Bellefonte, Pa., January 15, 1926.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. basket ball team defeated the Jersey Shore team on Wednesday night by the score of 30 to 17.

According to the government statistics 15 per cent of the farms in Centre county have silos. There are 316 silos in the county.

Rev. Victor Jones, of Altoona, will preach in the Reformed church at 10:45 o'clock on Sunday morning. No service in the evening.

The Catholic Daughters of America will hold a card party in their rooms above Lyon's store Friday, January 15th. Admission, 25 cents.

The student enrollment at State this year has been the largest in the history of the institution. 3814 students are enrolled in all departments, which is a gain of 193 over last year.

St. Mary's Guild will hold a card party at the parish house of St. John's Episcopal church Tuesday evening, January 19th, at 8 o'clock. Admission, 50 cents. The public is invited.

The first real snow of the winter fell in Centre county last Friday night and on Saturday morning there were just 81 inches of "the beautiful" on the ground. It was light, dry and easy to shovel, however.

A friendly little note from John H. Martin, of Clearfield, reminds us that it was his fortieth annual contribution. We like the "annual" idea. If all would remit annually the lot of the country newspaper man would be a happy one indeed.

Governor Pinchot, on Monday, appointed ex-Judge Arthur C. Dale, of Bellefonte, counsel for the State sanitary water board. It is a specially created job and it is understood that the Governor has the power to fix the salary, but the figure has not been made public.

William Chambers, a state policeman whose home is said to be in Philipsburg, Pa., is under arrest in Berks county for accepting a bribe of $1,000 and tipping off proprietors of a brewery in Reading that a raid was contemplated on their plant. Chambers was also dismissed from the force.

Why spend your evenings at home moping around the house when the scenic offers two hours of splendid entertainment at a price any one can afford. Go and see the wonderful motion pictures being shown there every evening in the week. They are all worth seeing and will interest you. Get the movie habit and see them all.

Two young men, posing as State College students are taking subscriptions for a magazine they call "Uplook" which they represent to be published at the State College. Nothing is known of the magazine at State and the men are probably impostors. Don't subscribe. You'll probably never hear again of the price you give them.

The recent arrival of a captured German cannon on the campus of the Pennsylvania State College fulfills a request to the War Department made seven years ago by Dr. E. E. Sparks, then president of the college. The cannon is a big one, a 155 millimeter, long range gun with high angle of fire and is of the type used by the Germans in their attack on Verdun. The gun will probably be placed on the front campus near the college armory.

Two or more Bellefonte people are anxious to see a man representing himself to be H. H. Lewis, of Tyrone, a professional upholsterer. The man came here and contracted to do certain repairs to upholstered furniture and after doing a portion of the work collected the money and disappeared, and never returned to complete the jobs. Whether he is the real Mr. Lewis, of Tyrone, or an impostor, has not yet been revealed, but he carried Mr. Lewis' business card with him.

Among recent shifts in the engineering corps of the State Highway Department we note that two officials recently located in Bellefonte have been affected. D. C. Stackpole has been transferred from Philadelphia to Scranton and C. H. Buckius from Scranton to Allentown. The latter, it will be recalled, is the gentleman who lost an election bet and had to make good by rolling a peanut from "the Diamond" to the railroad crossing on High street. He had to roll the nut with a pike pole.

This is Ford Week.

All over the country Ford dealers are devoting this week to a special display of the 1926 models of the Ford cars and the many new kinks in equipment that have been added.

The new Ford is a long step forward in development in the transition of a "flivver" into a regular car. Bodies are longer and lower, giving better lines. There are new style curtains, windshield wings and wipers and all the little refinements that go with the high priced car.

You are invited to call at the Beatty Motor Co., sales rooms in Bellefonte or those of the Nityny Motor Co., of State College, and see for yourself the beauty and smartness of all types of the 1926 Ford.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING.

