OF THE WEST," a seven reel western melodrama with fast action, suspense and thrills; also comedy, making an interesting picture from the story by Zane Gray. Also, 2 reel Century Comedy.

MONDAY, JUNE 1:
LOIS WILSON in "WELCOME HOME," a James Cruze production, with Warner Baxter and Luke Cosgrove, from the play by Edna Ferber. A pleasing home drama with human interest and comedy. Also, Fathe News and Pathe Review.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, JUNE 2 AND 3:
GLORIA SWANSON in "MADAME SAN GENE," is the best one of this star of growing popularity. Superbly acted and gowned she gives a wonderful rendition of this woman of the time of Napoleon from that popular French novel of the same name. Also, 2 reel Comedy.

THURSDAY, JUNE 4:
MADGE BELLAMY in "ON THE STROKE OF THREE," a good romantic drama with interest all through. The hero falls in love with heroine, a millionaire's daughter, who conceals her identity. He wins fortune on a patent. Also, Fathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, JUNE 5:
JACK HOBIE in "RIDING THUNDER," a man shot a coyote which placed him in shadow of the gallows. A romance. Some wild riding with the customary wild west stuff. Also, 9th episode of "IDAHO."

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.

A TRIBUTE

How our hero list has lengthened since that first Memorial Day on which were honored the brave men who struggled to make and preserve us a nation! We have hosts of brave soldiers to pay tribute to now. With real pride we bare our heads, silently promising to preserve the ideals for which they fought—"that they shall not have died in vain."
