

DALE.—Mrs. Georgiana Furey Dale died at her home near Lemont last Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. On the 25th of May she suffered a stroke of paralysis, but had so far recovered from the effects of it as to be able to attend the centenary celebration of the Spring Creek Presbyterian church at Lemont a few weeks ago. On last Thursday she suffered a slight relapse and pneumonia developed causing her death.

Mrs. Dale was the daughter of William and Rachel Furey and was born at Pleasant Gap, January 23, 1843. She was the last of a family distinguished for its talented members. Her brother, the late Joe W. Furey at the time he was editor and later associate editor of this paper was known all over Pennsylvania as one of the really able journalists of the State. As he was inclined to literature Mrs. Dale's talent ran to music and the concert in this community was not regarded as having been one of much importance unless Georgiana Furey was on the program. May 24, 1864, she married Cornelius Dale who died January 21, 1904. Their marriage was not without historical significance, for it was Rev. Joseph Barnard, father of George Grey Barnard, now one of the world's greatest sculptors, who performed the ceremony. Seven daughters were born to them, Emma, wife of E. P. Lingle; Margaret, who died in childhood, Miss Cornelia, living at home; Rachel, who died in childhood; Mary, wife of Rev. L. V. Barber, of Benton, Pa.; Ethel, wife of L. S. Bortoff, of State College, and Helen, who died in infancy.

There are six surviving grand-children, Helen, Harold, Kenneth, Richard and William Bortoff, of State College, and Walter Lingle, of Lemont.

Mrs. Dale was a woman of such gentle grace and charm as to make her the ideal wife, mother and homemaker, but her talents were not lavished solely in the family circle. They radiated everywhere as benedictions to all who came in contact with her and especially was this so in her work for her beloved Presbyterian church. She was the oldest member of Spring Creek Presbyterian church, having taken her letter there from the church in this place when she was a young woman.

Funeral services were held at her late home, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, her pastor the Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, having officiated and interment was made in the family lot in historic old "Slab Cabin" cemetery.

RICE.—Mrs. Cora Wilson Rice, widow of the late Gamble Rice, died at the Centre County hospital last Friday, following an illness of some months as the result of high blood pressure.

She was born on July 18th, 1865, hence was 60 years, 3 months and 12 days old. Her surviving children are Samuel M. Rice, of Elwood City, Pa.; Mrs. A. C. Gingery, of Bellefonte; Mrs. John Miller, of Niagara Falls; Harry M., of Detroit, Mich.; Calvin, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Elvina Brandon and Mrs. Melvin Harp, of Detroit, and Chester, of Bellefonte. She also leaves three brothers and a sister, F. H. Wilson, of Nescopeck; William, of Danville; John, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Elvina Iddings, of Huntingdon.

She was a member of the United Evangelical church and funeral services were held at the A. C. Gingery residence, on Pine street, at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Sunnyside cemetery.

SANDERS.—Darius L. Sanders, a native of Centre county, died at his home in Renovo on October 19th, as the result of an affection of the heart, with which he had suffered for several years.

He was born at Mt. Eagle on February 2nd, 1837, hence was in his eighty-ninth year. Following the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted in Company H, 148th regiment, at Bellefonte on August 16th, 1862. The following January he was promoted to a corporal and in November, 1863, to a sergeant. He participated in the Battle of the Wilderness and the battle of Gettysburg and was wounded in the battle of Poe river in May, 1864. He was discharged in May, 1865. Mr. Sanders was a carpenter by occupation and was employed by the Pennsylvania railroad company at Renovo. His survivors include one son and five daughters. Burial was made at North Bend on October 22nd.

