

Chemical Lime Co. Lands Big Stone Contract.

The Chemical Lime Co. was notified on Monday by officials of the State Highway Department that its bid to furnish 165,000 tons of crushed stone for state highway work in Pennsylvania during the coming summer had been accepted. A number of other firms were also bidders. Counting fifty tons to the car the above quantity will be equal to 3300 car loads of stone, which will keep the company pretty busy all summer.

Tyrone lost one of the best known of her older residents on Feb. 11, when David Tussey Caldwell passed away. The name in Tyrone years ago was synonymous with all that was progressive and important in business, social and political activities, for Mr. Caldwell was extensively engaged in banking and realty development and, besides, found time for active participation in church work and social engagements. We have very pleasant memories of the gentleman, as one of those rare spirits who win the admiration of younger men by their congenial habit of mingling with them. As in Bellefonte, Tyrone is changing. There are few left there whose names almost identified the town in the closing years of the last century.

The public sale season will open in Centre county next week and there probably won't be a day during the month of March without a sale in some portion of the county. Of course every man who is making sale is hoping that good prices will prevail but there is no telling in advance just what the demand may be.

PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAY
Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 27:
"MADE FOR LOVE," with LEATRICE JOY and EDMUND BURNS. A romantic drama of love and hate, played on Laxor's ancient site, within the shadow of the tomb of the royal lovers, with the gods of Isis and Thor watching the puppets that, guarded by fate, play their various parts for good or ill. A never-to-be-forgotten picture of a strange entombment and its astonishing sequel. Matinee at 2.30. Also, a real comedy, "A BANKRUPT HONEY-MOON."

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, MARCH 1 AND 2:
"THE GIRL FROM MONTMARTRE," with the late BARBARA LAMAR and LEWIS STONE. Here is what we call the Big Time Show. A Spanish passion flower, rare bloom of Paris night halls, transplanted to the burning sunlight of Spain: swathed in silk, fed with rare perfume—she for whose smile men fought, herself fought for the cool smile of an English gentleman. A new drama of old Spain, of the girl who danced for life, for love; of the man caught in the spell of this Spanish Passion Flower, losing himself to win her. Another great picture from First National. Also, Mack Sennett's gloom chaser, "HIS WOODEN WEDDING." Matinees on Monday and Tuesday.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 3:
"KNOCKING MOON," with LILYAN TASHMAN, JOHN BOWERS and KOCKLIFFE FELLOWS. Beneath the shadow of grotesque totem poles, basking in the light of the mid-night sun hanging low on the horizon, here romance, tragedy, intrigue, love are ever present to repel or charm. Here is something widely different. A well-directed, clever-acted melodrama with bizarre settings, filmed in Alaska locale. It will satisfy all who see it. Also, 2 reel Mack Sennett comedy.

THURSDAY, MARCH 4:
"THE PHANTOM EXPRESS," with ETHEL SHANNON and DAVID BUTLER. When the limited met misfortune and other engineers refused to take out the hooded train, a young extra climbed into the engine cab and made good. A clever railroad melodrama. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, MARCH 5:
"WALL STREET, WHIZ," with RICHARD TALMADGE. Sentimental soft and caressing as a slim, cool hand upon a fevered brow, stunts swift and spectacular as a bolt of lightning from the blue, laughter loud and impudic as a merry mountain stream roaring over the stones. The sparkling story of "a poor little rich boy." Also, 8th chapter of "THE GREEN ARCHER" serial.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.
THIS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
"THE MANNEQUIN." This is Fannie Hurst's $50,000 Liberty Magazine story and it sure is a wow. Headed by Alice Joyce and Dolores Costello and Warner Baxter. You could not take in a better one. Also, Mack Sennett 2 reel comedy, "THE BUCCANEERS," with the famous Our Gang Crowd. Great program.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MARCH 5 AND 6:
"THE RAINBOW TRAIL," with none other than TOM MIX and his wonder-horse Tony. One of the fastest moving Mix pictures ever taken.
