

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The O. E. S. will hold a food sale at the Variety shop Saturday, June 6th, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m.

A ten pound baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Forest Tanner, at their home on Spring street, on Monday morning.

The American Legion auxiliary will hold a card party in the Legion rooms Wednesday, June 10th, at 8:30. Admission 25 cents.

Fred J. Bezer, of Phillipsburg, and formerly of Bellefonte, has secured a position in Washington, D. C., and expects to move his family to that city soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Egin Thorolf Riisen have been receiving congratulations for the past two weeks on the birth of their first child, a daughter, Sarah Emily, who was born at the Centre County hospital May 26.

Among recent highway contracts awarded was one for 3502 feet near Lewistown to Colgan & Kelly, of State College. Their bid was $25,468.82. This piece of highway will connect with roads to Bellefonte and Middleburg.

The Centre county association of Philadelphia will hold its annual basket picnic at Belmont Mansion plateau, Fairmount park, on Saturday, June 20. Every Centre countian, whether resident of Philadelphia or not, is invited.

The friends of Mr. A. Y. Wagner, of this place, will be delighted to hear that his condition yesterday was reported somewhat improved. Mr. Wagner suffered a break down about a week ago and being one of the older men of the town, an octogenarian and more, his friends were rather concerned as to its possible effects.

Among the official appointments made at the annual convention of the Knight Templars, at Harrisburg last week, was that of M. Ward Fleming, of Phillipsburg, to the post of grand herald on the staff of Sir Thomas Shipley, of York, elected eminent grand commander. Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton, was elevated to the position of eminent grand generalissimo.

Now that school days are over the kiddies will have more time to attend movie shows, and the best place to go is the Scenic. Manager T. Clayton Brown is especially careful in the selection of his programs, and every picture shown there can be viewed by young and old alike. Warm weather need not keep any one away as the Scenic has the best of ventilation and cooling fans.

The Pennsylvania Bar association will hold its annual meeting at Bedford Springs June 23rd to 25th, inclusive. Hon. George E. Alter, of Pittsburgh, president of the association, will preside and make the opening address. A number of important questions will be submitted to the meeting for discussion. A number of Centre county attorneys make it a point to attend every meeting of the association.

A terrific rain storm swept over portions of Centre county on Tuesday afternoon, it being especially severe out in the vicinity of Axe Mann. During the progress of the storm lightning struck the cupola of a barn near the warden's residence at the Rock-view penitentiary and started a fire inside the building. The flames responded to a call for assistance and the flames were extinguished without doing much damage.

The first bill car for Main's circus will be in Bellefonte tomorrow and by evening every available space in Bellefonte and the surrounding country will be plastered with the glaring bills announcing the shows appearance in Bellefonte on Saturday, June 20th. It might be of interest to the public generally to know that the show this year will be given on the Witmer field, on east Bishop street, and not on the old fair grounds as in former years.

The Highway Department last week erected a sign at the mill of C. Y. Wagner & Co., instructing tourists to take the road up Buffalo Run valley for Tyrone and Phillipsburg. A number of Bellefonte hotel proprietors and business men are of the opinion that the sign will work injury to Bellefonte in a business way, as motorists are thus directed to go through the outskirts of the town and do not get into the business section. It is barely possible that a few motorists might do so, but the average car driver will naturally come into Bellefonte, even if he makes but a brief stop.

School life evidently becoming irksome to two Bellefonte Academy students, Frederick Williams, of Westfield, N. J., and John Hutchinson, of Altoona, they left the Academy two weeks ago and are now enroute to the Pacific coast on a motor-cycle. The boys left Bellefonte the night of the Academy minstrels, and took with them only light luggage so far as clothing was concerned. Before leaving they told some of their fellow students that they were going on a trip to the western coast, but the story was hardly credited and it was the general belief that the boys would return in a few days. During the week cards were received from them mailed at Chicago, so they are evidently on their way and still heading for the Golden Gate.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

A CLASS OF FORTY-FIVE.

Interesting Exercises Characterize the Forty-Second Annual Commencement.

Just forty-five young men and women graduated and were awarded their diplomas at the forty-second annual commencement of the Bellefonte High school this week. The exercises incident thereto began on Sunday evening, in the Presbyterian church, when Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class. The church was well filled with friends of the young graduates and the subject discussed by Dr. Schmidt had been selected and was discussed with an eye single to the welfare of the graduates.

