PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAY
Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12:

"THE SCARLET SAINT," with MARY ASTOR AND LLOYD HUGHES. New Orleans in Mardi Gras time. A riot of color, bizarre costumes and rollicking mirth. Against this background is enacted a thrilling drama of love and loyalty, of a girl who sacrificed herself to save the man she adored, from prison. Also, a clever 2 reel comedy "Failure."

MONDAY, DECEMBER 14:

"THE BLOODHOUND," starring BOB CUSTARD. Smiling Bob comes again to thrill you and cheer you, as McKenna, crack agent of the Northwest Mounted. Known as the bloodhound because he never fails to get his man. A rattling tale of the Northwest Mounted Police. A dramatic thriller straight to the bullseye. Also, Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and single reel Pathe Comedy.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 15 AND 16:

"THE BEAUTIFUL CITY," featuring RICHARD BARTHELMESS and DOROTHY GISH. Our Dick as the flower seller, they called dreamer, failure. Beautiful Dorothy Gish, as "Mollie," his girl, whose tender love heals pain, their fight to crawl from the shadows of the Ghetto into the sunshine of the beautiful city beyond makes this the most inspiring drama of their glorious careers. This is a dramatic gem and with such a cast who would think of missing it. Also, Mack Sennett's latest scream, "The Caretaker's Daughter." It's there.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 17:

"GO STRAIGHT," with the following all star cast: Owen Moore, Gladys Hulette, Mary Carr, George Fawcett, Robert Edison and Francis McDonald. A thrilling story of a beautiful girl who led a gang of crooks to breathless daring. Their amazing adventures started in the homes of New York millionaires and terminated in the world famous movie studios at Hollywood. Let the beautiful bobbed hair bandit rob you of the blues and steal your heart away. We could not pick out a better one. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18:

"PROUD FLESH," featuring ELEANOR BORDMAN, HARRISON FORD and PAT O'MALLEY. This is a classic picture of the eternal San Francisco, past and present. A story of intense drama and passion. There is a solidarity, a warmth and a glow about it. It entertains and absorbs and provokes and spurs the imagination. And we watch the triumph of laughing courage over the solemn snobbery of the past. Where can you see them any better? Also, 7th chapter of the "WILD WEST" serial.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11 AND 12:

LEON EARL and DOROTHY GISH in "CLOTHES MAKE THE PIRATE." Just try to keep from laughing. One of the season's greatest comedies, and we don't mean maybe. Also, 2 reel comedy, "Thundering Landlords."

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, DECEMBER 18 AND 19:

TOM MIX in "RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE." One more Mix picture and it sure is a whale.

Come to the "Watchman" office for High Class Job work.

Christmas is a Delightful Festival—but it leaves some of us feeling poor. There is much expense attending its celebration, for we all find pleasure in giving.

Can we make it easier? Certainly, by putting aside a small sum every week.

PLEASANT GAP.

A foot uttereth all his mind, but a wise man keepeth it till afterwards.

Fear God and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of mankind.

Our good neighbor, Mrs. Shuey, is delighted. She says her baby has two lovely new teeth.

The Misses Margaret Keller, Helen Noll and Christine Weaver spent Sunday at State College.

It may seem singular, nevertheless it is true, that Judge Keller's picture is the only one of the late judicial aspirants that now graces the windows of Noll Bros. store.

The changeable weather is materially interfering with Henry Noll's flights in the air with his airplane. Henry is hoping for an open winter as well as an early spring.

Our hunting club had their limit of deer on Thursday morning last. They remained in camp until Saturday with a view of capturing a bear or two, but in this they failed, since bear are not as plentiful as deer.

Barber Crissman, after selling his home, has moved his family to State College, but continues to run his barber shop here as usual for the time being. He is an expert tonsorial artist, and should he finally determine to abandon his profession here such a course would be regretted by his many patrons.

There is a distressing condition of the system marked by inability to sleep, when, through the dreary watches of the silent night repose is solicited in vain and the individual rises in the morning, even more exhausted than when retiring, in hopes of rest. Whatever increases this power whether it be balls, assemblies, concerts, grief, joy, or bodily pain, or oppression of the stomach by late suppers of intemperance, is to be expected to repose. By them the mind is excited to a pitch of unnatural action, from which it is necessary it should descend before it can roll into the calm channel of sleep. The ticking of a clock has this effect with very sensitive people, when unaccustomed to it, a candle burning in the chamber has the same effect. For the same reason the light of day pouring into a window may awaken us from slumber.

