

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Attend the curb market meeting tonight. 2764 dog licenses were issued in Centre county during the first three months of this year. John G. Love Esq., of this place, will deliver the Memorial day address at Pine Grove Mills, tomorrow evening. Kishacoquillas park, Lewistown, Pa., will open for the season on Wednesday, June 3, with Wrights' colored saxophone orchestra. Notice to all truckers and farmers. It will be to your advantage to attend the curb market organization tonight at the court house. Centre Hall Camp, No. 889, will hold Memorial services in the Lutheran church at Centre Hall on Sunday, June 7th, at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Edward F. Richard on Monday received a new Cadillac car, the machine having been driven here from Philadelphia by the selling agent. Bellefonte residents are urged to remember that all the stores in Bellefonte will be closed tomorrow all day, so that it will be necessary to lay in a supply sufficient to last over Sunday. Governor Pinchot, last Thursday, appointed William B. Rodgers, of Pittsburgh, a member of the board of trustees of the western penitentiary to take the place of Leo B. G. Griffiths, resigned. Ex-Judge Albert W. Johnson, of Lewisburg, was last week appointed federal district judge to succeed the late Judge Charles B. Witmer. He will be sworn into office at Williamsport on Monday. On Saturday morning Benjamin Kauffman, of Zion, ran into another car at the intersection of Spring and High streets, Bellefonte. Fortunately he was not running fast and neither car was badly damaged. No party lunch is now complete without the crisp, delicate potato chips, made at the Centre county potato chip kitchen on Pine street, Bellefonte. Be sure when you get them from your grocer to ask for those with the Centre county stamp on its paper bag. Fourteen babies of tender age were taken to a well baby clinic held in the Presbyterian church at Centre Hall, on Monday afternoon. The clinic was in charge of Dr. Morrow and Miss Campbell, State health department nurse, while those who assisted were the Red Cross nurse from State College, Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Greenhoe and Miss Grace Smith. The Bucknell Reserves will play the Bellefonte Academy team on Hughes field at three o'clock this (Friday) afternoon. Thursday of last week the Academy defeated the Bellefonte team 3 to 1, and on Saturday scored 14 runs to 0 in six innings against the Potomac school team, of Keyser, W. Va., when the game was called on account of rain. The judgeship campaign is the leading political topic in Centre county, just as the scenic is the principal motion picture theatre in Bellefonte. The latter has stood the test of years. Others have come and gone but the scenic's reputation is so well established that its many patrons never question the character of its programs. They know that only the best pictures obtainable are shown there and that they can always depend on seeing something worthwhile. The Bellefonte High school relay team won their race in the Lewistown field meet last Saturday, covering the distance of slightly more than a mile in 3.46. The runners will go to Clearfield tomorrow and if they are successful in winning the race they will have won every contest entered this season. Only six men were sent over to the Lewistown meet but with this limited field of athletes Bellefonte stood third in the final results with 30 1/2 points. Seven schools were represented in the meet. State College had another fire, at noon on Tuesday, when the home of John Musser, on College avenue, was partially destroyed. The roof and a portion of the rear of the house were burned before the flames were extinguished. The house was of frame construction and one of the oldest in State College. Mr. Musser is a motor mechanic and one room on the first floor of his house was occupied as a sales room for motor accessories. The damage is partially covered by insurance. The building was erected in the late eighties by the late John Carrigan who conducted "The Union" hotel there. The home of Elias Breen, at Axe Mann, caught fire on the roof, at nine o'clock yesterday morning, and the first intimation Mrs. Breen had of the danger to her home was when a passing boy ran in and told her her house was on fire. Fortunately a Bell telephone construction gang was at work nearby, and led by Benton D. Tate, an old and experienced fireman, they quickly hoisted a ladder to the roof, formed a bucket brigade and proceeded to work. They emptied the Breen cistern and that of a neighbor before the flames were extinguished. Bellefonte firemen were summoned but the fire was out when they got there.

