PLEASANT GAP.

Miss Bess Eckenroth is very seriously ill and growing weaker daily. Mrs. Anna Roush, of Altoona, is a visitor with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Rimmer.

Harry Grove and family, of Lewis town, were visitors at the home of Mrs. John Herman.

The cafeteria supper at the M. E. church, on Friday evening, was very liberally patronized.

Mrs. Jack Noll has just returned from an extended visit to her son Leslie and family, at Woodlawn, Beaver county.

Ralph Noll and wife spent a brief period in New York last week, and incidentally, stopped off in Philadelphia to see their numerous friends.

Miller Herman, of College township, was appointed to guard at Rockview penitentiary. Like his brother J. D., it goes without saying that he will make good.

The juniors of the M. E. church will hold one of their famous festivals in Noll's grove, Friday night, the 5th. Charming music and an abundance of eats the leading features.

The remodeling of the Evey Twitmyer residence has produced an artistic change in appearance; so much so that there is no more attractive home in Spring township. They surely transformed an inferior residence to a superior one.

John Herman, wife and son Jack, the latter of Philadelphia, visited Mrs. John Herman on Decoration day. John is a P. R. R. employe with offices at the Broad Street station. He says he likes his position very much but admits there is no place that appeals to him more than home.

Rev. and Mrs. Melroy, now stationed adjacent to Wilkes-Barre, were very agreeable visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Noll and their son Raymond and wife. Some years ago he was minister of our Methodist church here. He is a wise, sincere and trustworthy minister, and has won the affection of all who were fortunate enough to know him.

The Abner Noll residence has undergone a most desirable transformation. The new addition has added to its attractiveness. Great credit is due Mr. Noll, who was so ably assisted by his son-in-law, Raymond Melroy. The brown stone masonry, in mechanism, is unexcelled. Mr. Otto Hile was the contractor for the artistic stone-work. The work must be seen to be properly appreciated.

Our genial friend, William Bilger, late world war veteran, when he returned from France took a thorough course at Scranton as a pupil in the electric department and graduated with distinction. He has accepted a very responsible position at the new aviation field. Billy is bound to succeed, since he is pre-eminently practical, philosophical, shrewd and far-seeing, with an over-mastering command of ambition.

Our progressive M. E. minister, Rev. Rishel, was a very busy man on the occasion of our Memorial services. He offered up three prayers and pronounced the benediction twice. He is an eloquent seer. His wise and good utterances seldom need explanation or argument to vindicate their truth and beauty. His utterances are luminous, often shining brighter than the sidelights of evidence found in the logic of other men. He draws his inspirations from the scriptures, from nature, from history, and humanity.

The class night entertainment on Monday night at the Lutheran church, was pronounced by all as being a remarkable success, all participants rendering their parts in a most commendable manner. The commencement on Tuesday night was very largely attended, the church being packed. Twenty-two pupils graduated. The address was delivered by J. A. Foberg, of the Department of Public Instruction. It was a very able one and highly appreciated by all present. The diplomas were distributed by John B. Payne, of Bellefonte, who made some very appropriate remarks to the happy recipients.

Memorial day has come and gone for 1925 and it was most beautifully consecrated at Pleasant Gap. The P. O. S. of A. is deserving of great credit for their undivided efforts in aiding to make the fitting ceremony the greatest ever. The occasion is one that demands a different observance from other national holidays, because it is different in character and purpose. Twenty-seven graves were systematically decorated, among the number being two of the war of 1812, John G. Waltz and George Sweetwood. The graves in the Methodist cemetery, seven in number, were first decorated. The procession of patriotic sons, followed by the children, then marched to the Lutheran church to close the ceremonies. On reaching the latter church all were surprised to find fifty-eight members of the Ku Klux Klan in line, fully masked. The order aided materially in making the ceremonies a decided success. After the decorating was disposed of all went into the church to listen to the very able address of J. Kennedy Johnston Esq. Only fifteen of the masked fraternity went into the church, the balance returning to their homes in good order. The Methodist quartette did the singing; their selections were fine. The speaker, Mr. Johnston, was introduced by Reed Flory, of the Patriotic Sons. The old veterans are fast passing away; Pleasant Gap has only two survivors, John Griffith and Levi A. Miller. Statistics show the death per month to exceed 400. At that rate it will be but a few more years until the roll call will cease. The science and arts are marching onward but the soldiers' career is about ended.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Much corn is being replanted. E. M. Watt and family, of Pitcairn, were visitors here last week.

