

LEMONT PRESBYTERIANS CELEBRATE SESQUICENTENNIAL OF CHURCH

The Spring Creek Presbyterian congregation, of Lemont, celebrated the sesqui-centennial of their church, last Friday, and it was a most praiseworthy celebration of one of the oldest churches in the county. The first session was held at two o'clock in the afternoon and began with an organ prelude by Mrs. L. V. Barber. Rev. W. J. Wagner, of the Lutheran church, read the scripture lesson and Rev. Huff, of the Evangelical church, offered prayer. The anniversary hymn was next in order after which the pastor, Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, delivered a brief but fervent address of welcome. The response was made by Hon. J. Laird Holmes, one of the Sunday school scholars in the old church in his boyhood days.

After singing the hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers," Rev. James J. Glenn gave an interesting sketch of the men and women of the church whose christian life was the guiding star of his young life. His subject was "My Old Home Church," and he handled it with consummate skill. Rev. Glenn is now a prominent minister in the Carlisle Presbytery.

"Come Thou Almighty King," was the appropriate hymn sang prior to the introduction of James L. Hamill Esq., of Columbus, Ohio. He is a son of the late Rev. Robert Hamill, for forty-five years pastor of the church, and he gave the audience a fine history of his father's life. In addition to preaching the gospel Rev. Hamill served in the Legislature and was prominent in all walks of life. The Spring Creek church is indebted to James Hamill for the beautiful stained glass windows in the church. Mr. Hamill is also greatly interested in State College, where he graduated in 1880. His brother, Dr. Samuel Hamill, of Philadelphia, was also present and presided at the afternoon meeting.

After singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," the congregation was dismissed with the benediction by Rev. Harnish. A half hour was spent in social greetings then the visitors were taken in hand by the committee in charge and piloted to the church lawn where large tables were spread with spring chicken and all the needed embellishments. In fact a glance over the tables impressed one with the thought that the refreshment committee had left no stone unturned, no chicken unkilld and no cake unbaked. The meal was topped off with ice cream and coffee.

Rev. L. V. Barber, of the Northumberland Presbytery, but who at one time served the Lemont church and while doing so literally stole the organist, Miss Mary Dale, has evidently been forgiven the theft, as he was unanimously proclaimed toastmaster, and in response to his call short and pertinent remarks were made by elders E. C. Ross, William Goheen, Frank Wieland and pastor Kirkpatrick. Letters of regret were also read from a number of former members who were unable to be present.

At the evening session Mrs. L. V. Barber rendered the organ prelude, Rev. Barber read the scripture lesson and Rev. Glenn offered prayer. Rev. Walter K. Harnish, of Sinking Valley, who served as pastor of the Spring Creek church for eleven years, read a very comprehensive historical sketch of the church, after which the congregation joined in singing "The Church's One Foundation."

Rev. C. C. Hays D. D., the Pennsylvania synodical executive, of Pittsburgh, delivered an address on "The Presbyterian Pioneers of Pennsylvania," in which he pictured the Scotch-Irish Presbyteries as the backbone of the State. A musical treat was a bass solo, "Open the Gates of the Temple," sung by Mr. Walter Lingle.

Rev. William C. Thompson, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, was next introduced and spoke on "The Church Facing the Future." He treated his subject so clearly that it made one feel that there is waiting for each christian a task to do, and that each and all should do that task. After singing "Blest be the Tie that Binds," the congregation was dismissed with the benediction by Rev. John L. Robinson, of Port Royal. It might here be mentioned that the organ accompanist in the afternoon was Miss Miriam Dreese and in the evening Miss Dorothy Louder.

In the one hundred and fifty years of its history the Spring Creek church has had eleven pastors, namely: Revs. James Martin, David Wiley, William Stuart, David McKinney, William Adams, Robert Hamill, James Heaney, David Hepler, Walter K. Harnish, Louis V. Barber and J. Max Kirkpatrick. The present elders of the church are Samuel Glenn, Elmer C. Ross, Ross Louder, William Goheen and Frank Wieland.

Alexander-Huyett.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett, at Centre Hall, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, at nine o'clock on Wednesday morning, when their daughter, Miss Miriam Huyett, was united in marriage to Harold O. Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alexander, also of Centre Hall. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, of the Lutheran church, and the bride, who was unattended, looked charming in a dress of pale yellow satin, and carrying a bouquet of cream roses. The bride's sister, Mrs. W. A. Magee, of Wenonah, N. J., played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin while Mrs. S. F. Greenhoe sang "I Love You Truly." Violin and piano music was also a feature. The house decorations were ferns and cut flowers. Following the ceremony the entire wedding party motored to Lewistown where a wedding breakfast was served at the Coleman house.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett and is quite a talented musician, being a graduate of the Susquehanna University conservatory of music (1924). The bridegroom is a graduate of State College, class of 1924, in the electrical engineering course, and is now located in Philadelphia. The young couple will be at home to their friends at 106 N. Monroe avenue, Wenonah, N. J., after October 9th.

Confer-Rearick.—Fred C. Confer, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Pearl A. Rearick, of Zion, were married at the Reformed parsonage, Bellefonte, at noon on Monday, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt. Both young people have many friends who wish them a happy married life.