The annual declamatory contest for the Reynolds prizes was held on Monday evening, the ten contestants having been announced in last week's paper. The judges awarded the prizes to Ruth Miller and Fred Fisher, with honorable mention for Donald Mallory and Marie Chandler.

On Tuesday morning the pupils of the grade schools introduced an innovation in the shape of an outdoor pageant on the high school grounds. Several hundred pupils took part and it was the great, outstanding event of the week.

On Tuesday evening students of the High school presented the play, "Once in a Blue Moon," in the High school auditorium. A crowded house greeted the amateur actors and actresses, all of whom carried their parts in a most commendable manner.

Many people visited the High school building on Wednesday to take a look at the handiwork of the students in manual arts and the home economic courses. While the display was probably not as elaborate as in former years it was sufficient to show that the boys and girls are being taught useful occupations in addition to reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic.

The commencement exercises proper were held on Wednesday evening in the High school auditorium, which was crowded to capacity. The commencement address was delivered by Jonas E. Wagner, of Harrisburg, a former superintendent of the Bellefonte schools, and being back in his old environment he talked from the heart and gave the young graduates plenty of good, wholesome advice. Dr. Melvin J. Locke, president of the Bellefonte school board presented the diplomas and awarded the prizes, as follows:

- Col. W. Fred Reynolds general excellence prize, $10—Betty Zerby. Second honors, $5.00, contributed by a friend—Mary Shoemaker.
- Miss Mira Humes general excellence prize, commercial course, $10—Rose Carpenter.

- A. C. Mingle modern history prize, $5—Betty Musser. Honorable mention, Frederick Smith and Budd Rona.
- A. C. Mingle ancient history prize, $5—Kathryn Bullock. Honorable mention, Louise Meyer.
- Mrs. M. E. Brouse general science prize, $5—Kathryn Bullock.
- W. C. T. U. temperance essay prize, $5—Louise Meyer. Honorable mention, Gertrude Wagner.
- Miss Mira Humes Latin prize, $5—Itachael McKelvey.
- Ogden B. Mallin science prize, $10—Henry Stere. Honorable mention, James Shope.

A prize of $5, the gift of the Glee Club, was awarded to Pearl Garbrick for her faithful work with the orchestra and other musical organizations.

Grade honors were announced for the Bishop street school as follows:

- 1st Grade—General excellence, Elizabeth Anna Hartwick, Janet Brouse, Elizabeth Mallory. Excellence in arithmetic, Letroy Bilger. Neither absent nor tardy, Richard Ulrich.
- 2nd Grade—General excellence, Margaret Beaver, William Weller, Guy Poorman. Honorable mention, Violet Musser, Vorie Stine. Excellence in arithmetic, Nellie Jodon, Pauline Kalla, Frederick Benner. Neither absent nor tardy, Marie Hoover, Nellie Jodon, Vesta Hoy, Wilson Sholl, Ernest Martin, Franklin Pennington.
- 3rd Grade—General excellence, Francis Eisenhauer, Bernice Murray, Mary McCuller. Excellence in arithmetic, Dorothy Sager, Lucille Ulrich, Eleanor Cowher.

CHICKEN THIEVES ARRESTED.

Lock Haven Men Did Thriving Business on Centre County Hen Roosts.

The wholesale robbery of hen roosts in Centre county will probably end with the arrest in Lock Haven, last Sunday morning, by sheriff E. R. Taylor, of Bellefonte, of Palmer Hetzel and Bert Swan, on the charge of stealing chickens, and according to the confession made in court, on Monday, by the latter, the men have stolen hundreds, perhaps thousands of chickens in Centre and Clinton counties. Their nefarious work was not confined to hen roosts, as smoke houses were also coveted prey for their illegal expeditions.

For weeks past complaints have been coming into the sheriff's office about chickens being stolen in different sections of the county, but no one seemed able to get a trace of the thieves. Last Wednesday night the henry of George Heckman, in Potter township, was robbed of 72 Rhode Island red chickens, and on Thursday night a raid was made through Buffalo Run and Halfmoon valley. W. G. Furst lost 47 chickens and G. H. Rice 6, and up in Halfmoon township G. J. Beck had 62 chickens, 6 hams, 5 shoulders and 4 pieces of side meat stolen. Down in the lower end of Nittany valley R. S. Neill had 40 chickens and a lot of meat stolen one night last week.

