PLEASANT GAP.

Mrs. Ralph Gilger, of Harrisburg, is visiting here.

Miss Margaret Keller spent the week-end at Altoona.

Harry Lohman and family spent the week-end in Berwick.

Edgar Sommers and family were visitors in Altoona last week.

Mrs. Annie Barnard, of Mill Hall, is visiting at the Millward home.

Now that the deer season is on, the poor rabbits will have a much-needed rest.

It is always a difficult task to write about nothing, especially if it must be well done.

Mrs. Shelley, of Port Royal, was a visitor among her many friends here the past week.

John Furey, of Sharon, is making an extended visit with his sister, Mrs. William Florey.

Miss Lois Rishel, of Rochester, N. Y., spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Rishel.

William Hoover's Sunday school class will be entertained this (Friday) evening, at the home of Mrs. Harris.

Mrs. Leslie Horner and children just returned from a week's vacation with Mr. Horner's father, at Pennsylvania Furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keller and daughter Betty, of Philadelphia, spent Thanksgiving with their numerous friends here.

Mrs. Theodore Ramsey, of Harrisburg, was a visitor here last week with her three brothers, William, Abner and John, the Noll Bros.

Mrs. Harold Kerstetter and little son are spending the week at State College, with her parents, while Harold is absent from home hunting.

Dr. A. M. Schmidt, of Bellefonte, preached in the Lutheran church last Sunday afternoon, and Rev. Wagner in the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

Aviator Ward, of the new aviation field, accompanied Samuel Weaver to the Pleasant Gap hunting camp in the Seven mountains to remain, as he says, until he gets his limit of deer.

Our assistant postmistress, Miss Christine Weaver, spent a day with her friend, Miss Helen Gfrerer, of Axe Mann, who is a pupil at a Williamsport school, and is spending her Thanksgiving vacation with her parents.

Mrs. Duck, of White Rock, died on Thursday last and was buried in the Zion cemetery. She leaves to mourn her death her husband and eight small children. A very sad and regrettable incident, but sorrow is the passport by which we are to be made acceptable in that house where all tears are to be wiped away.

With an abundance of orders crowding White Rock on Thanksgiving day, the management of that institution displayed their good judgment by giving all employees that day off. This is the first day off since the new management went into effect.

The ladies of the Lutheran church served dinner and supper at Noll's hall on Thanksgiving day. In addition they had on sale some very fine, artistic needle work. The attendance was quite liberal, which assured the financial success of the venture.

We have two judiciously well conducted Sunday schools at the Gap, and the attendance is very creditable, and the teachers are energetic and quite proficient in every detail. Sunday school teachers should win the affections of their scholars if they wish to lead them to Christ.

Frances E. Willard, head of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for many years, believed in "white lives" for both men and women; and that men should be as pure in thought and deed as they required women to be. She was one of the most remarkable women of the nineteenth century, and accomplished a vast amount of good.

The Pleasant Gap hunting club will be well represented in the hunt over in the Seven mountains. It is to be hoped that they will return with their limit of deer. Some of the more enthusiastic members say they will remain out the full two weeks unless they reach their limit earlier. Our day hunters will confine their hunt exclusively to the Nittany mountain and Green Valley.

In ignorance, poverty and vice, as a pauper or criminal, alone we starve or steal, alone we suffer the sneers and rebuffs of our fellows, alone we are hunted and wounded through dark courts and alleys, in by-ways and high-ways; alone we stand at the judgment seat; alone in the prison cell we lament over our crimes and misfortunes, and alone we expiate them on the executioner's electric chair. How sad, and yet how true, "the way of the transgressor is hard."

Some villain or villains stole one hundred blooded chickens from Jerry Donovan, at Axe Mann, a week ago. The man or men who would steal from Jerry are nothing short of God-forsaken thieves. Had they told Jerry they were hungry, he would, without a doubt, have given them a pair or two of his chickens cheerfully, since he is noted for his liberality and charity. This reminds me of an incident that occurred four years ago, when this philanthropist was on the Spring township ticket as a candidate for overseer of the poor. When he entered the voting booth to cast his vote he called out, "friends don't forget the Irish." On this criminal occasion the unwelcome pilferers didn't forget the Irish.