In a Social Way.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. West and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Widdowson were hosts and hostesses at a dinner party at the Nittany Country club, on Monday evening, given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. West's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pearce, of Zelenople, who have been here for a week or ten days' visit. Sixteen guests were present and cards followed the dinner. Mrs. J. I. Olewine entertained last Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Pearce and Mrs. W. R. Kissell on Friday evening.

The Halcyon Sunday school class of the Reformed church, of this place, twenty or more in number and taught by Mrs. Millard Hartswick, took a trip over the Seven mountains yesterday afternoon in "Miss Nittany" to spend the evening with their former teacher, Mrs. C. M. McCoy, who prior to her recent marriage was Mrs. M. B. Garman.

The third of the series of bridge games between the women of Lock Haven and those of Bellefonte was played yesterday at the home of Miss Mary Blanchard, on west Linn street. Five tables were in play.

A New Slaughter House for the Beezer Meat Market.

On Saturday the cork insulation of the new slaughter house which Miss Helen Beezer, manager of the Beezer Meat Market in this place, is erecting, will be completed.

The abattoir, which is the last thing in sanitation, refrigeration and every other requirement of the pure food laws, has been erected just south-west of town on the site of the late William A. Lyon's slaughter house. It is of brick, 38x40, and built by Haupt and Son. Just as soon as the cork insulation is completed the York Refrigeration Co. will install an ammonia process refrigeration system and the building will be otherwise equipped with every modern device for the speedy and sanitary handling of fresh and smoked meats.

For years the Beezer market on the Diamond has been Bellefonte's leading dispenser of meats. It is the last, of the several that we once boasted, to operate and supervise its own slaughter house. Beezer's buy the best cattle on the hoof because they have been in the business long enough to know good beef cattle and now that they are about to handle them in a way that can leave no question as to the manner in which their meats are prepared for the block we are assured that, if possible, their high standard will be run still higher.

Just as soon as the new building is ready for occupancy the old one will be torn down.

Up to this time the strike in the hard coal regions has not caused even a ripple of excitement in Bellefonte, probably because of the continued warm weather and so far the dealers in Bellefonte have had ample supplies on hand to fill all orders. But no hard coal is coming into Bellefonte these days and the supply on hand is steadily growing smaller, and with cold weather approaching there is certain to be an increased demand which will soon eat up the supply there is in Bellefonte. Naturally, the man who has already laid in his supply is the one who is not worrying over the strike.

Centre County Hunters Reluctantly Leave Alaska.

A telegram received here Tuesday from I. Newton and John Hess, the two Centre countians who have been with the hunting party in British Columbia and Alaska since August, stated that they were at Telegraph Creek, on the way to the States. Only the necessity of catching the last boat out before the freeze up made them leave the great sport they have had. They reported having had splendid luck and all in good health.

Lee H. Walker, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Miles Walker, of Bellefonte, who the past twelve years has been assistant director of public works on the island of Santa Domingo, has resigned that position and become associated with a New York contract firm. He is now engaged on extensive improvements in the city of Manzanilla Colima, on the west coast of Mexico.

Residents of Spring township will be called upon to vote, at the regular election on November 3rd, on the proposition to incur an indebtedness of $64,000 for the purpose of erecting a new school building at the "Red Roost." At present the township is free of debt and has an assessed property valuation of $920,444.

Ku Kluxers Had Big Picnic at Hecla Park Saturday.

The Ku Klux gathering at Hecla Park on Saturday brought out one of the largest crowds that has been at the park in years. The crowd was not in evidence during the day, but were attracted there for the night ceremonies and the brilliant display of fireworks. Various estimates place the number of people at from five to ten thousand. A good program of athletic sports was held in the afternoon in which teams competed from various parts of the district which is composed of Centre, Clinton, Lycoming, Northumberland, Tioga, Bradford and Sullivan counties. The principal speaker of the afternoon was Rev. Gordon A. Williams, pastor of the Methodist church of Tyrone.

In the evening naturalization ceremonies were held on the baseball field, at which time a class of about sixty-five was initiated into the mysteries of the Klan. This was followed by the fireworks display which included such set pieces as "America," "The Klan Call," and "Thunder and Lightning." The last was probably the most spectacular and thrilling of all. It represented to a marked degree a real thunder and lightning storm. It was almost midnight when the pyrotechnics were exhausted and it took an hour to get the parked cars all out and headed for home. The Klan will be in evidence at the dedication of a new school building at Warriorsmark today and will hold their last district meeting at Island park, Sunbury, on October 10th.

The exterior of the new pump house at the big spring in Bellefonte has been completed and strangers who have stopped to view the improvements aver that it looks one hundred thousand dollars to the good. Of course it is not going to cost one-fourth that amount, but whatever the cost it will be worth it when the surroundings are finished.

The Bellefonte Lodge of Elks have completed preliminary arrangements for their customary Halloween celebration, which will be held on Friday evening, October 30th. The usual Harvest Queen contest will open on October 29th and close at ten o'clock on October 29th. The usual number of cash and other prizes will be awarded.
