

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Fred Bender, of Centre Hall, spent the early part of the week in town. J. Alfred Reed, came up from Freeburg to get his share of small game. John Shoop, of State College, transacted business in town on Saturday evening. Oscar B. Krebs and wife, of Altoona, spent the Sabbath with relatives in town. Carpenters are now at work repairing the bellify on the Pine Hall Lutheran church. John Grove was taken to the Centre County hospital, last Thursday, for medical treatment. Charles Witmer and family were callers at the D. S. Slagel home on Saturday afternoon. J. M. Watt, of Tyrone, was here on Tuesday looking after some business matters and greeting old friends. The ladies of the Lutheran church will serve a roast chicken supper tomorrow evening from 5 to 8 o'clock. Everybody invited. Mrs. Margaret Dale and two sons, Jack and Charles, of Bellefonte, spent the latter end of the week at the Chas. Dale home on the Branch. Miss Barbara Hoffman is here from Berwick for a brief visit with her sister, Mrs. J. Cal. Struble, and other relatives at State College. Rev. S. C. Stover, of Berlin, and Rev. W. W. Moyer, were entertained at dinner, on Sunday, at the Newton O. Dreibehis home, at White Hall. Mrs. Harvey Bowersox was hit by a car, on the street at State College, on Saturday afternoon, sustaining several fractured ribs and other injuries. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Everhart and two boys made a trip to Graysville to see Master Alexander Johnston, who is just recovering from a serious illness. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bloom, accompanied by Mrs. T. A. Mallory, tried out the new state highway through Bald Eagle valley, on Sunday, calling on friends in Bellefonte, State College and Pine Grove Mills. On reporting at the round house in Altoona for his night trip west, last Thursday evening, Conrad M. Fry, a P. R. R. engineer, fell into an asphalt, sustaining painful injuries on his face and head. He was taken to the Altoona hospital where he is recovering nicely. Thompson A. Snyder, a Civil war veteran was given the surprise of his life, last Tuesday evening, on the occasion of his 81st birthday anniversary. A big dinner was served at the home of his son-in-law, Robert M. Foster, at State College. Among the guests were the veteran's son, John Snyder and wife, of Philadelphia. During the war Mr. Snyder served in the 2nd Pa. cavalry.

truck upset and the fowls flew everywhere. Henry L. Dale spent last week at Middletown, N. Y., with the Sheffield Farms Dairy Co. Mrs. Miller has returned home after a visit of two weeks with relatives in Cleveland, Ohio. George Edward Meyer and wife motored up from Boalsburg, to visit friends here on Wednesday. Mr. Paul Wilson, Edgar Hess' right bower on the farm, resigned last Friday to accept another position. Dr. Stork made his eighth visit to the Charles Graham home on the Branch and left a little daughter. Mrs. Frank Fishburn and Mrs. Andy Lytle who have been numbered among the sick are now convalescing nicely. Three joyous days of Swarthmore Chautauqua coming Nov. 18 to the I. O. O. F. hall here. Buy your tickets now. Ed Frank and Eugene Woomer spent Saturday afternoon at the county capital mixing pleasure with business. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robinson, of Altoona, were Sunday visitors at the Jos. E. Johnson home on east Main street. Our nimrods were happy over the blanket of snow that made rabbit and turkey hunting easy on the first day of the season. J. H. McCracken and S. A. Homan motored to the Harry Silkmitter farm at Manor Hill, on Friday, in quest of blooded cattle. C. Milton Wieland and family spent Saturday afternoon among the jolly Halfmooners over in Stormstown and had a fine time. Mr. Clarence Froan motored up from Harrisburg Saturday to be on hand early for the opening of the hunting season. Mr. Taylor Kanarr and bride left Saturday for Altoona to take their first lessons in housekeeping. He has employment there. W. D. Custard and wife departed Friday on a motor trip down into Dixie land. They will spend the winter in Florida. Rev. Harry N. Walker, with his wife and son spent the early part of the week with his father, A. Stine Walker, and other friends in town. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fry accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Glenn motored to the Lumber City to spend Sunday with the former's son, William Brooks Fry. Mrs. M. E. Morris, of West Virginia, is visiting Centre county relatives and friends. Most of her time is being spent with Mrs. Sallie Burwell, her sister-in-law. Edward Kocher and his son Jack each got a fine gobbler. Gregg Keatley had a fat hen and Jack Houser a 12 pound gobbler as a result of their first days hunt. Mr. and Mrs. James Jay and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams, all of Clearfield, were royally entertained at the J. H. Williams home on east Main street on Sunday. Relatives have received word of the illness of Mrs. J. W. Kepler, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Grapp and family. All of the Grapp family is reported to be ill also. J. M. Campbell, with his sons, motored to Clearfield on Saturday, in their new Rickenbacker car to see Clearfield put the cleaner on State College to the tune of 13 to 0. A Buick car, going at a forty clip, failed to make the curve below town and went head on into a telephone pole. It was badly wrecked and abandoned for several days, but was finally taken away. Last Friday a big truck crashed into two cars parked at the Rossman garage almost taking the body off the Harper car and wrecking that of Mr. Gummo, who was in his car at the time but escaped injury. Bad weather failed to keep folks from the Hallowe'en social at the R. W. Reed home at Rock Springs. A good program of dialogue and music, with splendid refreshments made it a memorable evening for all who attended. Neighbor Harry Grubb spent the early part of the week with his parents in Dauphin county. Their barn, one of the largest in the county, with all the out buildings, two silos, and all of this years crops, was recently destroyed by fire. Daniel M. Clemson, who was in the county for the funeral of his brother Frank, spent some of his time at his old home at Baileyville, noting changes in places and faces that have occurred since he left there thirty-five years ago. The his locks are silvered and he has become a multi-millionaire he is the same genial gentleman as of yore. The blizzard on Friday did not dampen the spirit of the Hallowe'eners. They had Odd Fellows hall packed that night with a jolly party. In costumes, music, things for sale and a general good time it excelled all former attempts. Mrs. Blanche Louck was

