PINE GROVE MILLS.

Dr. S. W. Fletcher spent last week in the City of Brotherly Love.

Mrs. D. A. Anderson is confined to her room nursing a sprained leg.

Guy Shuey spent last week looking after some business at the State capital.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Irvin spent Tuesday in town shopping and visiting mother Davis.

F. M. Charles, tinner and plumber of Boalsburg, was here on Tuesday doing some work in his line.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Frank spent Saturday afternoon making the round of the shops at State College.

Ralph Musser, postmaster, coal and grain dealer at Pennsylvania Furnace, spent Friday afternoon in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Davis motored up from Lemont and spent Saturday afternoon with friends.

Guy Rossman came in last Thursday with three red foxes. He now has a dozen fox and half a dozen skunk pelts to his credit.

Grain merchants Neidigh and Davis shipped several cars of $1.80 wheat from Pennsylvania Furnace to southern markets last week.

Postmistress Sallie Barr spent Tuesday in Bellefonte and during her absence W. F. Thompson was in charge of Uncle Sam's mail.

Mrs. Robert G. Goheen and daughter Elizabeth entertained a party of friends at supper at their cosy home at Baileyville on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kocher, of Spruce Creek, braved the elements last Wednesday and motored to town to do some shopping and visiting friends.

Miss Eleanor Musser, a student at Ithaca, N. Y., conservatory of music, was a few days visitor last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Musser.

Prof. W. H. Tomhave, of Chicago, was a middle of the week visitor at State College, where a few years ago he was in charge of the animal husbandry department.

Among the sick at present are Jerry Garner, at his home at Fairbrook; Mrs. Gordon Harper, Mrs. E. B. Harmon and George P. Irvin, the latter three on a fair way to recovery.

While working in the railroad shops in Altoona, on Monday, Paul Henry got a sliver of steel in his left eye. Latest reports, however, indicate that his eyesight will not be impaired.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Foster and daughter, Miss Nancy, and Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Kisser returned on Wednesday from a two week's sojourn in Florida, all of them delighted with the sunny south.

Jacob Harpster, who was so seriously injured in the P. R. R. shops at Altoona several months ago, is now sufficiently improved to steer his Tin Lizzie on a trip here on Tuesday to see his many friends.

Mrs. Mary Dixon and Mrs. Anna Hartwick have returned from Buffalo, N. Y., where they took a course in a French school of beauty and culture, and are arranging to open beauty parlors at State College.

With the thermometer down to twelve degrees below zero, last Friday, and the wind blowing a terrific gale, the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Harpster, at Gatesburg, was postponed from Friday until Saturday.

David McMahon, tenant farmer on the John Porter Lyon farm, is housed up with a badly cut foot, the result of a glancing axe. The injury is improving, however, and he hopes to be around by the time spring work begins.

Our young friend, Jacob Kepler, was one of the mid-winter graduates at State College this week, in the course of finance and commerce. Following a brief rest he will go to Scranton where he has a good position awaiting him.

It required the combined work of the State highway's big tractor snow plow and a small army of shovelers to keep the highway open during last Thursday's snow and wind storm, but they managed to do so and the mail bus got through on time.

Mrs. F. E. Norris, teacher of the Branch school, spent the latter end of the week with her husband, Rev. Norris, who is at the home of his parents, at Huntingdon, owing to illness. He is now much improved and hopes to be able to return to his pastoral work in the near future.

Miss Mary Gardner, trained nurse of Rock Springs, is at Centre Hall looking after the new arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potter. Mrs. Potter before her marriage was Miss Nancy McWilliams, daughter of the veteran mail carrier, W. E. McWilliams, at Pennsylvania Furnace.

Washington Camp No. 620 P. O. S. of A. will hold a three nights festival February 18th, 19th and 20th, in the I. O. O. F. hall. The menu will be varied—chicken and waffles, oysters, ice cream and cake, candy and cigars. Supper will be served at 50 cents a plate. Music will be furnished by the Ferguson township band.

A kitchen shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver P. Bloom, last Friday evening in honor of their son Robert and his bride. A large crowd was in attendance and the young people will now be able to stock their kitchen to overflowing. Refreshments were served during the evening and everybody had a delightful time.

