Sixty Years Married.—Golden wedding anniversaries are not uncommon and yet the couple who lives to celebrate one considers it a momentous event in their life, but up at Pine Hall, on Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Joan Henry Neidigh went the golden dream ten years better by celebrating their sixtieth anniversary. Their cosy home was filled with three score or more guests, neighbors and friends of the family, and at twelve o'clock the big dining room was thrown open and the guests invited to the wedding feast. And such a dinner as it was. Prepared by the daughters and daughters-in-law it was a dinner such as can only be gotten up in one of the good, old country homes. The feature of the feast was a huge wedding cake baked by the daughter Annie. It was topped with sixty tiny candles which were snuffed out by Mrs. Neidigh. Following the dinner there were brief but complimentary speeches by Rev. W. W. Moyer, Rev. E. H. Romig and others, and the afternoon was spent in inspecting the many beautiful presents received by Mr. and Mrs. Neidigh, among them being an electric lamp, the gift of the children.

Mr. Neidigh is of German extraction, his great great grand-father coming to this country in 1744. John Henry was a son of Jacob and Isabelle Neidigh, early settlers in the Pine Hall section, where he was born 81 years ago. Mrs. Neidigh before her marriage was Sarah Ann Kustaborder, a daughter of George and Katherine Rhoads Kustaborder. She is eighty years of age. It was on March 1st, 1866, that the young people drove to Boalsburg where they were married by Rev. William H. Grow. They at once went to farming on the Bailey farm, at Baileyville, now owned by D. S. Peterson, but two years later decided to emigrate and went to Michigan. Four years spent in that State convinced them that they were out of their element and they returned to Centre county, locating on the Gilbert Archey farm in the Barrens. Some years later they bought the farm and for thirty-six years tilled the soil thereof. In 1906 they retired to their present comfortable home at Pine Hall where they expect to round out their days. Mr. and Mrs. Neidigh had ten children, Newton C., Annie, Frank, J. D., William, Minnie, J. Calvin, Mary, Margaret and Blanche. William and Frank have passed away but the other eight are living and all were present at the gathering on Saturday.

U. S. to Buy up 3rd Liberty Loan.

An offer to purchase $100,000,000 of Third Liberty Loan Bonds direct from holders was recently announced by Secretary Mellon in connection with the program for the regular quarterly financing operations of the Government.

This is the second time the Government will deal directly with holders of its securities, the Treasury announcing that the first attempt in the last quarter had proved successful. Brokers will be eliminated in the proposed transaction, the bond owners dealing with the Government through authorized banks or dealers.

In anticipation of the March 15 tax payments, Secretary Mellon also announced that the Federal Reserve Banks were authorized to redeem in cash before March 15 Treasury notes dated March 15, 1922, and maturing March 15, this year. This issue amounted to almost $600,000,000 and will be redeemed at the holder's option, at par and accrued interest, to the date of the optional redemption.

Purchase of the Liberty Bonds will be made on bidding basis, with the Treasury reserving the right to accept the lowest bids or to reject all offers. Proposals must be received by a Federal Reserve Bank before March 10 and payments will be made March 23. This procedure of direct purchasing is followed, it was explained, to save commission charges to sellers and to the Treasury.

The third Liberty Loan Bonds which will be bought for account of the cumulative sinking fund sold recently on the New York Stock Exchange, above par, at 101.4. Those purchased will bear accrued interest. Payments for coupon bonds will be made March 23, and for registered on that date or as soon thereafter as registration may be cleared.

Commercial consumers—including stores, theatres, churches, schools and fraternities—will also have the advantage of one meter on the new commercial rate. These consumers may now secure their lighting service and use heating appliances together with small power installations of 110 volts single phase on one electric service.

A desirable feature of these new rates is a discount for prompt payment of bills rendered, instead of the penalty charge which was used heretofore.

It is our earnest desire to give you the best possible service, and to render it at economical rates