With this information to work on Sheriff Taylor went over to Pennsylvania the latter part of the week and starting at the George Heckman home went on the hunt of a trail that might lead to the discovery of the thieves. Finally, down at Livonia, at the Wolf garage, he learned that three men with a Ford truck loaded with crates of chickens, had stopped there at 4.30 o'clock on Thursday morning for gas. From Mr. Wolf he obtained a fairly good description of the men, and going to Lock Haven he did a little Old Sleuth work. The result was he soon got on the trail of three men, Palmer Hetzel, Raymond Garis and Bert Swan, who according to all accounts, were doing a land office business in chickens. Information obtained by the sheriff showed that last week they made five trips to South Williamsport, taking down an average of 150 chickens a trip as well as a quantity of smoked meats.

With this information as a basis to work on Mr. Heckman swore out a warrant for the arrest of the three men and sheriff Taylor went to Lock Haven Sunday morning and nabbed Hetzel and Swan but Garis got away. Swan denies having taken any part in the actual theft of the chickens, but admitted that he was employed by the other two men to go along and keep watch, for which he was paid $3.50 a night. He stated that practically all the chickens and meat stolen were sold in South Williamsport, the chickens for 19 cents a pound, at which price there was always a ready market.

At a special session of court, on Wednesday afternoon, Hetzel pleaded guilty to breaking and entering, and larceny, but in reply to questions by the court maintained that Raymond Garis was the head of the chicken stealing gang and that the only trip he made with him was the one last week over to the Heckman farm in Potter township. At that time, he declared, he did not help steal the chickens but remained with the truck as watcher while Garis and Swan stole the fowls. The court evidently didn't put much confidence in Hetzel's story as he pronounced sentence upon both counts in the indictment, giving him from three to six years in the penitentiary.

Bert Swan, the youth who told of the deprecations of the chicken thieves and admitted having gone along in the capacity of hired watchman, was given an indeterminate sentence in the Huntingdon reformatory, as he is not quite twenty-one years of age.

Dennis Bambau, who last November stole Domer Ishler's car from where it was parked on Spring street, Bellefonte, pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to not less than three nor more than six years in the western penitentiary.

Reber-Garbrick—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Garbrick, at Coleville, Wednesday morning, when their daughter, Miss Alice, became the bride of Paul Reber. The beautiful ring ceremony was used. Miss Lillian Garbrick, of State College, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Gilbert Nolan, of State College, was best man. Rev. J. Alvin Reber, of Doylestown, the groom's father, performed the ceremony.

After a wedding breakfast the young couple left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo and parts of Canada. Mrs. Reber is a graduate of Bellefonte High school and Mr. Reber is a graduate of State College and employed at the Titan metal works.

Registration for Kiddies Day.

All children expecting to attend the Elk's kiddies day picnic are required to register their names and address with George W. Rees, on or before Saturday, June 13th.

This registration will open Saturday, June 6th, at 9 a. m., at the Elk's club, where Mr. Rees will welcome you one and all. The list closes Saturday, June 13th, so be sure and report before that time.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

—Joseph Sourbeck came up from Williamsport Tuesday, spending the night in Bellefonte with his grandfather, John D. Sourbeck.

—Thomas Fleming and his daughter, Mrs. McGinley's, Saturday and Sunday guests included Mr. Fleming's son, Edward and his wife, of Altoona.

—Mr. and Mrs. Guy McIntire, of Williamsport, were among the Memorial day visitors to Bellefonte last week, remaining here over night with friends of Mr. McIntire.

—Miss Celia Haupt went over to Curwensville Saturday, to visit there until the early part of the week as a guest of Mrs. Howard J. Thompson, former residents of Bellefonte.

—Mrs. J. W. Henszey, of State College, and her elder son, John, will sail on the 2nd of July, on the Cook summer cruise for Norway and Sweden, expecting to be gone for six weeks.

—Miss Nancy Rhinesmith and Miss Helen Ogden drove over from Clearfield in Miss Ogden's car, Saturday, remaining here until Sunday evening, as guests of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk.

—Jerome Harper was among those back home last week for a week-and-a-half, having come in from Ellsworth to spend several days with Mr. Harper, at their home on east Bishop street.

—Prothontary and Mrs. Roy Wilkinson motored to Wilmington, Del., last Friday, where they were guests of Mr. Wilkinson's cousin over Sunday, returning to Bellefonte Monday evening.

—The Misses Sallie and Bessie Linn, Miss Esther Montgomery and Miss Henrietta Baldy Lyon drove up from Williamsport, Tuesday, in the latter's car, remaining here over night as guests of Miss Mary and Henry S. Linn.