SCHOOL DAYS ALMOST OVER.

Bellefonte High School Commencement Will be Held Next Week.

The annual commencement of the Bellefonte High school will be held next week, the exercises to begin in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening when the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class will be preached by Rev. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt. Music will be furnished by a male choir. The junior declamatory contest for the W. F. Reynolds prizes will be held on Monday evening at the High school auditorium. The High school orchestra will furnish the music and the ten contestants will be Betty Ray, Edward Kern, Grace Carson, Donald Mallory, Marguerite Holt, David Geiss, Ruth Miller, Melvin Williams, Marie Chandler and Fred Fisher. The judges will be Prof. Irving L. Foster, county superintendent David O. Etters and Miss Isabella S. Hill, of the Bellefonte Academy. On Tuesday morning the pupils of both schools will combine in staging an out of doors pageant on the High school grounds, which will be a festival of historical representations, of music and athletic exercises. In case the weather is not auspicious for an outdoor gathering on Tuesday morning the pageant will be held on Wednesday morning. Aside from the commencement exercises proper one of the most attractive features of the week will be the presentation of the play "Once in a Blue Moon," in the High school auditorium on Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock, by members of the graduating class. The play is laid in Monterey, Cal., and consists of a prologue and two acts. The cast of characters will include Marie Chandler, Betty Zerby, Marian Kane, Eunice Crain, Donald Kaler, Mary Callahan, Mary Shoemaker, James McCullough, John Emel, Gray Furey, Cameron Heverly, Mary Elizabeth Sloop, John Shoemaker, Fred Fisher and Merrill Waite. On Wednesday morning the High school building will be open to an inspection of the exhibits in manual arts, household economics and grade sewing. While these exhibits are large and varied they are probably not as elaborate as they might have been had it not been for the fact that considerable time was devoted to fashioning the various costumes to be used in the play on Tuesday evening. The commencement exercises proper will be held in the auditorium on Wednesday evening. The commencement address will be delivered by Mr. Jonas E. Wagner, a former superintendent of the Bellefonte schools and now director of the bureau of administration in the State Department of Education, at Harrisburg. The conferring of degrees and awarding of prizes will be made by Dr. M. J. Locke, president of the Bellefonte school board. The graduating class this year numbers forty-five young men and women, as follows:

Ralph Melvin Alexander, Margaret Bathurst, Martha Jane Beck, Ruth Cecilia Bent, Edith Katherine Brown, Grace Belle Cohen, Eunice Erma Crain, Josephine Wanda Crain, Rose Rita Carpeneto, John Curtis Jr., Eric Sookoma Decker, Elmer Benjamin Decker, Charles Edwin Dorworth Jr., Mary Kathryn Eckenroth, John Andrew Emel, Anna Patricia Ghererty, William Pearl Hall, William Ellis Harvey, William Thomas Heinle, Allison Harris Hollobaugh, Thomas Elwood Iddings, Dane William Johnston, Donald Eugene Kaler, Marlan Elizabeth Kane, Bernice Nadine Lose, Kathryn Louise Love, Basil Ferguson Martin, Frances Willard McKelvey, Gale Bodes Mitchell, Ruth Elizabeth Myers, Mary Elizabeth Raymond, Bernice Alice Rine, Estella Ruth Roberts, Paul Robert Schenck, Mary Elizabeth Sloop, Mary Teresa Shoemaker, Henry Bartow Stere, Charles Theodore Stine, James Shope, John Gilbert Shope, Clyde VanValla Smith, Margaret Anne Taylor, Harry Shively Tice, Thelma Beatrice Williams, Elizabeth Anne Zerby.

Four Young People Injured in Auto Accident.

