Belleville, Pa., October 16, 1925.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. George P. Irvin and Mrs. J. W. Sunday are not much improved in health.

Mrs. S. H. Tate, of Burnham, spent last week with her mother, Mrs. J. F. Meyers.

Billy Burk, of Eagleville, spent Friday among his old chums at Rock Springs.

After April first, 1926, Samuel Everhart will again be listed as a tiller of the soil.

Charles Goss, of Harrisburg, spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. A. F. Goss.

Herman Everts, our efficient painter and paper hanger, is now driving a new Ford coupe.

The Harpster property sold last Saturday was bought by George P. Irvin for $4242.00.

J. H. Tomlinson, of Clearfield county, mingled with the lodge men here on Saturday evening.

Dr. Stork recently visited the Chas. Martin home at Fairbrook and left a sweet little daughter, No. 2.

Van Gearhart and family have moved here from Altoona and are snugly housed in the Everts block.

Mrs. C. H. Meyers and daughter Eveline, of the Branch, spent Sunday with Mrs. Sue Peters, on Main street.

Clarence Irvin came up from Harrisburg for a visit with his brother, Daniel Irvin and family, at Baileyville.

Our townsman, A. L. Burwell, has been chosen manager of the new grocery store soon to be opened on Allen street.

Mrs. J. Alfred Musser and son Fred, of Indiana, Pa., spent last week visiting relatives here and down Pennsylvania.

A meeting of the Brotherhood will be held in the Presbyterian church at Graysville this (Friday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Laura Krebs returned home last Friday from a week's visit with her brother, J. A. Musser and family, at Indiana, Pa.

Squire Ed. L. Jamison, of Spring Mills, spent a few hours in town on Saturday evening and was present at the lodge meeting.

Mrs. Mary Combs, of Johnstown, accompanied by a friend, was an over Sunday guest of her parents, Hon. and Mrs. J. Will Kepler.

Miss Anna Kline, a nurse in training in the Centre County hospital, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kline.

Mrs. Phil. D. Foster, of State College who recently underwent an operation at the Geisinger hospital, Danville, is now convalescing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams motored over from Clearfield county and spent the Sabbath with Mr. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams.

Mrs. Ralph Walker is looking for the chap who stole 42 of her flock of 64 ducks last Thursday night. If she catches him there is sure to be trouble.

Our hustling garage man, G. W. Louck, is now snugly located in his new home on south Church street. J. B. Dodd, of State College, will occupy the home vacated by Mr. Louck, and will assist him in his garage.

The new school building in Lytle's addition to State College is nearing completion. A. J. Tate has been elected teacher when the school opens.

Miss Ida Segner, telephone operator in the Bell exchange at Boalsburg, was a Sunday guest of her cousin, Miss Viola M. Smith, on Main street.

Rev. H. N. Walker and wife, of Belleville, came down to see Mrs. Walker's mother, Mrs. Sadie Everts, and found her much improved in health.

H. C. Goss, of Houtzdale, spent several days here last week with his mother, Mrs. Cyrus Goss, who had been quite ill but is now much improved.

A birthday surprise party was held at the home of Mrs. W. K. Corl last Saturday evening. All her children but one were present and the evening proved very delightful. Refreshments were served and there was music, and games to help pass the time. Mrs. Corl received quite a number of nice and valuable presents.

From a New York paper is gleaned the fact that the estate of the late John Emery Meek, a former Pine Grove Mills boy, who died in that city in May, 1924, totals $570,268. He had 4900 shares of Johns-Manville Co. stock at a par value of $502,080. The bulk of the estate was left to his wife, Caroline S. Meek, with the proviso that at her death $25,000 is to be paid to the Fifth Avenue Methodist church, of Altoona, as a memorial to his mother, and $30,000 to the Fifth Avenue hospital, New York, as a memorial to his wife. At his death Mr. Meek was vice president of the Johns-Manville Co.

The newly elected officers of Pennsylvania lodge, No. 276, L. O. O. F., were installed last Saturday evening, as follows:

Noble Grand—J. Foster Musser. Vice Grand—P. E. Sunday. Fin. Sec'y—D. S. Peterson. Rec. Sec'y—Eugene Irvin. Treasurer—Elmer C. Musser. Warden—W. H. Fry. Conductor—J. H. Bailey. Chaplain—R. M. Krebs.

P. S. to N. G.—Samuel A. Homan. L. S. to N. G.—Royal Kline. R. S. to V. G.—H. L. Harpster. L. S. to V. G.—J. H. Proust. R. S. to A. S.—A. McAllister. L. S. to A. S.—J. A. Gummo. O. S. S.—Hugh C. Dale. Trustee—R. Milton Krebs.

Following the installation there was a feed and smoker. Squire Ed. Jamison, of Spring Mills, acted as toastmaster and responses were made by a number of guests.

Machinery Changes Farm Status. Farm machinery has been improved so rapidly in the last few years, and has simplified farming to such a great extent, that a few years will witness the passing of the old desire of farmers to move to the city. This opinion was given by Thomas Conaty, a Philadelphia manufacturer, in a speech at Chicago.

