Marine Meets Death in Automobile Accident.

Paul Garfield Barto, a marine in training at the naval station at Paris Island, South Carolina, died last Saturday evening of injuries sustained in an auto wreck while out riding with some companions on Saturday morning. He enlisted for service on July 10th, 1925, and during the four months he had been in training had won a medal for marksmanship and was esteemed by officers and privates.

He was a son of George and Margaret Barto and was born at Gatesburg on December 19th, 1905, hence was not quite twenty years of age. His boyhood days were spent on the farm and in attending the public schools, but the lure of the life of a marine got into his head and his enlistment followed. In addition to his parents he is survived by two brothers and two sisters, Robert, David, Florence and Bertha, all at home. He was a member of the Methodist church and Sunday school.

The remains were brought to his home on Wednesday and funeral services held in the Lutheran church at Gatesburg at ten o'clock on Thursday morning by Rev. J. S. English. Burial in the Gatesburg cemetery was in charge of the Loyal Legion.

—Rev. A. Lawrence Miller, pastor of the Methodist church at Lewis-town, has applied for passports for himself and wife for a four month's tour of Europe. They are planning to sail on January 30th and will visit Switzerland, Holland, Germany, Italy, France, Belgium and Great Britain. Both Rev. and Mrs. Miller are well known in Centre county, the latter before her marriage having been Miss Blanche Patterson, daughter of the late W. C. Patterson, of State College.

—If you want to see the best motion pictures made go to that good, old, reliable movie show, the Scenic theatre. No "has-beens" are included in the nightly programs. The pictures are all recent releases and more than worth the price of admission. Manager Brown has the output of the leading film manufacturers booked for months ahead and the only way to be sure of seeing all the good ones is to be a regular attendant.

PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOToplay
Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21:
 "HE'S A PRINCE," with RAYMOND GRIFFITH and MARY BRIAN in the cream of screams. His High Hat Highness, the Prince of Howls, is with us again, with his old high hat and new high jinks. They wanted to give the heir of the throne—but the Prince wanted to give the throne the "air." A side-splitting comedy of royalty and revolutions. Clever two reel comedy "Peacemakers."

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 23:
 "THOSE WHO JUDGE" with PATSY RUTH MILLER and LOU TELLEGEN. A high class society drama with a well balanced cast including Mary Thurman and Edmund Bruse. The picture is just released and should give 100 per cent. satisfaction to all theatre goers. Also, Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and a single educational reel "Sky Tribe."

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24 AND 25:
 "THE DARK ANGEL," featuring RONALD COLMAN and VILMA BANKY the famous Continental beauty. A love revelation to plumb the depths of your soul. Greatest realistic romance, thrilling in its moments of inspired beauty and drama. A pageant of splendor and gallantry and style against a background of war and gallantry. This picture was made for lovers who really love—and married folks who are lovers still. It is the misunderstandings that tear lovers apart; it is jealousy; it is selfishness. There is no love without a Dark Angel. Also, Mack Bennett's latest comedy, "No Father to Guide Him," Matinee, Wednesday, 2 p. m.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26:
 "HELL'S HIGHROAD," Cecil DeMills' latest picture starring LEATRICE JOY and EDMUND BURNS, and a big supporting cast. Here is the season's screen spectacle—the DeMills personally supervised production, under the direction of Rupert Julian. A master production from the hand of the screen's master genius; a gripping story of life and love, an avalanche of dramatic sequences thundering onward to a vivid climax. Here again is a great star, portraying the vibrant emotions of a woman's love with a forceful intensity and subtle delicacy that awes and overwhelms. Lavishly luxurious, scintillating with humor. Also, Pathe News and Pathe Review.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27:
 "THANK YOU," featuring GEORGE O'BRIEN and JACQUELINE LOGAN with an All Star cast including J. Farrell McDonald, Alec Francis, Geo. Fawcett and others. One of John Goldin's play hits. A human story of the taming of a town of hypocrites. It will make you laugh as well as weep. Also, 4th episode of the "WILD WEST" serial.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 20 AND 21:
 "THE PONY EXPRESS," featuring ERNEST TORRENCE, WALLACE BERRY, RICARDO CORTEZ and BETTY COMPTON. Here is a feature you have all been looking for and we guarantee it to give 100 per cent. satisfaction. Come early and get in ahead of the crowd. Also, 2 reel Pathe Comedy "Feet of Mud." Admission 10 and 25 cents.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27 AND 28:
 "THE BEST BAD MAN," headed by TOM MIX. Here is another good show with Tony doing his stuff.
