A Good Time for All

Store Three Bushels of Vegetables for Each Person.

An apple a day keeps the doctor away, but vegetables are none the less essential to healthful living.

Figures compiled by nutrition specialists says county agent R. C. Blaney show that the following amounts should be stored per person...

Crops that are stored should be mature and sound. This means that the vegetables should be free from disease, insect or mechanical injury if expected to keep well.

Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31:

"NEW BROOMS," featuring BESSIE LOVE and NEIL HAMILTON. This is a Wm. DeMille comedy of the American home. The father attended to the business affairs; the son attended to the love affairs, and then they decided to reverse the system.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2:

"THE FIGHTING DEMON," headed by the unsurpassable RICHARD TAMMAGE in another one of those fast moving cyclonic pictures of his in which he does the impossible in his own glorifying way, and if you are looking for action of the better kind take this one in and you won't go wrong.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3 AND 4:

"AS NO MAN HAS LOVED," with PAULINE STARK and EDWARD HEARN. Based on the famous story, "The Man Without a Country." Here is a drama of tremendous pathos and flaming vitality—a love story, a mother story, a story of vivid, thrilling action and conflict, or in other words, a nation's love story, and a story the nation will love.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5:

The title of the feature to be announced later. Also, Pathe News and Pathe Review.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6:

"DURAND OF THE BAD LANDS," with CHARLES BUCK JONES. This story is well calculated to keep the interest and suspense at fever pitch throughout. There is action from start to finish. There is humor, too, sprinkled here and there to lighten the more dramatic passages, and an appealing romance with dainty Marion Nixon in the role of the heroine.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29 AND 30:

"THE FRESHMAN," Harold Lloyd's latest and greatest picture, and one you will never forget. It will bring tears to a glass eye.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6 AND 7:

"SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE," featuring DOUGLAS MACLEAN, in his latest laugh festival. A beaming, screaming, teeming screen version of George M. Cohan's biggest comedy hit.