Four young people were seriously injured in an auto accident, last Friday night, while returning from a dance at Hecla Park. The list includes Paul Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Weaver, driver of the car, but not on leg, lacerations and bruises. Roy Shaffer, right leg broken, lacerations and bruises. Mitzi Bodenshoff, right leg broken, lacerations and bruises. Mary Neff, severe bruises and minor lacerations. The four young people left the park at eleven o'clock to return to Bellefonte and just as they made the turn from the park road onto the state highway ran into a telephone pole. The car was badly smashed and every one of the occupants was thrown out and piled up promiscuously. Other cars following close upon the Weaver car were stopped and the occupants promptly went to the assistance of the injured young people. They were quickly placed in other cars, made as comfortable as possible, and brought to the Centre County hospital where physicians reduced the fractures of the broken limbs and rendered medical attention to those otherwise injured.

The U. S. weather bureau

threw a scare into the public generally, on Monday, by announcing a "hard to killing" frost for Tuesday morning. Bellefonte gardeners tramped in the muddy soil and covered many early vegetables but their work was unnecessary, as it was seven degrees warmer Tuesday morning than it was Monday morning, and was a safe distance from the danger line.

Honoring the Heroic Dead.

Large delegations of the American Legion, the Legion Auxiliary and P. O. S. of A., with G. A. R. veterans, attended divine services in the Bellefonte Methodist church, on Sunday, to hear the annual Memorial sermon preached by the pastor, Rev. Homer C. Knox.

On Sunday afternoon a detail from the Brooks-Doll post, accompanied by a firing squad from Troop B, in charge of Ralph Smith, about forty in number, visited the Meyers and Shiloh cemeteries. The speakers at both places were J. Kennedy Johnston and S. D. Gettig Esqs. Plans have been completed for the annual Memorial services to be held in Bellefonte tomorrow. The Brooks-Doll Post will be in charge and will be assisted by the American Legion auxiliary, Troop B, P. O. S. of A. and the fire companies. The parade will form on the Diamond at one o'clock and will move promptly at 1:30. The Odd Fellows band will lead the march to the Union cemetery where the usual ritual of exercises will be held. Motors will be furnished to convey the G. A. R. veterans to the cemetery. Rev. Homer C. Knox, pastor of the Methodist church, will deliver the Memorial address, and after the services the aged veterans will be the guests of the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks, in accordance with a custom established some years ago.

HOW SLEEP THE BRAVE.

How sleep the brave who sink to rest By all their country's wishes blest! When spring with dewy fingers cold Returns to deck their hallowed mold, Then there shall dress a sweeter sod Than fancy's feet have ever trod. By fairy hands their knell is rung; By unseen forms their dirge is sung; There Honor comes, a pilgrim gray, To bless the turf that wraps their clay; And Freedom shall awhile repair To dwell, a weeping hermit, there. —By William Collins (1721-1752).

Kiwanis Entertain G. A. R. Veterans.

The Kiwanis club, on Tuesday, entertained nine veterans of the Civil war in honor of their services to our country and as a small part of the memorial observations of the current week. The special table for the old veterans was occupied by the following: William Colpetzer, Henry Taylor, James Reed, Daniel Eberhart, William Fleck, Joseph Alters, Harvey Griffith, Rev. Emehizer and Samuel Guisewhite. To pay tribute to their services and to bring a message of inspiring patriotism Kiwanis secured Dr. James Yeager, of Lewistown, as speaker. The sustained and ringing applause testified that Dr. Yeager had stirred his audience as no recent speaker on any subject has done. Drawing from a fund of thought and knowledge gathered from a life of usefulness and travel the speaker brought a vivid appeal to the patriotic instincts of all citizens who heard him. The boys of '61 were visibly affected by his references to the strife which saved the Union, and their entertainers were made far more appreciative of their heroism. Aside from the stirring address of Dr. Yeager several minor reports were heard and a motion heartily adopted to remember with a floral message Kiwanian "Bill" Emerick, now convalescing in the Clearfield hospital.