PLEASANT GAP.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Noll returned home Tuesday of last week, from Philadelphia. Mrs. John Weaver has just completed some very desirable additions to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Huston, of Corning, N. Y., spent Saturday and Sunday with Rev. McKechnie. Mrs. O. C. Campbell, of Barnesboro, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Tate, who has been ill for several weeks. Frank Millward was called to Philadelphia, on Monday, on account of the serious illness, of his father, who is a patient in the University hospital. The school bond for the erection of an extensive school house at the Gap carried almost unanimously. The voters displayed their good sense and judgment on this occasion. William Rossman, Bruce Peck and John Horner are the only hunters here who succeeded in landing a wild turkey since the hunting season opened. The wily, watchful creatures are unusually scarce this season. The Noll Bros. are moving their barber shop from the Hornet road over to the state road next to the pool room; a most sensible improvement. Harry Crissman, our practical tonsorial artist, will proceed at once to refurnish his shop throughout and make a number of necessary improvements, so that it will be up-to-date in every detail. The change is a very good and commendable one. John Herman, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with his mother and family. As usual, they had chicken and waffles on the Sunday dinner menu—something John is prodigiously fond of. Nothing is too good for John when he visits his mother. Mrs. Herman has been visiting with her parents in Bellefonte for the past ten days, but returned home on Tuesday. John Sr. said it seemed like a month since his favorite little Jack has been absent from home. Mrs. John Herman, at the recent masquerade party held at the home of her son, W. Duncan Herman, surprised all parties present, and on account of her superlatively odd make-up carried off the first prize. She was dressed in man's attire and so well had she succeeded in keeping her identity a blank that only one person present, Mrs. Hugh Crumlish, had the least idea who she was until the masques were removed. Even her own children did not recognize the unique figure. After the removal of the masques the jollification followed. All had a splendid time. The idea of devoting so much space to apparently trivial matters in connection with social life is merely to aid in the observance of those laws, the intricacies and duties of which no one can retain in the memory. Ladies are adepts in conformity to the slightest, and, to the average observer, the most insignificant forms laid down by the autocrats of society, but it sometimes comes to pass that they need recourse to the letter of the dictum and cannot trust to what they think is the proper thing to be done in the circumstances and under the conditions thus prevailing. Some of the leading lights among the political workers of the Democratic persuasion of Bellefonte are apparently very busy in the late-mentioned dole out against their political favorite, W. Harrison Walker, Esq., at the recent election. The causes leading to the reduced vote of Mr. Walker were not occasioned on account of a lack of hard work on the part of their favorite, for it must be admitted that Mr. Walker has few equals and no superior as an enthusiastic, incessant hustler. His excellency at Harrisburg caused the slump in Mr. Walker's ambition in Bellefonte. Of course, Mr. Keller has many friends in his home town; we might say he is quite popular, not only in Bellefonte but all over the county, as well. Almost the entire bar signed a petition asking his excellency to appoint him to the judgeship vacancy. This he ignored, when my friend, Miss Rhoads, accompanied by Arthur Dale Esq., called on him, simply because Miss Rhoads is such an ardent prohibition worker, he appointed Dale. The voters were horrified and in order to humiliate the Governor and to convince him that he is not the whole cheese they made it possible for Harry Keller to surprise the multitude. There is peace and contentment at home when the wife and children spring to welcome the father upon his return from the business of the day, and the man in turn leaves the strife of the business world behind him when he closes the street door of his home, and is thankful for that haven of rest. That nation possessing the greatest number of homes is certainly the most enduring; home life is elevating and strengthening, and when young men and women marry and found a home of their own they are participants in the work of perpetuating a people and assume responsibilities, the gravity of which they do not realize for some time afterward. A wife leaves home, parents and friends connected with her previous existence to follow her husband, who, on his part, should consider her above all things else and make her the choicest object of his care, solicitude and attention. Before entering the marital state, therefore, young men and women should indulge in reflection and not rush into matrimony unthinkingly; parents should be alert in the matter of admitting young men to their homes, and it is due to their daughters that those who call upon them should be of good character and high purpose. It is to be regretted that both often neglect this good advice.