HALDERMAN.—John Alfred Halderman died on Monday at his home on Willowbank street, Bellefonte, following an illness of five years with a complication of diseases. He was a son of Jacob and Mary Shawley Halderman and was born on September 12th, 1867, hence was 58 years, 1 month and 20 days old. On November 28th, 1912, he married Miss Virginia A. Kaup who survives with one son, John Samuel. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Wilbert Strait, of Huntingdon, and Mrs. Jennie Parsons, of Bellefonte, as well as one half-sister, Mrs. W. T. Gross, of Elmer, N. J. Funeral services were held at his late home at 10 o'clock yesterday morning by Rev. Reed O. Steely, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

CALVERT.—Mrs. Maria Ellen Calvert, wife of Joseph H. Calvert, died on Sunday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Roy F. Klose, in Altoona, following a lengthy illness with a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson

W. Leech, a well known family of Pennsylvan, Centre county, and was born at Shingletown on August 8th, 1851, hence was past seventy-four years of age. She married Mr. Calvert in 1872 and practically her entire married life had been spent in Altoona. In addition to her husband she is survived by three sons and five daughters, as well as one sister. Burial was made in Altoona on Wednesday afternoon.

SUNDAY.—Susanna, wife of J. W. Sunday, a highly esteemed resident of Pine Grove Mills, passed away at the family home at that place on Monday evening after a lingering illness.

She was a daughter of James and E. Bortoff Gummo and was born at Curtin February 28, 1851, making her age 74 years, 8 months and 2 days. On November 22, 1870, she was married to J. W. Sunday and seven children, two of whom are dead, blessed their union. Those surviving are Harry G., of Fairbrook; Mrs. George Bell, of Spruce Creek; Mrs. Harry Sager, of Windber; Mrs. J. E. McWilliams, of Pine Grove Mills, and Miss Ida, at home. One sister, Mrs. Lizzie Gummo, of Tyrone, also survives. There are nineteen grand-children and six great grand-children. Mrs. Sunday had been an active member of the Methodist church for sixty years and until failing health prevented was a leader in every department of its work. She was a lovable woman, of splendid character and there are many to call her blessed.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon by Rev. J. W. McAlarney, assisted by Rev. F. E. Norris and interment was made in the Pine Grove cemetery.

WILLIAMS.—W. S. Williams, a lifelong resident of Bald Eagle valley and a veteran of the Civil war, died at his home at Unionville on Monday afternoon as the result of general debility, aged 83 years, 3 months and 1 day. His parents were Scott and Ellen Peters Williams and he was born at Martha Furnace. During the Civil war he served in Company D, 45th regiment. He was twice married, his first wife having been Miss Rebecca Brown and his second Miss Bertha Clark, who survives with the following children: Mrs. Gertrude Richards, of Jersey Shore; Mrs. Nancy Williams and Mrs. Charlotte Stiver, of Port Matilda; Patience, of Buffalo Run; William, of Woodlawn; Charles, of Pittsburgh; Paul, of Texas; Clark, of Altoona, and Grace, at home. He also leaves one brother and four sisters, Abednego, of Unionville; Mrs. Alice Robinson, of Martha; Elizabeth, in the west; Mrs. Harriet Eckley, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Rachel Bradford, in Baltimore.

Burial was made in the Williams cemetery yesterday afternoon.

McCALMONT.—Agnes E. McCalmont, daughter of John and Jane Laird McCalmont died at her home at Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, Ohio, October 27th.

Miss McCalmont was born near Jacksonville, Centre county, about eighty-three years ago. When a young woman her parents moved to Tiffin, Ohio, where many years of her life were spent. After the death of her parents Miss McCalmont moved to Cincinnati, where she has lived since that time. She was a member of the Presbyterian church from girlhood and a high type christian woman.

Miss McCalmont is survived by one brother, James D. McCalmont, of St. Petersburg, Fla. She has many friends in this vicinity, as she visited here many times with her cousin, Miss Jane R. McCalmont.

BANEY.—Mrs. Frank Baney died at her home on Ridge street at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning following an illness of some months with rheumatism and dropsy. She was a daughter of John and Hannah Thomas McAllister and was born in Bellefonte on December 20th, 1852, hence was not quite 73 years of age. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Charles Bailey, of Irving, Ill. Funeral services will be held at the George Weaver home, on Ridge street, at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow, Saturday, morning, by Rev. Momer C. Knox, after which burial will be made in the Union cemetery.