The St. Columba's Choir to Sing Here Again.

The choir of St. Columba's church of Johnstown, that so delighted the large audience it sang to here last year, will return to Bellefonte for a sacred concert in St. John's Catholic church on Sunday evening, June 7th. This organization is regarded as the best singing group of mixed voices in this diocese of the Catholic church. In fact some maintain it is the best choir of the church in this country. For years it has been trained and developed by Dr. Peter McAneny, who acquired his musical culture in Italy where he studied under the masters who train grand opera singers principally. All of the program will be sacred and as it is to be given Sunday night there will be no charge, though admission will be by ticket and an offering of one dollar per person will be hoped for.

The Kelleys Acquire Valuable Gas Coal Property.

While in town on Wednesday M. D. Kelley, formerly of Snow Shoe, and now residing in Altoona, informed the "Watchman" that his company, the Central Coal and Coke Co., has purchased the property of the Loey Coal Co., located on the Monongahela Div. of the P. R. R. The coal underlying it is a very high grade gas coal and as there is a constant demand for that grade it will be opened and put on the market at once. Among the revocations of auto drivers licenses announced by the State Highway Department, on Monday, are those of Charles A. Isenberg, of Boalsburg; R. J. Bower, of Tyrone; John R. Dunkle, of Altoona, and LeRoy Fox, of Lock Haven. The latter is under indictment in the Centre county court on the charge of manslaughter because a passenger he was carrying at the time he had an accident was killed on the Nittany valley state highway, between Lamar and Nittany. His case was to have come up last week but was continued because his attorney was detained in Clinton county court.

Terrific Rain and Thunder Storms Saturday Night. Snow Sunday Night.

Torrid weather, the hottest of the year, prevailed last Saturday and it brought results in a series of terrific rain and thunder storms Saturday evening and night, which was followed by colder weather on Sunday and a snow fall Sunday night. The first storm of any consequence was on Saturday afternoon about four o'clock, but it passed down Bald Eagle valley and did not reach Bellefonte. It was accompanied by hail in large quantity and of unusual size. In fact the hail stones were so large that two month's old chickens caught out in the open in the vicinity of Runville were beaten to death. The men who are erecting the airmail searchlight tower on Parson's mountain, this side of Snow Shoe, were driven to cover by the falling hailstones. Out at Snow Shoe the ground was covered with hail. Beginning at seven o'clock Saturday evening there was a succession of storms way into the night. About eight o'clock lightning struck the Curry home, on Logan street, knocking a small hole in the roof, scattering soot from the kitchen stove and setting fire to some clothing in the attic. The fire companies were called out and the flames quickly extinguished. A hole was knocked in a sewer on Bishop street, which was also credited to a bolt of lightning. The Keystone Power corporation and the telephone companies had troubles galore. Twice the lights went out in Bellefonte but the trouble was quickly found and remedied, but it was not so easy to reach outlying districts and the repair gang was kept busy until Monday. The telephone companies did not get their troubles all cleared up until early this week. Following the rain storms about two inches of snow fell on Sunday night, though it all disappeared early Monday morning.

Long Drawn Out Case in Court This Week.