President Charles M. McCurdy is Optimistic as to Business Conditions.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the First National Bank, of Bellefonte, was held in the banking house on Tuesday morning. All the old members of the board of directors were elected, as follows: Charles M. McCurdy, Col. W. Fred Reynolds, George M. Gamble, Charles C. Shuey, Henry S. Linn, James C. Furst, Thomas B. Beaver and Dr. David Dale. Mr. Furst was elected secretary of the board and the bank's officers were re-elected as follows: Charles M. McCurdy, president; W. Fred Reynolds, vice president; James K. Barnhart, cashier; C. E. Robb, assistant cashier.

President McCurdy submitted a report showing that the year 1925 had been the most successful in the history of the bank, substantial gains showing in all departments. Total resources increased $175,000 and are now $2,500,000. The large increase in local loans, from $925,000 to $1,146,000, is a gratifying indication of expanding business in this banking district, while the steady growth in the savings department shows an increasing spirit of thrift among the people of Bellefonte and Centre county. Capital for new enterprises comes from savings alone. There is no other source of supply. This civilization cannot advance unless people save.

President McCurdy is quite optimistic as to future business conditions. Speaking of conditions in general he said: The past year has been noticeable in that it has witnessed a very general recovery in business. While some of the basic industries, like coal and copper, have not shared in this recovery, it has brought about better conditions in almost all other industries, including agriculture, and the outlook for the farmer is cheerful.

In our community, largely dependent as we are on the stable industry of farming, we are not subject to the violent changes that affect some industrial centers. Yet we share in any general business improvement through the advance in the price of securities. Many thousand shares of investment stocks are held here, and the recent large advance in price and increased returns has made the holders of these securities feel prosperous and induced more liberal expenditures, thus adding to the volume of business. Unless politics puts its ugly imprint on business through hostile and impracticable legislation, which, under present conditions is not probable, we see no reason to doubt that the coming year will show increased activity in all branches of business.

Judge Keller Shakes the Plum Tree a Second Time.

Judge Harry Keller shook the plum tree again on Monday morning and the following drew appointments as the court attaches: Court crier, Thomas Fleming; court messenger, Fred B. Healy; tipstaffs, Cyrus W. Hunter, George J. Weaver, Harry W. Flack, James H. Rine and William R. Houser. All the above are residents of Bellefonte with the exception of Mr. Hunter, who lives at Stormstown. Mr. Fleming, Mr. Hunter and Mr. Weaver are reappointments. Mr. Healy takes the place of Charles Smith; Mr. Flack replaces George W. Eaton, of Blanchard; Mr. Rine takes the place of G. W. Rees and Mr. Houser will fill the chair heretofore occupied by Peter F. Keichline.

The court crier draws down five dollars a day or any portion of a day that he appears in court while the other officers are paid four dollars. During the past year there were over one hundred days of open court, so that the pay amounts to a tidy sum in a year.

Freight Wreck on Lewisburg.

As the Lewisburg freight, west-bound, was rounding Griffith's curve, two miles south of Bellefonte, shortly after seven o'clock last Thursday evening, a car load of lumber on the rear of the train jumped the track and pulled off the caboose, the latter turning completely over two times and landing almost at the bottom of the embankment on Logan's branch. Flagman Newton Rhone and brakeman Charles Cupp were riding the caboose and both were tossed about in the general mixup when the caboose started rolling down the embankment. Rhone was unconscious when removed and both men were brought to the Centre county hospital. At first it was feared that Rhone had sustained serious head injuries but by Friday evening it developed that he was not seriously hurt. Cupp's injuries were also of a superficial character.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Active Year.

The American Legion auxiliary held its first meeting in the New Year last Thursday evening. The new officers for the year are:

Mrs. J. B. Payne, president; Mrs. J. H. Rider, vice president; Mrs. Clair Lyons, secretary; Mrs. Robert Willard, treasurer; Mrs. W. B. Lyons, chaplain; Miss Marguerite Lambert, historian;

The card parties conducted by the Auxiliary during the past year will be continued during 1926. The first one of the season held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Everyone who enjoys an evening playing cards, is cordially invited to attend any of the parties.