"Let there be light," is the daily saying hereabouts, occasioned by the movement on foot to have the Keystone Power corporation extend it's service from Pine Grove Mills to Pennsylvania Furnace. A preliminary meeting looking to this end was held at the St. Elmo last week with Messrs. Bailey, Powers and Musser, of the Keystone Power, present. To extend the service will necessitate the construction of fourteen miles of line down the White Hall road. A survey of the section shows fifty-four prospecpective users of the current. Engineers of the company will go over the route in the near future and decide what to do.

BOALSBURG.

Paul Derner spent Saturday in Bellefonte.

John Wright recently spent some time in Harrisburg.

Prof. H. C. Rothrock, of Port Matilda, was a visitor in town recently.

Mrs. Charles Kuhn, who had been ill for several weeks with rheumatism, is improving.

Mrs. John Fisher and daughter, of Bellefonte, were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Joanna Kaup.

G. Willis Houtz, the dairyman, has recovered from his recent illness, and is again covering his milk route.

Frank Roberts was taken ill with pneumonia, at the tavern, and Saturday morning was removed to the Centre County hospital.

A feature at the Sunday school social in the Lutheran Sunday school room, on Thursday evening, was the presentation of a purse of money to Rev. and Mrs. Wagner.

PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAY Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6: MAN AND MAID, featuring LEW CODY and RENEE ADOREE. A story of a man who could see a woman's wiles behind her smiles. Beauty surrounded him, flattered him, adored him, but he knew it was only desire for the things his wealth might buy. And then, one day, in the arms of his secretary he found the true message of love. The airplane raid over Paris is one of the greatest scenes ever filmed. Renee ADOREE, who is featured in one of the greatest pictures of the year, "The Big Parade," is also starred in this picture. Also, a clever two reel comedy, FLAMING AFFAIR.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 8: FERBE TO LOVE, starring CLARA DOW and DONALD KEITH. A clean cut melodrama and a picture that holds up both sides of life's fabric, revealing the soft broadness of the rich and the thread-bare rags of those who struggle for existence. To society she was the ward of a famous judge, to the underworld a clever crook with a jail record. But to one man she was just the girl he loved. Also, Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and a one reel comedy, SOLID IVORY.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 9 AND 10: INFATUATION, headed by none other than CORINNE GRIFFITH and PERCY MARMONT. Where infatuation for another man tears at the bonds that hold a wife and the wife dares face her husband with the truth, there's drama that touches the heart of every one who has known love. A modern story set in Egypt—Romance Land—where lovers remember only today and pray there never be a tomorrow. You all loved her in "Classified and you will adore her in her latest role. Also, Mack Sennetts latest comedy, COLD TURKEY.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11: THE ENCHANTED HALL, featuring JACK HOLT and FLORENCE VIDOR, assisted by Noah Berry and Mary Brian. Here is a fast moving, colorful story of action all the way through. Wild rides, airplane fights, gun fights and plenty of comedy, relief and romance. This is something new and different in western specials by the direction of North of 26. Also, Pathe News and Pathe Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12: Big Double Program—LEFTY FLYNN in THE NO GUN MAN, a western picture chock full of fast action, and PETE MORRISON in ONE SHOT RANGER. Here is one that will make you sit up and take notice. Also, 5th chapter of THE GREEN ARCHER serial. Some programs.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8 AND 9: BRAVE HEART, a Cecil De Mille production starring ROD LA'ROCQUE and LILLIAN RICH. A photoplay of wigwam and camper's life that will linger long with memory, a big, dramatic theme developed with masterly skill. A love story of tremendous force, a screen presentation of primitive passion, vibrant with thrills. Also, Big Added Attraction, PROF. BARTEL, THE HUMAN OSTRICH, pronounced by all leading doctors throughout the country as a human marvel. He eats glass, electric light bulbs, coal, brick, thread, tacks, etc., and washes his face with broken window glass. Admission, 15 and 35 cents.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12 AND 13: TOM MIX in THE LAST OF THE DUANES.