A long drawn out case in court during the week was that of J. H. Rucker, receiver of the Bird Coal and Iron Co., vs. David Chambers, an action to recover alleged unpaid royalties for coal mined on the plaintiff's property in Snow Shoe township. The plaintiff was represented by S. D. Gettig Esq., of Bellefonte, and Fred Shaffer Esq., of Sunbury, while the defendant's attorneys were Ellis L. Orvis and James C. Furst Esqs., of Bellefonte, and A. M. Liveright Esq., of Clearfield. The case was replete with figures and legal technicalities. Mr. Chambers, it appeared from the evidence, leased the coal lands from B. W. Sleppy, son of the president of the Bird Coal and Iron Co., in 1913, for a minimum royalty payment of three hundred tons a month. He operated the mine until early in 1920 when the company became a party to an equity proceeding in the Centre county court which resulted in the appointment of J. H. Rucker as receiver. At that time defendant claims to have made a settlement with B. W. Sleppy for all moneys due him on the lease, and the present case is the result of a claim by the receiver that the money paid at that time was not in full for all coal mined and who brought action to recover a sum not to exceed $9,400. The case went on trial last Thursday afternoon and was not completed until yesterday. Up to the time the "Watchman" went to press yesterday afternoon the jury had not returned a verdict and there was no indication as to how soon it might do so. When the Watchman went to press last week the case on trial was that of the Commonwealth vs. Selah A. Amed, accused of attempted rape and assault and battery. Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Heaton, of Blanchard, was the prosecutor. It took the jury almost seven hours to reach a decision but they finally returned a verdict of not guilty, placing one-fourth of the costs on the prosecutor and three-fourths on the defendant.

Walter L. Main Show to Visit Bellefonte on June 20th.

Hurrah for the kiddies! Mr. L. C. Gillette, advance agent for the Walter L. Main show, was in Bellefonte on Monday and made arrangements for the appearance of the show in Bellefonte on Saturday, June 20th, and there will also be a big free street parade. For almost half a century the Walter L. Main show has been on the road, and it has been a fairly regular visitor in Bellefonte. Thirty years ago it was badly shot to pieces in a big railroad wreck coming down the mountain to Vail station, but it has been recuperating from year to year until now it is one of the best and cleanest shows in the country. It has equipment and paraphernalia valued at upward of three quarters of a million dollars, and over five hundred men, women and horses are carried. Among the features are the Flying Jordans, the Peerless Potters, gymnasts; the Nanking troupe of Chinese equilibrist; the Maxwell Trio, acrobats; Arthur Borella, the highest salaried clown in America; the Florence family of riders; the DeLong Sisters, acrobats and nearly 100 other stars and features of Continental Europe and Great America. The first bill car will be in Bellefonte Saturday of next week, when the flaming posters advertising the circus will be put up.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

Miss Lois Foreman returned home yesterday morning from Columbia University, New York.

Mrs. Charles Heisler is here from Beaver Falls, spending two weeks with her many friends in Bellefonte.

M. F. Broderick has been in Pittsburgh this week, having gone out on a business trip relative to his work at Rockview.

Philip D. Waddle came here from Sunbury, last week, on account of ill health, and is now a patient in the Centre County hospital, under treatment for rheumatism.

E. L. Hollobaugh motored to Harrisburg on Tuesday to attend the annual convocation of the Knights Templars, going from there to Baltimore and Washington on a sight-seeing trip.

Mrs. Myron N. Cobb and her small son went to Harrisburg yesterday morning to join Mr. Cobb for a visit to their former home at Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Cobb had been east on a business trip.

George G. Geiss, with the P. R. R. Co., at their offices in the Broad Street station, Philadelphia, will be home tomorrow for one of his occasional short visits with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson E. Robb were at Atlantic City last week, where Mr. Robb attended the National Bankers association in session there during the week. Mrs. Robb remained east for a visit in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Richard Brouse, local regent of the Catholic Daughters of America, and Mrs. Odille Mett, district organizer, represented the Bellefonte chapter at the State conference held in Oil City the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Martin Haines and her daughter, Mrs. Lindemuth, of Brooklyna, came to Bellefonte this week and have been guests of Mrs. Haines' sister, Mrs. Ingram, on Lamb street. Mrs. Lindemuth has been visiting for several weeks with Mrs. Haines and Mrs. Black, in Clearfield.