—Mrs. George Waite, of Phoenix avenue, had as Memorial day house guests her two sons, George and Gilbert Waite, of Williamsport, the former's wife and her son Thomas. The party drove over Saturday and returned home Sunday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. Irving Warner, of Wilmington, Del., spent several hours in Bellefonte on Monday. They were en route home from a trip to Crescon and stopped here merely to greet a few of the many friends they made during their short residence in Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ivan H. Hollabaugh, with their daughter Helen, arrived from Des Moines, Iowa, on Monday afternoon. They came to spend two weeks with Ivan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hollabaugh, of this place. They left Des Moines at six o'clock Friday evening, having made the drive in a little less than three days.

—Mrs. E. C. Tuten and two sons, Tirrell and John, came over from Phillipsburg for Memorial day and were accompanied home by Mrs. C. L. Gates, who went to Phillipsburg to see her nephew, Tirrell Tuten, graduate at the Phillipsburg High school on Tuesday evening, he being one of a class of sixty-five to receive diplomas.

—Mrs. Harry Shively is contemplating a visit to Lewisburg, W. Va., expecting to spend several weeks there with her sister, Mrs. George Musser. Mr. and Mrs. Musser, former residents of Centre county, went to Lewisburg more than a year ago to make their home with their son, Ralph M., on account of the ill health of Mr. Musser.

—David, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fortney, and Miss Virginia Smith went over to Easton Friday of last week, for a two week's stay with Miss Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, former residents of Bellefonte. Their visit at this time was made that they might attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, which they will celebrate tomorrow.

—Mrs. Orin Miller, of Erie, who had been here since May 25th, visiting with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy, of Howard street, has gone up to State College where she intends making an indefinite stay with her son Francis. Mrs. Miller has been making her home with her son Arthur, in Erie, since leaving Bellefonte and for awhile after going there returned to Centre county quite often. This, however, is her first visit back in two years and she came at this time primarily to be here for Memorial day.

—Several Bellefonte people, including Mrs. Elizabeth McC. Scott, Miss Virginia McCurdy, Mrs. David Dale and Charles M. McCurdy, will attend a reunion of special interest, which will be held in Gettysburg on June 8th. For many years Miss Mary McClellan conducted a private school in Gettysburg which was, in many ways, a counterpart of the Miss Petrik school here. Many of her pupils grew to be fathers and mothers and their children in turn received their primary education from her. Ten years ago Miss Virginia McCurdy arranged a reunion which was largely attended and proved of much interest. This year Miss McClellan's widely scattered pupils will again meet and gather together in the quaint little old school house, built many years ago, and which is still used as a primary school.

—It's not often that a person makes a thirty-six mile trip just to pay a trifling little subscription bill, yet that is exactly what W. W. Keller, of Pittsburgh, did on Tuesday afternoon. Of course the opportunity of a motor ride with good company may have had something to do with it—we opine it had a lot. Mr. Keller has for years been in the postal service in Pittsburgh, but as his mother is still living at their old home at Pine Grove Mills, he took the first chance he has had in three years to be with her for a few days. This visit began last Friday and will end with his return to duty tomorrow. Tuesday his brother-in-law, George Koch, was coming to Bellefonte on business and so Will said: "The only excuse I had for coming down was to pay for my 'Watchman' so I just got on the truck and came along."

—Will Hunter, well known here thirty years ago, was an arrival from Oakland, Cal., last Thursday and was a guest at the B. house until Tuesday when he left for Pittsburgh where his mother and two sisters have been living since leaving Bellefonte. The only living representative of the family once so prominent in this community still here is his uncle, the venerable Frank Hunter, of Axe Mann. Will left here as a young man for New York. He remained in that city a few years then located in Pittsburgh and went to California right after the earthquake. He has been doing well on the coast and expects to remain there the rest of his life. Frequently he sees Bellefonters who are located there and seems to keep in close touch with them, especially Paul Sternberg, whom many of our readers will remember.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Williams motored up from Westfield, N. J., on Friday, spent Memorial day in Bellefonte and returned home on Sunday.

—Paul Foreman arrived home Wednesday from the University of Pennsylvania, expecting to be here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Foreman, for the summer.

—Mrs. Roger Bayard, of Tyrone, was in Bellefonte between trains last week, on the way to her former home in Centre Hall, for a Memorial day and over Sunday visit with friends.