PARDOE.—Mary Louise Pardoe, infant daughter of Clarence and Margaret Shilling Pardoe, died on Monday as the result of an attack of marasmus, aged 3 months and 7 days. Funeral services were held at the Pardoe home on Logan street on Wednesday, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

Bellefonte Academy Returned Victorious from Invasion of New England.

Invading the sacred precincts of Harvard and Yale the Bellefonte Academy, last Friday, defeated the Dean Academy eleven, at Medford, Mass., by the score of 36 to 7. The Academy team made the trip by auto bus and did not arrive on the field at Medford until 1:30 o'clock p. m. As the game was advertised for 2:30 the players had no time in which to get dinner and the only sustenance they got on which to play the game was tea and lumps of sugar. The result was they were nervous all through the game, did more fumbling than usual and were penalized more frequently.

The only score made by the Dean Academy was early in the first period when Whitmore fumbled one of Hood's long passes and the ball was scooped up by a Dean player who had an open road to the goal posts. The Academy team then settled down to work and Dean never had another chance to score. The team left Boston at ten o'clock on Saturday morning and arrived home at ten o'clock Sunday night.

The Academy eleven went to Washington yesterday where today they will play the Georgetown University freshmen.

Saturday of next week the Academy and Pitt freshmen will meet in battle array on the Cricket field in Altoona. The Pitt yearlings have not been defeated this year which is evidence that they will be a hard bunch to tackle. The game should prove a fine exhibition of football. The admission price will be $1.00, with no reserved seats, and game will be called at two o'clock.

Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7:
"WELCOME STRANGER," with an All Star cast including Florence Vidor, Dore Davidson, Noah Beny, Lloyd Hughes, Robert Edson, Wm. Mong and Otis Harlan. It is a humorous story of how an enterprising Jew with a sense of humor overcomes the racial prejudice of a small New England town, put it on the map and becomes a leading citizen. Good 2 reel Comedy "The Wrestler."

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 8:
"WHITE TANG," featuring Strongheart, the screen's greatest canine. The world's greatest dog in the world's greatest dog story. A smashing dynamic drama of Jack London swept like a blizzard of emotions across Alaska—the most magnificent of backgrounds. A tender love story of the great North, and the devotion of a super dog. Also, Pathe News, Aesop's Funny Fables and another single reel.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10 AND 11:
"THE PONY EXPRESS," headed by Betty Compton, Ricardo Cortez, Ernest Torrence and Wallace Beery. Pony hoofs thunder across the continent from Missouri to California, and East and West are linked again as they were in 1860. Across 2,000 miles of unblazed trail, through scorching sun and black of night; through ice and snow and raiding Indians. Eight days and nights of perilous riding and unmatched heroism. Not for a day, not for a year, like "The Covered Wagon," it will live in the heart of America forever. Ten reels of machless thrills, romance and humor. Also, Mack Sennett's latest comedy, "Moonlight and Noses."

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12:
"THE ANCIENT HIGHWAY," starring Jack Holt, Grita Nisan and Noah Beery. James Oliver Curwood's latest story. This is a romance of highroads and open roads—an outdoor picture of the most virile and appealing type. A story of conflict and love. Some of the high spots include the hero traveling all the way around the world to Canada to beat a man up, resulting in a terrific screen fight. A Paramount picture. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13:
"FLOWER OF THE NIGHT," with POLA NEGLI, Pol as a flaming American Carmen. In a love melodrama flashing with color, dazzling with beauty, starting with thrills. See Pola as a bewitching dance hall dame. Also, second episode of the great serial "WILD WEST," with Miller Bros, 101 Ranch Big Top Circus.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6 AND 7:
"SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE," with DOUGLAS McLEAN in another 7 reel screaming, howling, funny play.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13 AND 14:
"THE EVERLASTING WHISPER," starring TOM MIX. A drama of love and hate in the Western hills.