Mrs. H. K. Hoy, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. Clayton Royer, during the winter, is now with her son Sidney H. Hoy and his family on south Thomas street, and upon leaving there the middle of June will go to Boalsburg to spend the summer with the Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. Valentine and their son Richard, will motor here from Lancaster for a Memorial day visit with the child's grandmother, Mrs. Harry C. Valentine, at the Mary Valentine home on Curtin street. Expecting to be in Bellefonte only for several days, they will make the return trip Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Murray Andrews are occupying their home on Allegheny street, having returned from Philadelphia during the week. Mrs. Andrews went east several months ago and since then has been a hospital patient under the care of specialists. Mr. Andrews went down to accompany her home.

Miss Kate Gummo, who has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Dunlap, at Pine Grove Mills, since her return to this country, is now on a Memorial day visit at her girlhood home up Buffalo Run. During the time she spends there Miss Gummo will be a guest of Miss Elizabeth Green, at her home at Brarily.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Winn Davis and Mrs. Davis' brother, Donald Gettig, will drive in from Washington, Pa., to spend Memorial day and the week-end at the L. H. Gettig home. Donald has been located in Washington for a month, with Mr. Davis, at the Tylerville mines, and makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. J. K. Barnhart left yesterday for Seward, Pa., from where she and her sister, Miss Cora Campbell, will be guests of their brother, Dr. Campbell, on a drive to their former home at Punxsutawney. While there for Memorial day and the week-end, they all will be guests of another sister, Mrs. Loeb.

H. M. Fleck, a brother of Mrs. James Schofield, with Mrs. Fleck and their son Hurley Fleck and his wife, of Altoona, drove down from Warriorsmark to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Schofield. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fleck only recently bought their new home at Warriorsmark, and moved there from their former home in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cowdric, Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Carlin, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cowdric, Mrs. Hamilton Otto, Pearl Royer and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Royer and their younger son, will all motor down from Niagara Falls to-day to be here for Memorial day. Miss Grace Royer, a nurse in training in Philadelphia, will come to Bellefonte to spend to-morrow and Sunday.

Mrs. Emily Owens, of Baltimore, came to Bellefonte Wednesday to be with Mrs. Julia Valentine Bond indefinitely. Mrs. Bond and Mrs. Owens are at the home of the late Miss Emily Valentine, on account of whose death Mrs. Owens came to Bellefonte. Mrs. Bond has been in Bellefonte since Tuesday, having arrived here two hours after her sister's death. Her plans on coming had been to spend the summer here with Miss Valentine.

The Misses Mary Royer and Marie Hoy are expected in Bellefonte Sunday, following a six month's visit on the Pacific coast. Having left for the east Saturday, they will arrive in Pittsburgh to-day, remain there with their aunt, Mrs. Grant Pifer, of Wilkensburg, until Sunday then come on to be met at Tyrone by Miss Royer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Royer, who will drive over to motor home with them on the last lap of their journey.

Messrs. Charles Stover and his nephews, D. K. Fye, two of Millheim's representative citizens, were in town Friday morning, having come up to attend to some business in which the latter, the leading restaurateur of Millheim, was interested. Mr. Stover lives on Penn street and residents along that thoroughfare are very much in the same boat as those of Spring street, Bellefonte. All are troubled with dust and troubled more with the difficulty of getting oil on to keep it down.

Mervin Arney, of Centre Hall, was in Bellefonte last Friday for a few hours. While Mr. Arney is a well known and very successful farmer we think he is the most perfect refutation of the proverb that "no house is large enough for two families." In his home there are three families and four generations and their life together is ideal. The venerable J. J. Arney, head of the family, is still living. Then comes Mervin, the son, and his daughter Pearl and son Bruce, who is married and has two children and all are happy to be together in the ancestral homestead. We doubt if there is another such a case in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Love are entertaining Mrs. Love's sister, Miss Ellen Witmer, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. M. C. Brees, of Downingtown, is expected here Monday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. George F. Harris, on Linn street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lowery and Mr. and Mrs. Cheney Lowery motored in from McKeesport a week ago to see Mr. Lowery's brother, Joseph Lowery, who has been ill at his home at Coleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Saul Auerbach arrived here yesterday morning from New York, for a week's visit at the Cohen home. Mrs. Auerbach came at this time that she might attend the High school commencement, having been a graduate of the Class of '24.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Garner, of State College, were in Bellefonte Wednesday afternoon looking after some business relative to the sale of their house on Gill street, which was purchased by Orrin Farrell, for $10,500. Mr. Farrell to get possession the first of June. Mr. and Mrs. Garner will go at once to Mrs. Garner's father, A. H. Krumrine's farm, where they will live while building their new home on College Heights, which they have planned to begin immediately.