Dr. Archev, of Plymouth, Pa., is here on his annual fishing trip.

J. E. Houser is housed up as the result of running a nail in his left foot.

Samuel E. Goss, of Reading, spent the latter part of the week in town.

Our wool growers sold their spring clip on Tuesday for 42 cents a pound.

Aunt Mary Brungart, of Zion, is spending the summer among relatives in this section.

Robert Kustaborder and wife, of Warriorsmark, spent Sunday with friends in town.

At their festival at Pine Hall, on Saturday, the ladies of the Lutheran church cleared $265.00.

Miss Mary Leeds, of our town, won the $10 commercial prize at the State College High school.

A valuable Woodsman's pin was found by W. A. Collins, from whom the loser can recover same.

Mr. and Mrs. George Woods and son, George III, of Crafton, are visiting the Dr. G. H. Woods home.

Miss Rosella Pletcher, of Howard, spent the latter end of the week at the C. M. Dale home on the Branch.

Mrs. Margaret Meek, with her daughter and grand-daughter, of Altoona, are visiting relatives in the valley.

Clyde Price is representing Pennsylvania Lodge I. O. O. F., at the annual session of the Grand Lodge, at Erie, this week.

Albert Brown caught a trout near Pennsylvania Furnace, last Friday, which measured 28 inches and weighed 73 pounds.

Mrs. Edward Houser is convalescing nicely and expects to soon be discharged from the Clearfield hospital. Mrs. Isabel Musser is also recovering at the Centre County hospital.

Dr. Frank Bailey, of Milton; Dr. H. C. Meyers, of Steelton; J. Will Keller and wife, of Pittsburgh, and Wallace Johnson and wife, of Philadelphia, were all here for Memorial day.

Coroner Heaton made an investigation last Friday of the shooting of Walter Sunday by Clifford Alexander, of Unionville, and not Ellery Stover, as mentioned last week. The jury returned a verdict of accidental shooting.

The funeral of Walter Sunday was held from the Lutheran church on Saturday and was largely attended, many of his school-mates attending in a body. The floral offerings were very profuse. Rev. Norris was in charge and was assisted by Rev. Fisher.

Word has been received here of the death of John Thomas, at Medina, Ohio, at the age of 73 years. He is survived by a widow, who before her marriage was Maria Elder, of this place. Henry, Samuel and George Elder and Randall Rossman went to Medina for the funeral which was held on Sunday.

Memorial day was duly celebrated in this section of the county. Services were held at Pennsylvania Furnace at 9:30 a. m., where Rev. Fleming made a brief speech. Rev. Norris was the speaker at the Graysville cemetery at 10:30 a. m. Services at Pine Grove Mills were held at 2 o'clock. The parade included the Boal troop, Ferguson township band, G. A. R. and American Legion, I. O. O. F. and school children. Rev. E. M. Mackey, of Sate College, was the speaker, and made an eloquent talk. Services were held at Pine Hall at 5:30, where John G. Loye Esq., of Bellefonte, delivered the address.

George S. Cunningham is attending I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge, during this week, in Erie. Mr. Cunningham is representative of Millheim Lodge, of which he has long been a member.

Mrs. Mary Edwards and son Charles, of State College, were seen in town Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Edwards will be remembered by her friends as Miss Mary Musser, daughter of M. M. Musser.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stover and daughter Elizabeth, of Dauphin, spent Saturday night and part of Sunday with Mr. Stover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Stover, in town, and with relatives in and about Millheim.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stover had as guests during the week-end their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, of Lock Haven; their two nephews, Paul and Lester Beaver, and niece, Miss Edna Beaver, of Pottsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boob and Mrs. Henry Beaver, of Millmont.

Mrs. George McKay and daughter, Miss Florence, of Philadelphia, spent several days during the past week as guests of Mrs. McKay's mother, Mrs. W. H. Phillips, on Main street. They motored here, returning home Tuesday.

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.
