

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

A. J. Heverly this week purchased the Malin homestead on east Howard street.

The early sour cherries are now coming into market, but from all reports the crop is not as large as last year.

Eight members of the Travelers Insurance association, of Reading, motored to Bellefonte on Tuesday and had luncheon at the Brockerhoff house.

Daniel Clemson has resigned his position with Montgomery & Co., to devote his entire time to the automobile business established by the Clemson Brothers, at State College and Tyrone.

Oseola Mills is advertising the holding of a real old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration in that place on Independence day, with brass bands, a big parade and plenty of noise and fireworks, the only thing that will be lacking will be the old-time supply of fire water.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Woomer, of State College, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Thelma to Mr. Ford Lewis Stump. The ceremony will be performed in the Methodist church at that place tomorrow morning. The groom is a graduate of State, class of 1925. They will go to house-keeping at State College.

The three big shade trees on High street, in front of the location of the new Richelieu theatre, have been removed and gradually Bellefonte is drifting toward a treeless town. The trees in question were probably upwards of one hundred years old, but were in good, healthy condition and would have withstood the storms of another fifty years.

That heretofore sacred standard bearer of the g. o. p., the elephant, was captured body and soul, on Saturday, by W. Harrison Walker and compelled to carry a banner in the circus parade announcing his candidacy for judge of Centre county. Now if the Hon. Harrison can corral the whole party as easily as he got the elephant he will be on Easy street.

Members of the Logan Fire company will make their annual call on the people of Bellefonte toward the latter part of next week for contributions toward their annual picnic to be held at Hecla park on July 4th. Cakes, sugar, lemons, etc., or cash will be acceptable. The fire ladders are always quick to respond in time of need and will appreciate anything given them for their picnic.

Marion Spotts, seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry I. Spotts, of Lock Haven, was run down and seriously injured by an automobile driven by Jay Harshberger, of Hublersburg, while in that city on Saturday morning. The child was crossing the street near her home when hit. She sustained a fracture of the jaw, a scalp wound and fracture of the lower vertebrae of the spine, and possibly internal injuries.

When in Rome do as the Romans do, and when in Bellefonte go to the scenic and see the motion pictures. A big show for little money. Better pictures cannot be seen anywhere else in this part of the State, as manager T. Clayton Brown always secures late releases of the best film makers in the country. The scenic is comfortable at all times, even during the warmest weather. If not a regular get the habit and see all the good pictures.

The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. library has been increased by another contribution of thirty-six volumes of popular fiction from Mrs. Levy Johnson, of Chicago, four of the books being the works of Washington Irving. Just a year ago Mrs. Johnson donated a like number of books to the library so that this is her second liberal contribution. Mrs. Johnson is a daughter of Mrs. M. Nolan and was born and raised in Centre county, hence her interest in the local Y. M. C. A.

Charles Markle, of Lock Haven, who for quite a number of years has been employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad company as baggage master on the Tyrone division, has been granted a month's leave of absence and gone to Atlanta, Ga., to try out a new position with the Sinclair Oil company. If he likes the country and finds his new job all it has been represented he will permanently sever his connection with the railroad company and continue in the oil business.

Circus day brought a large crowd to Bellefonte on Saturday and the show management had every reason to be satisfied with the attendance, as the main tent was crowded to capacity at the afternoon performance, with a fair crowd present for the evening show. The only thing about the circus, however, that resembled the Walter L. Main show was the name, as it was only about half as large as the real Main show when it visited Bellefonte a year ago. So far as the circus itself was concerned, it was about all one could expect from an aggregation of its size, but it had plenty of slick-fingered hangers-on who did a lively business, according to reports. This was especially the case with the man who manipulated the three card trick. He did a lively business and quite a number of men realized before the day was over that they couldn't out-guess him.

JUNE ROSES AND WEDDINGS. Many Couples Pledge Their Troth for Better or for Worse.

June has always been regarded as the month of roses and brides and this year seems to be no exception, as witness the number of weddings that have taken place during the past few days:

Griffith-Williams.—A large number of invited guests were present in the Reformed church at Howard, on Wednesday morning, to witness the marriage of Miss Gretchen Annette Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, of Howard, and attorney George W. Griffith, of Ebensburg. The ceremony took place at 10:30 o'clock and was performed by Rev. Dr. Sechrist, of New York city, an uncle of the bride.