Woman's Club to Give Plays.

The Woman's Club of Bellefonte will present two one-act plays on Monday, January 25th, at 8 p. m., in the parish house of St. John's Episcopal church. These plays are being presented not only with the desire to entertain the club members and their friends, but in the hope of raising a small sum to assist in the civic work of the club. All persons interested in an evening's entertainment of this sort are invited to attend for the admission of 25 cents. Tickets can be obtained from Mrs. Gregg Curtin, Mrs. Samuel M. Shalleross, Mrs. Russell Blair, and Mrs. Hugh Quigley. Through the kindness of F. P. Blair & Son tickets may also be purchased at that store.

Catholic Church Damaged by Fire.

About nine o'clock on Monday morning fire was discovered in the Christmas decorations in St. John's Catholic church, and though the firemen responded as quickly as possible one of the wooden altars was almost completely burned before the flames were extinguished. While the primary damage done in the destruction of the altar was not very great, the beautiful fresco work of the interior of the church was almost ruined by the smoke and it may be necessary to have the interior done over entirely.

At four o'clock on Monday morning the Logan fire company received a call from Sunnyside where a gentleman of foreign birth set fire to his clothing and bed while smoking a cigarette in bed. Neighbors carried the burning bed out of the house and the fire company was not called upon to respond.

Airmail Pilot Notes Long Distance Visibility Last Thursday Night.

Airmail pilot L. T. Bertaud, flying the night mail from New York to Cleveland last Thursday night, is authority for the declaration that in all his flying he does not recall a night when the visibility was as perfect as that night. He avers that from the time he rose in the air at Hadley field, N. J., until he descended for the Bellefonte landing field he could see the powerful revolving beacon light on the top of the Elverson building, in Philadelphia; and also before landing in Bellefonte he could see the city lights in Altoona, Johnstown and Pottsville. Twelve of the beacon lights along the blazed trail between New York and Bellefonte were always in view, covering an approximate distance of one hundred and fifty miles. Pilot Bertaud flew at a height of four thousand feet, which was above all the mountain tops in Pennsylvania.

Grateful Students Remember Stricken Instructor.

Former students of Professor Joseph H. Tudor, who started teaching mathematics at the Pennsylvania State College 31 years ago, learning of his forced retirement from active teaching some weeks ago because of failing health, have presented him with a costly radio receiving set and several hundred dollars in cash.

Penn State graduates of the late nineties and of the classes from 1900 to 1905, were advised of Professor Tudor's enforced confinement to his home at State College through Dr. J. P. Ritenour, the college physician. More than 100 have responded with contributions, and in addition, Professor Tudor, who is one of the oldest faculty members in point of service has been overjoyed by the receipt of scores of letters from his former students. Professor Tudor had never expected to attend church again, yet on the first Sunday he used his radio he heard three sermons and was greatly pleased with the thoughtfulness of his former students.

Reformed Church Campaign in Behalf of Aged Ministers.

In accordance with a call sent out by J. F. Metzler, chairman of the West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church, a meeting was held in the Reformed church at Centre Hall on Wednesday evening in the interest of the campaign for ministerial relief, a nation wide effort in behalf of aged and disabled ministers in the church and their widows. Another meeting will be held at Selingsgrove tomorrow afternoon.

These meetings are being held generally throughout the United States and are the first real, concerted effort being made to provide for the men who have given the best years of their life to church work. In calling the meetings Mr. Wetzel says the organization of the West Susquehanna Classis will be completed this week. Mr. Wetzel is the Classis chairman and Rev. D. R. Keener, of Centre Hall, assistant Classis chairman. The church chairmen in Centre county are as follows: George E. Moyer, Boalsburg; Jacob D. Neidigh, State College; Alfred L. Bowersox, Pine Grove Mills; C. J. Stover, Woodward; M. E. Stover, Coburn; John Booth, Millheim, and John Winklebleck, Aaronsburg.

