

The TELEPHONE CONSOLIDATION

ON January 1, 1926, this company will take over by purchase the property of the Penn State Telephone Company. This will bring about the elimination of the wasteful duplication of telephone facilities in a large part of central Pennsylvania.

The work of physically consolidating the two plants is completed at the following points and former Penn State subscribers in these places will receive full Bell service beginning January 1:

Altoona	Centre Hall	Lewisburg	Milton	Shenandoah
Ansville	Frackville	Lebanon	Minersville	Spring Mills
Ashland	Girardville	Mt. Gretna	Orwigsburg	State College
Belwood	Holidaysburg	Mahanoy City	Palmira	Strasburg
Boalsburg	Lock Haven	Millersville	Schuylkill Haven	Tyrone
		Millheim

At the following places, it will require some time to effect a unification of the service but every effort is being made to push the work to completion:

Bellefonte	Gap	Lancaster	Quarryville	Sunbury
Christiana	Jersey Shore	Lititz	Shamokin	Northumberland
East Petersburg	Kulpmont	Manheim	Snow Shoe	Tamaqua
Ephrata	Lampeter	Mt. Carmel	St. Clair	Tremont
		Pottsville

There are certain toll changes of which the subscribers affected have been notified. Bills will be sent out in January in accordance with the regular billing practices of the company.

We appreciate the responsibility which rests on us in furnishing a complete telephone service in these communities. It is our aim to merit the confidence of all of our subscribers—old and new—by rendering the best telephone service that is humanly possible.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

NOLL.—Mrs. Mary Hamilton Noll, widow of the late Hon. John Noll, passed away at her home on east Bishop street at five o'clock on Tuesday evening, following a lingering illness of almost two years, the result of a stroke of paralysis.

A daughter of James and Hannah Waddle Hamilton she was born on the farm near Pleasant Gap on March 31st, 1851, hence was in her seventy-fifth year. On October 6th, 1870, she married John Noll and the first few years of their married life were spent at Pleasant Gap. They then moved to Bellefonte and this has been her home ever since. She was a life-long member of the Methodist church and a woman who was devoted to her home life and family.

Her husband died on October 10th, 1923, but surviving her are three children, Charles T. Noll, of Homestead; Mrs. George N. VanDyke, of Cheltenham, and Miss H. Roberts, at home. Her only surviving sister is Mrs. Sarah Satterfield, of Bellefonte.

Rev. Homer C. Knox of the Methodist church, will have charge of the funeral services which will be held at 2:30 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon, burial to be made in the Union cemetery. In connection with her passing a friend contributes the following:

Now at last her journey's ended,
And all cares have been laid down;
She has heard the welcome message,
Enter in, thy work is done.
So, dear mother, while we miss you,
And we gaze with tear-dimmed eyes,
Well we know that thou art waiting
In that home beyond the skies.

Beyond the chilly winds and gloomy skies,
Beyond death's portal there is a land where beauty never dies.
Whose life is never doomed by shade but blooms eternal.

Where death at last shall set me free,
and swift to him my soul shall fly.
Oh, may my shout triumphant be,
I am the Lord's for evermore.

MEEK.—Mrs. Nellie Rhoades Meek died suddenly at her country home near Harrisburg on the night of October 23rd, 1925. She had suffered more or less for years with a heart affection, but was in her customary health when she left her home in the city on that afternoon to spend the week-end in the country. She was stricken four hours later and died before a physician or her children could reach her bedside.

Mrs. Meek was the widow of the late Walter E. Meek, born in Ferguson township and later a prominent merchant of Houtzdale, who died about 1896. Of their children three survive, a son and a daughter in Harrisburg, and a son in Boston. The oldest son, Alden, died several years ago. She was a woman of unusual culture and refinement and of a splendid christian character. Funeral services were held in Harrisburg on Monday, October 26, and interment made in that city.

MOYER.—Franklin Moyer, an old time resident of Potter township, died quite suddenly at noon on Monday, while sitting in his easy chair at the home of his son, Archie Moyer, in Centre Hall. Apoplexy was given as the cause of death.

He was eighty-four years old and a retired farmer. His wife died seven years ago but surviving him are the following children: Mrs. W. F. McKinney, of Potters Mills; Mrs. Abbie Long, of Coburn; Allen F. Moyer, of Vandegrift; Mrs. Bruce Runkle and Archie, of Centre Hall. Rev. F. F. Greenhoe, of the Lutheran church, had charge of the funeral which was held yesterday morning, burial being made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

TEST.—George Stephen Test died at his home at Cold Spring farm, near Philipsburg, on Sunday morning, as the result of a heart attack. He was seventy-five years old and was born in the house in which he passed away. He followed farming and dairying all his life and was renowned as a hunter of wild game. He never married but is survived by one sister and a brother, Miss Virginia, who made her home with him, and Frank Test, of Philipsburg. Burial was made in the Philipsburg cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

AUMAN.—Nevin A. Auman, a well known resident of Millheim, died last Friday morning as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained the day previous, aged over sixty-five years. For a number of years he conducted a grocery store and ice cream parlor in that place but of late had lived a retired life. He is survived by his wife but no children. Burial was made in the Millheim cemetery on Monday morning.

Threshermen Will Meet Tomorrow.

The annual meeting of the Centre county Threshermen and Farmers' Protective association will be held in the grand jury room at the court house on Saturday, December 19th, at 10 o'clock a. m. Officers will be elected and delegates appointed to attend the annual convention of the State association to be held in Harrisburg January 21st and 22nd. Other important business will also be considered. A representative from the State association will be present and address the meeting. Every thresherman, saw mill man and farmer will find it of interest to attend.