The attendants were Mrs. Paul Cauffiel, of Johnstown, matron of honor; Miss Mary Grace Rhue, of State College; Miss Medora Thompson, of Ebensburg; Misses Elizabeth Wolf, Sara Gardner, Mary Mayes and Margaret Gladhill, of Howard, bridesmaids. John McWilliams, of Shamokin, officiated as best man and the ushers were attorneys Walter J. Kress, Stephen Mayer and Paul W. Cauffiel, of Johnstown, and Thomas Griffith, of Ebensburg. The flower girl was Betty Lyman and the ring bearer Bobbie Lyman, of Coudersport, niece and nephew of the bride. Miss Conda Johnston, of Howard, played the wedding march and Miss Virginia Weber sang "Oh, Promise Me."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and later Mr. and Mrs. Griffith left on a motor wedding trip through the New England States and Canada. Returning they will locate in their already furnished home in Ebensburg, where Mr. Griffith is the junior partner of the law firm of Jones & Griffith.

Barnes-Wilson.—A wedding of interest to Bellefonte people was that at Valley Forge, on Saturday, of Chester H. Barnes, son of Mrs. Howard Barnes, of Bellefonte, and Miss Lulu Wilson, a daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Wilson, of Valley Forge. The ceremony, which took place at ten o'clock in the morning, was performed by Rev. Mr. Burd, rector of the Episcopal church. Among the guests present were the bridegroom's mother, sister and brother, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Daise Henderson, and Homer P. Barnes, all of Bellefonte.

Mr. Barnes is a graduate of the Bellefonte High school and the University of Pennsylvania, and during the past five years has filled the position of assistant superintendent of schools, at Norristown. He recently resigned that position to become superintendent of schools at Sheffield, Warren county, and the young couple will be at home at Sheffield after August first.

Thompson, of the Presbyterian church. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her aunt, Mrs. Martin V. Burton, of Germantown. Charles H. Smith, a brother of the bridegroom, officiated in the capacity of best man while Mary Ross and Elizabeth Smith, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

Owing to recent deaths in both families only immediate relatives were present at the wedding. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on a motor wedding trip through the New England States to Canada and up the St. Lawrence and Saginaw rivers. After September first they will be at home at No. 154 east Curtin street, Bellefonte.

Bellefonte and State College Kiwanis Hold Zero Hour Meeting.

A joint meeting of the Bellefonte and State College Kiwanis was held at the Brockerhoff house, on Monday evening, at the zero hour which marked the opening of the ninth International Kiwanis convention at St. Paul, Minn. According to an established custom every Kiwanis in the United States and Canada meets at that hour. Telegraphic greetings were received by the local meeting from delegates John B. Payne, of Bellefonte, and W. H. Tomhave, of State College. President Weber, of the State College club, defined the meaning of all-Kiwanis night and brief, pithy talks were made by a number of Kiwanians. Kiwanian R. Russell Blair opened his musical pepper box and gave several lively songs, while a special hit was made by Mr. Irvine Fisher, of New York city, a brother of Ward Fisher, of Bellefonte, in several delightful vocal renditions.

Announcement was made that the Bellefonte Kiwanis has organized a baseball club and become a member of the league composed of Tyrone, Philipsburg, Altoona and Bellefonte. E. H. Stock will be manager of the Kiwanian nine and Arthur Barraclough the captain. The season was opened yesterday with a game between Bellefonte and Tyrone on the Hecla Park diamond. While the merits of the teams have not yet been tested Bellefonte is going to make a determined effort to go after the pennant.

Have a Care When Visiting the New Aviation Field.

Hundreds of people visit the new aviation field nightly. The thrill of seeing the planes drop out of darkness onto the brilliantly illuminated landing area, tarry awhile and depart, is something new and all who can are flocking out to have it.

The manager of the field has sounded a warning. Many seem heedless of the danger they are exposing themselves to by leaving their cars on the road and trooping across the field to the hangar. On the roads they are safe, but on the field they are in great danger.

Part of the field is in wheat, that is now half as high as a person, and should any one be in it when a plane is about to land it would be impossible for the pilot to see them and they might be struck and killed instantly.

Mr. Gelhaus has asked us to give notice to the public that unless the dangerous practice is stopped in accordance with this request more drastic measures will be taken at once and any one found on the landing field will be immediately arrested.

Railroad Worker Captured Escaped Prisoner.

Arthur Stephenson, doing from one and a half to three years for assault in Fayette county, escaped from Rockwell last Thursday afternoon, but is now in the Centre county jail, after less than twenty-four hours liberty.

Friday morning Norris Shay, a section hand on the B. E. V. R. R., noticed a man lying along the railroad tracks near where he was working in the vicinity of Howard. Shay had been given a description of the prisoner the night before and, being reasonably sure that the man was the one wanted, called a companion. The two then captured Stephenson and held him until penitentiary officials could be notified. Officer Clarence Rhoades went down at once, identified him and had him in the Centre county jail before noon on Friday.

At a special court on Wednesday morning Judge Dale sentenced Stephenson to serve an additional year and a half to three years after the expiration of his present sentence.

Report of the Children's Aid Society of Centre County for the Past Two Years.