BOALSBURG.

Miss Anna Sweeney is spending this week among friends in Centre Hall. Mr. and Mrs. John Kimpport entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Garman at dinner on Sunday. The members of the Riley hunting party enjoyed a chicken and waffle supper at their camp on Saturday evening. Harold Fisher, who is a member of the motor police patrol, spent part of Tuesday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher. The Woman's Missionary society in the Lutheran church, Sunday morning, at 10:30 o'clock. Mrs. Becker will deliver the address. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Webster of Norristown, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eisenberg, of St. Petersburg, Fla., spent Monday with the former's son, E. A. Webster and family. Mr. and Mrs. George Garman, of Bellefonte, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Webster. Messrs. Garman and Webster attended the Penn State-Notre Dame game and alumni smoker. Rev. Kirkpatrick is conducting evening services in the Presbyterian church during this week and at least part of next week. Rev. Thompson, of Bellefonte, assisted Monday and Tuesday evenings.

OAK HALL.

Some of the farmers of this vicinity are busily engaged in hulling their clover seed. Mrs. James W. Swabb, of Milesburg, was a week-end visitor at the J. J. Tressler home. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zong, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday at his parental home at this place. Mr. and Mrs. John Rhodes, of Orviston, were Sunday visitors at the Rhodes home in this place. Mrs. Thomas Gramley, of Altoona, is spending several days as a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ross Lowder. John Wagner accompanied his brother Ernest to Cleveland, Ohio, where he expects to secure employment. Alonza Rupp, of Altoona, and Mrs. Mattie Tressler, of State College, were recent visitors with the J. J. Tressler family. Mrs. Charles Whitehill and Mrs. Melville Greene, of this place, attended the funeral of John Halderman, at Bellefonte, last Thursday. R. J. Lowder, our accommodating merchant, was so unfortunate as to have his best hunting dog killed by a passing automobile, last Wednesday.

Plan New Dollar Coin, Part Gold, Part Silver.

Admitting failure to popularize the silver dollar and the two-dollar bill, Treasury officials at Washington have decided to mint a new coin, a combination gold and silver dollar, because of the rapid deterioration of paper money. The proposed new coin will be of distinctive appearance, possibly a gold centre with a rim of silver, and will be slightly larger than a quarter. Banking and merchandising interests which handle large sums of money have indicated that such a substitute for the dollar bill would be desirable. It is expected, however, that the new coin will be just as elusive as the present dollar bill. Those who prefer the dollar bill, the common laborer of American currency, will still be able to obtain it, but officials point out that the paper dollar has a life of only six to ten months.—Ex.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. John Stumpf, of Altoona, was a recent guest of Mrs. W. J. Krape, on Main street. Mrs. Mary Breen has returned from Jersey Shore, where she spent several weeks with her children. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gilbert and two children, of Sunbury, were week-end guests of friends in town. Walter E. Orwig came up from Allentown, where he is employed, to spend Sunday with his family here. Mrs. Robert Hackenberg, of Rebersburg, is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Musser. Mrs. John Mohr Otto and Mrs. Anna M. Stover came down from State College to cast their ballot on election day. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grove and children spent a short time with Mrs. Grove's mother, recently. The Grove family reside in Williamsport. Mrs. J. G. Eisenhauer, after having spent three weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grove, in Williamsport, returned home Friday of last week. The Robert Hosterman sale on Saturday afternoon was fairly well attended. The house was sold to George S. Cunningham for $1,755, who expects to occupy the same in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hull had as guests, Friday of last week, Mr. Hull's brother-in-law, J. W. Adams, two daughters and grand-son, Mrs. R. Allison Miller, Mrs. Helen Holder and son, John Robert Holder, all of Huntingdon.

JACKSONVILLE.

Miss Loretta Condo, of Williamsport, spent Sunday at her home here. The revival meeting to be held in the Evangelical church has been postponed for a week. Mrs. George Ertley returned home on Friday after spending a week with friends at Altoona. Clifford Peck returned to his home at Bellwood, after spending a week at the Harry Hoy home, for the purpose of hunting small game.

MEDICAL.

Are You Rheumatic?

Many Pangs that Pass for Rheumatism are Really Due to Weak Kidneys. Do you suffer the agonizing pangs of rheumatism? Are you tortured with rheumatic joints and stabbing twinges? Then you should know that many so called rheumatic troubles are due to an excess of uric acid and must be treated through the kidneys. When the kidneys weaken, the whole system is upset by these body poisons. Help your kidneys with a stimulant diuretic. Use Doan's Pills, the remedy your neighbors recommend! Here is a Bellefonte woman's case: Mrs. A. C. Hoy, E. Logan St., says: "A pulling pain in the small of my back made me so miserable, I could hardly do my housework. My kidneys were weak, too, and they acted too often. I tired easily and was so worn-out I didn't feel like doing anything. Dizzy spells came on, too and everything turned black before me. I was miserable with rheumatic pains. After using two boxes of Doan's Pills, from Tanner's Cut-Rate store, my kidneys acted normally and I was rid of the attack." 6c, at all dealers.