"Farming today is not as laborious as a decade ago," he declared. "Modern machinery has taken the place of the antiquated equipment and farmers are able to accomplish more in one day than they did previously in two or three. Not only in tilling the soil has machinery been a decided asset, but in turning the various products of farms into capital."

It has been a long time since I was away from home over night. On Friday last I concluded I would take a run out to Pittsburgh to relieve the monotony. I decided I would stop off at Tyrone with my favorite nephew and family over night and proceed to the Smoky city the following morning, and incidentally thought I might take in the first game of the animated series. My friends at Tyrone prevailed on me to abandon the western trip until some time later, insisting that the electric score given by the Y. M. C. A. would prove about as satisfying as to the birdseye view on the field of battle. They argued I would, in the event I went to the ball field, have to invest five or six dollars for a front seat (I never invest in a back seat), whereas the admission to the Y. M. C. A. was only a quarter. Being a Dutchman, that rather appealed to me, hence I cancelled my first program, and I am glad to say that the entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. was perfectly satisfactory in every detail, so I was elected to remain with my friends at Tyrone the balance of the week. The change proved very satisfactory to me as I never in my existence was more royally entertained, nor had a better time than on this occasion. I met a number of my old-time friends and formed quite a number of new and very agreeable acquaintances. All I have to say, if you want a nice, agreeable time, stop off at Tyrone. My niece, Mrs. Robert Miller volunteered to act as chaperon for me during my stay and I must say what she doesn't know about that little game is not worth knowing. On Friday morning she proposed that we take in Altoona. I cheerfully agreed, since I was deprived of going to the Mountain city for some years. I found Altoona had visibly improved in the last fifteen years. We visited the immense Gable stores and numerous others; in fact put in a very busy day and a most satisfactory one as well. I find the people of Tyrone are a very progressive people in every detail. They have three up-to-date banks which compare very favorably with our larger city banks. The president of the Blair County National Bank being a relative of mine, kindly ushered me through the magnificent banking institution, and while I have seen and passed through many banks in the larger cities, I must confess I never saw a more fully equipped banking institution in my life. Every precaution possible is resorted to to protect its hosts of patrons. I now fully realize why it is that burglars resort to mid-day bank robberies; simply because they have the villains beaten through up-to-date devices. Well, Saturday came and it seemed like a very short week. My energetic chaperon did not forsake me but finished her contract when she turned me over to my friends in Belleville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Watson and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas.

PLEASANT GAP.

Mrs. Jennie Zeigler spent last week with Mrs. William Shuey.

Thomas Jodon, our cattle buyer, is again off for Ohio, for a car load of cows.

Emeline Noll, of Philadelphia, visited her father, William H. Noll Jr. and family, over the week-end.

The big ball game seemed to attract far more attention than does our three-cornered fight for judicial honors.

Mrs. John Herman has returned from a visit to her brother George, at Allport. She reports a most agreeable visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Showers spent a few days the past week at Lock Haven, being guests of the J. C. Grenoble family.

Don Humphreys, form setter on the state road, and D. Brown Sterrett spent the week-end at Mr. Sterrett's home in Lewistown.

Mrs. Lee Sampsel and daughter Margaret are spending their vacation visiting Mrs. Sampsel's sister, Mrs. Dears, at Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. William Baird were favored a few days ago with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler and son Robert, of Madisonburg.

J. D. Herman and wife, accompanied by Rev. McKechnie and wife, left today to spend their vacation at Berwick, where a number of friends will welcome them.

This (Friday) evening a cafeteria supper will be held at the Methodist Sunday school room. All are cordially invited. The cause is a good one and the supper should be liberally patronized.

Miss Christine Weaver, our assistant postmistress, was incapacitated for a few days the past week, but again greets her numerous callers with a gentle smile. She is an expert on the smiling proposition.

The state road between the Gap and Centre Hall will be completed in ten or fifteen days. From personal observations I believe there is no finer piece of road in the State than this short stretch over the Nittany mountain.

Thomas Williams, the genial clerk at the Stitzer store, had the misfortune to make a misstep, and falling abruptly to the ground, broke several ribs. He is recuperating nicely and will be back onto his job in a few days. A little thing like breaking a few ribs will not deprive Thomas of his daily labor.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Noll returned home from New York on Monday evening. They took a run over in their airplane and were absent from home over a week. Mrs. Noll was so excited over her trip that she said it was the most agreeable surprise to her ever enjoyed. When Henry takes a notion to do any thing he generally does it.

Reese and son spent Sunday at the home of William Watson.

Mrs. Alice Rodgers came home on Saturday, after spending the summer at Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. Burtus Witherite, of Osceola Mills, were callers on Sunday, at the home of Michael Witherite.

Mr. and Mrs. James McClincy and three daughters autoed to Williamsport on Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. W. A. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Johnson entertained Mrs. Harry Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Lee and family, of Holt's Hollow, on Sunday afternoon.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Harvey Tressler and small son, of Renovo, are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stricker.

