

Bellefonte Wins from Houtzdale, Lost to Lewistown.

It is just possible that the Bellefonte High school basketball team lost its chance to win the pennant in the Mountain league through a case of stage fright in the first half of the game with Lewistown, at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, on Tuesday evening. With several splendid opportunities to put the ball in the basket in the early part of the game they failed to do so and in the first half Lewistown scored 12 points to Bellefonte's 4. The local quintette got together in the second half and scored 14 points to 8 for Lewistown but it was not enough to win the game and the locals lost 18 to 20. And this after defeating Houtzdale last Saturday night by the score of 32 to 18.

The Bellefonte team will play their last game of the season this (Friday) evening, when they will meet Huntingdon in the Y. M. C. A. gym at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Up to Tuesday evening they were tie for first place with Mount Union. The latter team has two games yet to play, Phillipsburg tonight and Houtzdale tomorrow night, and as both games will be away from home they may lose one if not both. In any event, Bellefonte still has hopes of at least tying Mount Union for the pennant.

The girls' basketball team went to Renovo last Friday and lost to the High school girls of that place by the score of 20 to 9. But they had a splendid trip despite their defeat.

"SKYROCKET" IS SCREEN DEBUT
Peggy Joyce Makes First Film Appearance.

What promises to be a regulation movie story and fashion show combined will be approximated in the forthcoming screen debut of Peggy Hopkins Joyce (Countess Morner) at the Scenic theatre next Monday and Tuesday. Adela Rogers St. Johns, who has tailored Miss Joyce's first screen vehicle to an exact fit for the beautiful star, has laid the locale of her narrative in an atmosphere of Hollywood society, where clothes, clothes, clothes, will vie in popular appeal with an exceedingly sprightly story. Miss Joyce will, during her interpretation of the stellar role in "The Skyrocket," put on display a collection of gorgeous gowns embodying the principal current tendencies of the stars of the screen. The cost of the extensive wardrobe necessary to properly portray the leading role amounts to a staggering figure. A $60,000 sable coat flashes its magnificent way into the story for one brief instant, is whisked away and is gone. There are other moments during the action when a chorus of feminine gasps must accompany the scenic splendors worn by the star. Admission, 10 and 25 cents.

Huge Cast Appears in "Grand Duchess" Film.

Six hundred and eighty-seven individuals appeared before the camera for Malcolm St. Clair's latest Paramount picture, "The Grand Duchess and the Waiter." Of this number, two were featured players, six were supporting players, twelve were bit players, and six hundred and sixty-seven were used for "atmosphere."

The two leading roles are superbly portrayed by Adolphe Menjou and Florence Vidor, while the supporting cast includes Lawrence Grant, Andre de Beranger, Dot Farley, Barbara Pierce, Bradon Hurst and William Courtright.

Among the bit players are two ladies-in-waiting, one millionaire, one theatre manager, one footman, one chauffeur, one doorman, one taxi-driver, one floor-waiter, one housemaid, and two peasants.

The 667 "extras" include 500 people for a theatre audience, 100 people for outside the theatre, six cab drivers, 25 hotel guests, 6 park loungers and 30 persons for the interior of an inn.

"The Grand Duchess and the Waiter" was adapted to the screen by Pierre Collings from the famous French play by Alfred Savoir. It deals with the comedy complications that result when an adventurous French philanderer masquerades as a waiter to be near a lovely but snobbish Duchess, with whom he falls desperately in love. The entire production has been lavishly mounted, so that it is as beautiful as it is entertaining. At the Scenic theatre Wednesday and Thursday. Matinees daily.

Announcing!
The New
Nittany Shoe Store
Wednesday March 17th, 1926

Take Pleasure in Inviting the People of Centre County and vicinity to the opening of Bellefonte's Newest Shoe Store—

The Nittany Shoe Store

Having been associated with the retail shoe business for over thirty years, I am proud of the fact that quality, courtesy and service was the foundation upon which I built the greatest asset that man can obtain here—the absolute confidence of the public; and in opening this new store I feel justified in my efforts to buy at all times better shoes and still charge no more—newer styles, and still fit the feet.

So, I invite the public to inspect the new store, arrayed in splendor with the greatest selection of footwear for each member of the family—a style and size to fit every foot.

PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAY
Week-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, MARCH 13:

"FIFTH AVENUE," with MARGUERITE de la MOTT and ALLEN FOREST. Taken from Arthur Stringer's Saturday Evening Post story. Just as the title would lead one to infer, "Fifth Avenue" is a story of that most famous thoroughfare in all the world. Everywhere it is synonymous with clothing, jewels, silks and satins. Few realize the suffering of those who make possible all these fineries for the idle rich. A great story. A wonderful cast. A sumptuous production. Also, a great two reel comedy, "A BANKRUPT HONEYMOON."

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, MARCH 15 AND 16

"THE SKY ROCKET," starring PEGGY HOPKINS JOYCE and OWEN MOORE. Here, folks, is a picture. A picture that is not only mightily entertaining of itself, but which also brings to the screen for the first time one of America's most beautiful, most fascinating and most alluring women. A thrilling story of a girl's meteoric rise to stardom, and her welcome swish back to the arms of her man. Taken in Hollywood, dream city of a million girls. Revealed in all its glitter and glory is a heart-stirring drama of a poor girl's rise to stardom of her dazzling career, of her pleasure and perils, and of her final fling into the arms of the man she really loved. Marshall Neilan directed it and by all means see it. Added attraction on Monday, Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and a single variety reel, "Drops From Heaven." Matinees daily. Admission, 10 and 25.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, MARCH 17 AND 18

"THE GRAND DUCHESS AND THE WAITER," with FLORENCE VIDOR and ADOLPH MENJOU. A frisky, sanest, gorgeously dressed comedy, in which a rich philanderer impersonate a waiter so that he can be near and win a haughty but very beautiful Duchess. The action takes place in Paris, the time is the present. If you like to let the laughter linger by all means take this one in. Two reel comedy on Wednesday. Thursday Pathe News and Pathe Review. Matinees at 2:30. Admission, 10 and 25.

FRIDAY, MARCH 19:

"THE PRINCE OF PEP," with RICHARD TALMADGE. Stunts and suspense, gasps and gurgles, chases and chortles, wallops and wows, sprightly, sparkling comedy, melodrama with that burlesque touch. Also, last chapter of "THE GREEN ARCHER." Also, first chapter of the new serial, "CASEY OF THE COAST GUARD," with Geo. O'Hara and Helen Furguson. Big program. Matinee 2:30.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.

THIS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"HAVOC" headed by GEORGE O'BRIEN, is one of the greatest war pictures ever shown in Bellefonte. Also, first run two reel comedy.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 19 AND 20:

"THE WANDERER," with GRETA NISSEN, ERNEST TORRENCE, WALLACE BERRY and WILLIAM COLLIER JR. A gorgeous, grade AA, super special, depicting the story of the Prodigal Son, the shepherd boy who followed an alluring siren to wicked Babylon, and, after tasting the forbidden fruit of the ribald city, was cast out and at last found forgiveness and the fatted calf. Ten big reels in this masterpiece. Also, Mack Sennett comedy riot, "FROM RAGS TO BRITCHES." Wander up to the Moose theatre and see "The Wilderness."
