Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hess Tate, of Lewistown, spent Sunday at the Fred Meyers home.

C. M. Woodring was in town on Monday soliciting orders from the candy dealers.

Gordon E. Harper and family spent Sunday with the Franklin Bowersox family, in Millheim.

C. M. Wieland motored to the Seven Stars and spent Sunday at the Mrs. John Wieland home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dauberman, of Centre Hall, were pleasant Sunday visitors in this section.

John C. Dunlap, of Twin Rocks, spent a portion of last week among his old friends in town.

J. Fred Meyers is recovering from a recent serious illness, much to the relief of members of his family.

Allen Burley and J. C. Bailey and children, of Sinking valley, spent Sunday with relatives in this section.

Daniel Wertz was in Bellefonte on Tuesday visiting Jerry Garner, a patient in the Centre County hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Fortney motored down from Altoona and spent part of the week among friends in this section.

H. H. Goss and wife, of State College, spent Saturday afternoon at the home of postmaster Barr, on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright, of Tyrone, motored here on Sunday and spent the day among friends of their youth.

George Woods and wife, with George III, came in from Pittsburgh and are visiting at the Dr. G. H. Woods home.

Mrs. Mary Dale, Miss Anna and Miss Virginia Dale, motored down the pike on Monday and greeted friends along the line.

Mrs. Ed. G. Corl and daughter Emma have returned from a ten day's outing with friends at Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

The venerable John Patton, retired farmer of Warriorsburg, was a visitor at the J. Milo Campbell home at Fairbrook, last week.

Mrs. Mary Coombs, of Johnstown, spent the early part of the week with her parents, Hon and Mrs. J. Will Kepler, on Main street.

Ellery Ellenberger is erecting a new house on the site of the one destroyed by fire on his farm at Marengo. John Meyers has the job.

Don't forget the picnic of the Pine Hall Lutherans to be held in Holmes' grove tomorrow. A good ball game is scheduled for three o'clock.

Mrs. Mary Saucerman, who recently underwent an operation, at the Clearfield hospital, is so far recovered that she is expected home this week.

Mrs. Alice Buchwalter, who was here for an extended visit among Centre county relatives, was summoned to her home in Lancaster on Thursday.

Now that their father, J. R. Smith is so much improved, Mrs. Verma Croft and Mrs. Paul Martz have returned to their homes in Cleveland, Ohio.

Rev. Orin Sunday is spending his vacation at the home of his aged mother, Mrs. Lydia Sunday, on Tadpole, and with other friends in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams, of Pine Grove Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. John White, of State College, motored over to Huntingdon and spent Sunday with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wagner, of Juniata, spent the early part of the week with friends at State College and Boalsburg, and with Mr. Wagner's mother at Tusseyville.

Miss Ida Segner, one of the hello girls in the Bell exchange at Boalsburg, spent the Sabbath day with her cousin, Viola M. Smith, at her cosy home on west Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. S. Erb and daughter, Mrs. Lenker, motored to Reading, on Sunday, being accompanied by Mrs. Goss, who had been visiting Centre and Blair county friends.

Mrs. H. N. Walker has returned home from a ten day's visit with friends in Pittsburgh, being accompanied by Jackie Franks, who will rusticate here for a week or so.

John Snyder, manager of the State College Motor company, with his wife, motored to Rock Springs on Monday afternoon and talked politics with a number of his intimate friends.

The Dannley and Abbott families, who spent two weeks at the Tussey camp, left for their homes in the Buckeye State on Monday morning, having had a most delightful outing.

H. S. Illingworth and wife motored to Tyrone on Thursday and spent the day with Mr. Illingworth's father, the Rev. Ralph Illingworth, of Ohio, who was on his way to spend his vacation at Cape May.

George and Charles Lutz, of Struble, went to Kansas to attend the funeral, on Monday, of a relative who died last week. He was a native of Centre county, one of a family of thirteen children, and was 65 years old.

R. E. Rossman, of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Domer Ishler, of Centre Hall, were delegates to the rural mail carriers convention held at Meadville the early part of the week. During Mr. Rossman's absence Willis Weaver is filling his job.

Donald Dunlap, of Allentown, with his mother, Mrs. W. C. Dunlap, and Mrs. Roger Bayard, of Tyrone, motored down Pennsylvania, on Friday, and spent the day at Rhonemede farm. They expect to be among the campers at the Grange picnic the last of the month.

Irvin and Milton Keller, of Pittsburgh, spent the latter end of the week with relatives in town. On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Milton Keller and John Keller and sister Etta departed for a cross country run to Harrisburg, Gettysburg, Philadelphia and New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Goheen, of Florida, are spending their vacation with relatives and friends among the Pennsylvania hills. Most of the time will be spent with Mr. Goheen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goheen, at Rock Springs. The young people like their southern home very much.