—M. Ward Fleming motored over from Phillipsburg, on Sunday just to convince his friends that he is recovering from a recent illness that at one time threatened to become serious.

—Harry Fitzgerald, of Miami, Fla., and Atlantic City, was back home last week for a two day's visit with friends in Bellefonte. Harry is now one of the real estate dealers in the land development boom of Florida.

—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gregory, of Wilkes-Barre, were among the motorists in Bellefonte the after part of last week, having driven here to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis, of Willowbank street.

—Mrs. William Ammerman, of Homestead, who is making a two week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Jacob Hoy, came to Bellefonte last week. Mrs. Ammerman is a native Centre countian, and has been spending a month in Central Pennsylvania.

—Miss Lucy Potter and her niece, Miss Janet went to Rodgers Forge, Md., Sunday, called there by the sudden death of Miss Potter's brother, George L. Potter. Mr. Potter's brother, James H. Potter, was unable to accompany them, owing to his own illness.

—Charles K. McCafferty came over from Bradford, Saturday, visiting here with his friends until Sunday afternoon. Mr. McCafferty is a native of Bellefonte and although having left here when young, has always been keenly interested in the affairs of the town.

—Miss Annie Noll made one of her occasional visits back home last week, having come in to spend several days with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Miller. Since leaving Bellefonte Miss Noll has made her home with her sister, Mrs. Green Heaton, on her farm, near Pleasant Gap.

—Miss Rachel Marshall and Miss Longwell arrived home Tuesday from Washington, D. C., where they had been with Mrs. George Soal at her apartments in the Iowa apartment building, for six months. Miss Marshall is at present with Mrs. Harry Shively, where she will be until her home on Spring street is ready to be occupied.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stewart and their two children, Don and Doris, with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith as motor guests, drove in from Cleveland last week to spend the week-end in Bellefonte. During their stay they were guests of Mrs. Stewart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Eckenroth, of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walkey and of Bud Eckenroth.

—Frank Woerner, who has been located in Conneaut, Ohio, the past two months, was a Bellefonte visitor this week, coming here from Phillipsburg where he spent Memorial day and Sunday. He left Conneaut last week because the laundry he has been connected with is changing hands, and did not return until the new owners were in charge.

—Dr. and Mrs. David Dale and their daughter Anne will leave Monday on a drive to Gettysburg, where Dr. Dale will attend the reunion of the class of '95, Gettysburg College, of which he was a member, while Mrs. Dale will visit at her former home there, in addition to attending the reunion of pupils of a private school of the town.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Irvin Jr., with a friend of Mrs. Irvin's, Mrs. Donald Hurch, drove here from Canton, Ohio, Thursday of last week, for a week's visit at the L. H. Musser home, on Howard street. On the way in they were joined at Phillipsburg by Mrs. Irvin's brother, Lloyd Barnhart, who was here with the party until Sunday, returning then by train to Pittsburgh.

—Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gray have abandoned their drive to Minneapolis, owing to the critical condition of Mr. Gray's mother, Mrs. John F. Gray, who suffered a stroke of paralysis, at her apartment in Altoona, several weeks ago. The first stroke was followed in a few days by a second, which entirely paralyzed her right side. Since then Mrs. Gray has shown no signs of improvement.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Greene and Miss Dawson drove here from Philadelphia this week to see Mrs. H. H. Griffith, who slipped and fell on the hard-wood floor in the Brachbill home Friday evening, and broke her wrist. Mrs. Greene, before her marriage, was Miss Mina Dawson, and is a daughter of Mrs. Griffith, while Miss Dawson is Mrs. Griffith's grand-daughter, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dawson.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wynn, with their four children drove over from Sunbury Saturday, for a week-end visit with Mrs. Wynn's father, M. L. Altendler, at Milesburg. Mr. Altendler is anticipating having with him for the greater part of the summer, his daughter, Mrs. Lucius Duncan, who with Mr. Duncan will come here from Philadelphia in July, to spend several months at Milesburg with Mrs. Wynn, at Sunbury.

—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Haller, of Rock Forge, left Wednesday on a drive to their former home in Pittsburgh, where Mrs. Haller will consult a specialist concerning her health, which has not been good all winter. On the return trip they will be accompanied by Mrs. N. W. Schaeffer and her daughter, of Avonia, Pa., friends of Mrs. Haller for many years, and who will be the Haller's guests for several days. Miss Kate Donovan, of Bellevue, Pa., Mrs. party also, coming in to spend a part of the summer at Rock Forge.