Idleness will render you petulant, and disappointment ruffles the smoothest temper. If we would eradicate the thorns that grow in the path of life, we would guard with unremitting vigilance the passions. Controlled, they are the genial heat that warms us along the way of life; unguarded, they are consuming fires. But the most important truth cannot be too early learned—the great essential to our happiness is, the resolution to perform our duty to God, as well as we are able; and when this resolution is deeply fixed, every action and every pursuit brings satisfaction to the mind. Then, if the prospects in this life are so precarious; if the pleasures of this life are so transient, and no confidence can be reposed in them; to what resource must we apply to become possessed of some secure dependence, to support and buoy us up in the hour of sorrow and affliction? To whom shall we fly for comfort in the hour of trouble? Nature and reason reveal the healing consolation; it is a pure, invaluable gem, which shines brightest in adversity. It is the gem Religion; that beacon which lights us to another and better world; it serves as a consolation when mankind desert us and the cheerless hand of sorrow is placed upon our brow. It is a friendly attribute, a glorious yet modest flower. How often have I witnessed that in the youthful breast the valuable shoot had just begun to expand, but for want of care and necessary attention, or some wicked depravity of mind, the tender plant was blasted by the contagion and left in its location a vacant spot, to be usurped by depravity and vice.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

George A. Goss is now convalescing from an attack of pneumonia.

Earl Calvert, of Altoona, was a Sunday visitor at the S. A. Homan home.

The I. W. T. band cleared $125 at their oyster supper and bazaar last Friday evening.

Charles M. Dale and daughter Virginia made a trip to the county capital on Saturday.

Mrs. Margaret Sunday, of Fairbrook, is visiting the Waldo Homan home, at Oak Hall.

Mrs. Elizabeth Markle, of Pine Hall, spent Tuesday with Miss Virginia Dale, on the Branch.

Plummer Port and family, of Stonevalley, were visitors at the Russell Inn Wednesday last week.

Walter Woods and wife, of Pittsburgh, spent Thanksgiving day at the Dr. George H. Woods home.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Snyder are rejoicing over the arrival of a sweet little daughter, last Wednesday.

Mrs. W. O. Heckman, a former Pennsylvania lady, is seriously ill with pneumonia at her home at Juniata.

Clayton Corl and wife and Mrs. Ada Krebs and daughter spent Sunday with relatives in the Mountain city.

Newton T. Krebs, boss carpenter at the Huntingdon reformatory, is here for his annual hunt on Old Tussey.

J. W. Miller, Carl Wagner and Harry Gearhart bagged a wild turkey apiece on Tussey mountain on Saturday.

Homer Walker went out back of Yarnell, on Thanksgiving day and bagged a 200 pound bear all by himself.

W. H. Weaver and daughter Erma spent the early part of the week in Altoona shopping and visiting relatives.

Miss Maude Gearhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gearhart, fell off a horse and fractured the bones in one of her legs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Struble are planning to spend the winter in Florida, expecting to go south shortly after the holidays.

H. L. Dale and a friend, of Mifflinburg, were guests at the Charles Dale home on Saturday evening, returning home the same night.

Walter O'Bryan, who has been in poor health most of the summer, will spend some time with his grandmother, on Church street.

Rev. J. O. C. McCracken, wife and two sons, were guests for their Thanksgiving day dinner at the old family home in the Glades.

On Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hess went to Shamokin where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Hess' cousin, Miss Margaret Tressler, to Harold McRea.

Athalie, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Aikens, of State College, underwent a serious operation at the Danville hospital, last Saturday, and is now getting along as well as can be expected.

The venerable Samuel Glenn, a well known retired farmer, is seriously ill at his home on the Branch, suffering with a stroke of paralysis. He was stricken several days ago as he returned home from a drive, and was found lying under the buggy.

A good crowd of bidders was at the J. E. Sunday sale last week, but prices were not high. Horses sold for $78, cows $65, sheep $13, and the sale amounted to $1876. At the John White sale horses sold from $125 to $100, and cows from $19 to $72.

On their return from their honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. James Wasson were given a reception at the bridegroom's home on the Branch on Thanksgiving evening. Only the immediate relatives were present but the young couple received many nice presents.

The slippery condition of the state highway, owing to the recent snow fall caused a number of auto accidents. A big Hudson car carrying six passengers, bound from Elmira, N. Y., to Pittsburgh, was wrecked just west of town, but fortunately no one was injured. Ellis Auman, enroute from McAlevys Fort with a truck load of mill stuff, upset and smashed one front wheel but escaped unhurt.

BOALSBURG.

Hunting is the chief topic of conversation in this vicinity.

D. M. Snyder has recovered sufficiently from his recent fall to walk about the streets.

Harry Young and wife, of Illinois, arrived in town on Saturday, to visit his mother, Mrs. Ellen Young.