Walter Sunday, of Pine Grove Mills, Shot in Mistake for Groundhog.

Shortly before five o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, Walter Sunday, thirteen year old son of Harry Sunday, and Ellery Grove, aged sixteen years, both of near Pine Grove Mills, went hunting for groundhogs on the James Mitchell farm. The lads separated and Grove hearing a noise in a clump of bushes near where he was standing fired pointblank, supposing the object in the bushes to be a groundhog. Instead it was his chum Walter, who received the entire load of shot in his face. The Sunday boy screamed and the Grove lad was horrified to find him lying unconscious on the ground. He quickly summoned help and the wounded boy was brought to the Centre County hospital where he died at six o'clock yesterday morning. One of the shot had pierced the boy's brain. His father, one brother and five half-brothers survive. No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral.

Moose to Remodel Temple Theatre.

At a regular meeting of the Bellefonte Lodge of Moose, on Wednesday evening, a committee was appointed to take charge of the work of remodeling the Temple theatre. Among the prospective improvements will be enlarging the building by extending the rear portion back to the alley; a new lobby will be made by utilizing the present rooms occupied by Herbert Auman, tax collector; a new entrance will be made to the balcony and the first floor will be equipped with new plush top seats. All posts will also be removed from the first floor. The cost of the improvements is estimated at $20,000.

Ex-Judge Burnett, of Pittsburgh, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday and approved of the work contemplated. Mr. Westcott, the Moose architect will come to Bellefonte in a few days and prepare plans for the improvements.

Socially.

Fifty invitations were issued by Mrs. John I. Olewine for the tea she gave at the Nittany Country club Saturday afternoon, this was the second of Mrs. Olewine's entertainments in May.

A miscellaneous surprise shower was given Thursday evening of last week, at Mrs. O. A. Kline's, on east Bishop street, for Miss Thelma Hazel, who will be a June bride, the party being originated by Mrs. Gideon Payne, Mrs. J. F. Smith Jr., Mrs. Frederick Daggett and Mrs. Woche, all close friends of Miss Hazel. The gifts given her by the thirty-one guests were in number and beauty enough to make happy any prospective bride.

Mrs. M. R. Johnson and her Sunday school class, "The King's Daughters," and Miss Bella Johnson and her class, "The Live Wires," were hostesses at a farewell surprise party given Frances and Rachel McKelvey and Laura Aplin, in the social room of the Methodist church, Monday evening, the two Sunday school classes and some specially invited guests, including forty-five of their church associates. A number of gifts were received by the girls and the evening was one of great pleasure to them on the eve of their leaving Bellefonte to make their home elsewhere.

The Delcamp-Reish Families to Reunite

The annual reunion of the Delcamp and Reish families is to be held on Saturday, June 6th, in the Woodward Narrows at what is commonly known as "Hairy" John's place. All friends and connections of the families, which cover many branches in Union and Centre counties are invited. It will be in the nature of a basket picnic. The largest branches in this wide connection are those springing from the Delcamps, Reishes, Irvins and Corls.

Get your Memorial day flowers from Mrs. George Miller, at the Miller hardware store. No larger selection of potted and cut flowers is to be had. 22-14

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Table with 2 columns: Grain type and Price per bushel. Includes Wheat, Corn, Rye, Oats, Barley, and Buckwheat.