Centre county ministers on the committee include Rev. H. A. Hartman, Hubersburg; Rev. W. A. McClellan, Rebersburg; Rev. E. H. Romig, State College, and Rev. W. W. Moyer, Boalsburg.

On and after Jan. 19th, Coll's barber shop will be located in the Bush House block. 3-1t

WOMAN'S BOARD OF CENTRE COUNTY HOSPITAL ELECTS OFFICERS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Board of the Centre County hospital was held in the W. C. T. U. room in Petrikin hall last Friday afternoon, Mrs. W. J. Emerick presiding. The first business of the meeting was the election of the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Odilie A. Mott; first vice president, Miss Mary Blanchard; second vice president, Mrs. Eben Bower; secretary, Mrs. R. Russel Blair; treasurer, Mrs. W. J. Emerick.

According to precedent Mrs. Harry Keller, elected second vice president in 1925, should have succeeded to the first vice presidency, but due to the present condition of her health she expressed a desire to retire from the board and her wish was gratified, Miss Blanchard being elected in her place. Mrs. Mott, the incoming president, appointed the following committees to serve for three months:

Visiting Committee—Mrs. Wm. Katz, Mrs. Harry C. Yeager.

Special Committee—Mrs. Ebon Bower, Miss Blanchard.

Purchasing Committee—Mrs. Russell Blair, Mrs. Blanche Schloss.

Cutting Committee—Mrs. W. J. Emerick.

There are many who do not understand how the executive board of the Woman's Auxiliary is formed. Since its origin there have been three or four active workers from each church placed on the board, and when they fail to be active members their place is filled by some other member of that particular church. Any woman in the county who pays the annual dues of 50cts. is a member of the Centre County hospital auxiliary and entitled to vote at the hospital meetings.

A drive for new members is now in progress and while many vicinities have not yet been heard from we have in Bellefonte, to date, at least 275 members. It will be of interest to many to know of a successful plan inaugurated by this board, by which independent auxiliaries have been formed in the following towns with chairmen and vice chairmen, all eager to assist materially in the needs of the hospital.

Aaronsburg—Miss Irene Musser, chairman.

Centre Hall—Mrs. Frank Fisher, chairman; Mrs. S. W. Smith, vice chairman.

Howard—Mrs. W. J. Kurtz, chairman; Mrs. Williams, vice chairman.

Milesburg—Miss Alice Rickard, chairman; Mrs. Geo. McClellan, vice chairman.

Oak Hall—Mrs. W. A. Ferree, chairman.

Unionville—Mrs. H. E. Holzworth, chairman; Mrs. George Holt, vice chairman.

Millheim—Mrs. W. S. Shelton, chairman.

Millheim so far is the only town that has given a report of its membership, which is 81. This is a great credit to a town of its size and we cannot allow our town in proportion to these other towns to fall short. Therefore, when you are approached by the canvassers, make their work easier by joining willingly and promptly.

HELEN BLAIR, Secretary.

School Directors Present Supt. Etters With Purse of Gold.

One of the unusual features at the afternoon session of the annual meeting of the school directors of Centre county, held in Bellefonte last Thursday, was the presentation to county superintendent David O. Etters of a purse of gold in recognition of his faithful services during the past quarter of a century. Superintendent Etters, who will retire from office on the first Monday of May because he has reached the age limit prescribed in the school code, was visibly affected when Prof. M. S. McDowell made the presentation and in a brief speech accepting the tribute told of his work during his long term of office and stated that many of the most trying circumstances with which the superintendent was confronted years ago have passed away. Supt. Etters stated that at the present time there are 345 school teachers in Centre county and 10,900 pupils, a very decided increase over the number when he first became superintendent.

One hundred and forty school directors were present at the meeting which was presided over by Prof. T. I. Mairs, of State College. The principal speaker was Dr. Lee Driver, of the State Department of Education, who talked on the various duties of directors in rural communities. He also answered various questions relating to the consolidation of schools, transportation of pupils, etc.

Officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: President, Prof. Thomas I. Mairs, of State College; vice presidents, Mrs. Emma W. Womelsdorf, of Philipsburg, and S. W. Gramley, of Millheim; secretary, O. F. Smith, of Boalsburg; treasurer, J. Will Mayes, of Howard; delegate to State convention, O. S. Woerner, Rush township; auditor, Charles F. Cook, Bellefonte.

At Cost.

The State Highway Department put its big snow plows in commission shortly after midnight, last Friday night, and had the bulk of the deep snow fall removed on all the highways by daylight Saturday morning.

Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R.

Both the last and second to last D. A. R. meetings have been very pleasantly entertained at the Brockerhoff house. Mrs. Harry Keller, Mrs. Wells Daggett, Mrs. W. F. Reynolds, Mrs. Edward Richard and Mrs. George B. Thompson were hostesses in November when the reports of the State conference were given, while Mrs. A. O. Furst, Mrs. James A. Beaver, Mrs. John Curtin, Mrs. David Dale, Mrs. James C. Furst and Mrs. Wayne Rogers entertained the January meeting last Thursday evening.

The December meeting was held at State College, where Mrs. W. I. Foster, Mrs. R. D. Gilliland, Mrs. L. A. Nichols and Mrs. John Stuart offered the hospitality in the warm and original manner always exhibited at that place.

Following business at the December meeting Miss Helen E. C. Overton told of Christmas in Colonial days, and then there was an exhibit and sale of articles made by hand in mountain schools—baskets, scarfs, table covers, etc. Following business at the January meeting Rev. W. C. Thompson, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, addressed the meeting and stirred his audience to thrills of pride and gratitude in their citizenship in a country founded and settled, not by such as those who came early to North America for lust and greed of gold, but by such who as conquerors came "with the roll of stirring drums, and the trumpet that sings of fame," not as by those seeking "thus afar—

Bright jewels of the mine. But by those who "sought The wealth of seas, the spoils of war," A faith's pure shrine."

—W. C. Fields, Carol Dempster and Harrison Ford all in "That Royal Girl," at the Scenic theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday. 3-1t

Football Coach, Andy Smith, Dead.

Andrew L. Smith, a native of DuBois, but better known in the football world as "Andy," died at the University hospital, Philadelphia, last Friday, as a result of an attack of pneumonia. He came east from California to witness the Penn-Cornell game on Thanksgiving, became ill and was admitted to the hospital on December 24th.

Smith began his college football career in 1901 at State College and after playing one year there was offered financial inducements to go to the University of Pennsylvania. He played there three years.

For some years after his graduation he coached eastern college football teams but six years ago went to California as coach at the University of California, at Berkeley, developing a team that compares most favorably with any eastern college team. The remains were taken to Berkeley, California, where funeral services were held and burial will be made today.

According to announcement Smith left an estate valued at $30,000. In his will he left $10,000 to provide two scholarships for members of the football squad at the University of California; $2,000 to the Elks club at Berkeley and the balance to be divided between the "Skull and Keys," an interfraternity organization, and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, of which he was a member.

Some Social Doings.

Mrs. William Kline entertained with two tables of bridge, Monday night, at her apartments on Allegheny street.

Mrs. Paul D. Sheffer was hostess yesterday afternoon, for the card club of which she is a member, entertaining at her home on east Linn street.

At Miss Geraldine Noonan's card party last night, given at her home on Logan street, bridge was in play.

Mrs. Edward Robb, of east Bishop street, will entertain with cards tonight.

—The Women Voters League proposes to keep close watch on the Legislature during the special session. It is betraying no secret to add that "the people back home" will also keep their eyes on the legislators.

—At the Scenic theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday, D. W. Griffith's latest success, "That Royal Girl." This is a guaranteed attraction. 3-1t