A. E. Webster, Ralph Dale and Paul Derner motored to Pittsburgh, Wednesday, returning home Friday.

P. B. Lonebarger and daughters, Dorothy, Hester and Lois, visited friends in Shamokin from Friday until Sunday.

Mrs. Bayletts, of State College, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davidson, of Wingate, were week-end visitors at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Markle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kuhn and daughter Margaret, of Williamsport, are visiting friends in town. Mr. Kuhn is a member of a hunting club and is spending his vacation in the mountains.

Mrs. Elmira Ewing, of Snyder county, is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Zechman.

Mrs. Ewing accompanied her son Charles, of Levistown, to Cresson, to visit another son, who is a patient in the sanatorium there.

OAK HALL.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Homan spent Saturday afternoon at Millheim.

Mr. and Mrs. James Seamon and daughter, of Centre Hall, were Sunday visitors at the Frank Ishler home.

Miss Edith Whitehill, who is employed at a fraternity at State College, spent Thanksgiving day at her home in this place.

Mrs. E. C. Radel, of Millersburg, a former resident of this place, visited on Saturday at the J. J. Tressler home, on Cedar Creek.

There will be special services in the Lemont Presbyterian church next Sunday evening, December 6th, at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Frazier, of Linden Hall, were recent visitors with Mrs. Frazier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zong. Mr. and Mrs. Frazier expect to move to Bellefonte in the near future.

Recalled Matter on Car

Just as a young woman on a south-bound street car rang the bell preparatory to leaving the car, the other day, a woman seated beside her asked: "Pardon me, but will you be going near a telephone?"

The girl said she would; whereupon the other said: "Well, will you please call up Westport XYZ and tell whoever answers to please take the potatoes off the fire, water the plants and leave the laundry on the side porch? And thank you, so much."

And so far as the other passengers know the young woman did.—Kansas City Star.

Policemen Use Tear Gas

Tear gas such as was used during the World war is becoming more and more a weapon employed by the police in big cities in arresting violent criminals who resist. One policeman equipped with tear gas can now arrest a man or group of men with greater ease than 20 officers could formerly. The gas is loaded into the night stick or blilly club and released by pressing a button. Police are being instructed by men who had experience with the gas during the war.

Famous Irishman

Oliver St. John Gogarty, noted in his native Dublin as a wit and satirist, has been at various times a politician, a physician and a writer. As a senator of the Irish Free State, he was captured by insurgent forces and was forced to swim the icy Liffey to save his life. Escaping to London, he became a physician, and upon his return to Ireland produced a volume of verse that won the poetry prize at the Irish games. Critics of Gaelic verse place him with Yeats and Joyce.

Promising Boy Musician

James Whitehead, a youth of twelve in Morecambe, England, recently defeated 80 adults in a violin competition. He was pronounced a musical marvel by the judges who sat enraptured by his music and the facility with which he played. He plans to follow a musical career.

MEDICAL.

Are You Tired, Achy-- All Run Down?

This Bellefonte Resident Tells You How to Get Well.

Tired all the time?? Lame, stiff and achy? Tortured with nagging backache? Knife-like twinges when you stoop or lift?

Miserable with headaches, dizzy spells and bladder irregularities? All are signs of kidney sickness! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Here's Bellefonte testimony: William Bottorf, E. Lamb St., says: "A cold settled in my kidneys and I had backache. A dull misery in the small of my back made my work tedious. Mornings my back felt stiff and sore. My kidneys became weak and I had to pass the secretions often. A tired, worn-out feeling took away my energy and I also had headaches and dizzy spells. After using one box of Doan's Pills, from Parrish's drug store, I was cured."

AARONSBURG.

Harry Crouse, of Akron, Ohio, is the guest of his father, J. H. Crouse, during the hunting season.

Robert Brown, of Bellevue, Ohio, has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Harper, and Mr. and Mrs. Guisevite.

Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Mingle and daughters, of Roaring Springs, were guests over Thanksgiving of Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Smith.

Miss Eliza Summers, of Williamsport, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Wolf, while Mr. Wolf has gone into a hunting camp as cook.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Stover had as guests over Thanksgiving, their only daughter, Miss Marian Stover, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Stover's sister, Miss Elizabeth Yarger, of State College.

Miss Amanda Haines, now of State College, spent the Thanksgiving vacation at her home in this town. She returned to State College on Monday morning, accompanied by her sister, Miss Cora, who will spend the winter at State College.

Tuesday morning, bright and early, William Bower and son-in-law, Harold Hazel, left town hoping to succeed in getting a deer. About nine o'clock they returned to town with a four-pronged buck. Mr. Bower was the man who shot the deer. The E. L. Stover hunting party were fortunate in securing a four-prong buck.
