

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

—Dr. M. A. Kirk is spending this week among the scenes of his youth in Cooper township, Clearfield county, and at Kylerstown with the family of Dr. George Kirk.

—Edward Grauer, of Philadelphia, is making his customary visit home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grauer. His business bringing him into this section of the State four times a year, permits him making an equal number of visits to Bellefonte.

Bellefonte Bakery Putting in New Oven.

Since Tom Hosterman took charge of the Bellefonte bakery, in the Bush Arcade, the demand for the products of his oven have been steadily increasing until it reached that point where his oven capacity is not sufficient to keep up with his increasing trade. His present oven is what is known as one of a thousand loaf capacity, and yesterday he received by motor truck from Stroudsburg an oven of three thousand loaf capacity.

His old oven and bake shop is located in the basement of the room he occupies, but the new and much larger oven will be erected in the rear of the room on the first floor, practically right above the old oven in the basement. Workmen are now preparing the foundation for the new oven and Mr. Hosterman hopes to have it ready for use within a fortnight.

Army Fliers Wrecked Plane in Landing.

Two army fliers, Lieut. C. C. Nutt and Lieut. T. B. Harris, of Fairfield, Ohio, wrecked their plane when making a landing on the old aviation field, Bellefonte, about 4:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon. They were flying west and their gas supply running low they decided to come down and have the tank refilled. They failed to observe that the old field was deserted and probably overlooked the location of the new field, and in making a landing their plane turned up on its nose rendering it unfit for further flying purposes at present.

The wrecked plane was hauled to the railroad by airmail employees and shipped to Middletown, on Wednesday, and the same afternoon another plane was sent here for the army fliers.

—The Bellefonte school board is pushing the work on the remodeling of the residence of the late Clement Dale, opposite the High school building, in order that it may be in shape for the opening of school on August 31st. There will be one school room on each of the first and second floors, with closets, toilets, etc. A concrete walk has been put down around the entire building, and it is the intention to grade the entire lot and make it into a separate playground for the primary scholars.

State Penn Inmate Takes Examination at Penn State.

James Horvath, a Westmoreland county man serving a sentence for second degree murder at the Rockview penitentiary, is the first and only inmate ever permitted to leave the prison unattended to take a college examination. Horvath has a good record at the institution. He is employed at clerical work and is sporting editor of the prison newspaper.

During the past year he has taken the course in coal mining under instructors from State College and because of his excellent record he was granted leave to go to State College unattended to take the required examinations. He spent the most of two days at the College, July 20th and 24th, and took examinations in the course for fire boss, second grade mine foreman and first grade mine foreman.

Horvath's experience having established a precedent, Charles E. Johnson, an Erie county man serving time for larceny, is endeavoring to secure a similar privilege. Since his incarceration Johnson has taken up photography and has made such remarkable progress as an amateur that he now takes all the official photographs for record purposes. But he is unacquainted with the fine technique of the art and would like to come to Bellefonte one or two afternoons a week and work in one of the studios here. Just what success he will have remains to be seen. Johnson, by the way, has also a splendid record at the prison, and it is understood will be an applicant for a pardon at the regular meeting of the pardon board in September.

—Geo. Dallas Dixon has asked the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. to relieve him from further duty as vice president of the company in charge of traffic. His request has been complied with and Mr. Dixon has been appointed to the office of assistant to the president. Mr. Dixon's health necessitated his withdrawal from the trying duties of a traffic officer. He is known in Bellefonte through the relationship of Mrs. Dixon to the Curtin family.

—The Fullington Auto Bus company, operating a motor bus line between Tyrone and Clearfield, was last week fined $300 by the Public Service Commission for failure to stop its busses at grade railroad crossings, as required by order of the Commission.

ENCAMPMENT AND FAIR AT CENTRE HALL.

The Hon. P. H. Dewey Will Attend for First Time as Master of Penna. State Grange.

Work on Grange park progresses. The Grange leadership conference will open on Tuesday, August 18th, only two weeks in advance of the encampment, which will open Saturday, August 29th. Much yet remains to be done for each event, but those in charge of the various departments are exerting themselves to make this encampment even more successful than in previous years.

No change will be made in admission charges, age limit nor tent rents. The arrangement of tents will remain very much as last year, and the usual effort will be made to place the camp furniture in tents and make campers comfortable. If wanted, electric lights will be placed in tents.

All those interested, and all Centre county, should be concerned to make of this exhibition the best in its history. A county so large and so rich agriculturally, should take pride in the display of its best products and each year improve that display, both in quantity and quality.

Cash prizes in all departments will be paid, so the exhibitor to whom this appeal has force will feel well repaid for his or her efforts.

Some novel and interesting features have been inaugurated in the poultry department. Look for the premium book for explanation.

Material for premium book is in the hands of the printer and when issued will be distributed.

For the entire week a good program is being arranged and visitors and campers will find no lack of amusement, entertainment and instruction.

A well-trained band will give many concerts at various times during the week.

The Hon. P. H. Dewey will be there for the first time, as Master of the Pennsylvania State Grange, and give his message to Centre county. Other Grange officials and leaders will also be in attendance.

The evening programs will be given over to the subordinate Granges, which will present plays in the auditorium. A small admission will be charged.

Prospects are bright for a successful fair.

—The Rev. M. C. Piper, of Milesburg, will have charge of the services in the Methodist church Sunday morning, August 9th.

Republican Precinct Chairman Quits in Disgust.

Hubersburg, Penna., April 27, 1925.

W. I. Fleming, Chairman, Republican Party, Centre County, Penna.

Dear Sir: For about ten years I have served as committeeman of this district, and during all these years I endeavored to be a credit to my commission and serve my party with all due fairness and precision. But when in need of legal help I received only a plain denial. Having been run down and injured by an automobile driven by a legal representative of the party, I laid the matter before Gov. Pinchot, the district attorney of Centre county, our former judge and at last Law Enforcement and Christian Fellowship's officers, and what answer did I get? Simply, "We can do nothing."

If any fraternity is so bound together that a member, though guilty of a misdemeanor, may go free from punishment because he is a member of such fraternity, then I must feel that criminality is protected rather than punished.

Therefore, in view of these facts I hereby respectfully and decidedly tender my resignation as committeeman of this district.

I am sorry to make this statement, but in justice to myself and all humanity I feel that the public should know the injustice that is meted out by our present officials and professionals.

Yours very truly,
E. L. MCCLINTOCK,
Hubersburg, Penna.