There is probably no volunteer society that does more good work than the Children's Aid society and the marvel is that so few people are interested enough to become members or to attend the meetings, if only occasionally. The meetings are held the last Friday of the month at four o'clock, in the W. C. T. U. room and every one is welcome to attend.

Miss Daise L. Keichline, who has been a most efficient and enthusiastic secretary for the past two years, has furnished the following report of the work done: From May, 1923, to May, 1924, the Children's Aid society cared for twenty-two children. During the year two children were adopted, two returned to the family, three placed in institutions and one sent to the home for incurables at Philadelphia.

From May, 1924, to May, 1925, thirteen new children were added to the society. One child died, one was sent to an institution and four were sent to other counties for adoption. Nineteen children are in free homes, one in the Indiana Training School for Girls and ten in homes where their expenses are paid jointly by the county commissioners, the poor directors of the Children's Aid society. Three new ones were added this month making a total of thirty-three children under the care of the Society.

Is there a more worthy cause? We have an investigator in every town in the county but we need more members. The annual dues of $1.00 for 1925 are now payable. This year the Society was assessed fifty dollars to help cover the expense of a new roof and furnace for the Training School at Indiana. A friend of the Society—the mother of six children, sent a check for twenty-five dollars; the Needle Work Guild a check for sixteen dollars, and with other donations received Centre county was able to bear her share of the expense.

An Appeal in the Interest of Fresh Air Children.

An appeal was made in all the churches of Bellefonte on Sunday in behalf of the New York Tribune's effort to give the tenement children of that crowded city two weeks of free hospitality in the country. The Tribune's "fresh air fund" is now in its forty-ninth year of activity. Last year was the biggest on record, over sixteen thousand children being sent out into the country for a two week's outing. Pennsylvania contributed largely to this success, Jersey Shore leading the way with one hundred and fifty-one children, and the district between Berwick and Jersey Shore entertaining almost nine hundred.

Rev. Reed O. Steely, pastor of the Bellefonte Evangelical church and probation officer for Centre county, is chairman in charge of the movement to place some of these children in Centre county this year, with Mrs. Elizabeth Beach vice chairman. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Reed O. Steely, Mrs. D. R. Foreman, Mrs. M. R. Johnson, Miss Mary McGarvey, Miss Daisy Graham, Mrs. Richard Brouse, Mrs. W. Harrison Walker, Mrs. Joseph Thomas, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Miss Daise Keichline, Miss Elizabeth B. Meek, Rev. W. C. Thompson, Rev. J. A. Mills, Rev. Father Downes, Rev. Homer C. Knox, and Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt.

Boys and girls between the ages of six and sixteen years can be invited and prospective hosts have the privilege of specifying the age and sex of the children desired. July 17th is the date fixed for the arrival of the children. Each child is examined by doctor and nurse before being sent out from New York. Invitations from those willing to act as host or hostesses to one or more of these children can be sent or handed to the chairman or any member of the committee above named. Invitations should be sent in as early as possible so that definite arrangements can be made.

Judge Orady Will Not Seek Re-election.

Superior court judge George B. Orady, of Huntingdon, announced on Monday that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself on the bench. He was appointed to the Superior court by Governor Hastings in 1895, and for thirty years has been an active member of that tribunal. He has now reached the age of seventy-five years and his health is not very good, so he intends to retire at the end of his present term.

Up to this time the only logical candidate who has come out in the open as Judge Orady's successor is J. E. Cunningham, of Harrisburg, who will likely have the backing of the Republican organization for the nomination.

Penitentiary Farm House Burned.

The tenant house on one of the penitentiary farms near Rock was totally destroyed by fire about five-thirty Thursday evening.

The fire started from an over-heated flue. The tenant, John White and his family, are now living in an improvised home on the farm until the penitentiary board decides whether to rebuild the house or not.

The loss on the building is about four or five thousand dollars, covered by insurance. Mr. White saved only a small portion of his furniture and carried a little insurance, though not enough to cover his loss.

He has just come through a series of operations in Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, but you wouldn't know it to look at him. Cheerful and happy he expressed perfect satisfaction with everything except his legs, which show symptoms of going back on him. Can it be any wonder that they should after more than eighty years of the strenuous use they have been put to.

They took a light camping outfit with them so that they can stop wherever night overtakes them whether it be where a hotel is available or an inviting spot in the open.

Among our callers Friday afternoon was C. A. Dolan, of Nittany. While we don't know just why he came to town Friday and not Saturday—the day the circus was here—we do know that he didn't recognize him at first glance, because he is wearing blue glasses. Mr. Dolan has been suffering with an eye affection for several weeks—not serious we hope—but quite enough to give him considerable annoyance. He said farmers down his way are pretty well on with their work, but praying for rain and while he, at first, let on he knew nothing about the judicial contest down that way, before we got through swappin' information we discovered that he was pretty well informed at that.
