

Bellefonte High Lost to Johnstown.

Bellefonte's crack High school football team went down in defeat before Johnstown's more seasoned players on the afternoon of Thanksgiving day by the score of 13 to 0. The Johnstown players started in with an aggressiveness that brought them a tally in the first period, while in the second period Bellefonte held them scoreless. Johnstown scored again in the third period but were unable to make the rifle in the fourth. The field was wet and muddy and fumbling was frequent. Notwithstanding their defeat in the final game the High school team made a splendid record during the season and deserves lots of praise and encouragement.

County W. C. T. U. Makes Gains During Year.

The following report submitted at the annual meeting of the woman's clubs held at State College, shows in detail the gains made in membership by the W. C. T. U. in Centre county during the past year, and also the work that has been done in various lines by this worthy organization:

The Centre county Woman's Christian Temperance Union has gained considerably in membership the past year—one of the local unions trebling its members, another winning the State prize for attaining the standard of excellence—Port Matilda and State College respectively. Bellefonte union, too, has made a considerable gain in membership and continues its beneficent work for the county hospital, maintaining the W. C. T. U. room there as has been done for a great number of years. Scientific temperance instruction essays have been written in both the High school and Academy and in the State College schools, the writers of these awarded prizes by the unions. Last year a Bellefonte Academy student won the State prize for the best essay written in the whole State of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. W. A. Broyles, of State College, county corresponding secretary, won the State prize for the best essay written on the World Court. At the State W. C. T. U. convention, at Harrisburg, Mrs. Broyles was elected to the position of State director of the peace department.

Medal contests (oratorical) have also been held in various localities throughout the county, promoting the principles of total abstinence from tobacco and narcotics as well as of intoxicating liquors, and for peace, purity and prohibition.

A booth was maintained at the Granger picnic by the Centre Hall W. C. T. U., where posters were displayed and a great amount of literature distributed.

Work with the young people and the children has been promoted by the fostering of the young peoples' branch and the Loyal Temperance Legion, the State secretary of the Y. P. B., Miss Wiggin, having been in the county for that purpose.

The vice president of the State, Mrs. Seymour, was engaged for a week in the county, speaking and organizing a new Union at Spring Mills, and gaining new members elsewhere.

A tri-county institute was participated in by the county union at Bellwood.

Emphasis has been placed on the necessity for more christian activity in the home by continuance of the family altar and bible reading.

Sentiment has been aroused and kept vitally alive for the enactment of righteous laws and their observance and enforcement, and for the election of dry candidates to public office, irrespective of party affiliations, who will best uphold the same.

Respectfully submitted,
REBECCA NAOMI RHOADS,
President.

—On November 3rd, 1925, John Porter Lyon gave a demonstration with his Chalmers—Detroit automobile in an endurance run of 201.1 miles without stopping the motor. In doing so he made eight round trips to Julian, starting at 7:58 o'clock in the morning and finishing the run at 6:21 in the evening. That was regarded as some performance seventeen years ago but such a run would be made in half the time now and create little comment.

—The Nittany lion was downed by the Pitt panther on Thanksgiving day by the score of 23 to 7. It was the first time since 1919 that State succeeding in crossing Pitt's goal line.

PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAY
Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5:

"THE PERFECT CLOWN," featuring LARRY SEMON. The story of "The Perfect Clown" is irresistibly funny; the humor is heightened here and there by a touch of pathos—a true portrayal of life. A groan that is changed into a grin—a tear that is brushed away by laughter. And the star and the story of this triumphant comedy were both created to amuse. Also, two reel Fox Comedy, "Control Yourself."

MONDAY, DECEMBER 7:

"THE NEW COMMANDMENT," featuring BLANCHE SWEET and BEN LYON. Taken from the novel "Invisible Wounds." To him who had known many love came the angel of Flanders. Her tender hand reshaped a life pledged to finish on a field where, win or lose, all are heroes. From her lips he heard the New Commandment. It Lives; with a story of love that dispairs, love that dares, and love that wins. Also, Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and single reel comedy. One Day Only.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 8 AND 9:

"STAGE STRUCK," featuring GLORIA SWANSON and FORD STERLING. This is a story of a girl who tried to make the dream come true. The gorgeous banquet scenes which open Gloria's latest picture are done in natural colors as are the closing episodes of the production, showing the star and Lawrence Gray, leading man, as cashier and waiter, respectively, in some riotously funny lunch wagon scenes. Ford Sterling, recently seen in a great comedy role in "Trouble with Wives," is funnier than ever. This is Gloria's greatest dramatic role, her richest comedy role, her flashiest fashion role, and also her latest production. Also, Mack Sennett Comedy.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10:

"THE SPORTING VENUS," with BLANCHE SWEET, LEW CODY and RONALD COLEMAN. It is a story of the romantic type, based on the love of a wealthy Scotch nobleman and a commoner, a medical student, and following the old adage that true love never runs smooth, there is introduced a suave fortune-hunting prince who brings about dissension, though true love triumphs in the end. Marshall Neilan has turned out another great show. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11:

"$50,000 REWARD," featuring the great trick rider, KEN MAYNARD. It tells the story of a young man's struggle for love and fortune. It reveals man's avarice and at the same time exploits the virtues of courage and perseverance. Lots of fast action and all the thrills you want.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4 AND 5:
Harolds Bell Wright's story, "A SON OF HIS FATHER." You can't go wrong with Wright.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11 AND 12:
LEON EARL and DOROTHY GISH in "CLOTHES MAKE THE PIRATE." Another Gish screen classic.