Mrs. George McCormick and little daughter spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mingle.

Howard Tomlinson, who is in the service and located at Fort Niagara, N. Y., has been the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Tomlinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood Orndorf, of Woodward, were in town Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Orndorf will be remembered as Miss Maude Hosterman.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stover and daughter Elizabeth, of Dauphin, were week-end guests of Mr. Stover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Stover, and also relatives of Mrs. Stover, in Millheim.

The weather man surely gave everybody a real surprise Saturday morning, when the ground was frozen. Thus far there has not been a great change, though not freezing it is unseasonably cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frye and young son, and Miss Carrie Weaver, of Lock Haven, spent Sunday in their rooms in town. They came at this time to move their household effects to Lock Haven, Tuesday, where the young couple will begin housekeeping.

Charles Lambert, on Saturday, at public sale, bought the old home of Frederick Lambert, deceased. Consideration, $1,600. For the past few years property has been advancing in price to a great extent; what causes it no doubt is the high prices of all else.

Miss Elizabeth Meek, of Belleville, was in town Friday afternoon. Miss Meek came here for the purpose of placing the Christmas seals (Red Cross) in the town and township.

The writer has often wondered why the one heretofore had time to put these seals on sale. While in town Miss Meek made a brief business call in the home of the correspondent.

OAK HALL.

Miss Edith Whitehill has accepted a job at the Kline club, at State College.

Misses Sarah and Eliza Gilliland made a business trip to Belleville on Monday.

Jonathan Tressler and Miss Izora Rupp spent Sunday at the James Swabb home at Milesburg.

Mrs. Walter Korman has been helping to care for her father, David Snyder, who is in a serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Houtz and son Robert were Sunday guests of Mr. Houtz's brother Walter, at Pleasant Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blazer and family, of Centre Hall, were Sunday guests of the Frank Reish family at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lowder and son, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilt, of Altoona, motored to Bloomsburg last Wednesday and enjoyed the day at the fair.

William Folk and John Coble motored to Snyder county, Saturday, to visit Mr. Folk's relatives in that vicinity. They returned home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnstonbaugh, of Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Colyer and family, of Linden Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. George Lohr and family, of Penn Hall, were guests at the Jacob Zong home on Sunday.

BOALSBURG.

Rev. Stealy, of Belleville, was a visitor in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stuart, of Pittsburgh, are visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Harry Markle is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sohl, in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Clarence Passmore, of Harrisburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. W. Hess.

Mr. and Mrs. William Felding, of Staten Island, were callers in town on Tuesday.

William Tennis is having his residence on west Main street treated to a coat of white paint.

William Folk, of Oak Hall, and Ed. Riley are engaged in roofing A. W. Dale's barn and garage.

Mrs. W. J. Wagner attended the Missionary convention at Sunbury on Wednesday and Thursday.

George Markle and family moved from Walnut Grove to the home near town, purchased from George Garman.

The Civic club will have a cafeteria supper and bazaar in Malta hall on Halloween. Japanese novelties will be on sale.

To Auction A. E. F. Mail.

Rosaries, manicure sets, stethoscopes, hair clippers, monacles, dolls, razors, watches, pipes, knives, money, knitted sweaters.

These are a few of the articles found in packages which, for one reason or another, failed to reach American soldiers overseas during the World War. The war department and the postal authorities have exhausted themselves in trying to trace ownership of the accumulation of undelivered packages. Most of the articles were gifts intended for the soldier boys. Many were carelessly wrapped. Lack of return addresses made it impossible to identify senders.

Now the eight bags of war relics will go the way of all dead letter mail.

JACKSONVILLE.

Miss Adella Garbrick is home for a short vacation.

Misses Sarah Vonada and Violet Butler were shoppers in Belleville on Friday.

Miss Florence Garrett has secured employment in the shirt factory at Howard.

Miss Sarah Vonada expects to go to Lock Haven to secure employment, this week.

Mrs. W. E. Weight and daughter, Miss Elnora, were Lock Haven shoppers on Saturday.

Miss Violet Butler, of Howard, was a visitor among friends in our town a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Walker and children, of Howard, were Sunday guests at the E. R. Lucas home.

The Ladies Aid society will hold an all day sewing bee at the home of Mrs. Fern Dunkle, on October 29th.

Miss Edith Hoy, of Lock Haven, was an over Sunday guest at the Luther Fisher home, and also called on other friends in town.

The Reformed church will hold a chicken and waffle supper in the Grange hall, October 17th. Adults, 35 cents; children, 25 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Yearick and daughter Alto returned home on Friday, after spending a few days among friends at Niagara, also seeing the falls and other sights in New York State.

On Sunday afternoon Willis Bathgate took Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver, Miss Pearl Weaver, Miss Josephine Dietz and Willard Weaver to the Lock Haven hospital to call on Mrs. Mary Dietz, who is recovering nicely from an operation for appendicitis.