I had the satisfaction of hearing the able address of our President, over our radio, on Monday, at noon, and must say that I was agreeably surprised at the sound logic expressed before his farmer's meeting in Chicago. He seems to be in his element when talking before a farmer audience. However, this is to be expected since he was raised and educated as a farmer boy. When a great and good man comes to the front, he adds to the capital of brains and hearts; he bestows on his fellow-men the advantages of his learning and culture, his experience and eloquence, his talents and his genius. He encourages education, literature, art, science and human progress in all its highest and noblest phases. He will have courage enough to stand up in the face of fashion and wealth, and tell the truth as he understands it. Our President seems to be a teacher of taste and judgment, whose well balanced mind is controlled by common sense and judgment. His talk on this occasion was applauded and apparently appreciated by the farmers.

The question was asked a few evenings ago as to why song writer Foster selected Suanee River for his soul stirring southern melody. Quite interesting is the history of this southern darkey melody, from the fact that the song was written and the name fitted to it afterwards. I will here give in a conversation between two friends the circumstances which gave to it its name.

"Did you ever hear how 'Suanee River' was written?"

"Do not think I ever did."

"Well, Stephen C. Foster was in the zenith of his popularity when he wrote the words," said my friend to me. "He had written in the frame house, on Sandusky street, in Allegheny, but he couldn't find the name of a river that suited him. Finally he went over to the office of his brother, Morrison Foster, sat down at his desk and said: Morrison I've got a new darkey song here, and it's complete except the name of the river. I want a southern river with only two or three syllables. Give me one, won't you? Morrison suggested several, but they didn't suit. Then he took down an atlas, ran his eye over a map of the southern States for a few minutes and finally said: Here is a river in Florida by the name of Suanee; how will that do? That's it, that's it, exclaimed the song writer. It's just what I want."

Stephen never thought much of his song until it reached the zenith of its popularity. He was a great natural song writer, his favorite, "Old Kentucky Home," will echo and re-echo in the air as long as our world endures. I knew Steve personally and intimately while he resided in Pittsburgh. He thought New York city would be a more prolific field for his labors. He moved there and I regret to say died in a hovel. He indulged too freely in horizontal refreshments.

Shortly after he joined the Rossman hunting club, on Monday, W. E. Halenig, of Shamokin, found a baby buck in the last stages of exhaustion, the result of having had one hind leg shot off several days previous. The matter was reported to game warden Harris.

Many hunting parties broke camp the latter part of the week and came home owing to the rainy weather. Some of them went back to the woods again on Monday, and next week we will be able to give a complete report of the kill. One of the lucky day hunters, on Monday, was young J. Herman Everts, who shot a nice four point buck in the Barrens. As he is not yet of age he is quite proud of his feat. Rev. Schlitzer is here from Philadelphia hunting with the Pine Grove Gun club, which has three bucks to its credit.

A delightful birthday surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Williams, on Tuesday evening, in honor of Mrs. Williams' birthday anniversary. That good lady had no idea of the gathering, hence it proved all the more delightful when members of her family and a host of friends invaded her home, heavily laden with good things to eat and many beautiful presents. It is needless to say the evening proved a most delightful one for all. Mrs. Williams, whose maiden name was Miller, was born at Rock Springs and her entire life has been spent in the western end of the county.

Dog to Die for Chewing U. S. Flags Over Graves.

Stamford, Conn.—Arnold Kurth, dog warden, has in his kennels a mongrel found guilty of repeated attacks on the American flag. The dog was caught as a result of complaints that flags over the graves of soldiers and sailors in Woodland cemetery had been chewed to rags.

Kurth passed several days watching at the cemetery and caught the mongrel after it had chewed a flag. The animal will be killed.

Hornets Wise Builders.

Hornets use dried wood from dead trees in making their nests. Occasionally they use old paper. By the mandibles of the hornet the wood or paper is mixed with a salivary secretion and made into pulp, which is easily molded into form when moist. It dries into a papery substance possessing considerable tenacity.

MEDICAL.

All Worn Out?

So Was Mr. Cowher, Who Tells His Experience.

Are you tired all the time; worn out night and day? Does your back ache as if it would break? Do you suffer dizziness, headaches, rheumatic twinges or distressing urinary disorders? You have good cause, then, to be alarmed about your kidneys. Do as many of your town folk recommend. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. This Bellefonte case is convincing:

H. D. Cowher, proprietor of clothing store, S. Allegheny St., says: "After a cold, my kidneys bothered me and I was annoyed with a constant, dull pain in my back. When I stooped, a catch took me across my kidneys and it was only with difficulty I could straighten. My kidneys were sluggish and the secretions did not pass often enough. It didn't take much to make me feel tired and worn-out. I bought Doan's Pills at the Mott Drug Co. and they fixed me up in good shape."