Rev. Arthur C. Price, of Howard, a former pastor of the Methodist church here, accompanied by his wife, were pleasant callers in town on Wednesday. They were on their way to attend the Methodist day gathering at Lakemont park, Altoona. They are also planning to spend their vacation at Shade Gap.

After a month's visit among relatives in this section the venerable George Everts left for his home at Massesburg on Monday. He was honor guest at a dinner at the William Sunday home last Thursday.

Mr. Everts is 87 years old, and barring some twitches of rheumatism is in splendid health.

On Monday evening as Mr. and Mrs. John Bowersox, and Mrs. Anna Gray were returning home from an auto trip to Snyder county, Mr. Bowersox undertook to pass another car at a narrow point in the road when his car slipped on the soft ground and turned over on its side. All the occupants were thrown out, Mrs. Bowersox sustaining a badly sprained arm, Mrs. Gray several fractured ribs and Mr. Bowersox a number of scratches and bruises. The car was not greatly damaged.

A Big Home Gathering.—The old Academy grounds was the scene of a big home gathering of the Osman and Markle clan on Sunday, fully five hundred people being here at one time or another during the day. Just 139 members and relatives of the two families sat down to the big picnic basket dinner served at the noon hour, in the shade of the towering oaks. The Citizens band was present and furnished music. The guest of honor was grandmother Mrs. Leah Osman, who is 92 years old and on the table was a huge cake decorated with ninety-two candles. Mrs. Osman, before her marriage to Benjamin Osman, was Miss Leah Markle. She was the mother of seven children, four of whom are living. Her brother, John Markle, 79 years old, came up from Gettysburg to attend the gathering. Mrs. Annie Osman and family, of Akron, Ohio, were also present. There were five generations present, Mrs. Hannah Osman, of the Branch, who is 77 years old, being among the older set. Daniel Osman, the pioneer of the family, came to Centre county from Berks county in 1839 and located near Centre Furnace. He was a veteran of the war of 1812 and lived until 1865, dying just after the close of the Civil war.

Admission Rules Adopted for Home.

Application blanks for entrance to the Presbyterian Home of the Huntingdon Presbytery located in Hollidaysburg, for which the Bellefonte Presbytery church congregation recently raised approximately $5,000, have just come from the press. Those who wish to be assured of entrance should immediately secure an application blank from Rev. R. P. Miller, of Phillipsburg, secretary of the board of directors.

Women applying for admission shall not be less than sixty years of age. They will also have to furnish a certificate from the pastor of their respective churches, that they have been members of a Presbyterian church within the bounds of the Presbytery of Huntingdon for a period of three years prior to the date of application, and that they are of such character and disposition as to enable them to live peacefully with others.

Applicants who formerly lived within the bounds of the Presbytery and were members of a Presbyterian church for three years or more may become eligible to admission by retaining residence and membership in a Presbyterian church within the bounds of the Huntingdon Presbytery. Exceptions to the rule requiring membership in the Presbyterian church is provided in an agreement with a contributor affecting a limited number of admissions.

Each applicant, before being admitted to membership in the home must pay to the board of directors the required admission fee. The fee for admission to the home shall be regulated by the age of the applicant, as follows: From 60 to 65 years of age, the fee shall be $600; from 65 to 70 years of age, $500; and over 70 years of age, $400.

Applicants for admission to the home shall be required to present a certificate from a physician designated by the committee on admissions, that they are not afflicted with insanity, epilepsy, contagious or other diseases of an aggravated nature which would be detrimental to the health and comfort of other members of the home.

As this Presbyterian home undertakes to provide for its members during the remainder of their lives without cost, all applicants for admission who have money or property of any kind, must legally transfer and secure the same to the Presbyterian Home, previous to their reception as permanent members.

Members of the home who are entitled to pensions, annuities, endowment funds of any kind, or insurance, shall be required to assign the same to the home. Members who shall pay an amount in excess of the admission fee, who shall transfer property of other items of income to the board of directors, shall be given such allowance on account of the excess as the board of directors from time to time shall determine.

When applicants are admitted to the home they shall sign an agreement to abide by all the rules and regulations governing the home.

Any member of the home who shall, of her own accord, decide to leave the institution, shall be permitted to do so but shall not be eligible for readmission. The committee on admissions shall assign to each member, at the time of entrance, a room for permanent occupancy and there shall be no changes without approval of the committee. Members of the home, who are physically able, must take charge of their rooms and render all the service they can for the good of the institution and in ministering to the comfort of those more helpless than themselves.

Transfer of property, personal or real, with a view to diverting it from the Presbyterian home within a period of six months prior to making application for admission to the home, shall be considered ground for rejection of the application.
