

Whispered Speech and Received Big Ovation

A prominent suburbanite, who is well known as a speaker in fraternal organizations, recently had occasion to go to a northern city to make an address at a dedication.

When he arrived in the city he was so hoarse that he could scarcely be heard. The committee of reception was dismayed. "Why not take some Turkish baths today?" was suggested. "All right," he responded in a whisper, "I'll try it." So he went through a steaming process, and sure enough, in the evening his voice had come back to him to an extent.

When he arose at the meeting he apologized by saying that he had practically lost his voice, but, that after years, he would put into practice a precept of an old elocution professor, to whisper so that everyone who would be attentive could understand each word. So he whispered his speech. He was given an ovation—the greatest he had ever had. Later, in speaking of it, he said: "That was one of the principles laid down by Professor Neff years ago.

"He asserted that articulation was necessary in public speaking and that the voice could be pitched in any key or could be loud or soft. I remember as though it were yesterday when I stood on a platform in a large hall and whispered to him as he sat at the other end of the hall. He heard me perfectly. It was all due to articulation."—Philadelphia Record.

Chronic Worry Never Solved Real Problem

We all know the chronic worrier! The woman who always sees calamity ahead. Each new event that comes or threatens to come, is for her a new matter of apprehension.

To be sure, most of the things she worries about never happen, and the real problems of her life are not the things she foresees in time to fear.

But the fact remains that she squanders her vitality and her nervous system, maybe ruins her good digestion, and brings wrinkles into her face, worrying.

And she accomplishes nothing with all this tremendous waste of emotion. Things happen just as they would have if she could have remained calm and tranquil about things.—Montreal Family Herald.

Islands Part of America

The Virgin Islands in the Caribbean sea were purchased from Denmark for $25,000,000. The purchase was made during the World war to shut Germany out of a possible submarine base. But negotiations for the islands had gone on intermittently for a half century. Secretary Seward first opened the question with Denmark at the close of the Civil war. Denmark agreed, the purchase was arranged and the king bade farewell to his subjects, then Sumner in the senate killed the ratification of the treaty. On another occasion negotiations proceeded to a final stage, only to be rejected by the Danish parliament. The price paid amounted to about $300 an acre for land worth for peace time purposes possibly $20 an acre.—Kansas City Star.

Nursery for Children

Some young mothers are so exercised over the thought of germs that they won't let their babies, or children play on the floor. They let them tumble or sit up to a table to play. Now really, this seems a shame when children of all ages enjoy "scouting around" so much. No cutting table or dining table can compare with a floor for a place on which to build blocks or set up railroad tracks. Why don't these people have a nursery with a floor kept clean enough and dustless enough to be played upon? Have this room kept for the children to play in and see that they wear little house slippers or sandals when playing there and that no grown-up enters who wears shoes that have trod the streets.

The Foreman's Report

A spinster living in a London suburb was shocked at the language used by two men repairing telegraph wires close to her house.

She wrote to the company on the matter, and the foreman was asked to report.

This he did in the following way: "Me and Bill Fairweather were on this job. I was up the telegraph pole, and accidentally let the hot lead fall on Bill. It went down his neck. Then he said: 'You really must be more careful, Harry.'"

Romeo and Juliet

I can't bear to think Americans as a race are unromantic, but the evidence all around me is fairly strong. For instance, ask the average modern flapper if she thinks Romeo and Juliet are Shakespeare's saddest lovers, and she may say, "Saddest? You mean, sappiest! Gee! It's hard enough nowadays to find someone you can live with, let alone dying with them!"—From "If I Know What I Mean," by Elsie Janis.

Congenial Tree

One time as Toofus is going along the trail a leaf drops right into his hand. Toofus is pleased, stops and makes talk with tree.

Along comes Willow Plume and says, "Toofus, I told you that you must not talk to trees. People who think you are nutty."

"I did not intend to talk," Toofus said, "but this tree hands me his visiting card."—Louisville Courier-Journal

PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAY

Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, JANUARY 30:

THE SPLENDID CRIME, headed by BEBE DANIELS and NEIL HAMILTON. Here is an exceptionally fine picture, directed by William De Mille and hot off the press. For those who enjoy a sparkling crook comedy drama, laid against a contrasting slum and society background, tintured with romance and rich in humor and pathos, this photoplay will fill the bill from soup to nuts. See it yourself. Also, a first run two reel comedy, FIRE!

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 1:

HANDS UP, featuring none other than that clever RAYMOND GRIFFITH. Now here is a picture that we consider to be the last word in comedy. A rip-roarer of the Civil war period. The hero, a dashing Confederate spy, has a mad and merry time outwitting his Union enemies, battling Indians, fighting road agents and making love to two pretty girls at one time. Lincoln freed the slaves and Griffith frees the laughs. Also, Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and a single Educational reel, WHIRLPOOL OF EUROPE.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 2 AND 3:

WHY WOMEN LOVE, featuring BLANCHE SWEET and ROBERT FRAZER. Adapted from William Robertson's stage play, The Sea Woman. What a drama of the sea this picture unfolds! One of the most powerful productions of its kind that has ever been produced. It's a First National picture and has some real thrills, especially when a ship carrying a cargo of oil blows up and burns, converting the water into an inferno. Also, a Mack Sennett first run two reel comedy, HOW COME!

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4:

THE PEOPLE vs. NANCY PRESTON, starring MARGUERITE de la MOTTE and JOHN BOWERS. A rapid story of the underworld of New York and one that is packing them in all over the circuit. Here is a picture you wouldn't want to miss, so please remember the date. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5:

THE TRAIL RIDER, featuring CHARLES (Buck) JONES, in another of those fast moving western pictures built especially for him, and one of his star's best efforts. Also, 4th chapter of the serial, THE GREEN ARCHER.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.

THIS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY:

GO WEST, featuring Buster Keaton. You should see him driving cattle down Broadway. A regular Keaton comedy, check full of laughs.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 5 AND 6:

THE AMERICAN VENUS. Here is a show that ought to educate a lot of us. It has a lot of good figures in it. Take it in and you'll like it.
